

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

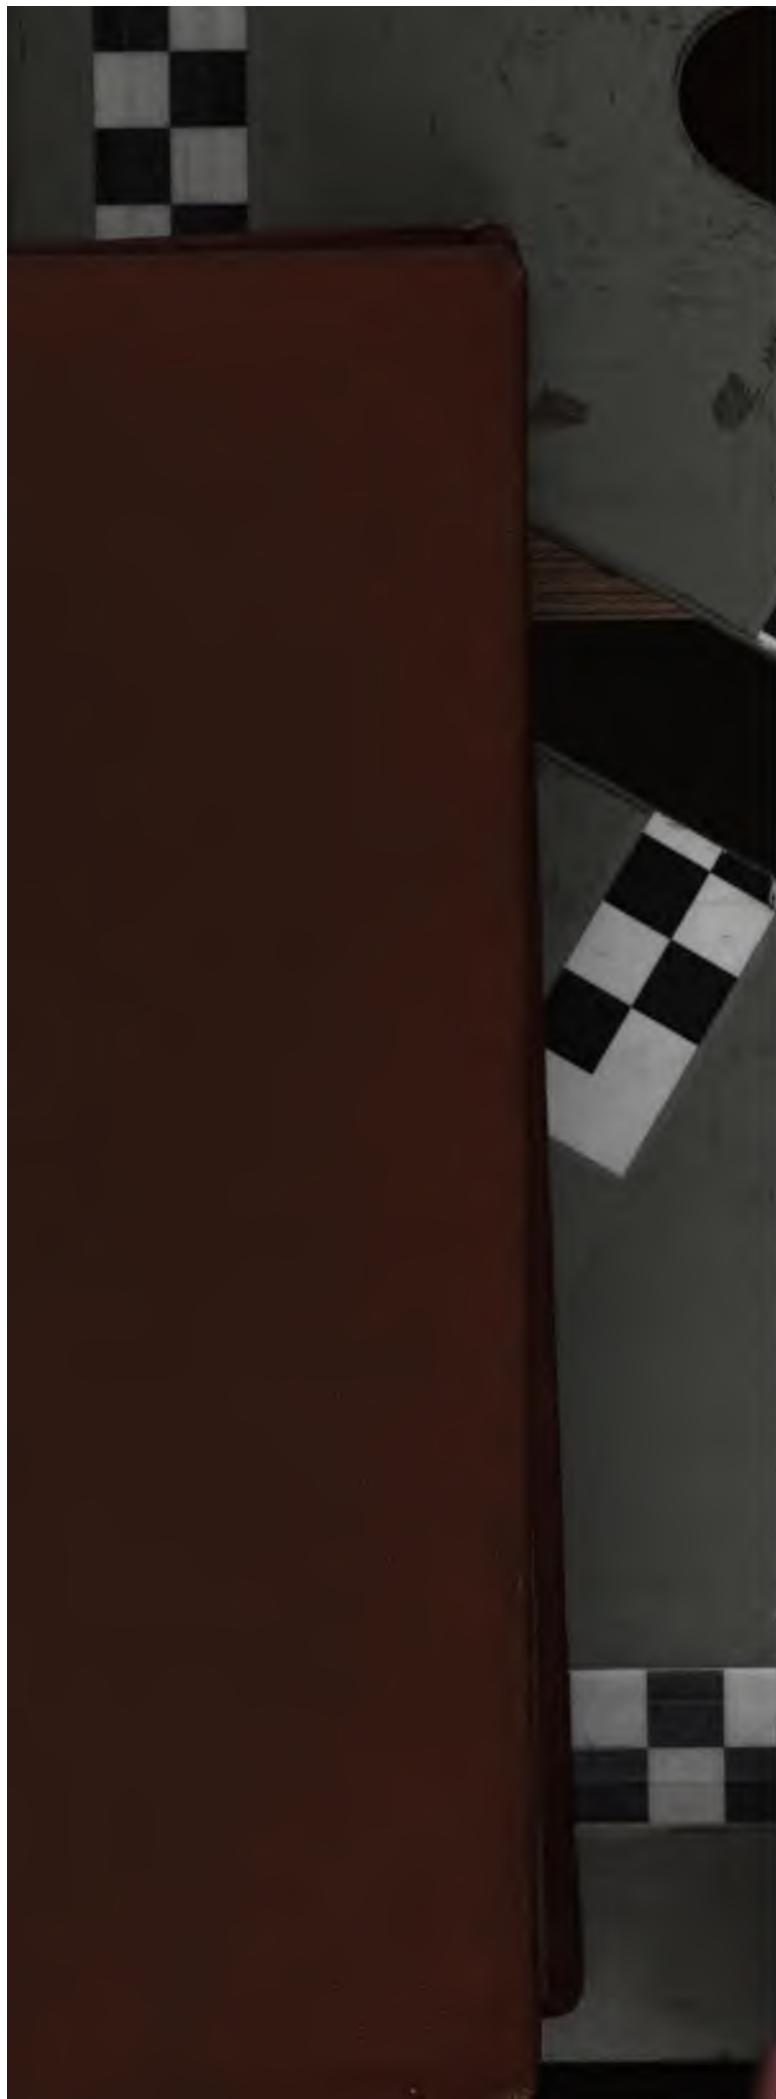

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

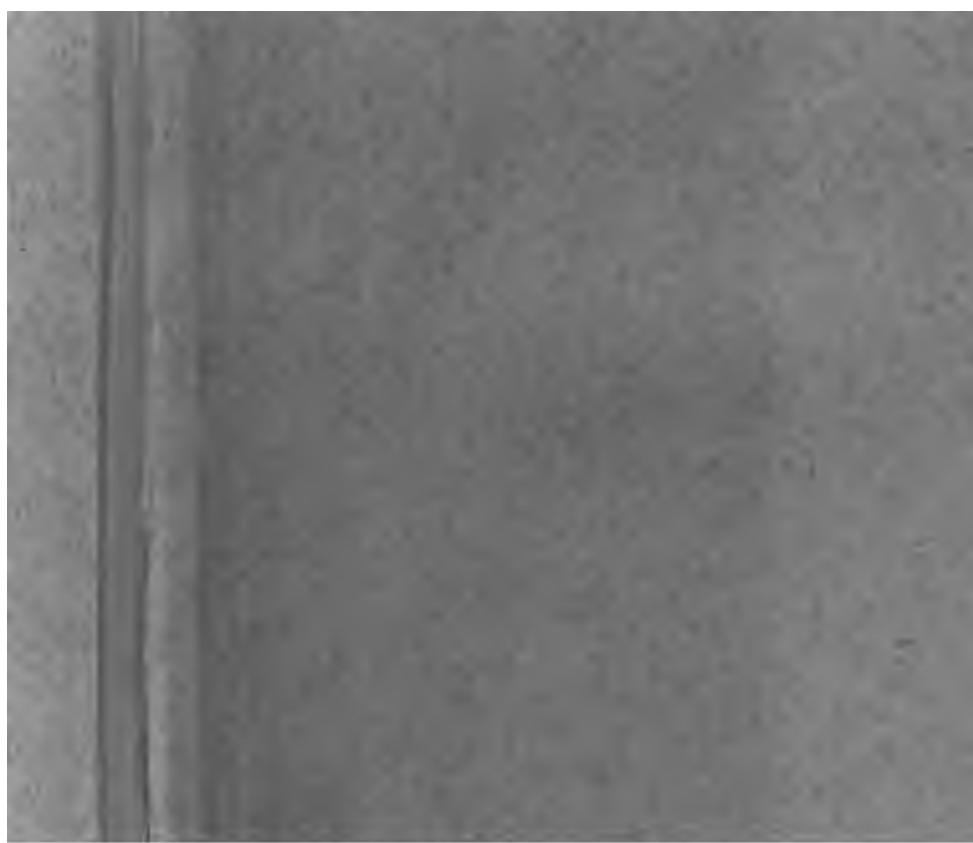

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

JOURNAL

TRINITY CHURCH, HARTFORD; }
TUESDAY, JUNE 10, 1902. }

This being the day appointed by the Constitution and the place designated by the Bishop, the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut assembled at 9.30 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Right Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Storrs O. Seymour, D.D., the Rev. Samuel Hart, D.D., the Rev. Wm. G. Andrews, D.D., and the Rev. George T. Linsley, of the Standing Committee; Archdeacon Biddle, the Rev. S. F. Jarvis, the Rev. Francis Goodwin, the Rev. Edwin S. Lines, D.D., the Rev. Hermann Lilienthal, and the Rev. E. deF. Miel, Rector of the Parish.

The Sermon was delivered by the Rev. Henry Martyn Sherman, Rector of St. Paul's Church, Bridgeport, from Psalm 84:6.

The Offertory was for the Missionary Society of the Diocese.

The service ended, at 11.45 A. M. the Bishop took the chair.

On motion, the roll-call was dispensed with; and, by means of cards deposited at the door, it was ascertained that 148 Clergymen were present, whose names are indicated by an asterisk in the list on pages 14-22. Lay Delegates to the number of 146, representing 95 Parishes, were also present, whose names are marked with an asterisk on pages 29-35.

A quorum of both orders being present, the Convention was declared duly organized.

The Rev. Frederick W. Harriman was by ballot unanimously elected Secretary; and he appointed as his Assistants the Rev. John F. Plumb and the Rev. Samuel R. Colladay.

Mr. Ward C. Powell, for the Committee to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates, presented the following

REPORT

To the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden June 10th, 1902:

The Committee appointed at the last Convention to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates in accordance with Canon VIII., beg leave to report:

That they have carefully examined the certificates of election, and find them correct, though sometimes incomplete as regards the name and location of the Parish.

The Committee were compelled to reject two of those who were elected Delegates, being informed that they were not Communicants.

The Roll of Lay Delegates, as prepared, is presented herewith.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. F. CHASE,
WARD C. POWELL,
F. W. HARRIMAN,

Committee.

HARTFORD, June 7, 1902.

The Report was accepted and the Roll approved.

On motion of the Rev. Storrs O. Seymour, D.D., the Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted without change.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

I. A number of propositions were referred by the previous Convention to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, and are considered in their report, which is in the hands of the Clergy and Lay Delegates.

II. The Directors of the Missionary Society were appointed a special Committee on the Bishop's suggestion as to the method of raising money for Diocesan Missions. They were also requested to report on the subject of "Associated Missions."

III. A special Committee was appointed to report a form for the organization of Missions in this Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

F. W. HARRIMAN, Secretary.

On motion of Archdeacon Booth, it was

Resolved, That Clergymen of other Dioceses, Clergymen of Churches in Communion with this Church, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, all persons holding any office or trust under the Diocese of Connecticut, if not members of this Convention, and the Wardens and Vestry of this Parish, be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

Under this Resolution there were present

Rev. ARTHUR H. WRIGHT and

HENRY S. HABERSHAM, of Massachusetts;
EDWARD T. MATHISON, of Vermont; and others.

No new Parishes applied for admission.

Reports from the following Officers and Trustees were presented, read aloud in whole or in part, accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal:

The Treasurer of the Diocese; (Appendix B.)

The Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen; (Appendix H.)

The Trustees of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund; (Appendix I.) and

The Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes; (Appendix J.)

Reports were also received from the various Parishes and Missions; (Appendix P.) and from

Clergymen not in charge of Parishes. (Appendix Q.)

In connection with the Report of the Trustees of the Bishop's Fund, their Treasurer, Colonel Jacob L. Greene, moved the following Resolution:

Resolved, That for the purpose of providing for the salary of the Bishop, an assessment of three-fourths of one per cent. be levied upon each Parish on an amount equal to that paid for "Current Expenses (including Salaries)" during the year ending at this Convention, as printed in the Journal of the Convention for 1902; and that this assessment be paid by the Treasurer of each Parish to the Treasurer of the Bishop's Fund on or before January 1st, 1903.

Referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Rev. Samuel Hart, D.D., presented the following

ABSTRACT

of the Journal of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Connecticut from the Convention of 1901 to the Convention of 1902

The members of the Committee elected on the 11th day of June, 1901, were the Rev. Drs. Storrs O. Seymour, Samuel Hart, William G. Andrews, John Binney, and the Rev. George T. Linsley. The Committee held ten meetings.

I. The first meeting was held at New Haven, June 11th, 1901. The Rev. Drs. Seymour, Hart, and Andrews, and the Rev. Mr. Linsley were present. The Rev. Dr. Seymour was elected President, and the Rev. Dr. Hart, Secretary.

II. The second meeting was held at Bridgeport, July 1st, 1901. The Rev. Drs. Seymour, Hart, and Andrews, and the Rev. Mr. Linsley were present. Consent was given to the election of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Samuel Cook Edsall as Bishop Coadjutor of Minnesota. The Committee sat with the Bishop to consider an application from members of the Mission of St. George in the city of Bridgeport for permission to organize as a Parish. The parties interested agreed to submit to arbitration the question of the present ownership of the property occupied by the Mission, and the hearing was adjourned.

III. The third meeting was held at Bridgeport, September 16, 1901. The Rev. Drs. Seymour, Hart, and Andrews, and the Rev. Mr. Linsley were present. The Committee sat with the Bishop for a further hearing in the matter of the application from members of the Mission of St. George in the city of Bridgeport, for permission to organize as a Parish; and after listening to the report of arbitrators as to the ownership of the property occupied by the Mission and hearing divers parties interested, the Committee voted, that in consideration of all the circumstances, the applicants be advised to withdraw their application for the present. The Bishop having asked the judgment of the Committee as to whether, in the case of a hearing under Title II., Canon 4, § ii. of the Digest, the parties might, if they desired, be represented by counsel, the Committee expressed its opinion that the parties should not be so represented.

IV. The fourth meeting was held at Norwalk, November 12th, 1901. All the members were present. George Graham Burbank, B.A., was recommended to the Bishop to be admitted a Candidate for Holy Orders. The Committee sat with the Bishop to consider the matter of a difference between the Rector and the Parish of St. Paul's Church, Norwalk, as to a dissolution of pastoral relation; and having heard divers persons interested and considered documents submitted to them, gave to the Bishop their advice and consent to the dissolution of all pastoral relation between the said Rector and Parish, said relation to terminate on the 1st day of January, 1902.

V. The fifth meeting was held at New Haven, December 17th, 1901. All the members were present. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Frederick Burgess, D.D., as Bishop of Long Island. Robert Bell was recommended to the Bishop to be made Deacon; and Herman Shaffer, B.A., and Joseph Attwood Stansfield (the latter applying for Deacons' Orders only), were recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidates for Holy Orders.

VI. The sixth meeting was held at New Haven, February 20th, 1902. The Rev. Drs. Seymour, Hart, and Andrews, were present. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Charles Sanford Olmsted, D.D., as Bishop Coadjutor of Colorado, to the consecration of the Rev. Alexander Hamilton Vinton, D.D., as Bishop of Western Massachusetts, and to the consecration of the Rev. Alexander Mackay-Smith, D.D., as Bishop Coadjutor of Pennsylvania. Robert Henderson Burton was recommended to the Bishop to be made Deacon.

VII. The seventh meeting was held at Hartford, March 20th, 1902. The Rev. Drs. Seymour, Hart, and Binney, and the Rev. Mr. Linsley were present. The Committee gave to the Bishop their advice and consent to the placing of an incumbrance by mortgage upon the real estate owned by the Parish of St. James's Church, Danbury.

VIII. The eighth meeting was held at South Norwalk, April 14th, 1902. All the members were present. The Rev. Cranston Brenton, the Rev. Charles Mason Gross, the Rev. Claude Albert Neville Pooley, the Rev. Karl Reiland, the Rev. George Herbert Toop, and the Rev. Edward Schofield Travers were recommended to the Bishop to be ordered Priests; and Franklin Hoyt Miller, Ph.B., was recommended to the Bishop to be admitted a Candidate for Holy Orders. The Committee sat with the Bishop to consider an application from members of the congregation in East Norwalk, in the Town of Norwalk, for permission to organize as a Parish; and after hearing divers parties interested, the Committee voted that it do not give to the Bishop advice and consent to the organization of the proposed new Parish.

IX. The ninth meeting was held at Middletown, May 26th, 1902. All the members were present. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Henry Bond Restarick as Bishop of Honolulu, and to the consecration of the Rev. James Heartt Van Buren as Bishop of Porto Rico. Henry Buckland Olmstead, Gilbert Edward Pember, and Daniel Hugh Verder were recommended to the Bishop to be made Deacons.

X. The tenth meeting was held at Hartford, June 9th, 1902. All the members were present. Abram James Holland, B.A., was recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidate for Holy Orders, his candidacy to date from the first day of June instant. Advice and consent were given to the Bishop for the constitution of the Parish of St. James's Church in the Town and Borough of Farmington. The Committee acted with the Bishop in preparing the roll of Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention; and having adopted this abstract of its Journal to be presented to the Convention, adjourned without day.

Attest,

SAMUEL HART, Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. Joseph Hooper, the Rules of Order were suspended, and consent was given to the reception of the following Report, which was presented by the Rev. William G. Andrews, D.D.

REPORT

The Commission on Parochial Archives respectfully presents its annual report.

The most interesting discovery made during the past year is to be credited to a member of the Commission who was conducting an investigation for other parties. He has, however, reported it to us, and it clearly pertains to Connecticut, since it brings to light the papers relating to the ordination by Bishop Seabury of Henry VanDyke, one of the four who were made Deacons at the first ordination in the Diocese, August 3, 1785. These papers were found among the Schroeder manuscripts at New Milford, and include the promise of conformity made to the "Church in Connecticut," Mr. VanDyke being then, apparently, of this commonwealth; the letters of orders, as Deacon and as Priest, the latter being dated September 16; and the license to officiate at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., to hold good until a Bishop should be consecrated "for the State of New York." It is expected that photographic copies of these documents will be placed in the diocesan archives. Of the letters of orders of the four Deacons mentioned, only those of Ashbel Baldwin now remain undiscovered. Other papers relating to Mr. VanDyke were found at the same time, together with some letters from Bishop Brownell concerning Washington (Trinity) College, and the General Theological Seminary, then (1820-1) established in New Haven.

Measures are in progress for securing catalogues of the Johnson and the Seabury papers. The former are to be examined carefully, and the results will be reported hereafter.

Some miscellaneous papers relating to St. Peter's, Plymouth, have been found, including rate bills and a plan of pews. The former are of a class from which instructive facts bearing on former monetary conditions are often derived; the latter, when the names of occupants are given, offer help to local historians, and genealogists.

The Secretary of the Commission, as copyist of Parochial Archives, has reported the transcription of entries relating to other Parishes from the Church records at Hebron, Huntington, Litchfield, Marbledale, Naugatuck, North Guilford, Oxford, Plymouth, and Portland. This task is now substantially completed, and the transcripts will remain in the keeping of the Registrar of the Diocese.

The quantity, if not the value, of this material is apparently less than was anticipated; but some of it has been of great service to students of parochial history; not far from seventy baptisms of the eighteenth century, belonging to one Parish, have been found in the records of two others. The Registrar has already, while the work of transcription was in progress, and before such a service could have been expected of him, notified the Parishes concerned of his possession of facts connected with their history, by means of lists printed in an appendix to the Journal of 1900 (pp. 106-110). It is, however, lamentably certain that various Rectors and parish officials are totally ignorant of the sources of information now accessible to them in the diocesan archives, sources which must be consulted before the former can preach the right kind of historical sermons, or before any of them can compose the right kind of parish histories. And this ignorance is due to the very common habit of not making a careful inspection of the appendices of the Convention Journals. It is hoped to make this particular form of ignorance nearly impossible (nobody can make it quite impossible), by sending marked copies of the printed lists of 1900 or of 1902, to all the Parishes named in them. It is proper to say that such lists must contain names now gone out of use, but the effort to identify the localities intended may lead to a profitable course of study in historical geography.

The action of the Commission respecting the records of the early Convocations (or Conventions) of the Connecticut Clergy, ordered to be brought to the notice of the present Convention by the Rev. Mr. Hooper, will, it is earnestly hoped, lead to measures which will result in their early publication. They ought by all means to be rescued in this way from something like oblivion, and to be secured against the possibility of total loss. What a calamity this would be may be inferred from the prefatory note to Dr. Hart's valuable "Index to Matters of Permanent Interest in the Journals," prepared by him, as Registrar, in 1897, where it is made apparent that the documentary history of the Diocese is utterly incomplete without these records. Dr. Hart called attention to the importance of printing them, as he did again three years ago in the first report of this Commission, of which he was then Chairman. That he is not such still is a serious misfortune, and would be a far greater one but for the unvarying kindness which has already made his unrivalled knowledge of our field of labor available in saving his successor from some sad blunders, and on which the Commission will still confidently rely.

Two interesting and curiously similar facts were reported at our recent meeting, which are not in any sense included in our work. But they are so far related to it, and are in themselves so deserving of commemoration, that it is right to mention them here. One is the gift to the Berkeley Divinity School by the Rev. S. F. Jarvis, a member of the Commission, of a paten and chalice which once belonged to his distinguished father, having been presented to him by an English congregation in Siena, Italy. The other is the gift by friends on Long Island, of a very ancient Communion service to the Archdeacons of Middlesex, by which it is to be used at two Mission stations.

This report is prepared under the authority of the Commission by both the undersigned.

W. G. ANDREWS, Chairman.

FREDERIC W. BAILEY, Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. Joseph Hooper, it was

Resolved, That "The Records of Convocation," now in the archives of the Diocese, be published under the supervision of the Commission on Parochial Archives, with such annotations as may be necessary, at an expense not to exceed Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars.

Notices of New Business to be introduced at the proper time were given by the Rev. George R. Warner, the Rev. Harry I. Bodley, Mr. Schuyler Merritt, Mr. E. C. Johnson and Mr. Henry E. Rees.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Hart, the Report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons appointed last year was made the Order of the Day immediately after the Bishop's Address.

On motion of Archdeacon Buck, the Report of the Committee to prepare a Form for the Organization of Missions in the Diocese was made the Order of the Day to follow the Report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

About one o'clock a recess was taken until 2.30 P. M.

TUESDAY, 2.30 P. M.

After the recess the Rev. Storrs O. Seymour, D.D., on behalf of the Committee to coöperate with the General Board of Missions, presented the following

REPORT

The Committee appointed to coöperate with the Board of Managers of the General Missionary Society, begs leave to report that only one meeting has been held. At this meeting, it was voted to act in connection with the Deputies to the General Convention in sending a circular to the Parishes of the Diocese, apportioning to each the sum asked for from each Parish to make up the sum apportioned by the Managers to this Diocese as its part of the $750,000 which it is desired to raise.

STORRS O. SEYMOUR, Chairman.

The President subsequently reappointed this Committee, with some changes caused by resignation and removal, so that it stands as follows:

Committee to coöperate with the General Board of Missions

I have also attended the sessions of the General Convention in San Francisco, and on my way have officiated and preached in the Dioceses of Minnesota, California and Colorado, and in the Missionary District of Salt Lake.

In the course of my visitations and at other times I have officiated on one hundred and ninety-six occasions, preached and delivered two hundred and forty-six sermons and addresses, celebrated the Holy Communion thirty-four times, solemnized one marriage, officiated at three funerals, and confirmed one thousand five hundred and sixty-two persons.

During the year death has taken from our Clergy list conspicuous and honored names:

The Rev. James Lawrence Scott, who entered into life on Easter morning, was both in years and in canonical residence the oldest Clergyman of the Diocese, being at his death eighty-eight years of age, and having been connected with this Diocese since 1849. For some years he was the Editor of "The Calendar," a paper which became "The Churchman." As a Parish Priest he labored until 1881; and then, for a score of years, as physical disability and blindness overtook him, he enjoyed the affectionate respect of all who knew the purity and simplicity of his character.

The Rev. Cornelius Gardner Bristol served first in St. Alban's Mission, Danielson, where a beautiful new Church witnesses to his energy and devotion; and for the past eight years as Rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hartford. In this city he had won a unique place both as pastor and citizen. At an early age he had become one of the most efficient and useful men in the Diocese. Since 1894 he had rendered invaluable service as Secretary and Treasurer of the Church Scholarship Society. On behalf of the Berkeley Divinity School he was largely instrumental in furthering the Memorial Library; and, in raising the Fund for the endowment of the Bishop Williams Professorship, he showed his characteristic qualities. Always ready to answer to the call of duty, faithful and wise, unsparing of self, public-spirited, devoted in ministration to the needs of men and in service to the Church, in the brief term of his ministry he left an example to us all.

The Rev. Dr. Edwin Harwood was from 1854 to 1859 Professor of the Literature and Interpretation of the Scriptures in Berkeley Divinity School. For thirty-six years he was Rector of Trinity Church, New Haven, and for seven years Archdeacon of New Haven. From 1877 on, he was elected a Deputy to seven General Conventions. There he served on important committees; he was a member of the first Joint Commission on the Revision of the Prayer-Book, and he was Chairman of the original Commission on Marginal Readings in the English Bible. Characterized by a robust masculinity of mind and temper, with his deepest feelings and experiences kept under the lock and key of a masterful will, he manifested always the gravity and dignity of a noble seriousness. Dr. Harwood was a typical scholar, of vast reading in theology. Devotion to truth was with him a passion. His reverence for truth made him fearless. He was not afraid of the truth and he was not afraid for the truth, nor did he ever fear to speak out what he believed to be truth. It was impossible that such a man should be content with any narrow position in theology. He was conspicuous among a number of prominent Churchmen who moved on out of the old Evangelical party into a larger position, characterized by a tone and temper at once less given to literalism and less emotional, more scholarly and thoughtful, with a wider outlook and broader sympathies. His was a mind that must bring truths into relation with each other in a large unity, and with him the intellect must have its rights. To Dr. Harwood, more than to any other man, was due the inception of the American Church Congress, an institution which has done much to moderate the rancour and to elevate the tone of theological controversy by bringing representatives of differing schools and parties together and bringing them to a better understanding of each other. The Diocese may well take pride in his memory. And there are lessons to be learned from his valiant faith in truth as he saw it, and in the living God of truth. In this day there are temptations to neglect learning and undervalue scholarship. The Church needs this type of man,—the scholar, the man who thinks, and who, after much study, profound reflection, and brooding meditation, has won his place among “those who know.”

Very recently has died the Rev. Alfred Lee Royce, D.D. For twenty years he had been a Chaplain in the United States Navy. In the late war with Spain he served in that capacity on the flag-ship of Admiral Sampson.

Among the laymen who are missed here and in their Parishes let me mention:

Mr. James H. Barnum, who for thirty years had been a Warden of Trinity Church, Lime Rock, and before that had served in a like capacity at Salisbury; Mr. Henry W. Clark, Senior Warden of Grace Church, Windsor; Mr. Frank Day, of St. Alban's Church, Danielson, and Mr. Arthur C. Northrop, of Trinity Church, Waterbury.

Four of our Bishops have been removed by death:

The Rt. Rev. Abram Newkirk Littlejohn, Bishop of Long Island; the Rt. Rev. Henry Benjamin Whipple, Bishop of Minnesota; the Rt. Rev. Alexander Burgess, Bishop of Quincy; and the Rt. Rev. John Franklin Spalding, Bishop of Colorado.

The first Bishop of Long Island was my own Bishop for nine years. The early years of his ministry belong to Connecticut. To his Diocese he has left enduring foundations. But the whole Church may cherish the possession of his reputation as a profound student of philosophy and of Holy Scripture, a sound and sober theologian, a wise counsellor and strong administrator, a preacher singularly impressive by his personal dignity and the massiveness and weight of his thought. A pronounced conservative, his was no narrow outlook. He had discernment not only of men, but of the times, and he had the largeness of mind, the candour and the courage, to acknowledge when the time had come to move forward. It was Bishop Littlejohn who alone and, as he himself told me, chiefly on his knees, wrote the paper which, with the change of the Latin "depositum" to the English "deposit," was issued in 1886 by the House of Bishops at Chicago as "A Declaration in regard to Church Unity."

In the death of the Bishop of Minnesota there was a prince and a great man fallen in Israel. Picturesque and stately in figure, a born leader, a pioneer in missionary labor, sagacious and far-seeing in laying foundations, the devoted friend and fearless champion of the red man, with the fervor of an Apostle and the daring and dash of a soldier, he made a strong personal impression upon his generation: while his simple and unstudied but potent eloquence had won the ear of the Church and the nation, and captivated multitudes beyond the sea. His name will be prominent in the Church history of the nineteenth century.

The first Bishop of Quincy, bearing a name honored in the annals of the American Episcopate, had before his consecration achieved distinction in the service of the Church and as President of the House of Deputies.

Bishop Spalding had for twenty-eight years endured hardness, "in journeyings oft, * * * in perils in the wilderness, in weariness and painfulness." He had the reward of seeing his Missionary District become a well-equipped Diocese fraught with promise for the future.

These servants of God and others we remembered at the Lord's Altar to-day. May He give us grace so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of His heavenly kingdom!

To continue the Diocesan statistics; five persons have been ordained to the Diaconate, viz.:

In St. Paul's Church, New Haven, December 21, 1901, Robert Bell.

In St. Thomas's Church, Hartford, March 25, 1902,

There are eighteen Postulants for Holy Orders.

I have this year given Licenses to twenty-one Lay Readers, and renewed five Licenses which had expired.

On the twenty-fourth of June, 1901, I signified my confirmation of the nomination and my appointment of the Rev. Lucius M. Hardy as Archdeacon of New London.

* Thomas Henry Marchant Ockford, also, became a Candidate for Holy Orders, June 12, 1902.

On the twenty-third of May, 1902, I signified my confirmation of the nomination and my appointment of the Rev. John F. Plumb as Archdeacon of Litchfield.

On the twentieth of June, 1901, I consecrated St. John's Church, Forestville.

On the twenty-first of November, 1901, I consecrated Grace Chapel, Hadlyme.

On Ascension Day, May 8th, 1902, I consecrated the new chancel and altar in Trinity Church, Southport.

On the twenty-fourth of May, 1902, I dedicated the Parish House of Trinity Church, Waterbury.

On the second of February, 1902, I dedicated the new organ in St. Mark's Church, New Britain.

On the twenty-fourth of April, 1902, I dedicated the new organ in St. Paul's Church, Southington.

On the nineteenth of June, 1901, I signified my concurrence in the election of the Rt. Rev. Samuel Cook Edsall, D.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of Minnesota.

On July thirteenth, 1901, I gave my consent to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Frederick William Taylor, D.D., Coadjutor Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Quincy, to the office of a Bishop in the Church of God.

On the twenty-eighth of December, 1901, I gave my consent to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Frederick Burgess, D.D., Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Long Island, to the office of a Bishop in the Church of God.

On the tenth of March, 1902, I gave my consent to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Alexander Hamilton Vinton, D.D., Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Western Massachusetts, to the office of a Bishop in the Church of God; and I also gave my consent to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Charles Sanford Olmsted, D.D., Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Colorado, to the office of a Bishop in the Church of God.

On the twenty-fifth of March, 1902, I gave my consent to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Alexander Mackay-Smith, D.D., Coadjutor Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, to the office of a Bishop in the Church of God.

On the thirtieth of April, 1902, I gave my consent to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Henry Forrester, Bishop-elect in Mexico, to the office of a Bishop in the Church of God.

On the fourth of June, 1902, I gave my consent to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Henry Bond Restarick, Bishop-elect of the Missionary District of Honolulu, to the office of a Bishop in the Church of God; and I also gave my consent to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. James Heartt Van Buren, Bishop-elect of the Missionary District of Porto Rico, to the office of a Bishop in the Church of God.

On the fifteenth of January, 1902, at Grace Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., I assisted, as Presenter, at the Consecration of the Rev. Frederick Burgess, D.D., as Bishop of Long Island.

On the twenty-second of April, 1902, in All Saints' Church, Worcester, Mass., I took part, as Co-Consecrator, in the Consecration of the Rev. Alexander Hamilton Vinton, D.D., as Bishop of Western Massachusetts.

There have been received the following Notices of Discipline:

From the Bishop of Louisiana, of the deposition of Frederick A. Roehl, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of Virginia, of the deposition of William B. Perry, Deacon (colored); and of P. R. Nugent, Presbyter, for causes not affecting his moral character;

From the Bishop of Pittsburg, of the deposition of Abraham Shoreland Rawlins Richards, Deacon;

From the Bishop of North Carolina, of the deposition of Edward Philip Green, Presbyter, for causes not affecting his moral character;

From the Bishop of Missouri, of the deposition of Derrick Samuel Webster, Presbyter, and of Hugo Radau, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of Nebraska, of the deposition of Joseph C. Ingersoll;

From the Bishop of Pennsylvania, of the deposition of Robert Westlake Bowman, Deacon, for causes not affecting his moral character; of Alvah W. Doran, Presbyter, for causes not affecting his moral character; and of George N. Holcomb, Presbyter, also for causes not affecting his moral character;

From the Bishop Coadjutor of Southern Ohio, of the deposition of Daniel W. Wright, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of Western Michigan, of the deposition of R. Eugene Griggs, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of Michigan, of the deposition of Ernest W. Hunt, Presbyter, for reasons not affecting his moral character;

From the Bishop of Vermont, of the deposition of John Davis Ewing, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of Washington, of the deposition of Frank H. Barton, Presbyter;

From the Bishop Coadjutor of Chicago, of the deposition of Donald D. Donnan, Deacon;

From the Bishop of Salt Lake, of the deposition of William Daunt Scott, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of Massachusetts, of the deposition of Alfred Bull Nichols, Presbyter, for causes not affecting his moral character; and

From the Bishop of Duluth, of the deposition of Arthur Neville Clagett, Presbyter.

The year since we last met has been memorable. President McKinley, foully stricken down by an anarchist, met his death with a bearing altogether worthy of a Christian. His successor has entered upon the great office with characteristic energy and with an evident earnestness and purity of intention. The national faith, pledged to the independence of Cuba, has been kept. In the Philippine Islands there have come to light acts, on the part of certain of our soldiers, that were, to use the language of the General in command there, "more in the nature of unlawful retaliation than justifiable warfare"; also measures of barbarous cruelty and of brutal torture such as we have been quick to condemn in other peoples. These revelations have aroused in our people shame and indignation. There can be no question of the President's attitude. Under the circumstances it behoves Christian citizens to set an example of respect for authority and of self-restraint in accusation, and patiently and loyally to trust the President's evident purpose that these matters should be probed to the bottom and punishment meted out to any who have brought dishonor upon the nation's name and flag.

Here in Connecticut, where at the beginnings of the Colony the first constitution, in the words of an eminent historian, "marked the beginnings of American democracy," the essential principles of democracy have recently been again on trial. It is not my province or purpose here to discuss merely political questions. It is proper, however, to say that, as Christian citizens, it is well for us, whether in the affairs of nation or commonwealth, to rise above partisan politics, to endeavor so far as in us lies that the foundations of the state be not out of line with righteousness, and to remember that nothing is ever settled to stay settled until it is settled right.

In the Church the year has been signalized by the meeting of the General Convention last October, in San Francisco. It is unnecessary for me now to speak of what was there done and not done. There have been sent by the Secretary of the House of Deputies certain proposed alterations of the Constitution of the Church, now made known to the several Dioceses in order that they may be adopted at the next General Convention in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution. These proposed alterations will be printed as an appendix to the Journal (Appendix A.), where all may read and examine them. The most important of them is the proposed amendment in accordance with which the Presiding Bishop of the Church is to be triennially elected by the House of Bishops for approval by the House of Deputies. It is worthy of remembrance that this change from the principle of seniority to the principle of election is in accordance with the suggestion and desire of our present Presiding Bishop, who, having overpassed his three score years and ten by very nearly a score of years, has the affection and veneration of us all.

More worthy of note than any definite legislation enacted is a result which could not fail to ensue upon the gathering of the Church's leaders and representatives in council on that far-off coast in the first year of a new century. Inevitably there resulted a deepened impression of responsibility, a sense of widening relations, and an enlarged vision of opportunities before the Church. The journey across the continent made one realize the extent, the latent resources, and the future possibilities of that western country, and the claims upon us of Church work there. And then, to look off upon the Pacific, to gaze, beyond the Golden Gate, on the waters that wash the shores of Alaska, the Hawaiian and the Philippine Islands, and the Empires of China and Japan, put men upon thinking how our recent national experiences and the logic of events are making nigh at hand that which was once afar off, and bringing home to us the obligation of Christian Missions in distant lands and the islands of the sea.

A consequence was that the sum of one million dollars was determined upon as the amount which the Church's offerings for general Missions this year ought to reach, and that the Board of Managers was authorized and directed, in raising this amount, to adopt the system of apportionment. In the discharge of this duty the Board has, with as much moderation as possible, apportioned among the Dioceses and Missionary Districts the amount which it is absolutely necessary this year to receive in order to carry on work already undertaken.

It has gratified me to observe in this Diocese a very general appreciation of the situation and a loyal response to its demand. The apportionment plan, it has been recognized, is not a tax, nor an assessment. It is not intended as a measure of ability, nor need it interfere with free-will offerings. It is simply a business-like endeavor to inform the Church of the amount needed for the work, to ask each congregation to give at least its proportionate part of that amount, and thus to secure success where heretofore there has been failure. The plan seems to have appealed to the common sense of our people. As I have gone about the Diocese, I have found the Parishes almost without exception adopting the plan. Indeed, some Parishes have not only contributed what was asked, but have gone on to give more. It is my earnest hope that by September first there may be no Parish or Mission in this Diocese that has failed to make a liberal offering to the general Missions of the Church. Thus we may rise above parochialism and diocesanism. We get out of the isolation and contraction of restricted views and petty purposes through the uplift of the sympathy and companionship of a concerted effort by the whole Church.

I am not without hope that in this larger and more liberal spirit our interest in our own Diocesan Missions may receive a quickening. It is interesting to note that just twenty-five years have passed since you began to work under the present Canon of Diocesan Missions. Previous experiences had forced upon the Diocese the idea that, if the Convocations or Associations, which were only voluntary unions, could be legally organized and brought into close and living connection with the Diocesan missionary work, the conviction of responsibility for it would be wider and deeper among the Parishes. Therefore at the Convention of 1877, in St. John's Church in this city, there was brought in by the Rev. Dr. Tatlock, and after several amendments adopted, what was substantially the same as our present Canon XI. At the beginning of another quarter of a century it behoves us to take a fresh hold of this work. It may lack the romantic interest of some work farther off; but it appeals as strongly to our loyalty as Churchmen, and it devolves upon us in this Diocese with a weight of responsibility which we do not share with others.

After all it is worth while to remember that there is no conflict or collision here, and that the work is one, whether it be done beside the quiet Quinebaug or the broad Yang-tse. It is all the work of Christ and His Church, work to be carried on and pushed forward in His name and for His sake. As we look at our part therein, there is reason to thank God and take courage. The number of Candidates for Holy Orders in this Diocese is larger than it was a year ago. The number of Postulants has more than doubled. Allusion has been made to the general coöperation in the apportionment plan. Evidence of increased personal interest in Missions is to be found among the men in the Church Club as well as in the Woman's Auxiliary and the Junior Department with its successful agencies for the study of Missions, and in our Sunday School Auxiliary.

To speak only of this city of Hartford, three of our lay-people have recently, one after another, gone out to the field in China. And who may tell the sacrifice involved to those who have seen their loved ones go! In Trinity College a little circle of students have of their own motion organized themselves into a band with purpose to devote themselves to the aggressive work of the Church.

It is just that devotion of self that is the thing needed all along the line. Brethren of the Clergy and Laity, in our work for Christ and His Church, it is not to-day a question of further organization. We are certainly organized enough. It is, indeed a question whether there be not too many organizations within the Church. What we do want is not more machinery, but more power. And genuine power in these things is personal power. We need an increase of personal interest, a more earnest and entire personal consecration.

Of this personal power there is but one source. "Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts." It is easy to see the danger, it is still easier to fall into the habit, of merely mechanical because unspiritual activity even in God's name. It is easy in methods of what we call Church work to regard the outside shell rather than the life within, and to lose sight of the personal motive and meaning of it all.

It is well to pray to be delivered from dulness and blindness of heart here.

When the hand of the Lord came upon the prophet by the river Chebar, he saw not only the mechanism of the wheels, but also the wings that connected the vision with heaven. It is possible and it is vitally essential for us to-day, amidst the whirl and noise of our revolving machineries, not to forget the spirit of life in the wheels.

Let us pray for vision and for the spirit that is granted thereunto. It has been vouchsafed to faithful men, engaged in busy prosecution of the Church's work, or in discussion of ecclesiastical rules and methods, to see in the midst of the candlesticks one like unto the Son of Man. Jesus Himself has walked with them, and their hearts have burned within them and their eyes have been opened to know Him. May it be so in this Diocese! May it be so with us, Brethren, assembled here and now! May He who has vouchsafed His presence in blessed Sacrament abide with us into the evening, and teach us to do the things that shall please Him, guide us to a right judgment in all things, quicken, enlighten and enkindle us by His Spirit, the Spirit of love and power.

CHAUNCEY B. BREWSTER.

The Order of the Day being now the Report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons appointed at the last Convention, (which had been printed and distributed by mail to the Clergy and Lay Delegates about ten days before the Convention,) the Rev. Dr. Hart presented it as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden on the second Tuesday in June, 1902.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons begs leave respectfully to report in regard to the matters which have been referred to it.

(1) The last Convention (Journal, pages 37, 38) referred to this Committee two resolutions proposed by the Committee to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates. The first, though suggested as a Standing Resolution, is really a proposition of an amendment to the Constitution, to the effect that "when the annual meeting of a parish neglects to choose Lay Delegates to the Convention, or substitutes, a subsequent meeting of the parish may supply the deficiency." The Constitution in Article IV. expressly directs that "each Parish in the Diocese shall at its annual meeting elect" its Lay Delegate or Delegates, and also gives authority for the election of substitutes. The Committee is of the opinion that a matter of so great importance as the election of members of the Convention should continue to be restricted to the annual parish meetings, and that it is not expedient to adopt an amendment to the Constitution for the advantage of parishes which neglect to comply with one of its express and most important requirements.

(2) The second resolution proposed by the Committee to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates was to the effect that "if a Parish Clerk neglects to certify the election of Lay Delegates, any other officer of the Parish may do so." There is no canonical or other provision at present that the election of Lay Delegates shall be certified by the Clerks of the several Parishes; and the Committee is of the opinion that a certificate of the action of a Parish meeting may be signed by either its presiding officer or its clerk. In the conceivable case of the impossibility of securing the attestation of either presiding officer or clerk, it would seem that it is in the power of the Committee on the Roll to accept such evidence as is satisfactory to it, or else that the matter should be referred to the Convention. It does not seem expedient to authorize the signing of a certificate by "any" officer of the Parish, a course of action which might lead to great confusion.

(3) The Bishop in his address of last year (Journal, page 55) urged the importance of taking more time for the business of the Convention, and expressed the opinion that it might be "better to meet biennially, and then stay longer, than annually to hold a hurried session." The suggestion was (page 56) referred to this Committee. The members of the Committee find themselves entirely in sympathy with the Bishop's judgment that the work of the Convention demands more time than is ordinarily given to it, and that it is not wise or just to the great interests involved to crowd its acts of worship, of business, and of deliberation into one day. But, in the judgment of the Committee, it would be better to meet for two days, or at least for a day and a half, each year than to hold a meeting which could not well be longer than this, once in two years. Doubtless, the amendments which would be required in Diocesan Charters to adapt them to biennial reports could be secured from the General Assembly; but it may be questioned whether it would be expedient, under all conceivable circumstances, to require but biennial reports from Diocesan boards of trustees. The missionary work of the Diocese, not to mention other matters, ought to be brought before the Convention as often as once a year. And we cannot but believe that there will be found to be a sufficiently large number of the members of the Convention able to give more than one day to the details of its work, to ensure earnest and wise consideration of such business as may be deferred to the second day. The Committee, therefore, is of the opinion that the purpose of the Bishop's recommendation may be better attained by making allowance for longer sessions of the annual Convention; and, with the Bishop's consent, it recommends no change in the Constitution as to the time of holding the Convention.

(4) The Committee was asked (Journal, page 65) "to consider whether it may not be expedient under some circumstances to permit a member of one Parish in this State to be at the same time a member of another Parish also." It is the judgment of the Committee that there is at the present time no sufficient reason for a change in the requirement that any person elected to membership in a Parish of this Diocese shall not be a member of any other ecclesiastical society in the State.

(5) It was also referred to the Committee (Journal, page 65) "to consider whether some improvement may not be devised in the method of electing Deputies to the General Convention." The Committee is of the opinion that, inasmuch as the Constitution in Article X., while it requires a concurrent vote of the two orders voting separately in the election of Deputies to the General Convention, does not require that the orders shall separate and organize separately, an improvement in the method of such election may be made by the adoption of a Rule of Order; and it recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the following be adopted as a Rule of Order, to be numbered Rule XV.:

RULE XV. At the time appointed for the election of Deputies and supplemental Deputies to the General Convention, the clerical and lay members shall be seated in different parts of the place of meeting, and tellers shall be appointed for each order. After nomination in open Convention, the President shall call upon the clerical members to vote for clerical Deputies and also upon the lay members to vote for lay Deputies; and when either order has completed the balloting for Deputies of its own order, he shall call upon it to ballot for Deputies of the other order; and he shall declare those elected who have been chosen by concurrent vote. At any time during the election when neither order is balloting for Deputies or supplemental Deputies, the Convention may transact other business.

(6) The Committee was also instructed (Journal, page 65) "to consider the possibility of adopting the method of the Diocese of Massachusetts in voting for Deputies to the General Convention and for members of the Standing Committee." The Committee is of the opinion that this method, involving the presentation of nominations in advance and the preparation of a large "Australian" ballot, is not necessary or expedient for use in this Convention.

(7) The Committee was further instructed (Journal, page 65) "to consider the desirability of amending Article X. of the Constitution by omitting the words "in the order of priority of election." The Committee is of the opinion that it is not desirable to lay upon the Bishop or the President of the Standing Committee the responsibility, which might at times appear invidious, of choosing among those elected as supplemental Deputies the one who shall represent the Diocese in the General Convention. If a change is to be made, it seems to the Committee preferable to provide that a substitute shall be chosen for each of those who are elected Deputies.

(8) The Convention still further referred to the Committee (Journal, page 71) a proposal to insert in Section 5 of Canon I. the following as (6): "By neglect to exercise any of the prerogatives of membership for a period of three successive years." The Committee appreciates the difficulty which it was proposed to meet by this provision for the termination of membership in a Parish; but it is of the opinion that in practice it would be impossible to give an accurate definition to the wording of the clause, and that the power given to the Vestry to revise the roll of the Parish is sufficient.

(9) The Committee has been asked whether an unnaturalized foreigner may become a member of a Parish. Neither Canon nor Statute Law interposes any bar to an alien wishing to become a member of an ecclesiastical Society.

(10) The Committee has also been asked to consider whether it might not well be provided in Rule of Order XVII. that all reports of Committees shall be considered as accepted and the Committee discharged, without motion, unless the Convention direct otherwise. The rule now provides that all reports of Committees shall be received as of course, but this involves no legislative act. The Committee is of the opinion that it would be unwise and of doubtful legality to provide for the acceptance of a report per incuriam without a motion made and a vote taken.

(11) It has further been suggested to the Committee that in the form of Parochial Reports the entry as to contributions to the Bishop's Fund should be made to include the canonical assessment as well as the offerings for the increase of the Fund; and the Committee recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the form of Parochial Reports in Section 3 of Canon II. the words "Bishop's Fund" be substituted for the words "Increase of Bishop's Fund."

And the Committee asks that it may be discharged from the further consideration of the matters referred to it.

All which is respectfully submitted.

SYLVESTER CLARKE,
SAMUEL HART,
EDWIN S. LINES,
MORRIS W. SEYMOUR,
GARDINER GREENE,
Committee.

The matters contained in this Report having been taken up seriatim and explained by Dr. Hart, it was Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the propositions in Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8 and 10.

Resolved, That the proposition contained in Section 5 be indefinitely postponed.

Resolved, That in the form of Parochial Reports in Section 3 of Canon II. the words "Bishop's Fund" be substituted for the words "Increase of Bishop's Fund."

The second Order of the Day being the Report of the Committee appointed at the last Convention to prepare a Form for the Organization of Missions in the Diocese, Archdeacon Buck, Chairman of the Committee, presented the following

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be held this 10th day of June, 1902:

The Committee appointed at the last Convention to prepare a Form for the Organization of Missions, respectfully reports:

That they have carefully considered the subject, and herewith present for adoption a draft of a Canon to be known as the "Form for the Organization of Missions."

PROPOSED CANON

Of the Organization of a Mission and its Admission into Union with the Church in this Diocese

SECTION 1. A Mission Station designated by the Board of Missions may be organized by the Bishop, on the application of any residents in its neighborhood. But such Station shall not be established within the parochial cure of any other Minister or Ministers, without the consent of such Minister or Ministers, except on the advice and by the consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. The form of application shall be substantially as follows, to wit:

To the Rt. Rev., the Bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut;

We, the undersigned, residents of _____ in the County of _____ in said Diocese, do respectfully represent that we have agreed together to form a Mission for the securing and enjoying of the services of the Church; and that we promise obedience to the authority of the Diocese, and conformity to the Constitution, Canons, doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States and in the Diocese of Connecticut.

Wherefore we request that we may be duly recognized as an organized Mission, under the authority and direction of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be known as _____ Mission.

SEC. 2. If such application be approved, the Bishop shall appoint a Warden, a Clerk and a Treasurer, who, with the person officiating as Missionary, shall act as the agents of the Diocese in taking efficient care of the property.

SEC. 3. The qualified electors of each Mission Congregation (not in a Parish), which has been organized under the above sections for twelve months, may choose annually on Easter Monday, or some other day legally appointed, by ballot, not less than three nor more than seven persons. The persons chosen at such election, when approved by the Archdeacon and organized, shall together with the Missionary if there be one, constitute a Mission Committee and continue in office until their successors shall have been elected and have been appointed by the Bishop.

SEC. 4. Any baptized person of the age of twenty-one years not a member of any other ecclesiastical society of this State, desiring to become a member of any Mission Congregation in this State with the right to vote may do so, by signing and lodging with the Clerk or any other officer of said Mission before the annual meeting, a written declaration which shall be read at said meeting, announcing his desire to become a member thereof, in which declaration he shall express his attachment to the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States; and the name of each applicant shall be voted upon separately by ballot at said meeting; upon the final adjournment of which, all such applicants as have received a majority of the votes cast shall become members of the Mission.

SEC. 5. As soon as may be after the persons elected as a "Mission Committee" are approved by the Bishop, they shall organize and elect a Warden, a Clerk and a Treasurer, to hold office until their successors are appointed.

SEC. 6. Three, when first organized, and after an election a majority of the qualified members of the Committee, shall constitute a quorum. Their duties and those of the officers shall be the same as those of Warden, Vestrymen and officers, as near as may be, in organized Parishes.

SEC. 7. Any Mission organized under this Canon may send one Lay Delegate to the Diocesan Convention, and this Delegate shall have the same rights and powers as has one Delegate from an organized Parish. His credentials shall be a certificate from the Clergyman or person acting as Missionary in charge.

SEC. 8. At any time that a Mission shall have satisfied the Bishop, or, in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee, that it is in a condition to support a Rector without aid from the Board of Missions, it may apply to the Convention of the Diocese according to the provisions of Canon I., Sections 1 and 2, of this Diocese.

SEC. 9. No Archdeaconry shall make any appropriation in aid of a Parish thus formed from a Mission Station, organized under this Canon, except on the condition that such Parish shall be reduced to an Organized Mission.

SEC. 10. The title of all property, real or personal, given or purchased for the use of any organized Mission Station, shall be vested in "The Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut," or "The Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes" in the Diocese of Connecticut.

All which is respectfully submitted.

GEO. HICKMAN BUCK,
J. CHAUNCEY LINSLEY,
NELSON J. WELTON,
Committee.

On motion of the Rev. Erit B. Schmitt, it was Resolved, That this Report be printed in the Journal, and that action upon it be postponed until next year.

The Convention proceeded to elect the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

The President appointed as

TELLERS

Rev. CHARLES W. BOYLSTON
ELMER T. MERRILL

Mr. EDWARD B. L. CARTER
FREDERIC C. EARLE

The first ballot resulted as follows:

FOR STANDING COMMITTEE

Whole number of votes cast, 181. Necessary for a choice, 91.

| GEORGE T. LINSLEY, | . | . | 110 |
| EDWIN S. LINES, D.D., | . | . | 107 |

These five Presbyters were accordingly declared elected.

The business of the Diocesan Missionary Society having been taken up, and the Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. Burton Mansfield, being absent on account of illness, Mr. William M. Stark, of the Board of Directors, presented the Reports of the Treasurer, the several Archdeacons, and the Treasurers of the six Archdeaconries; all of which were accepted and ordered to be printed with the Journal. (Appendix E. and Appendix F.)

On motion of Mr. Stark, it was

Resolved, That permission be given to the Secretary of the Board of Directors to file his Report with the Secretary of the Convention, when it shall have been prepared; and that it be ordered printed with the Journal. (See Appendix E.)

Mr. Stark also presented the following

RECOMMENDATIONS

To the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Board of Directors of the said Society respectfully recommends the passage of the following Resolutions:

Resolved, That a sum not exceeding $12,000, in addition to the income from the funds of the Society and other sources available for the purpose, be appropriated for carrying on the Missionary work of the Diocese during the ensuing year.

Resolved, That the sum so appropriated be apportioned among the several Archdeaconries on the basis of "Current Expenses, including Salaries," as reported in the last published Journal; and that said sum be appropriated among the several Archdeaconries, as the Directors of the Society deem best.

The two Resolutions were adopted.

It was also

Resolved, That a Special Committee of three persons be appointed by the President to nominate Lay Directors of the Missionary Society.

The President appointed as such

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Rev. J. CHAUNCEY LINSLEY

Rev. ERIC B. SCHMITT

Mr. CHARLES N. HALL

The Committee subsequently reported, nominating the following persons, who were then unanimously elected

LAY DIRECTORS OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Mr. WALTON FERGUSON

Mr. CHARLES H. LAWRENCE

HARRY H. HEMINWAY

CHARLES E. JACKSON

EDWARD E. BRADLEY

WILLIAM M. STARK

Mr. Stark also presented the following

REPORT

To the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Board of Directors of the said Society respectfully reports:

That it has had the matter of "Associated Missions" together with the different methods of Diocesan Missionary work referred to the Board by the Convention of 1900 under consideration, and has made progress therein.

That it has had that portion of the Bishop's Address delivered in 1901, which discussed the method of raising money for Diocesan Missions, together with the preamble and Resolution regarding the same subject, referred to the Board by the last Convention, under consideration, and has made progress therein.

That it requests time for the further consideration of both matters.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Board,

WILLIAM M. STARK, Secretary pro tem.

Further time was granted accordingly.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That this Society has heard with sincere regret of the sickness of Mr. Burton Mansfield, Secretary and Treasurer of the Board of Directors, which has occasioned his absence from this Convention; and that it tenders to him the assurance of the prayers of all here present that he may be speedily restored to health.

Resolved, That a copy of these Resolutions be communicated to Mr. Mansfield by the Secretary of the Convention.

On motion of the Rev. Joseph Hooper, it was Resolved, That this Convention extends heartfelt sympathy to the Rev. Oliver S. Prescott in his long and trying illness, with best wishes for his recovery; and that the Secretary be directed to communicate this message to him.

On motion of the Rev. Edwin S. Lines, D.D., it was also Resolved, That the Secretary of the Convention be instructed to convey to Mr. John C. Hollister the assurance that he is missed in the deliberations of this body, and that his great services to the Diocese are thankfully remembered. We earnestly hope that his health and strength may be restored and continued for many years.

These three messages of sympathy were accordingly transmitted by the Secretary soon after the adjournment of the Convention.

The business of the Episcopal Academy at Cheshire being now in order, the Rev. Dr. Lines, on behalf of the Trustees, made a brief verbal report of increasing prosperity.

On motion of Archdeacon Raftery, the Convention took a recess to sit as the Church Scholarship Society. (See Appendix G.)

The regular session having been resumed, the Committee on Finance, through the Rev. Frank W. Baker, D.D., Chairman, presented the following

REPORT

The Committee on Finance respectfully beg leave to report that they recommend the following Resolutions:

Resolved, That for the purpose of providing for the salary of the Bishop, an assessment of three-fourths of one per cent. be levied upon each Parish on an amount equal to that paid for "Current Expenses, (including Salaries)," during the year ending at this Convention, as printed in the Journal of the Convention for 1902; and that this assessment be paid by the Treasurer of each Parish to the Treasurer of the Bishop's Fund on or before January 1st, 1903.

Resolved, That for the Convention Fund an assessment of three-fourths of one per cent. be levied upon each Parish on an amount equal to that paid for "Current Expenses, (including Salaries)," during the year ending at this Convention, as printed in the Journal of the Convention for 1902; and that this assessment be paid by the Treasurer of each Parish to the Treasurer of the Diocese on or before May 1st, 1903.

FRANK WOODS BAKER,

WALTON FERGUSON,

E. C. JOHNSON,

Committee on Finance.

On motion of the Rev. Henry Tarrant, both of these Resolutions were amended by inserting the words "and Mission" after "each Parish," and were then adopted.

The Committee on Nominations to fill vacancies in Diocesan Boards of Trustees, and for Diocesan Members of the Missionary Council, through the Rev. Dr. Andrews, Chairman, presented the following

REPORT

The Committee on Nominations respectfully reports that there is one vacancy in the Board of Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen, and one in the Board of Trustees of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund, both occasioned by the death of the Rev. Edwin Harwood, D.D., Rector Emeritus of Trinity Church, New Haven. The Committee nominates as Trustee on both these Boards the Rev. Frank Woods Baker, D.D., Rector of Trinity Church, New Haven.

It also nominates as Members of the Missionary Council the Rev. John Binney, D.D., and Mr. William M. Stark.

Respectfully submitted,

W. G. ANDREWS, Chairman.

The Report was accepted, and the persons nominated were elected accordingly.

The Rev. William A. Beardsley presented the Report of the Committee on the Distribution of the Prayer Book; which was accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal. (Appendix M.)

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the present Committee be reappointed, with power to act in respect to the distribution of the Book of Common Prayer in this Diocese. The Committee shall report to the next Convention the amounts of money received and expended.

The Committee thus reappointed stands as follows:

COMMITTEE ON DISTRIBUTION OF THE PRAYER BOOK

Rev. WILLIAM G. ANDREWS, D.D.

Rev. WILLIAM A. BEARDSLEY

Mr. CHARLES A. PEASE

FREDERICK D. BUCKLEY

GEORGE E. BEERS

The Rev. Arthur T. Randall presented the Report of the Connecticut Commissioners of the American Church Building Fund; which was accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal. (Appendix L.)

On motion of Mr. Henry E. Rees, it was

Resolved, That the Report of the Treasurer of the Sunday School Auxiliary of the Diocese be printed with the Journal. (Appendix O.)

On motion of the Rev. Harry I. Bodley, it was Resolved, That the consent of the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut be and is hereby given to the conveyance by the Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes of the property of St. Mark's Parish, New Britain, or any part thereof, whenever the other conditions to such conveyance shall have been fulfilled.

On motion of the Rev. George R. Warner, it was Resolved, That the consent of the Convention of this Diocese be and hereby is given to the Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes to convey the title of a certain strip of land now held by said Trustees for the benefit of St. Thomas's Parish, Hartford; said strip of land fronting on Windsor Avenue, Hartford, about ten feet north from the southern boundary of said land, extending west about one hundred feet, to a point.

On motion of Mr. Elijah C. Johnson, it was Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to apply for an amendment to the Charter of the Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes, which will give the corporation the power to hold a larger amount of property than its present Charter permits.

The President accordingly appointed as

COMMITTEE TO APPLY FOR AN AMENDMENT TO THE CHARTER OF THE TRUSTEES OF DONATIONS AND BEQUESTS FOR CHURCH PURPOSES

Mr. ELIJAH C. JOHNSON

Mr. BURTON MANSFIELD

Mr. L. P. WALDO MARVIN

The following Standing Resolutions were proposed by Mr. Schuyler Merritt, and seconded by Mr. William W. Skiddy:

Resolved, That the fiscal year of the Diocese and of all Boards of Trustees and Committees thereof shall close on April 30th in each year.

Resolved, That all Diocesan financial reports shall be printed each year and sent to the Delegates to the Diocesan Convention at least five days before the meeting thereof.

This motion was lost; but subsequently, on motion of the Rev. Dr. Lines, it was Resolved, That the Resolutions proposed concerning the printing of financial reports before Convention be referred to a Committee consisting of the Finance Committee, the Secretary of the Convention, and Mr. Schuyler Merritt, to consider the same and report next year.

The Committee therefore stands as follows:

COMMITTEE ON THE PROPOSAL TO PRINT FINANCIAL REPORTS BEFORE CONVENTION

Rev. FRANK W. BAKER, D.D.

Mr. WALTON FERGUSON

FREDERICK W. HARRIMAN

ELIJAH C. JOHNSON

Mr. SCHUYLER MERRITT

On motion of the Rev. Erit B. Schmitt, it was

Resolved, That the Secretary be authorized to print 1600 copies of the Journal; one copy to be sent to each Clergyman, Candidate for Holy Orders, and Officer of the Diocese, including the Directors of the various Diocesan Societies and the Boards of Trustees; one copy to each Lay Member of this Convention; one copy to each Warden, Clerk and Treasurer of the several Parishes; fifty copies to the Registrar of the Diocese; one copy to any Public Library which may desire the same; and the remainder to be distributed at the Secretary's discretion.

On motion of Archdeacon Booth, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the Rev. Henry M. Sherman for the Sermon delivered at the opening service.

On motion of the Rev. Erit B. Schmitt, it was also Resolved, That thanks are hereby tendered to the Churchmen of Hartford, and especially to the ladies of the various Parishes, for the generous hospitality extended to the Clergy and Lay Delegates during the session of this Convention.

Resolved, That thanks are also due and are hereby tendered to the Rector and Vestry of Trinity Church, Hartford, for the use of the Church during the session of this Convention.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention be tendered to the officers of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, and of the Central New England Railway Company, for their courtesy in the provision of return tickets; and that the Secretary be instructed to communicate this vote to the proper officers.

On motion of the Rev. Ernest deF. Miel, it was then

Resolved, That after the reading of the Minutes, and the customary devotions, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The Minutes were read and approved.

Hymn 417 was sung; the President offered Prayer and gave the Benediction; and the Convention adjourned sine die.

CHAUNCEY B. BREWSTER, D.D.
President of the Convention.

Attest:
FREDERICK W. HARRIMAN,
Secretary.

CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

OF THE DIOCESE OF CONNECTICUT

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I. The Diocese of Connecticut, as a constituent part of the body known as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, accedes to, recognizes, and adopts the General Constitution of that Church, and acknowledges its authority accordingly.

ARTICLE II. There shall be a Convention of the Diocese on the second Tuesday of June in each year at such place as shall be appointed by the Bishop or, in case of a vacancy in the episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE III. The Bishop shall call a special Convention whensoever he shall be requested by the Standing Committee.

In case of a vacancy in the episcopate, unless it occur within two months of the time appointed for the annual Convention, the Standing Committee shall call a special Convention for the election of a Bishop.

The Bishop or the Standing Committee shall direct the Secretary to give public notice of the meeting of any Convention, and to send notice of any special Convention by mail to all the Clergy and Lay Delegates.

ARTICLE IV. The members of any Convention shall be the Bishop and all Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese not under discipline, and Lay Delegates from the several Parishes of the Diocese; provided, however, that no Clergyman shall be entitled to vote for a Bishop unless he have been canonically resident in the Diocese for at least one year.

Each Parish in the Diocese shall at its annual meeting elect, from the male Communicants of the same, one Lay Delegate to the Convention; and, if it consist of more than fifty families, it shall elect two Delegates; who shall represent the Parish at all Conventions held within the year succeeding their election. Any Parish may elect substitutes to take the place of such Delegates as are unable to attend any Convention.

If any Parish be composed of two or more congregations and have a corresponding number of Church edifices, such Parish shall be entitled to elect a Delegate or Delegates from each of such congregations, as from so many distinct Parishes.

ARTICLE V. The Bishop is the President of any Convention; but in case of his absence or of a vacancy in the episcopate, the Convention shall be called to order by the President of the Standing Committee, and shall thereupon elect its own President.

One-third of all the clerical members of the Convention and Lay Delegates representing thirty Parishes shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but a smaller number may adjourn.

ARTICLE VI. The clerical and the lay members of a Convention shall sit and deliberate in one body; and every question, unless it be otherwise provided in this Constitution, shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present; provided, however, that in any case when it is requested by five members, the two orders shall vote separately, and a concurrence of the two orders shall determine the vote of the Convention.

ARTICLE VII. A Secretary of the Diocese shall be chosen by ballot at the opening of each annual Convention, who shall continue in office until his successor has been elected.

A Treasurer of the Diocese shall be chosen by the Convention, to hold office until his successor has been elected at an annual Convention. The Treasurer shall present a report to each annual Convention.

In case of a vacancy in the office of Secretary or of Treasurer, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall have power to fill such vacancy until the meeting of the next annual Convention.

ARTICLE VIII. The Standing Committee of the Diocese shall be chosen at each annual Convention, to consist of five clerical members of the Convention, and the Committee shall continue in office until another election has been made.

The Standing Committee shall meet within ten days after its election and choose from its own number a President and a Secretary. Any three members of the Committee, the whole having been summoned by the President, shall be a quorum, unless in any case it be otherwise required by the Canons of the General Convention.

In case of a vacancy in the Standing Committee, the remaining members shall have power to fill such vacancy until the next annual Convention.

ARTICLE IX. The election of a Bishop shall be in the following manner: after nominations made in open Convention, the two orders shall separate, and each order shall elect its own Chairman and Secretary. The Clergy shall then choose by ballot some fit and qualified person for the office of Bishop, and shall communicate their choice to the President of the Convention and to the Lay Delegates. The Lay Delegates shall thereupon vote by ballot upon the approval of the choice thus made by the Clergy, and shall communicate the result of this vote to the President of the Convention. The President shall then reassemble the Convention and declare the result of the votes; and if the person chosen by the Clergy has been approved by the Lay Delegates, he shall be declared to be duly elected.

The election of a Bishop shall be determined by a majority in each order; provided, that if less than two-thirds of all the Clergy entitled to vote are present, two-thirds of the votes in each order shall be necessary to determine the election.

ARTICLE X. Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention shall be elected by ballot, and by the concurrent vote of the two orders voting separately, at the annual Convention next preceding any stated General Convention; and the Deputies thus elected shall continue in office for three years. An equal number of supplemental Deputies shall also be appointed in the same manner; from whom, in the order of priority of election, the Bishop, or in case of a vacancy in the episcopate, the President of the Standing Committee, shall fill vacancies which may occur among the Deputies before or during the sitting of the General Convention.

In case any Deputy or supplemental Deputy decline his appointment, he shall give reasonable notice thereof to the Ecclesiastical Authority.

ARTICLE XI. No Clergyman shall receive any public censure from the Bishop or the Standing Committee, unless he have been adjudged thereto in the manner provided for by Canon.

ARTICLE XII. This Constitution shall not be amended in any article unless the amendment shall have been proposed and approved at an annual Convention, published at large in its Journal, and adopted at the next annual Convention by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

CANONS

CANON I.—Of the Organization and Conduct of Parishes, and of their Members and Officers

SECTION 1. Parishes may be constituted, on the application of parties interested, by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee. But if application be made for the formation of a new Parish within the limits of an existing Parish or Parishes, the Rector and Vestry of said Parish or Parishes shall be notified of such application, by the Standing Committee.

The site of any existing Church or Chapel shall not be changed by any Parish without the approval of the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee; and notification of application for such change of site shall be given by the Standing Committee to the Rector and Vestry of any other Parish or Parishes within the same town or city.

SEC. 2. When permission to form a new Parish has been granted, the Standing Committee shall transmit to the applicants with the certificate of permission (1) a form of organizing the Parish, (2) a form of recording the action of the first meeting of such Parish, and (3) a form of application for admission into union with the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut. The act of organization, executed in accordance with form (1), shall be entered in full upon the records of the Parish, and attested by the Clerk as the original act, or a true copy thereof, as the case may be. The three forms above named shall be in substance as follows:

(1.) We, the subscribers, residents of the town of _____, in the County of _____, in the State of Connecticut, do hereby unite to form and do hereby form ourselves and our successors into an Ecclesiastical Society under the Constitution and Laws of said State and under the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Connecticut, for the purpose of supporting the Worship of Almighty God according to the Doctrine, Discipline and Liturgy of said Church in these United States, said Society to be known in law as Parish in the Town of _____, in the County of _____, and State of Connecticut.

In Witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this _____ day of _____, A.D. 19 ____.

(2.) At a legal meeting of _____ Parish, in the Town of _____, held on the _____ day of _____, 19 __, A. B. was duly elected and sworn in as the Parish Clerk; and C. D. and E. F. were elected Church-wardens; and G. H., I. J., etc., Vestrymen of said Parish for the ensuing year.

At the same time it was resolved that this Parish apply to be admitted into union with the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Connecticut, and that K. L. be chosen Agent of this Parish to ask for such admission; and, if the application be granted, then and there to represent this Parish in the said Convention as its Delegate.

(3.) To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Connecticut.—The subscriber respectfully sheweth that he has been appointed Agent and Delegate for the purposes specified in the following extracts from the minutes of the Parish of _____, in the Town of _____, to wit:

"At the lawful meeting of the Parish of _____, in the Town of _____, State of Connecticut, held on the _____ day of _____, 19____, it was resolved that this Parish apply to be admitted into union with the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Connecticut; and that K. L. be chosen Agent of this Parish to ask for such admission; and, if the application be granted, then and there to represent this Parish in the said Convention as its Delegate."

Extract from the minutes. Attest, _____ A. B., Parish Clerk.

And now, in pursuance of said agency, the subscriber submits to the Convention an attested copy of the act of organization of said Parish, taken from the record of their proceedings; and applies in the name and behalf of said Parish of _____, in the Town of _____, that it be admitted into union with this Convention.

Dated at _____, on the _____ day of _____, 19____.

Signed, _____ K. L., Agent and Delegate.

SEC. 3. All persons who under the existing laws are members of any of the Ecclesiastical Societies or Parishes belonging to the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, are hereby recognized as such, and entitled so to be and remain, with all the privileges and subject to all the duties of such membership. Rectors of Parishes for the time being shall be considered as members of their respective Parishes.

SEC. 4. Any baptized person of the age of twenty-one years not a member of any other ecclesiastical society in this State, desiring to become a member of any Parish in this Diocese, shall sign and lodge with the Clerk or any other officer of said Parish a written declaration of his desire to become a member thereof, in which declaration he shall express his attachment to the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States; and this declaration shall be made and lodged with the Clerk or other officer before the annual meeting of the Parish, and shall be read at said meeting; and the name of each applicant shall be voted upon separately by ballot at said meeting; upon the final adjournment of which, all such applicants as have received a majority of the votes cast shall become members of the Parish.

SEC. 5. When any person has become and is a member of any Parish, he shall remain such until and unless the relationship be terminated by one of the modes following:

- (1.) By death.
- (2.) By removal from the Parish; the fact to be determined in each case by the Vestry, as provided below in Section 7.
- (3.) By written notice of withdrawal lodged with the Parish Clerk.
- (4.) By repulsion from the Holy Communion.
- (5.) By a vote of two-thirds of the members present at an annual meeting, upon proof that a member has been convicted of crime under any Statute Law of this State or of the United States; provided that notice of the proposed action shall have been given to such member, either personally or by letter addressed to him at his residence or last known place of residence, by the Vestry of the Parish, at least fifteen days before the time of said annual meeting.

SEC. 6. The officers of a Parish shall be a Rector, a Vestry composed of two Wardens and such number of Vestrymen as the Parish shall determine, a Clerk and a Treasurer, who may be members of the Vestry; and the Rector shall be Chairman ex-officio of the Vestry.

The members of the Vestry, the Clerk and the Treasurer, shall be elected by ballot at the annual Parish meeting from the members of the Parish, and shall hold office for one year, and until others are chosen and qualified; and vacancies occurring by death or otherwise in any of the said offices during the course of the year, may be filled at a special Parish meeting, duly called.

SEC. 7. The Parish Clerk shall be Clerk of the Vestry ex-officio; shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties; shall make and preserve a full record of the proceedings of all Parish meetings and of the meetings of the Vestry; shall, under the supervision of the Vestry, keep an accurate roll of the legal members of the Parish, and have such roll present at every Parish meeting; and shall be custodian of the files, records and archives of the Parish.

The Vestry of each Parish shall from time to time, and always within one month preceding the annual Parish meeting, revise the roll of the members of the Parish in accordance with the provisions of this Canon.

SEC. 8. The property and all affairs of the Parish shall be subject to the direction, management and control of the Vestry, except that the election and resignation of a Rector, the amount of his salary, the disposition of the real estate of the Parish, and the borrowing and loaning of money shall not be within the control of the Vestry, unless by special vote of the Parish.

SEC. 9. There shall be an annual meeting of the members of every Parish on Easter Monday, or some other day legally appointed, for the purpose of electing the Wardens and Vestrymen, Clerk and Treasurer, and of transacting such other business as may legally come before such meeting.

Special Parish meetings shall be called by a vote of the Vestry, or upon the written request of five members of the Parish.

The warnings of all Parish meetings shall be signed by the Clerk, or, in his absence, by one of the Wardens, and shall be posted at the door of the Parish Church, or sent by the Clerk to every member of the Parish, at least one week before the time of meeting.

The warnings of all Parish meetings, except the annual meeting, shall contain a statement of the objects for which the meeting is called; and at all meetings the Rector of the Parish, if he be present, shall preside.

SEC. 10. Any Parish desiring to terminate or to suspend its parochial organization, may do so by vote of two-thirds of the members present at a Parish meeting legally warned for that purpose, with the approval of and under such conditions as shall be required by the Bishop and Standing Committee.

CANON II.—Of Parochial Registers and Reports

SEC. 1. In order to give effect to Title I., Canon 20, §v. of the Digest, it is hereby required that every Minister of this Church shall keep a Register of all the baptisms, marriages and funerals solemnized by him, specifying the names of the parties married, of those baptized, and of their sponsors, and of the persons buried, and the time when each rite was performed. If the Minister be in charge of a Parish, he shall make these entries in the Parish Register; and he shall also enter therein the names of persons confirmed, and shall keep in the said Register a list of the Communicants and a list of the families belonging to the Parish; which Register, in case of the Minister's removal from the Parish, shall be deposited with one of the Wardens; and in such case, the Wardens shall cause all needful entries to be made in the Register until the Parish shall be again in charge of a Clergyman.

SEC. 2. Names of persons removing from one Parish or Congregation to another within the Diocese shall not be entered on the list of Communicants in the Parish or Congregation to which the persons remove until they shall have presented to the Rector or Minister, or to the Wardens, if there be no Rector or Minister, the certificate required by Title II., Canon XII., Section 1, of the Digest. Nor shall such names be stricken from the list of Communicants in the Parish or Congregation from which the persons remove until the Rector or Minister or Wardens of that Parish shall receive from the Rector or Minister or Wardens of the Parish or Congregation to which such persons have removed, a duly authenticated certificate that the names have been entered in the Register of that Parish or Congregation; and it shall be the duty of said Rector or Minister or Wardens to transmit such certificate within one month of such entry.

Any Rector or Minister in charge of a Parish may transfer to another Parish a Communicant who has attended the services of said Parish for two years, said Communicant having first consented to such transfer, or having made no objection after due notice of such intended transfer.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church having a Parish, or if a Parish be vacant, the Wardens, shall present or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement in the form following:

In the foregoing form, by "Communicants admitted" are meant all persons who having been confirmed, or being "ready and desirous to be confirmed," shall have received the Holy Communion.

No name shall be dropped from the Parish Register for the reason that the person is not reckoned a present Communicant for the purpose of the annual report.

The items under the head of "Financial Report" shall be, as far as possible, for the last financial year of the Parish.

SEC. 4. The Minister or Wardens shall further report all other matters that may throw light on the state of the Parish.

Every other Clergyman, not regularly settled in any Parish or Church, shall report the occasional services he may have performed; and if he have performed no such services, the causes or reasons which have prevented the same. These reports, or such parts of them as the Bishop shall think fit, may be read in Convention, and shall be entered on the Journals thereof.

It shall be the duty of the Church Wardens of each Parish, immediately after the annual meeting of the Parish, to report to the Bishop the value of the Church property, the salary paid the Rector or officiating Minister, and the indebtedness of the Parish.

SEC. 5. At every visitation, the Minister of the Parish, or the Wardens, if the Parish be vacant, shall submit the Parish Register to the Bishop for his inspection.

SEC. 6. The basis of financial assessments laid by the Convention upon the several Parishes, unless otherwise specially ordered, shall be the amount reported for the preceding year for "Current Expenses (including salaries)," being the first item in the Parochial Reports under "Parochial Expenditures."

CANON III.—Of Offences for which Ministers can be tried

Every Minister shall be liable to presentment and trial for crime or immorality; for holding and teaching publicly or privately, and advisedly, any doctrine contrary to that held by the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; for violation of the Constitution or Canons of the General Convention, or of this Diocese; for a persistent disregard of the order of this Church in the use of the Book of Common Prayer; or for conduct unbecoming a Clergyman of this Church. On being found guilty he shall be admonished, suspended, or degraded, according to Canon IV. of this Diocese, entitled "Of the Trial of a Clergyman."

CANON IV.—Of the Trial of a Clergyman

SEC. 1. In order to bring a Clergyman to trial, a charge shall be made in the first place to the Standing Committee, in writing, under the proper signature of at least two Communicants of this Diocese, one of whom shall be a Presbyter. If the Standing Committee shall deem the offence charged as coming within the offences enumerated in the Canons of the Diocese of Connecticut, or of the General Convention, they shall present the charge to the Bishop in the following form:

To A. B., Bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Standing Committee of this Diocese respectfully represent that C. D. has been accused under the hands of E. F. and G. H. of [here recite the charge or charges], and the Committee are of opinion that there is sufficient ground for presenting the said C. D. for trial, agreeably to the Canons in such cases made and provided.

[Signed by the Standing Committee.]

SEC. 2. Upon the receipt of the foregoing presentment, the Bishop shall summon nine Presbyters to meet, not within ninety days, at some place within the County where the accused shall reside or officiate, for the time being; not less than five of whom shall constitute a Court for the trial of the charge or charges; and the accused may object to any two of such members, at his discretion, and to any for cause or favor, the sufficiency of which objection for cause or favor shall be determined by the other persons so summoned; or if by reason of such objections the number shall be reduced below five, the Bishop shall designate Presbyters to supply such vacancies. The Standing Committee shall have the same right to object, provided they exercise the right alternately with the accused, he being allowed the first privilege. All of such Presbyters not objected to or found disqualified shall sit as a Court.

SEC. 3. The Bishop shall forthwith furnish to the Standing Committee and to the accused a list of the Presbyters summoned to constitute the Court, accompanied with a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Court. The Standing Committee shall act as prosecutors in the case, and at least sixty days before the trial shall furnish the accused with a copy of the presentment, notice of the time and place of trial, and a specification of the facts on which they expect to maintain the charges. And the accused, at least thirty days before the trial, shall furnish the Standing Committee with a statement of the ground of his defence on each specification.

SEC. 4. At the time fixed for the trial, the members of the Court shall assemble and choose a President from their own number, and a Secretary, either from their own number or otherwise, as they shall see fit; and they shall, before they proceed, adopt and declare the rules by which the trial shall be conducted. A member of the legal profession, who is a communicant of this Church and a resident in this Diocese, shall be selected by the Court as assessor, who shall sit with and advise the Court upon all legal questions that may arise, whether in regard to the admission of evidence or other points, but shall not be entitled to vote upon charges contained in the presentment.

SEC. 5. If the accused shall appear, the Court shall proceed to the trial on the presentment, and shall adjudge him guilty, or not guilty, according to the evidence; and if he be found guilty, the Court shall declare to the Bishop to what ecclesiastical censure he ought, in their judgment, to be subjected. But if he shall neglect or refuse to appear, or to answer in person, according to the notice served on him as aforesaid, except for some reasonable cause to be allowed by the Court, they shall proceed to pronounce him in contumacy, and thereupon the Bishop shall suspend him from the functions of the Ministry. And if he shall not appear within six months, the Bishop shall proceed to depose him from the Ministry of this Church.

SEC. 6. The Secretary shall keep a record of all the proceedings, which shall contain a copy of the presentment, of the specifications, of the notice to the accused, and of his answer, with a statement of all the evidence, both oral and written, and the final judgment of the Court; and an attested copy of this record shall be forthwith delivered to the Bishop. If the judgment be not guilty, the Bishop shall give a certificate of acquittal to the accused, embracing a copy of the presentment and specifications; and the accused shall not be subjected to a second trial on the same charges. If the Court judge him guilty, on one or more points at issue, the Bishop may disapprove the judgment and order a new trial, stating his grounds for such a decision; or he may approve the judgment; and in that case he shall, within thirty days, proceed to such ecclesiastical censure as the case may, in his judgment, require, whether it be admonition, suspension, or degradation from the Ministry; provided the penalty be not greater than that expressed in the judgment of the Court.

SEC. 7. Every summons, notice, or citation mentioned in these proceedings shall be deemed to be duly served, by the delivery of a written notice or paper to the person to be summoned, notified, cited, or by leaving it, or a certified copy of it, at his residence, or last known residence, by a person duly appointed in writing by the Bishop, Standing Committee, or Court, as the case may require.

CANON V.—Of Clerical Settlement and Removal

SEC. 1. On the election of a Minister into any Church or Parish, the Vestry shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Bishop, or where there is no Bishop to the Standing Committee, notice of the same, in the following form or to this effect :

"We, the Church Wardens [or, in case of an Assistant Minister, We, the Rector and Church Wardens] do certify to the Right Rev. [naming the Bishop, or to the Rev., naming the President of the Standing Committee] that [naming the person] has been duly chosen Rector [or Assistant Minister, as the case may be] of [naming the Parish or Church or Churches]" ; which certificate shall be signed by those who certify.

SEC. 2. When the rectorship of any Parish becomes vacant, it shall be the duty of the Church Wardens forthwith to give notice thereof to the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese.

SEC. 3. No Clergyman shall enter upon the rectorship of any Parish within this Diocese, or shall change his parochial cure within the Diocese, until he shall have obtained the written permission of the Bishop, or, if there be no Bishop, of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.—Of the Records of the Standing Committee

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Standing Committee to keep a journal of its proceedings, which shall be subject to the inspection of the Convention, and to prepare an abstract of the journal each year, under the direction of the Committee, and present the same to the annual Convention. The abstract shall specify the time and place of each meeting of the Committee during the year; the number present; the names of persons recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidates for Holy Orders, or to be ordained Deacons or Priests; and the substance of all other matters which shall have been brought before them; and such abstract shall be entered on the Journals of the Convention, and published therewith.

CANON VII.—Of Parochial Collections

There shall be made in each Parish in this Diocese at least two collections annually for the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut, one for the Church Scholarship Society, and one for the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen. And the Treasurers of the different Funds shall furnish the Secretary of the Convention with a report of the collections, to be published in the Journal.

CANON VIII.—Of the Roll of the Convention

The Bishop and Standing Committee, or in case of a vacancy in the episcopate the Standing Committee, shall, before the meeting of any Convention, prepare a roll of the Clergymen entitled to seats, to be used at the organization of the Convention.

The Clerks of the several Parishes shall, immediately after the election of Lay Delegates, transmit to the Secretary of the Diocese a certificate of such election, adding the names of substitutes for Delegates, if any such have been elected; and the Secretary, with two laymen appointed by the President at the preceding annual Convention, shall thereupon prepare a roll of the Lay Delegates, to be used at the organization of the Convention.

At the opening of any Convention, after Divine Service, the President having taken the chair, the Secretary shall call the rolls of the Clergy and of the Lay Delegates which have been prepared in accordance with the preceding paragraphs of this Canon; and if a constitutional quorum of those appearing to be entitled to seats in both orders is present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business.

CANON IX.—Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen

SEC. 1. The Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, the Treasurer of the Convention, together with five Clergymen and four Laymen appointed by the Convention, shall constitute the Trustees of the Fund, and shall hold, manage and control said Fund, and apply it at their discretion toward the support or relief of the aged and infirm Clergymen, who shall have resided in the Diocese and been in the actual discharge of the duties of the Ministry for a period of not less than five years; and of the widows and orphans of Clergymen who shall have resided in the Diocese and been in the actual discharge of the duties of the Ministry for a period of not less than five years.

SEC. 2. The Trustees shall make an annual report to the Convention, stating the amount received and expended each year, and the general condition of the Fund.

CANON X.—Of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund

SEC. 1. The Trustees of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund shall appoint a layman of this Diocese to be Treasurer of the Fund, who shall continue in office during their pleasure.

SEC. 2. Any Clergyman of this Diocese who shall have attained the age of sixty-five years, and shall not be in receipt of a stated salary, shall be entitled to the benefits of this Fund; provided, that he shall have been canonically resident in this Diocese and in the actual discharge of the duties of the Ministry for the ten years immediately preceding his application for the benefits of the Fund.

SEC. 3. All applications for the benefit of this Fund shall be made in writing to the Treasurer thereof before the first day of June in each year.

SEC. 4. Each Parish in this Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of this Fund, before the first day of June in each year, fifty cents for every one hundred dollars of its current expenses, as defined in Canon II., Section 6.

SEC. 5. Of the amounts paid by Parishes in each year, under Section 4 of this Canon, one-half shall be reserved and securely invested as part of the principal of the Fund; to which shall also be added, when not otherwise designated, all special offerings from Parishes, and gifts, donations, or legacies from individuals.

SEC. 6. The other half of the amounts paid by Parishes in each year, under Section 4 of this Canon, shall be added to the income of the principal of the Fund, as received up to the first day of June in each year, and the sum shall be divided, before the first day of July in each year, in equal shares among the Clergymen entitled to the benefits of this Fund, under Sections 2 and 3 of this Canon; provided, that the share of each Clergyman shall not exceed five hundred dollars in any one year; provided, also, that no Clergyman shall be a beneficiary of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund who is also a beneficiary of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen.

SEC. 7. All income not expended shall be added each year to the principal of the Fund until the said principal shall have reached the amount of one hundred thousand dollars; and when this limit shall have been reached, all surplus income of this Fund not required for the purposes of Section 6 of this Canon, or for other necessary expenses, shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen, to be applied for the purposes of said Fund.

CANON XI.—Of Diocesan Missions

SEC. 1. For its missionary work the Diocese shall be divided into six Districts, to be called Archdeaconries, as follows, viz.:

1. Fairfield, comprising Fairfield County;
2. Litchfield, comprising Litchfield County;
3. New Haven, comprising New Haven County;
4. Hartford, comprising Hartford County, and the towns of Somers, Ellington, Vernon and Bolton, in Tolland County;
5. Middlesex, comprising Middlesex County;
6. New London, comprising New London and Windham Counties, and also the towns of Mansfield, Willington, Union, Stafford, Columbia, Tolland, Coventry, Andover and Hebron, in Tolland County.

SEC. 2. Each District shall be represented by the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, together with the Lay Delegates to the last annual Diocesan Convention from each Parish.

The presiding officer shall be an Archdeacon appointed by the Bishop, from the Clergy of the District, on nomination made by a vote of the District at its annual meeting; and his term of office shall be four years. In case of a vacancy in the office by removal from the Archdeaconry or other cause, a nomination to fill the vacancy until the next annual meeting shall be made at a regular meeting, after due notice given, or at a special meeting called by the Bishop at the request of two Presbyters.

A Secretary and a Treasurer shall be annually elected by ballot, at the first stated meeting after the Diocesan Convention, from among the residents of the District, who shall hold office until their successors are appointed, and shall be entitled to vote at all meetings of the Archdeaconry. If the Archdeaconry so order, the office of Secretary and that of Treasurer may be held by the same person. Any vacancy in the office of Secretary or Treasurer shall be filled by appointment of the Archdeacon until the next regular meeting.

SEC. 3. The Archdeacon shall, subject to the Bishop, have the charge and oversight of all the Missions in the Archdeaconry; and, in the absence of the Bishop, shall preside at all the meetings of the Archdeaconry. It shall be his duty, with the advice and approval of the Bishop, to appoint the Missionaries, and such lay helpers at each Mission as may be necessary to assist in temporal matters. It shall be his duty, either personally or by deputy, to visit each Mission, aided Parish, and unoccupied town; and the necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of this duty shall be defrayed by the Archdeaconry. The Archdeacon shall present a report of the condition and progress of missionary work in the District each year to the Board of Directors at its annual meeting immediately before the Diocesan Convention.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep the records of the Archdeaconry, and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive contributions from the Parishes, and to forward to the Treasurer of the Missionary Society the amount required of the Archdeaconry less the amount appropriated by the Board to the Archdeaconry; to keep and account for the money of the Archdeaconry, paying out only such sums as he shall be authorized to pay by a regular meeting; and to present each year to the Board of Directors, at its annual meeting, above mentioned, a report of his receipts and disbursements during the year past.

SEC. 4. Each Archdeaconry shall have control and distribution of the money received from the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society in aid of Mission Stations and feeble Parishes; shall apportion among its several Parishes and Missions the sums from time to time desired of it by the Board of Directors; and may at its own discretion, with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special missionary work, and raise funds for such purposes, provided it shall first have complied with the requirements of the Directors of the Missionary Society.

SEC. 5. Each District shall hold stated meetings for the transaction of its business, and no Apportionments or Appropriations shall be made except at these meetings; and the annual meeting of each District shall be the first stated meeting after the annual Diocesan Convention.

It shall be the duty of each Clergyman, unless prevented by grave and reasonable cause, to attend the regular meetings, and to report all missionary work done in his cure.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of every Missionary and every Rector of a Parish aided by the Archdeaconry, to report to the Archdeacon on or before the first of May in each year, the number of services held in his cure, the number of pastoral visits paid, the number of baptisms, confirmations, and admissions to the Holy Communion, and the amount contributed by each congregation, all since the date of his last annual report, with such other matters as may throw light on the condition and progress of his work; and also to send to the Archdeacon in the months of January and September of each year, a brief general statement of similar purport.

SEC. 7. No Missionary Station shall be established without the approval of the Bishop, who shall also have power to remove Missionaries; and no Appropriation shall be made by the District in aid of any organized Parish, except on the application of the Wardens and Vestrymen of said Parish, with the written consent and approval of the Minister, if there be one; and no Appropriation shall be made by any Archdeaconry in aid of any organized Parish, except on the condition that such Parish shall concede a portion of the time and services of its Rector to other work under the direction of the Archdeaconry, and comply with any other condition that by the Archdeaconry may be required of it.

CANON XII.—Repealing former Canons

All former Canons of this Diocese, not included in these Canons, are hereby repealed.

The Secretary shall make such changes in the numbering of Canons or Sections, or in references to Canons or Sections, as may be required at any time by resolutions of amendment to the Canons adopted by the Convention.

ATTESTATION

I certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Connecticut as amended at sundry times to June 11, 1902.

FREDERICK W. HARRIMAN, Secretary of the Diocese.

CONSTITUTION OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE DIOCESE OF CONNECTICUT

ARTICLE 1. This Society shall be called the "Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut."

ART. 2. The members of the Church in this Diocese shall constitute this Society; and it shall be represented by the Convention.

ART. 3. The Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex-officio President of the Society; and the Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, the Treasurer of the Society, and six Clergymen, who shall be the Archdeacons of the several Districts, and six laymen, to be appointed by the Convention, shall constitute the Board of Directors.

Six members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

This Board shall receive and disburse the funds of the Society.

ART. 4. There shall be a meeting of the Board, for organization, on the last day of the session of the Convention, at which time a Secretary and Treasurer shall be appointed.

Regular meetings of the Board shall be held on such days and at such places as the Board may appoint; and special meetings, for the transaction of any business, may be held at such times and places as the Bishop, upon the written application of two (2) members of the Board, may designate.

ART. 5. The Board shall make an annual report of its appropriations and other proceedings, to the Convention; and the Treasurer shall also make a report of the state of the funds, including the names of the several Parishes which annually contribute, with the amount of their contributions; and also a statement of any donations received from individuals; which reports, or so much of them as the Convention may direct, shall be entered on the Journals.

ART. 6. No alteration shall be made in this Constitution, without having been proposed to the Convention at least one day before it is acted upon; and the Convention alone shall have power to make alterations.

RULES OF ORDER OF THE ANNUAL CONVENTION

RULE I. After Divine Service the President shall take the chair, and the Convention having been organized for business in accordance with Canon VIII., the order of procedure shall be as follows:

(1.) The election of a Secretary, and, in case of a vacancy, of a Treasurer.

(2.) Resolutions of amendment of the Rules of Order.

(3.) Report of Committee to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates.

(4.) The appointment, by the President, of three Committees of the Convention, viz.: a Committee on the Admission of New Parishes; a Committee on the Constitution and Canons, to consist each of five members, three Clergymen and two laymen; and a Committee on Finance, to consist of three members, one Clergyman and two laymen.

(5.) The appointment by the President of a Committee to report vacancies in any of the Boards of Trustees elected by the Convention, and to nominate persons to fill the same, and also persons to be elected Diocesan Members of the Missionary Council.

(6.) The presentation by the Secretary of a report of the business remaining unfinished at the last Convention.

(7.) The reception and reference of papers concerning the Admission of New Parishes.

(8.) Presentation of Parochial and Clerical Reports; Report of the Treasurer; Report of the Trustees of the Bishop's Fund; Report of the Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes; Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows; Report of the Trustees of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund; Report of the Registrar of the Diocese; abstracts of which only shall be read, unless otherwise ordered by the Convention.

(9.) Presentation of the Abstract of the Proceedings of the Standing Committee.

(10.) Notices of motions or resolutions which are to be introduced as New Business; motions of reference to Committees of the Convention named in clause (4); presentation of Reports of Committees appointed at last Convention; motions for Special Orders of the day.

(11.) RECESS.

(12.) The Report of the Committee on the Admission of New Parishes; the Admission of the Parishes, and the Reception of their Lay Delegates.

(13.) The Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he shall prefer to present it at some other time.

(14.) The election of the Standing Committee. And in this election each member of the Convention may vote for five persons at one ballot, and the five persons who receive the highest number of votes shall be declared elected; provided, that no person shall be declared so elected unless he receive a majority of the whole vote cast. If less than the whole number be thus elected, the Convention shall proceed to ballot for the remainder.

(15.) The election of Deputies and Supplemental Deputies to the next General Convention (once in three years).

(16.) The Business of the Missionary Society of the Diocese, including the nomination and appointment of the Board of Directors.

(17.) The Business of the Episcopal Academy.

(18.) The Business of the Church Scholarship Society.

(19.) The Report of the Committee on Finance; Report of the Committee on the Constitution and Canons; Report of Committee appointed to nominate persons to fill vacancies in the Diocesan Boards of Trustees, to be followed by their election; Reports of other Special Committees.

(20.) Miscellaneous Business.

RULE II. On the second and any subsequent day, after Divine Service, the order of business shall be as follows:

(1.) Reading and approving of the Minutes.

(2.) The disposal of the unfinished business of the Convention, in the order above prescribed for the first day; the business, however, which was under consideration at the time of the adjournment of the Convention to be first disposed of.

RULE III. When the President takes the chair, no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand, unless to address the chair.

RULE IV. When any member is about to speak in debate, or present any matter to the Convention, he shall rise from his seat, and, with due respect, address himself to the President.

RULE V. No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate, nor on a question of appeal more than once, without leave of the Convention.

RULE VI. A question being once determined, shall stand as the judgment of the Convention, and shall not again be drawn into debate during the session, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the members present, upon a motion to reconsider, made by one of the majority on the first decision.

RULE VII. Every member present shall vote when a question is put, unless excused by the Convention.

RULE VIII. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless it be seconded and reduced to writing when required, and announced by the Chair.

RULE IX. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received except to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a certain time, to commit or to amend; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named.

RULE X. Motions to lay upon the table and to commit shall be decided without debate.

RULE XI. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and, if unqualified, shall be decided without debate.

RULE XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made; no after amendment to such second amendment shall be in order; but a substitute for such second amendment or a substitute for the whole matter, may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

RULE XIII. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, with the consent of the Convention; in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

RULE XIV. If the question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately; except that a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

RULE XV. In elections by ballot, all votes cast for eligible candidates are to be counted, whether such candidates have been nominated or not; but blank ballots shall not be counted, unless it be necessary to determine a quorum.

RULE XVI. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.

RULE XVII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion. They shall be entered upon the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution for its consideration.

RULE XVIII. No printed matter of any kind shall be distributed in the Convention or placed in the seats, except by the authority of the President or the Secretary.

RULE XIX. No rule of order shall be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without notice at the first morning session of a motion to that effect, and by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

RULE XX. Before the final adjournment of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected, and approved.

RULE XXI. The presiding officer of each Annual Convention shall appoint four Auditors, whose duty it shall be to examine the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, and the reports and accounts of all Boards of Trustees which hold permanent funds and are required to report to each Annual Convention; and said Auditors shall also identify the various securities in which such funds are invested. The certificate of at least two of the Auditors that they have performed their duties under this rule shall be presented to the Convention with each report and account which they are required to audit. The expenses of the Auditors shall be paid from the treasury of the Diocese.

STANDING RESOLUTIONS

In the Convention of 1886 (see Journal, page 40) it was

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese shall pay the expenses of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of this Diocese to the General Convention (see Journal of 1885, page 73) upon the order or certification of the Bishop or of the Chairman of the Standing Committee.

In the Convention of 1892 (see Journal, page 62) it was

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint the opening services of the Convention at an hour which will permit the Convention to be called to order for business at eleven o'clock A. M.

In the Convention of 1894 (see Journal, page 75) it was

Resolved, That the Treasurer be and hereby is directed to pay all orders drawn on him by the Secretary, or the Registrar, or the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of Donations and Bequests, and approved by the President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

In the Convention of 1895 (see Journal, page 65) it was

Resolved, That the Treasurer, the Secretary and the Assistant Secretary of the Convention be appointed a Committee to act in consultation with the Clergy or Committee on Hospitality in the place where the next Annual Convention is to be held.

Resolved, That this Committee be authorized to expend in their discretion a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, from the Convention Fund, for purposes of hospitality in connection with the attendance of Delegates at the Convention.

Resolved, That the Rules of Order of any Convention shall be in force at the next Convention until otherwise ordered.

In the Convention of 1897 (see Journal, page 45) it was

Resolved, That the balloting in the election of a Bishop shall be conducted in the following manner: the Secretary of each order shall call the roll of the members of that order, and each member present, as his name is called, shall deposit his ballot in a box provided for the purpose.

In the Convention of 1897 (see Journal, page 70) it was

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Diocese be instructed to prepare from such information, sufficiently attested, as may from time to time be furnished him, and to publish in the Journal every fifth year, beginning with the year 1900, a list of Parishes the names of which have been changed, wholly or in part, since the date of their organization, setting forth the said changes, with the dates thereof, as far as they can be ascertained.

In the Convention of 1897 (see Journal, page 71) it was

Resolved, That a Committee consisting of one Clergyman and two laymen from each Archdeaconry be annually appointed by the President of the Convention, to coöperate with the Commissioners for Connecticut of the American Church Building Fund, until the fund shall have been completed.

In the Convention of 1899 (see Journal, page 68) it was

Resolved, That the salary of the Secretary of the Diocese be fixed at Three Hundred Dollars.

Resolved, That this Convention disapproves of applause in a consecrated building.

APPENDIX A.

Notification from the General Convention

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut:

In compliance with the requirements of Article XI. of the Constitution, I would hereby make known that the following alterations of the Constitution of the Church are proposed: to wit, those comprised in the resolutions printed herewith, said resolutions having been constitutionally adopted by a General Convention held in the city of San Francisco, in October, A.D. 1901.

CHARLES L. HUTCHINS,

Secretary of the House of Deputies.

CONCORD, MASSACHUSETTS, March 1, A.D. 1902.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Amend Article I., Section 2, of the Constitution by striking out the word "and" at the end of the second line and inserting in place thereof the word "or," and also by striking out the words "arising therefrom" in the third line, so that the section shall read as follows:

SECTION 2. Every Bishop of this Church having jurisdiction, every Bishop Coadjutor, and every Bishop who by reason of advanced age or bodily infirmity has resigned his jurisdiction, shall have a seat and a vote in the House of Bishops. A majority of all Bishops entitled to vote, exclusive of Foreign Missionary Bishops and of Bishops who have resigned their jurisdictions, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Substitute for Article I., Section 3, of the Constitution, as finally agreed to and ratified at this Convention, the following:

SECTION 3. The House of Bishops, by vote of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to a seat in the said House, shall elect one of the Bishops having jurisdiction within the United States to be nominated for confirmation by the House of Deputies to be the Presiding Bishop of the Church. The Presiding Bishop shall hold office for three years. He shall discharge such duties as may be prescribed by the Constitution and the Canons of the General Convention. But if the Presiding Bishop shall resign his office as such, or if he shall resign his episcopal jurisdiction, or if in the judgment of the House he shall become disabled by reason of infirmity, or if for any other reason a vacancy in the office shall occur, the senior Bishop by consecration having jurisdiction within the United States shall thereupon become the Presiding Bishop until the House of Bishops shall elect an acting Presiding Bishop, who shall hold office until the next meeting of the General Convention, at which the Presiding Bishop shall be elected.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

That Article I. of the Constitution be amended by adding thereto the following as Section 6, and changing the number of the present Section 6 to Section 7:

SECTION 6. One Clerical and one Lay Deputy chosen by each Missionary District of the Church within the boundaries of the United States shall have seats in the House of Deputies, subject to all the qualifications and with all the rights of Deputies except the right to vote when the vote shall be taken by orders.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Add to the first sentence of Article II., Section 1, after the words "Convention of the Diocese" the words:

Provided, however, that when a Diocese shall be formed out of a Missionary District, the Missionary Bishop in charge of said District shall become the Bishop of said Diocese, if he shall so elect.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Strike out Article 5 of the Constitution and insert the following as Article V. of the Constitution, viz.:

ARTICLE V.

SECTION 1. A new Diocese may be formed, with the consent of the General Convention and under such conditions as the General Convention shall prescribe by general Canon or Canons, (1) by the erection into a Diocese of the whole or of any part of one or more Missionary Districts; (2) by the division of an existing Diocese; (3) by the junction of two or more Dioceses or of parts of two or more Dioceses; or (4) by the junction of the whole or part of a Missionary District with a Diocese, or with any part of one or more Dioceses. The proceedings shall originate in a Convocation of the Clergy and Laity of the Missionary District called by the Bishop for that purpose; or, with the approval of the Bishop, in the Convention of the Diocese to be divided; or (when it is proposed to form a new Diocese by the junction of two or more Dioceses or of parts of two or more Dioceses) by mutual agreement of the Conventions of the Dioceses concerned, with the approval of the Bishop or the Ecclesiastical Authority of each Diocese. In case the Episcopate of a Diocese be vacant, no proceedings toward its division shall be taken until the vacancy is filled. During a vacancy in a Missionary District, the consent of the Presiding Bishop must be had before proceedings to erect it into a Diocese are taken. When it shall appear to the satisfaction of the General Convention, by a certified copy of the proceedings and other documents and papers laid before it, that all the conditions for the formation of the new Diocese have been complied with and that it has acceded to the Constitution and Canons of this Church, such new Diocese shall thereupon be admitted to union with the General Convention.

SECTION 2. In case one Diocese shall be divided into two or more Dioceses, the Bishop of the Diocese divided may elect the one to which he will be attached, and he shall thereupon become the Bishop thereof; and the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, may elect the one to which he will be attached, and (if it be not the one elected by the Bishop) he shall be the Bishop thereof.

SECTION 3. In case a Diocese shall be formed out of parts of two or more Dioceses, each of the Bishops and Bishops Coadjutor of the several Dioceses out of which the new Diocese has been formed shall be entitled, in order of seniority of consecration, to the choice between his own Diocese and the new Diocese so formed. In case the new Diocese shall not be so chosen, it shall have the right to choose its own Bishop.

SECTION 4. Whenever a new Diocese is formed and erected out of an existing Diocese, it shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese, out of which it was formed, except as local circumstances may prevent, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese. Whenever a Diocese is formed out of two or more existing Dioceses, it shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons of that one of the said existing Dioceses to which the greater number of clergymen shall have belonged prior to the erection of such new Diocese, except as local circumstances may prevent, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese.

SECTION 5. A Diocese formed out of a Missionary District shall be subject to the Constitution and Canons to which such Missionary District was subject, until the same be altered in accordance with such Constitution and Canons by the Convention of the new Diocese.

SECTION 6. No new Diocese shall be formed which shall contain fewer than six Parishes, or fewer than six Presbyters who have been for at least one year canonically resident within the bounds of such new Diocese, regularly settled in a Parish or Congregation and qualified to vote for a Bishop. Nor shall such new Diocese be formed if thereby any existing Diocese shall be so reduced as to contain fewer than twelve Parishes and twelve Presbyters who have been residing therein and settled and qualified as above provided.

SECTION 7. The consent of the General Convention to the erection of a new Diocese shall not be given until it has satisfactory assurance of a suitable provision for the support of the episcopate.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed addition be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

Add to Article X. of the Constitution the following:

And provided, further, that nothing in this Article shall be construed as restricting the authority of the Bishops of this Church to take such order as may be permitted by the Rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer or by the Canons of the General Convention for the use of special forms of worship.

APPENDIX C.

Report of the Registrar

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden on the second Tuesday in June, 1902.

The Registrar of the Diocese begs leave to present his report.

There have been sent me in the course of the past year, in part upon special request, the Journals of twelve Dioceses and Districts for 1900, those of thirty-six Dioceses and Districts for 1901, and the Journal of one District for 1902; the Secretary has also deposited with me four copies of the Journal of the General Convention of 1898 and the Journals of fifty Dioceses and Districts for 1901.

I have received from the Secretary official copies of the text of the Journal of the last Convention of the Diocese printed on record-paper; which, with those of the preceding years, acknowledged in my last report, have been suitably bound and lettered.

The Official Copyist of ancient records has deposited with me the extracts made by him from the Records and Registers of several Parishes, of an earlier date than 1800 and relating to other Parishes or places. His work for the year 1900-1901 was in the Parishes in New Cambridge, New Milford, Cheshire, Brookfield, New Canaan, Woodbury, Danbury, Newtown, and Brooklyn; that for 1901-1902 was in the Parishes in Huntington, Portland, Naugatuck, Plymouth, North Guilford, Oxford, Marbledale, Litchfield, and Hebron.

There have been placed in my custody the records of St. Peter's Church, Oxford, from 1769 to 1899, with a bundle of papers relating to the Parish; a package of old records of Grace Church, Saybrook (now in the Town of Old Saybrook); and the records of the Parish in New Cambridge, afterwards St. Matthew's Church, Plymouth, from 1747 to 1800.

I have received the Year-books of the Church Club of the Diocese for 1901 and 1902; the Year-book of St. John's Church, Hartford, for 1900; the twenty-first Annual Report of the Connecticut Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary with the twelfth Annual Report of its Junior Department; the Litchfield Archdeaconry Record; and the Minutes of the General Association and General Conference of Connecticut for 1901.

Mr. Isaac R. Cornwall of New Haven, in continuance of former gifts, has sent me Volume XI. of Christ Church Chronicle in numbers. There have also been sent me the Rev. Stewart Means's Sermon in memory of the Rev. Dr. Harwood, the Rev. George Brinley Morgan's Address on the fifteenth anniversary of his rectorship, the Rev. William A. Beardsley's Sermon on the bicentenary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, and the Rev. Hermann Lilienthal's historical Sermon at Christ Church, Hartford.

Dr. S. E. Emery and his sisters, of Newburyport, Mass., have presented from the library of their father, the late Rev. Dr. Samuel M. Emery of Portland, the first seventeen volumes of the Spirit of Missions (1836-1852) bound in eleven, and one volume containing the proceedings of the Board of Missions for years between 1823 and 1838, these included.

The Rev. Dr. John Binney has presented eleven Connecticut Journals and four other pamphlets; and I have obtained from the Rev. F. W. Harriman by exchange eight Protestant Episcopal Almanacs and one Living Church Almanac.

From the library of the late Miss Elizabeth Woodward of Middletown, there have been given me sixteen years of The Churchman between 1882 and 1901, these included, lacking eighteen numbers, and parts of six other years; also, several numbers of the Parish News of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Middletown, and eleven copies of Annual Reports of the Connecticut Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary. The Churchman Company has given me five of the numbers lacking in Miss Woodward's set, thus completing three years. We have now in the Archives thirty-six half-yearly volumes of The Churchman complete and three volumes which lack but one number each, besides many numbers of other volumes.

I am indebted to the Rev. Wm. Lloyd Himes, Registrar of New Hampshire, for a very generous gift, including a set of Connecticut Journals 1840-1896, with the reprint of 1820 and thirteen duplicates; four Journals of the Eastern Diocese and one pamphlet relating to the same; Journals of Maryland 1843-1846, with a Sermon and a Charge by Bishop Whittingham; three Journals of Maine and four of Rhode Island lacking in our sets; six other Journals; twenty Almanacs; and three other pamphlets.

I am also greatly indebted to the Rev. Dr. Edmund F. Slafter, Registrar of Massachusetts, for the four Journals of the Eastern Diocese needed to complete our set from 1830 to 1842 inclusive, and also for a copy of the original Constitution of that Diocese.

I have secured by purchase a set of original Journals of Connecticut 1792-1819 inclusive; the General Convention Journal of July 1789; a set of General Convention Journals 1847-1895 (except 1877), with some duplicates; Journals of Delaware, 1791 and 1798; twenty Journals of New Jersey between 1787 and 1815; sixteen Journals of Kentucky between 1836 and 1858; and twenty-five Journals of Missouri between 1840 and 1869.

I have sent to the Registrar of Central New York the reprint of our Journals to 1820 and seventeen of later date, and one General Convention Journal; and to the Registrar of New Hampshire five Journals of other Dioceses.

During the year I have had all the Church periodicals and all the unbound Diocesan Journals in the archives arranged; a good number of the Journals are now ready for binding.

All which is respectfully submitted,

SAMUEL HART, Registrar.

Berkeley Divinity School, June 9, 1902.

APPENDIX TO REGISTRAR'S REPORT

In an appendix to his Report presented at the Convention of 1900, the Registrar announced that he had received from the official Copyist transcripts of entries found in the Records and Registers of the Parishes in Stratford, Derby, Stamford, Norwich, New Haven, and North Haven, of earlier date than 1800 and relating to other Parishes or places than the immediate cures of the Missionaries or Rectors by or under whom the entries were made; and a list of the other Parishes or places named in the entries of official acts in each of the six Parishes was published, in accordance with a resolution of the Convention, for the information of officials or other persons interested.

During the past two years the Copyist has searched the Records and Registers of twenty-six other ancient Parishes, and has made transcripts, as in the cases just mentioned, of all entries relating to places without the respective cures and all votes relating to extra-parochial matters. The memoranda and lists which follow contain the names of places entered as those in which extra-parochial ministrations were held, including (presumably) some instances where the places named were other than that of the Clergyman's residence, although they cover societies or districts of the Town which was accounted his Parish.

The authorities of Parishes interested are notified that the copies of entries relating to them are in the custody of the Registrar, and that they may be consulted and used.

APPENDIX E.

Missionary Society

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

To the Convention:

Pursuant to Article V. of the Constitution, the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society makes its annual report of Appropriations and other proceedings for the year 1901-1902, as follows:

APPROPRIATIONS AND APPORTIONMENTS

The last Convention (see Journal 1901, page 66) appropriated a sum not exceeding $12,000 for carrying on the missionary work of the Diocese during the ensuing year, in addition to the proceeds from the funds of the Society and other sources available for the purpose; and it was ordered that said sum be apportioned among the several Archdeaconries on the basis of "Current Expenses (including salaries)," as reported in the last Journal; and that said sum be apportioned among the several Archdeaconries, as the Directors of the Society might deem best.

The net proceeds from the funds held by the Society and from other sources were estimated at about $750, thus making, with the $12,000 to be raised, the sum of $12,750 for missionary work.

For this work Appropriations were made as follows, viz.:

|--|---|---|---|---|---|-------------|
| To Fairfield Archdeaconry, | . | . | . | . | . | $1,700.00 |
| Litchfield " | . | . | . | . | . | 1,550.00 |
| New Haven " | . | . | . | . | . | 1,750.00 |
| Hartford " | . | . | . | . | . | 2,600.00 |
| Middlesex " | . | . | . | . | . | 1,800.00 |
| New London " (including the income of the Tracy-Eaton Fund), | . | . | . | . | . | 3,350.00 |
| Total Appropriations, | . | . | . | . | . | $12,750.00 |

To meet these Appropriations said sum of $12,000 was apportioned among the several Archdeaconries, as follows, viz.:

|-------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|-------------|
| Fairfield Archdeaconry, | . | . | . | . | . | $3,669.00 |
| Litchfield " | . | . | . | . | . | 986.00 |
| New Haven " | . | . | . | . | . | 3,689.00 |
| Hartford " | . | . | . | . | . | 2,010.00 |
| Middlesex " | . | . | . | . | . | 654.00 |
| New London " | . | . | . | . | . | 992.00 |
| Total Apportionments, | . | . | . | . | . | $12,000.00 |

Pursuant to the rule of the Board, made some years ago, on difference between the Appropriation and Apportionment in each deaconry is in fact paid to, or paid by the Treasurer, as the case may be. The sums actually paid to and received from the several deaconries were as follows:

| | | | | | | |
|---------------------------------------|---|---|---|---|-------------|------------|
| Paid to Litchfield Archdeaconry, | . | . | . | . | . | $ |
| Hartford " | . | . | . | . | . | |
| Middlesex " | . | . | . | . | . | 1 |
| New London " | . | . | . | . | . | 2 |
| | | | | | | — |
| | | | | | | $2 |
| Received from New Haven Archdeaconry: | | | | | | |
| On account 1900-1901, | . | . | . | . | $1,639.00 | |
| Received from Fairfield Archdeaconry: | | | | | | |
| Balance in full for 1898-1899, | . | | | | $264.70 | |
| On account 1900-1901, | . | . | . | . | 935.30 | |
| | | | | | <hr/> | 1,200.00 2 |

This difference has not been met from the Society's income Apportionments, and it has been necessary to borrow for that purpose.

There is due from the Fairfield Archdeaconry, on old account (for years prior to 1898), the sum of $234; and for the year 1900 the sum of $1,087.70; and for the year just closed, the sum of $1,000.00; and from the New Haven Archdeaconry for the year 1900-1901 the sum of $161, and for the year just closed, the sum of $1,939.

DONATIONS

The Board gratefully acknowledges the receipt of special offerings from Pequot Chapel, New London. The Woman's Church Mission Association, and St. Paul's Parish, Norwalk; and contributions to the debt of the Society from St. Andrew's Parish, Bloomfield, Rev. Draper, New Milford, and Mr. James J. Goodwin.

LEGACIES

The legacy of $1,000 under the will of Flora M. Mallett, late of Trumbull, notice of which was given in our last report, has been received during the year.

The Society has received $4,850 on account of the legacy of $5,000 under the will of Caroline L. Sanford, late of Stamford.

A legacy of $100 under the will of Susan A. Tryon, late of Middletown, has been received during the year.

These legacies were used towards the payment of the debt of the Society, except $500 of the Mallett Legacy, which was used to cover the debt of St. John's Chapel, Forestville.

LIABILITIES

By virtue of the legacies received, the amount of the liabilities has been reduced from $8,000 to $3,000. This indebtedness is due entirely to the failure of Fairfield and New Haven Archdeaconries to pay their Apportionments, and has been incurred for running expenses only. It is the accumulation of several years.

ADDITIONS

A new Rectory has been built on the land of the Society at Danielson. The Mission Chapel at Noank, the product of the Sunday School Advent offerings, is in process of construction.

A valuable sum has also been received for the benefit of St. Paul's, Southington, under the will of Mrs. O. D. Payne.

CONCLUSION

For the names of the several Parishes and Missions contributing to the Society, with the amount of their contributions, and for the names of the Parishes and Mission Stations receiving aid, with the amounts paid to them, as well as for a description of the condition and progress of missionary work in the Diocese, we refer you to the reports from the several Archdeaconries, all of which are herewith presented. (Appendix F.)

We are grateful for all efforts on our behalf, and welcome any contributions of money or labor; and we take this opportunity to thank all those who have helped us in this way.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board,

BURTON MANSFIELD, Secretary.

APPENDIX F.

REPORTS OF THE ARCHDEACONRIES

I.

Fairfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Fairfield respectfully reports that the Archdeaconry has given aid to the same Parishes and Mission Stations, eight in number, as last year.

At Easton the customary services have been held regularly, and nearly a hundred pastoral visits have been made. We have not lost any of the members of this Parish during the past year, and have had three additions to our number. When considering the importance of the work at Easton, it is well also to remember that this assistance given there makes it possible to keep open the Church at Tashua, as the two Parishes are combined in one cure.

There is much, very much, to encourage us in the work in old St. Paul's, Huntington. The vacancy here was filled, on the first of January, by the appointment of the Rev. H. L. Everest, a Clergyman of ability and experience, who says in his last report that "the congregations and the Sunday School have increased largely. We had a good Lent and Easter. The people are in earnest in doing their part, trying to help themselves. We have organized a branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, also an Altar Guild of six efficient members. With help from outside friends we are beginning to refit our chancel."

The Rev. Mr. Goldsborough continues in charge at St. Peter's Church, Monroe, and the condition of the work remains about the same.

At Nichols the Parish Church is in good repair, and services have been held regularly. The Parish has held its own, and is out of debt for current expenses. In December a class of five received Confirmation.

At Redding the present Rector has been in charge only since September first. He reports that everything connected with this Parish is in a very encouraging condition. The fencing formerly surrounding the rectory was in ruins, but it has now been newly built. The Rector has raised nearly two hundred dollars and turned it over to the Parish treasurer to be used for repairs on the rectory.

Emmanuel Church, Weston, has been served by the Rector of Redding since November third. Matters were discouraging and so continued for some time. The Parish was in debt, and it was slow work paying it off. But within the last two months things have brightened considerably. Both the congregations and the offerings have increased.

The Rev. W. I. Magill has continued his faithful work at the in the town of Greenwich. At Glenville the same conditions obtain last year's report. Some progress has been made at Round Hill; outlook, however, is more hopeful than at any time since the Missionary has been in charge. The Church building, within and without, is in the best condition. At St. John's Chapel, Byram, this is a good year. Financially, and in other ways, the Mission gives evidence of increasing strength. The Missionary, who has seen the day things, is greatly encouraged for the future. He wishes to put on his sincere thanks to the Rector of Christ Church, Greenwich, for aid during the year.

The Rev. Eaton W. Maxcy, D.D., an example to his brethren, devoted Parish Priest, has continued to push the work at St. Bridgeport, and the year has been marked by many tokens of blessing. The services are well attended, there is excellent music; the Sunday School is still the largest of any that we have in the town. The people are doing all they possibly can; but their means are small and an appropriation from your Society is still a necessity.

At St. George's Mission, Bridgeport, the transfer to it of the property used by the congregation from the beginning has been accomplished. A trustee appointed on behalf of the Mission now holds the title; there is considerable encumbrance upon the property. The Missionary in charge, the Rev. George A. Robson, still continues to engage in the work because of insufficient financial support.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

LOUIS N. BOOTH, Archdeacon of Fairfield

II.

Litchfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary-Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Litchfield respectfully reports that the work of the Archdeaconry has been carried on during the past year in much the same quiet, effectual way which has long characterized it.

The Archdeaconry, near the close of the year, lost the effective leadership of Archdeacon George, who removed from the District.

During the year two Parishes, Marbledale and Roxbury, have become self-supporting. This was due to the generosity of Miss Salome Morehouse, who left by will to each Parish about $10,000 to become a permanent fund.

In Bridgewater hard and faithful work has been done by the Rector, the Rev. W. H. Dean, in spite of considerable disability owing to sickness. A class of eight was presented for Confirmation, and the services have been regularly maintained. The conditions in Bridgewater are not all that could be desired, and probably never will be; but the good work of the present Rector deserves recognition, and doubtless will bear fruit.

Christ Church, Canaan, continues to do its quiet work under the rectorship of the Rev. M. H. Mill. This Parish will probably be the next to become self-sustaining, and we hope to see it so at no distant day. Already it has almost reached the point, but hesitates to take the final step.

St. Andrew's, Kent, has prospered under the care of the Rev. G. H. Smith. Though the Parish is small in numbers and in means, it has ever been characterized by a high sense of honor and duty. Such is the spirit that should be encouraged, and it is the desire of the Archdeacon to increase their appropriation this year.

Plymouth, East Plymouth and Terryville are under the charge of the Rev. J. D. Gilliland. A class of nineteen was confirmed this year in the Parish Church at Plymouth; and of these, twelve were from the Terryville Mission. It is needless to say that good and satisfactory work is being done in spite of many discouragements through losses by death and removal.

Marbledale and Roxbury received aid until January 1st, when both decided to ask for help no longer. In both places the best of work is being done, and the Parishes builded on firm and solid foundations.

Riverton continues to be a problem. We cannot desert the few faithful souls there, yet neither is there prospect of betterment in the conditions. The only solution seems to be the present one, of granting to Riverton an appropriation to be given to the Rector of St. John's Church, Pine Meadow, for regular ministrations.

St. Paul's, Woodbury, continues to prosper under the rectorship of the Rev. L. Robert Sheffield. Besides this Parish, Mr. Sheffield has charge of Christ Church, Bethlehem, and also holds services in Southbury. It is a hard field, and requires much physical as well as mental labor; but the present incumbent has proved equal to it, and the Parishes have been strengthened and increased year by year.

Oakville has not had a resident Minister in charge during the last half year. It is under the care of the Rector of Christ Church, Watertown. No appropriation has been asked for.

The Parish of Trinity Church, Northfield, seems to be awakening to new life. An appropriation has been asked for. For many years dissensions within the Parish have prevented any work being done; but a disposition to unite and work for the Master's cause seems now to prevail and deserves encouragement.

The services in the Church of the Transfiguration, Norfolk, were maintained as usual during the summer season last year. All expenses were paid and all canonical assessments met. This year many of the chief supporters of the Chapel are not expecting to return, but it is hoped that others will take their places.

This year the Archdeaconry asks for less than last year by $175, and though it may be but a vision, it seems to see the day approaching when it shall give as much as it receives.

Every Parish and Mission has paid its apportionment in full.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. PLUMB, Archdeacon.

III.

New Haven Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of New Haven respectfully reports:

Ten Parishes and one Mission have been aided during the past year. The assisted Parishes are Christ Church, Bethany; Grace Church, Hamden; Christ Church, East Haven; St. Luke's Church, New Haven; Zion Church, North Branford; St. Andrew's Church, Northford; St. John's Church, North Guilford; St. Peter's Church, Oxford; Christ Church, Quaker Farms; and St. James's Church, New Haven (Westville).

The assisted Mission is in South Meriden, under the care of the Rev. Robert C. Tongue, Rector of All Saints' Church, Meriden. This is a most encouraging work and worthy of the small amount ($50) which the Archdeaconry appropriates each year. There is a Sunday School of fifty-five scholars and teachers.

St. James's Church, New Haven (Westville), is still under the efficient care of the Rev. J. Frederick Sexton, who has been diligent in all the parish work. The services have been well attended. The Church building has been repaired during the past year, and the Rectory made comfortable by the gift from a friend of a hot-water heater.

The Rev. Lewis F. Morris reports that Christ Church, Bethany, goes along as usual. It being strictly speaking a rural Parish, there is very little chance for growth. "We are the only religious society that maintains a resident Minister in Bethany. The Parish is out of debt, and has in the bank a little money, which will be used in making needed repairs on the Church building."

It is a great pleasure to report that St. Luke's Church, New Haven, our work among the colored people, is in a most flourishing condition. The faithful Rector, the Rev. Eugene L. Henderson, says in his report that St. Luke's "shows indications of life, and notwithstanding some serious drawbacks during the year, the past has been one of steady progress. One of the hopeful signs for St. Luke's is that people hitherto prejudiced and antagonistic are becoming friendly, and some of them have become candidates for Confirmation." The day is not far distant when St. Luke's congregation must have a new Church building. A class of thirty-one was confirmed the past year.

Christ Church, East Haven, is under the care of the Rev. John H. Jackson, Deacon. Mr. Jackson seems to be infusing new life into this Parish, and confidence seems to be restored.

Christ Church, Quaker Farms, and St. Peter's Church, Oxford, have been under the pastoral supervision of the Rev. William S. Rafter the past year, as Minister in charge. The Bishop made a visitation to both of these Parishes in April last, and confirmed ten persons. The Archdeacon accompanied the Bishop.

The Rev. James E. Coley, Minister in charge of Grace Church, Hamden, reports that the condition of the Parish is encouraging, although weak financially. It is only by the assistance of the Archdeaconry that the Parish is able to report anything like a possibility of meeting necessary expenses.

The Rev. J. D. S. Pardee, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Northford, reports that the services are well attended, and says, "I am pleased to report there is a gradual increase in number, especially at the evening service. The Church has been repaired, and a new carpet placed upon the floor. The people seem deeply interested, and the future prospects of St. Andrew's are encouraging."

St. John's Church, North Guilford, and Zion Church, North Branford, are still under the spiritual care of the Rev. A. MacDougall, Ph.D. In his report the Rector says: "I have but little to write. We move along quietly and most agreeably, but we cannot possibly make the advance which we would wish. The material is not here. Services in both places are supported largely by endowment. There are but few persons who are in a position to contribute to any fair extent to the schemes of the Church."

From the above reports it will be noted that the work of the New Haven Archdeaconry is entirely given, with one exception, this year, as last, to the support of established Parishes. Apparently in several cases, as the Archdeacon remarked in his first report, there is not much encouragement for the future; and yet it is most desirable and only proper that the services of our Church should be given to the faithful few who are still residing within the boundaries of these rural Parishes.

The Parishes and Missions receiving assistance have been paid their appropriations. The Parishes, with few exceptions, have paid their apportionments in full for the current year, and the total amount received by the Treasurer is larger than last year.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

GEORGE HICKMAN BUCK,

Archdeacon of New Haven.

Hartford Archdeaconry*To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:*

The Missionary work in the Hartford Archdeaconry has been, on the whole, encouraging. Most of the Churches have been well manned, and progress has been steady. We have only words of praise for our Missionaries. They are earnest, self-sacrificing, consecrated and efficient.

Trinity Church, Collinsville; Grace Church, Newington; St. Luke's, South Glastonbury; and the Churches in Suffield and Windsor Locks, have all had a year of quiet prosperity.

The people of St. John's, Forestville, are happy in their new, beautiful Chapel. It was consecrated by Bishop Brewster, June 20th, in connection with a large meeting of the Archdeaconry. In their prosperity they have reduced their application for aid from $100 to $80. The Rev. Wm. H. Morrison is still Rector.

St. Gabriel's, East Berlin, has had a most disappointing year. Nearly half of the active supporters of the Mission have moved away. The income fell off from over six to four dollars a week. The Minister in charge, the Rev. Stephen H. Alling, was compelled to resign for lack of support, the first Sunday after Easter. Since that time the Rev. Robert H. Burton, a Deacon, has supplied from Hartford. He has found little there to encourage him. There seems to be a sad lack of both harmony and interest among the people.

St. James's Church, Glastonbury, has had an awakening under the vigorous ministry of the Rev. Joseph R. Peckham. Unfortunately Mr. Peckham was called to a larger field, May 1st. Immediate steps have been taken to fill his place. The people have increased their subscriptions from $400 to $500, and there is a better outlook than for many years.

The Rev. Herbert B. Pulsifer assumed the charge of the Church of Our Saviour, Plainville, December 1st. The field is a discouraging one, but he has done as well as any one could ask. He has held 125 services, presented 3 for Confirmation, and baptized 9. The outlook is not as bright as we could wish.

The patient, wise labors of the Rev. J. F. George in Rockville are beginning to tell in permanent results. Church attendance has increased, new families have been added, the income has been enlarged, the Sunday School has been graded and otherwise improved, and the Church has taken a higher position in the city. They are still handicapped by a burdensome debt. If that was removed the Parish would be self-supporting.

St. Paul's, Southington, under the lead of the Rev. Alfred Taylor, keeps up its record of splendid progress. The event of the year was the consecration of a new organ costing over $1,600. The stipend of the Minister has been increased; and, best of all, the spiritual life of the Mission has deepened.

Christ Church, Unionville, after two years, has found a Rector. The Rev. Reginald R. Parker began his work there on Whitsunday. He was most cordially received.

St. James's, Farmington, is united and prosperous under the leadership of the new Rector, the Rev. E. B. Dean.

Grace Church, Broad Brook, has been admirably served by Mr. Edmund J. Cleveland, Jr., a student in Trinity College, under the direction of the Rev. William J. Brewster of Warehouse Point. Excellent progress has been made. They are anxious to secure a resident Rector, but we think it best to ask them to continue the present arrangement for another year. The stipend would be only $600. It is a real hardship to ask a Clergyman to support himself upon that sum.

Mr. Richard A. Edwards, a Trinity student, has been reading for St. Andrew's, Bloomfield, and will continue there.

The Rev. Jesse E. Heald has had a busy and most interesting year at Trinity Church, Tariffville. The students from Westminster School and Woodside Seminary, in Simsbury, have helped to swell the congregation. A large class was presented for Confirmation, and the financial condition of the Parish has improved.

We have opened up no new work. There is opportunity in Hartford and Manchester. We hope to take advantage of it.

The meetings of the Archdeaconry have been remarkable for both attendance and interest. The Missionary spirit among the Clergy is profound. The outlook for the Church is more encouraging than for many years.

JACOB A. BIDDLE, Archdeacon.

Middlesex Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Middlesex begs leave to report:

He is happy to be able to say that, in spite of the usual discouragements and drawbacks, in no year since he has become Archdeacon have the conditions in most parts of his field seemed healthier or more promising. Particular note will be made of this in the proper places. Five Parishes and five Mission Stations have been assisted by the Archdeaconry to about the same extent as they were assisted last year; viz.: the Holy Advent, Clinton; Epiphany, Durham; Emmanuel Church, Killingworth; St. Paul's, Middlefield; Christ Church, Middle Haddam; and the Missions at Ponsett, Westbrook, Ivoryton, Chester and Hadlyme.

The rectorship of the Holy Advent, Clinton, which was vacant at the beginning of the conventional year, has been filled, the Rev. George M. Stanley, for twenty-one years the faithful Rector of St. James's Church, Winstêd, having been called to take charge. He reports that a rectory has been purchased at a cost of $3,200, and $2,000 paid upon it. This Parish is important out of proportion to its size, not only on account of the growing summer colony at Clinton, but also on account of the Morgan Boarding School nearby, which is attended by many pupils from Church families. The new Rector hopes for some strength and increase from these sources.

Epiphany Church, Durham, and St. Paul's, Middlefield, continue about the same under the Rev. Joseph Hooper, with nothing new to note, having all they can do to keep up against the constant drain by death and removal, and with very little chance of growth from new material.

The scattered flocks at Killingworth and Ponsett hold together remarkably well in spite of many discouragements, the farms about them fast falling into the hands of alien peoples who have no affinity for the Church. The Rev. Mr. Knowles, who has faithfully ministered to them for many years, has recently begun to hold occasional services at the old town of Haddam, where, though there cannot be much prospect of increase, there is opportunity for doing some good.

Christ Church, Middle Haddam, had some trying experiences at the beginning of the conventional year, its services having to be suspended for several weeks owing to an epidemic of small-pox in the town. It was also for some months without a Rector, the Rev. Mr. Sniffen having resigned in June and removed from the Archdeaconry. But, with the coming of Prof. S. R. Colladay to take charge in the fall, everything changed, the people took new heart and new interest was awakened, so that things look bright there now.

The Mission at Hadlyme, which was opened only a few years ago, has scored a great success in the erection of a neat and substantial Chapel at a cost of $1,250, all of which has been raised and paid. The Chapel was opened and consecrated by the Bishop in the fall, a large number from Middletown and other parts of the Archdeaconry being present to rejoice with the earnest people of the Mission. Great credit is due to the Minister-in-charge, the Rev. Mr. Griffith of St. Stephen's Church, East Haddam, whose patience and zeal have been mainly instrumental in achieving this success. Judge Willey, although 84 years old, still reads service and makes an address on the morning of every Lord's Day. The whole history of the Mission is an object lesson of Church interest and zeal.

The Missions at Ivoryton and Chester, which were a source of uneasiness to the Archdeacon at this time last year, have entirely changed for the better. They have taken on new life and developed much strength. There has been no lapse of a service at either place on a single Sunday throughout the year.

The Mission at Chester has been served, since January, by a lay-reader from Yale College, Mr. Burton H. Lee. The congregations have grown, the people are united and enthusiastic, and have begun a fund for a Chapel.

All Saints' Mission at Ivoryton was taken in charge early in the winter by the Rector and Vestry of St. John's Church, Essex, on the invitation of the Bishop and Archdeacon. The Rector at Essex holds service there on the evening of every Lord's Day, and celebrates the Holy Communion each month at 9 A. M. He reports that the hall where they meet is not adequate to accommodate the large number who wish to attend, besides being inconveniently situated; and a little Chapel of our own is an imperative necessity. Ivoryton certainly offers an unusual opportunity for the building up of a thriving Mission. It is full of young people working in the factories, and there is no place of worship for them to attend except a Congregational Chapel some distance from the center of the village. The Minister-in-charge gives assurance that if the Missionary Board would furnish the building lot, there would be no difficulty in obtaining funds in the place to build a nice Chapel. He has secured the refusal of a good site, awaiting the action of the Board. The Mission is at present feeling the impulse of a new awakening, and it is an opportunity not to be passed by. Much credit is due to the Rev. Percy Barnes for his earnest work there during the past six months.

The Mission at Westbrook is largely a summer one, although services have been regularly maintained throughout the year. But there is not much to work on in the winter. Mr. J. W. Walker, a student at Trinity College, has been the lay-reader. None of our Missions are strong enough to support a Clergyman, and they are too far apart to be easily united into one charge; so lay-reading is the best we can afford with the small means at our disposal.

Grateful acknowledgment is due to the Rev. H. L. Mitchell, Rector of Grace Church, Saybrook, who has kindly celebrated the Holy Communion once a month at Westbrook.

We shall need for our work the ensuing year quite as much assistance from the Board as we received last year, and a little more if it can be spared.

All of our Parishes, with one exception, have paid their apportionments. This one probably will soon be heard from.

Before closing this report, the Archdeacon would state, that the Rev. U. H. Spencer, whose break-down in health and resignation of his charge was noted last year, removed to California some months ago, where he died. Mr. Spencer came among us with the apparent determination and hope to do a good work for Christ and his Church. But the fatal disease which finally cut him off had a fast hold of him, unknown to himself and to us, and almost ere he had taken up his tools he was compelled to lay them down again. He was a man of quiet Christian worth and was well spoken of by the people of the Mission.

Respectfully submitted,

O. H. RAFTERY, Archdeacon.

New London Archdeaconry*To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:*

During the past year the Archdeacon has visited officially all of the Missions and aided Parishes in his territory except two. At these visitations the Lay Helpers, or Vestrymen, have been called together to meet the Archdeacon, to discuss the existing conditions and devise plans for future work. As the result of these visitations, the Archdeacon makes the following report:

St. Peter's, Hebron, is one of the oldest Parishes in the United States, and about it cluster some of the most picturesque incidents in American Church history. A former Rector, the Rev. Dr. Peters, was a most untiring missionary. Stories of his journeys through the Connecticut Valley as far north as to Claremont, N. H., and then across the Green Mountains and down the Champlain Valley, are still told by the grandchildren and great-grandchildren of those early settlers to whom he ministered. Who can ever know how much of the present prosperity of the Diocese of Vermont (of which he was elected Bishop, though never consecrated) is due to the Rev. Dr. Peters, of St. Peter's Parish, Hebron? In the days of Hebron's prosperity generous legacies were left for the support of the Parish; the income from these legacies is now scarcely one-third of what it has been, and the venerable Parish must be supported in thankful recognition of its past benefits to the Church at large. The Rev. John H. Fitzgerald, the present Rector, ministers also at Colchester, Andover, Turnerville and all the region about. At Calvary Church, Colchester, the people have responded cheerfully to the Archdeacon's requests, and are contributing as liberally as their means will allow to the support of their Parish.

The Rev. Theodore M. Peck is ministering to the three Missions in the Lymes. It seems to the Archdeacon that the time has come when Niantic, Flanders and Millstone require more services than it is possible for one man to give. The Girls' Friendly Society of the Diocese has agreed to support a member of the senior class of the New York Deaconess's Training School at Niantic during the coming summer. It is hoped that the problem of this region may be solved by making it an Associate Mission, with one Priest and a Deacon or layman to help him; or by putting two Priests into this field.

The Rev. Paul F. Hoffman resigned the Groton Mission last October. Since then the services have been maintained by Mr. William M. Stark as a lay-reader, with the Rev. Alfred Poole Grint, Ph.D., going from time to time to celebrate the Holy Eucharist. The Rev. Millidge Walker is expected to take charge of the Mission in May.

The Rev. Albert Corey Jones has taken charge of St. Mark's, Mystic, and the Ascension Chapel at Noank. Evidences of renewed and vigorous life at Mystic are plainly seen. Work is already begun upon the new stone Chapel at Noank; and the money to pay for it has been contributed by the Sunday Schools of the Diocese.

Calvary Church, Stonington, has made a decided advance in the last few years. The present Rector, the Rev. Richard D. Hatch, has recently presented one of the largest classes for Confirmation ever presented in the Parish. The establishment of electric lights in all the parish buildings, an enlarged organ and a redecorated Church, show signs of improved financial condition.

St. James's, Poquetanuck, the Rev. William H. Jepson, Rector, has met the requirements of the Archdeaconry. The Parish itself is in such good condition, that with its endowment and an increase of offerings on the part of the Communicants, it should soon cease to be an aided Parish.

The Rev. Henry Macbeth continues in charge of St. Paul's Church, Willimantic, and St. Paul's Church, Windham. The Church in Willimantic has lost through removal some of its best supporters, and therefore cannot become self-supporting this year. In several of the cities and large towns of eastern Connecticut the operatives in the mills form a large percentage of the population; and, owing to its shifting about from place to place, our Churches must be maintained as Missions, when it would seem that the cities were large enough to support Parishes.

St. Alban's, Danielson, the Rev. George A. Alcott, Missionary-in-charge, rejoices in a new rectory, built and paid for during the past year. The funds were raised by the indefatigable Missionary, aided by the Archdeaconry's appropriation; and the Mission surrenders a large proportion of its appropriation. Both St. Alban's and its Mission at Moosup have made decided growth this last year.

St. Philip's, Putnam, under the care of the Rev. C. S. M. Stewart, has made healthy growth. The mortgage on the Rectory has been reduced, all its bills paid up to Easter, and the outlook is most encouraging.

Grace Church, Stafford Springs, has not been officially visited.

The New London Archdeaconry covers nearly one-half of the State, and that the most thinly populated portion. Except in the hill towns, where the population is decreasing, the Church is showing an increased life and activity. The Archdeacon has recommended in all Missions and aided Parishes the adoption of the envelope system, or a system of definite pledges, for the support of the Mission or Parish. And he is convinced that with a system of pledges some of the aided Parishes would soon become again self-supporting.

The Archdeacon recommends for the future a reduction of from five to fifteen per cent. on all appropriations to active Mission Stations; and that no Priest be located where the salary paid by the people is less than $600 per annum.

Respectfully submitted,

LUCIUS MARTIN HARDY,

Archdeacon of New London.

POMFRET, CONN., Easter-tide, 1902.

Church Scholarship SocietyANNUAL MEETING AND REPORT

TRINITY CHURCH, HARTFORD, June 10, 1902.

The annual meeting was held at this time and place, the Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., President, in the chair.

The Rev. Oliver H. Raftery, Secretary, presented the following

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The first thought of the Board of Education of the Church Scholarship Society, in summing up the record of the past year, is the great loss which the Society has sustained in the death of its late faithful and most efficient Secretary and Treasurer, the Rev. Cornelius Gardner Bristol, who passed into the rest of Paradise on the thirtieth of November last. He had held both these offices for a period of more than seven years; and it is not too much to say that anyone who has sat with him on the Board of Education and has watched his conduct of its affairs, will find it hard adequately to express his sense of the debt which this Society owes to him. The duties of these offices are not light when performed with even ordinary attention and care; but his discharge of them was far from ordinary. He threw himself enthusiastically into the interests of this Society, and spent himself unsparingly in its service; and its present sound and prosperous condition is due, in no small degree, to his wise, zealous and business-like administration of its affairs. It is gratifying to know that he lived long enough to see his ideals for the Society largely realized. In his last report a year ago he writes: "The Church Scholarship Society has come to the close of the seventy-fourth year of its existence, after a very successful period, and with prospects of a bright future. That the policy of the Society still commends itself to its old patrons, and that it has raised up new friends, is evidenced by the fact that along four lines at least its success has been marked. First, the amount of offerings received from Parishes during the past twelve months has been much above the average for the last ten years. Second, the number of Parishes contributing (66) is larger than in any year since 1880. Third, the amount of individual offerings has been larger than in any year of which the Secretary has record. And fourth, the number and amount of the repaid notes surpassed any year since 1876." If one should attempt to particularize and point out the special lines along which Mr. Bristol's services were most valuable and successful, they would be these; and no words could better summarize the difficult and delicate work which he did for the Society, and which will tell for years to come, deserving not merely present acknowledgment but lasting appreciation.

In respect to the business of the year, the Board would report that fifty-four Parishes have complied with the Canon in taking up offerings for the Society, as against sixty-six last year. But the total receipts from the Parishes have been larger than last year; $670 as against $614. Twelve notes aggregating $355 have been paid in full, and three in part. Eight students are at present being assisted by the Society, six at Trinity College and two at the Berkeley Divinity School; and good accounts have been received of the character and scholarship of all. A legacy of $100 has been received from the estate of the Rev. J. L. Scott of Wallingford.

In rounding out the period of 75 years of continuous service to the Church in Connecticut, as it does this year, the Church Scholarship Society may be pardoned if it takes just pride in its record and achievements. The Board expects to mark this anniversary by publishing a pamphlet next year on the history and work of the Society. It may therefore suffice to say now, (if we may quote the figures compiled by a member of the Board, Mr. Samuel Taylor of Hartford,) "that in the whole period since its formation in 1827 there have been 2,484 separate payments to beneficiaries, at an average of $35 each, making a total of about $81,000." Those benefited are to be found in every Diocese in the country, and have expressed the greatest gratitude for the aid extended to them. "Your Society helped me when I needed it, and the debt I owe it is near to me all the time," writes one: "I shall always have a kindly feeling for the Society, which relieved me of so much anxiety during my college days," writes another: and so on.

We are living in an age which requires, more than any age that has gone before it, a well-equipped, educated Ministry; and it is for this that the Church Scholarship Society stands. Surely its seventy-five years of useful and unselfish service ought to be remembered and speak for it. We commend it to the sympathy, the prayers and the generous support of the whole Church in Connecticut, until every Parish in the Diocese shall see not only its duty but its opportunity to take up an annual offering for its work.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board of Education.

O. H. RAFTERY, Secretary.

On motion, the Report was accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal.

Mr. Ward C. Powell, Treasurer, then presented his Report, which was disposed of in like manner.

On motion of the Rev. Foster Ely, D.D., the following persons were then elected members of the

APPENDIX K.

Terrell Fund

The late Mr. Elmore Terrell, of New Milford, bequeathed the sum of $5,476.90 to form a permanent fund, which became available January 1, 1887, the income to be used "for the support of the Ministry in the poor and feeble Protestant Episcopal Churches situated in Litchfield County, State of Connecticut; and the person who shall be the Bishop shall designate what Churches in said County shall be aided in manner aforesaid; also designate the amount each shall receive from the income of said fund."

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEE

To the Rt. Rev. C. B. Brewster, D.D.:

Dear Sir: Below you will find a statement of the income and expenditures of the Terrell Fund for the current year to the Annual Convention, June, 1902, with an inventory of the assets.

Faithfully yours,

C. A. TODD, Trustee.

APPENDIX L.

American Church Building Fund

REPORT OF DIOCESAN COMMISSIONERS

During the twelve months ending June 1, 1901, twenty-seven Parishes and one individual gave to the Fund the sum of $576.95. During the last twelve months ending June 1, 1902, nineteen Parishes have given the sum of $222.84. Comparing this conventional year with the last, our offering has decreased in the sum of $354.11.

Your Commissioners are somewhat at a loss as to what course to pursue to arouse an interest in the matter. The Convention of 1887 recommended annual contributions from every congregation. The recommendation has not been complied with during the last year by 129 Parishes out of the 148 that are in union with this Convention. Nearly one-half of these contributing Parishes, it is to be noted, have small Communicant lists. With but two or three exceptions, those Parishes with large memberships and well-known financial ability have failed to respond to the recommendation of this Convention. Perhaps it would be well for the Clergymen and laymen of Connecticut to read the report made to the Board of Missions in San Francisco, last October, by the special Committee through its Chairman, the Bishop of Central Pennsylvania. A portion of that report reads as follows: "This is one of our chosen Missionary agencies. We have created it, and called it into existence for a certain large and important purpose. The Bishops have, with striking unanimity, in the strongest language, commended it. It is ary now that the Church should recognize it as a part of machinery; as incorporated into its Missionary system, and with our loyal support." contributions is appended.

A. T. RANDALL,
JNO. H. SAGE,
Diocesan Commissioners.

The number of Communicants appears smaller this year owing to those at South Lyme being reported separately. There are about ten other Communicants in the field of the Mission registered elsewhere.

The Neighborhood Guild, the Sewing School, and the Boys' Club have had an unusually successful season, with large and regular attendance, and good work accomplished.

During Lent the Guild prepared articles for the Mountaineers at Tryon, N. C., valued at $24.50.

During the year the balance due on the barn has been paid, and the barn thoroughly painted, at a cost of $25.00, which is also paid.

The item of $658.88 was for a Rectory, which was begun last August and occupied in February. It cost $3,710.31, of which sum the people in Mission gave $1,305.36. As a result of having the Rectory, $150 were relinquished of the Archdeaconry appropriation.

During the past year, Mr. Rockwell F. Lyon, a valued member of Church, died, and left $1,000 as an endowment to the Church.

A fund for the care of the Church and Rectory was begun on All Saint Day.

Two Missionary barrels valued at $71.35 were sent off the past year.

The Minister now in charge has only been there since the second Sunday after Easter, April 13th, so found it difficult to make a correct report on account of a new Treasurer having lately been elected, and from the fact of so many having moved from East Berlin within the past year. There is now a good prospect of the trolley being extended from Berlin to East Berlin, which ought to help the town and the Mission.

Would also add that the Guild have $75 in bank towards building horse sheds in Church yard. The Guild and the King's Daughters have been very helpful.

Through the great liberality of Mrs. William Brewster, a parishioner of Grace Church, funds to the amount of fifteen hundred dollars have been provided for the erection of a handsome and commodious Parish House, which will be commenced in a few weeks. The building will be of Colonial design, and will be erected directly opposite the Church, upon a site secured by the Parish for the purpose.

The Ladies' Parish Aid Society have continued their efficient work during the past year, and prepared a Lenten Missionary Box of clothing valued at twelve dollars, which is not included in the parochial report.

For one-half of the year a monthly Sunday afternoon service is held by the Rector of Torrington, when congregations varying from sixty to one hundred are in attendance. There was a celebration of the Holy Communion on St. James's Day with an attendance of nine Communicants and an offering for the Infirm Clergy Fund.

During the past year the interior of the Church has been repaired and painted, the cost being defrayed by Mr. William McConway of Pittsburg, Penn.

Besides money reported above, the ladies have raised during the $142.45, which they have expended on "repairs and improvements." young ladies and the Junior Auxiliary have raised $101.30 for missionary other purposes. The Woman's Auxiliary has sent two boxes, one value $30.55, the other at $19.00.

The Baptisms for the past year exceed by one last year's number, which the largest for any year of the Parish's history.

Record must be made of the death of Mr. James H. Barnum, who was Warden of this Parish for 30 years. He died on St. Stephen's Day. He was a loyal servant of Christ, supporting His cause both by his example and his pocketbook.

The Rector has been in charge of the Parish four months. This, in a measure, accounts for the omission of quite a few items which entered into last year's report. Substantial repairs, to the effect of beautifying and rendering the Rectory most convenient, have been completed, the expense being met by the hearty coöperation of the Men's and Ladies' Guilds. The latter Guild has in hand a sufficient sum to re-carpet and thoroughly renovate the Church building. Altogether the outlook is bright.

Rector wishes to make grateful acknowledgment of the invaluable service in the services of the Church of the Reverend F. B. Draper, former Rector of the Parish, since his resignation a year ago.

The above report represents, nearly, the resident Communicants and baptized members, and, as far as possible, does not include the scholars and staff of the New Milford and Weantonaug schools in constant attendance during the academic year. The presence of the schools makes it difficult to arrive at any positive numerical standing of the Parish, for many teachers and scholars consider themselves as belonging to All Saints', not legally transferred; and a number confirmed each year, while living in New Milford, particularly request that their names be put on the Register.

The value of missionary boxes, sent out by the various organizations, amounting to about $325, is not included in the above financial report.

In the report of Communicants "present number," 21 represents the actually registered. There are at least 20 others living in the field of the Mission, but registered elsewhere.

In addition to the Sunday School there has been a social and philanthropic society called "The Good Friends Society." This was composed of the Sunday School and some ladies and gentlemen as leaders. The Society met monthly, for work or pleasure.

During the winter a Sewing School was carried on, with good result. An attempt was made to establish a Boy's Club, but owing to lack of a leader this was suspended.

During Lent garments were made and collected for the mountaineers Tryon, N. C., to the estimated value of $37.

Zion Church, North Branford, gratefully acknowledges the gift of some four hundred (400) Sunday School books from Trinity Church, Branford, through the Rector, the Rev. Henry William Winkley.

On account of scarcity of material, progress is necessarily slow; but there is a brighter future for North Branford. Our people are loyal and the future is hopeful.

In addition to my work at St. James's, Ponsett, and Emmanuel Church, Killingworth, I began in May, 1901, to hold service in St. Luke's Mission Room, Chester. With the exception of three stormy Sundays, one service was held each Sunday until November. One adult and two children were baptized. These baptisms will appear in the Archdeacon's report.

Since March 16th I have held evening service once in two weeks at Haddam. Here appears to be a suitable opening for a Mission.

Service has been regularly conducted every Sunday by a student from the Berkeley Divinity School at St. John Baptist Chapel, whose report is included above. The Rector regularly visits, preaches and celebrates at the Chapel.

The Parish gratefully acknowledges, in the above report, the addition of $2,000 to its endowment funds, a gift in loving memory of the Rev. William Jarvis, who was Rector of the Parish from 1828 to 1836.

It should be noted that the present Rector has been in charge only since October. He found the Church property in a very poor condition, and therefore is making every effort to put it in perfect repair. Already new pews have been built, and nearly two hundred dollars raised towards aid for repairing the Rectory.

A Church edifice designed by Heins and La Farge of New York, to cost $24,000, is in process of erection. The present plan of building is to complete the chancel and transepts and nave of Ansonia granite, leaving the tower and vestibule to be added in the future. This plan involves an expenditure of $19,500, of which $1,300 remains to be secured. Two years ago a site for the Church was purchased for $3,500, which makes the entire expenditure $23,000. The Church will be ready for services in December.

During the past conventional year the Parish has completed the payments of its Parish House, amounting to $3,983.63, and the House was dedicated by the Bishop on the evening of May 24th.

The Parish has received the bequest of Edward F. Lewis of $10,000 and of Ann Wilson Combes of $250.

On May 24 and 25 the Parish celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary with gratitude to Almighty God for the prosperity and success which have crowned its years.

The Parish is also to receive in a few months $1,000 from the estate of E. C. Lewis and $1,000 from the estate of Hannah Terrell.

FINANCIAL REPORT

Diocesan Missions, $9.00

The work of this Mission is merely a branch of the Parish of Christ Church, and is carried on by the Rector of Christ Church, assisted, from July, 1901, to December, by Rev. Claude N. A. Pooley, Deacon, and now by Mr. Sidney A. Dixon, M.A., Lay Reader. Little or no progress has been made until lately. Now, however, the Lay Reader begins to see encouraging signs. No separate report of the finances need be made, as the Mission does not attempt to do more than raise the small amount required to keep up the Chapel and its services, and to pay its assessment to Diocesan Missions. The "Families," "Communicants," etc., reported above are really enrolled among those pertaining to Christ Church, but for convenience those residing in Oakville are enumerated separately. Baptisms, marriages, etc., are recorded in the Christ Church Register.

Respectfully reports: That after giving up the charge of St. Gabriel's Mission, East Berlin, on Low Sunday, he has officiated twice at Unionville, three times at Glastonbury, and once in Suffield. On Trinity Sunday he began work as Rector of St. Peter's Church, Dansville, New York.

REV. EDMUND A. ANGELL

Respectfully reports: That since last Convention he has continued to act as Curate in St. Mary's Parish, Brooklyn, in the Diocese of Long Island; that during the time he has ministered, either wholly or in part, at 400 services, including the Holy Communion, as celebrant 41 times; as server 46 times. Baptisms, 14; marriages, 6; burials, 34; sermons, 34. Add to this the necessary office work and 2,185 pastoral visits.

REV. FREDERIC W. BAILEY

Respectfully reports: That he has given much attention to the Parochial Archives of the Diocese as the official copyist authorized by the Convention (a work about completed) and as Secretary of the Commission.

He has during the year assisted on Sundays several of the Clergy, and officiated in Parishes needing occasional supply.

REV. I. T. BECKWITH, D.D., PH.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been occupied with his duties as Professor in the General Theological Seminary, and has performed other clerical service from time to time as he has found opportunity.

REV. J. FOOTE BINGHAM, D.D., L.H.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the last year, previous to leaving America on the 18th of March, he had on several occasions (as often as opportunity offered), officiated in the services of the Church. Since that time, being in Italy, no occasion for such service has been presented.

REV. GEORGE BUCK

Respectfully reports: That since his resignation of Trinity Church, Northfield, Sept. 1, 1901, he has baptized one adult, administered the Holy Communion six times, attended one funeral, and conducted other services of the Church, and preached on several occasions.

REV. GEORGE H. CLARK, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been unable to officiate in the Church services.

REV. SYLVESTER CLARKE, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in his duties in the Berkeley Divinity School, and has, on a few occasions, assisted his brethren in Church.

REV. SAMUEL R. COLLADAY, B.D.

Respectfully reports: That in addition to his duties as Professor in the Berkeley Divinity School, he conducted services at Fenwick and Pleasure Beach during the summer of 1901, and at Trinity Church, Portland, during the absence of the Rector as Deputy to the General Convention. Since December 1st, 1901, he has been in charge of the Parish of Christ Church, Middle Haddam, of which he has lately accepted the rectorship.

REV. JOHN A. CROCKETT, B.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has been engaged in teaching in Ingleside School, and conducted occasional services for his brethren, during the past year.

REV. A. T. DELEARSY

Respectfully reports: That he has been engaged temporarily as Curate of the Martyrs' Memorial Church, St. Peter's Parish, Clerkenwell, London, E. C., since the early part of November, 1901, having previously obtained the canonical permissions of both the Archbishop of Canterbury and the Bishop of London, to officiate in the Province of the former and the Diocese of the latter. All the offices to which a Presbyter is entitled have been performed, with the exception of burial services.

REV. FRANK BARNARD DRAPER

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in his duties as Headmaster of the Weantinaug School, New Milford. He has assisted regularly in the services of All Saints' Memorial Church, officiating at all the celebrations of the Holy Communion since June, 1901, until the ordination to the priesthood of the Rev. Cranston Brenton, on May 14th last.

REV. SILAS BRAINARD DUFFIELD

Respectfully reports: That he has been "Minister in charge" during the past year of St. Thomas's Church, Somerville, Massachusetts.

REV. HENRY FERGUSON, LL.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been employed in his duties as a Professor in Trinity College, and has taken occasional services within the Diocese and in the Missionary Jurisdiction of Western Colorado.

REV. JOHN W. GILL, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That he officiated in the Diocese of Massachusetts at St. Paul's Church, Nantucket, four months and a half; that from July 1st to November 1st, four months, he officiated as Minister in charge of St. Paul's Church, Franklin, N. Y.; and from November 1st to January 7, 1902, two months, as Minister in charge of St. John's Church, Delhi, N. Y. For the last three months he has been in Keeseville, N. Y., attending to any that desire his services.

REV. FRANCIS GOODWIN, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has celebrated the Holy Communion, baptized, preached, and otherwise ministered as he has had opportunity.

REV. GEORGE CHAPMAN GRISWOLD, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has been engaged in the performance of the Church's ministrations most of the year, and much of the time under Archdeaconry direction. He was obliged to be absent from the Diocese, however, three months last winter, when his time was spent with relatives at a distance, who, on account of protracted feebleness, desired his presence.

REV. ALEXANDER HAMILTON

Respectfully reports: That he has continued as locum tenens, supply or assistant during the past conventional year, officiating in this Diocese, Massachusetts and New York. Baptisms, marriages and funerals are recorded in respective Parish Registers. Acknowledgment is again made of the courtesy of the Rectors and Vestries of the Norwalk Parishes.

REV. SAMUEL HART, D.D., D.C.L.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in the duties assigned him at the Berkeley Divinity School and in connection with the work of the General Convention. He has officiated frequently in the Chapel of St. Luke's; also once a month in Grace Church, Newington, on the afternoons of thirty Sundays in the Hartford Hospital, and elsewhere as he has been able. He has baptized four infants, solemnized two marriages, and officiated at twelve burials; these acts should be elsewhere reported.

REV. CHARLES H. HAYES, B.D.

Respectfully reports: That since his admission into the Diocese on November 9th, 1901, he has taken a share of the services in Trinity College Chapel; and has preached and held service occasionally at other places in this and in other Dioceses, namely; at Warehouse Point, Unionville, Windsor Locks, Suffield and South Manchester, and at Trinity Church, St. Thomas's, Christ Church and the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hartford, and at St. Mark's Pro-cathedral and the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, Washington, at Lebanon, Pennsylvania, and at Madison, New Jersey. He has celebrated the Holy Communion seventeen times, preached nineteen times, and officiated in New York at one wedding.

REV. FRANCIS D. HOSKINS

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in his duties as Corresponding Secretary of the Society for the Increase of the Ministry. He has also celebrated the Holy Communion ten times, and performed other clerical services.

REV. RALPH T. JEFFERSON

Respectfully reports: That since his resignation of the Parish of Weston last September, he has assisted nearly every Sunday at St. Luke's, Darien, and at other times at various places as occasion offered, viz.: Trinity, South Norwalk, Warwick, N. Y., St. Paul's, Norwalk, Union Chapel, West Norwalk. He has baptized one person and buried two.

REV. W. ALLEN JOHNSON

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has done such occasional duty as he could, preaching and celebrating the Holy Communion on several occasions in the Parish of the Holy Trinity, Middletown; also, baptizing one infant. He also held Sunday morning service in St. Ann's-by-the-Sea, Block Island, R. I., and officiated twice, by preaching and celebrating the Holy Communion, in Aiken, S. C.

REV. CHARLES JUDD

Respectfully reports: That he has done the duties of Mayo Fellow in the General Theological Seminary; and that on Sundays and other Holy Days he has either conducted services or assisted at services in the Parishes and Missions around New York City as occasion demanded.

REV. FREDERICK JOSEPH KINSMAN

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has discharged his duties as Professor in Church History in the Berkeley Divinity School. He has assisted in the services at St. Luke's Chapel, and, as opportunity has offered, has done clerical duty in various Parishes of the Diocese, as well as in the Dioceses of Maine, Massachusetts and Washington.

REV. HERMANN LILIENTHAL

Respectfully reports: That from July, 1901, to May, 1902, he has supplied the pulpit of Christ Church, Hartford; and since has ministered in various Parishes as occasion offered.

REV. WILLIAM LUSK

Respectfully reports: That he has officiated frequently as a supply in the Diocese until December; and from January to the last of May has given the Rt. Rev. Bishop Moreland of California considerable assistance in the Sacramento valley. His address continues to be North Haven.

REV. MARCH C. MAYO, B.D.

Respectfully reports: That he officiated on eleven Sundays during the summer within the Diocese. Since the eighteenth of September he has been engaged in the performance of the duties of Tolman Fellow of the General Theological Seminary, in connection with which appointment he has assisted the Rector of the Church of the Beloved Disciple in New York. He has also officiated a number of times during the winter in Hoboken, New Jersey, and in other places.

REV. ELMER TRUESDELL MERRILL

Respectfully reports: That during the past conventional year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as Rich Professor of Latin in Wesleyan University. He has officiated at one hundred and four services of the Church, has celebrated the Holy Communion twelve times, has assisted in the administration thereof five times, and has delivered fifteen sermons and addresses. He has also solemnized one marriage, which is doubtless duly reported elsewhere.

REV. A. DOUGLAS MILLER

Respectfully reports: That he has officiated during the last conventional year, as occasion offered, in the Dioceses of Connecticut, Newark and New York, for part of the year having had charge of the Parish in which he resides (Glen Ridge, N. J.).

REV. GIDEON DOUGLAS POND

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has assisted at the celebration of the Holy Communion 7 times, officiated at Divine service 24 times, assisted on other occasions 22 times, preached 32 times and officiated at 3 burials; all within the limits of Litchfield Archdeaconry.

REV. NATHAN T. PRATT

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has held 47 services; assisted at 5 others; preached 43 times, and officiated at 1 funeral (elsewhere reported).

REV. OLIVER SHERMAN PRESCOTT

Respectfully reports: That since the 7th of December he has been confined to his room with an injured ankle. Before that date he was able, as a rule, to say Evening Prayer daily in the Chapel of St. Paul's School, Priory Farm, Verbank, N. Y.; to offer the Holy Eucharist 93 times, to preach once in the Chapel at "The Home," to prepare a class for Confirmation and two persons for First Communion, and to minister to such as came to him for counsel and spiritual help.

It would be most unthankful if he did not record his gratitude to God for these privileges, and to the Brothers of Nazareth and others for all their kindness and considerateness on his behalf.

REV. THOMAS R. PYNCHON, D.D., LL.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as the Brownell Professor of Moral Philosophy in Trinity College. He has also assisted in the Chapel services, and from time to time in various Parishes in this and other Dioceses.

REV. WARREN H. ROBERTS

Respectfully reports: That on account of ill health he has not performed any public service of the Church.

REV. EDMUND ROWLAND, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has been absent from the country during the past year and has no ministerial work to report, save that he has assisted in services of Churches of our Communion in Europe, preaching several times in this city (Paris).

REV. GEORGE RUMNEY

Respectfully reports: That on account of continued ill health he has been unable to perform any clerical duty, with the exception of baptizing one infant.

REV. FRANCIS T. RUSSELL, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That for the past year he has been engaged chiefly in the duties of his Instructorship at the General Theological Seminary, making occasional visits as Rector of St. Margaret's Diocesan School for Girls in Waterbury, and has served at regular intervals as Assistant at Trinity Church, Waterbury, and more frequently has assisted the Rector of St. Stephen's Church in New York City.

REV. L. W. SALTONSTALL, B.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has officiated, when invited, in St. Stephen's, Memorial Church of the Advocate and St. Matthias Church in Philadelphia during the past winter, and is now in temporary charge of All Saints' Church, Worcester, Mass.

REV. CHARLES N. SHEPARD, B.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been chiefly engaged in the discharge of his duties as "Instructor in the Hebrew and Greek Languages" at the General Theological Seminary. From June to September he officiated at the private Chapel of St. Luke the Beloved Physician, Kingwood, N. J.; and during the winter he has frequently assisted in the services at the Church of the Incarnation, at Calvary Chapel, and elsewhere in New York. He has preached about twenty-five times, celebrated the Holy Communion about twenty-five times, and officiated at one funeral. The Trustees of the Seminary have now made him Adjunct Professor in the Department of Biblical Learning.

REV. P. L. SHEPARD

respectfully reports: That since June 1st, 1901, he has resided in the city of Calumet, Michigan. On Sundays, he has assisted the Rector of the Christ Church in the services, and has preached occasionally. He has so been able to aid in such Parish work as the Rector has designated. He has officiated at two marriages and at one funeral.

REV. EDWARD M. SKAGEN

respectfully reports: That during the conventional year he has had no cure of souls. That he generally assists the Rector of the Church of the Redeemer, New York City, and has also officiated in 16 other parishes and Missions situated in 8 several Dioceses. That during the period under report he has celebrated the Holy Communion 157 times, as conducted 121 other public services, has assisted at such celebrations or services 20 times, has preached 116 sermons, has baptized 3 persons, has performed 7 marriages, has held 6 burials, and has given 20 public instructions. That his present address is 273 West 136th St., New York City. That he is ready and desirous of resuming active work.

REV. GEO. WILLIAMSON SMITH, D.D., LL.D.

Respectfully reports: That he continues still on duty as President of Trinity College, and by permission of the Bishop of Connecticut he has preached five times within the Diocese during the last year.

REV. EVERETT B. SNIFFEN

respectfully reports: That he has during the conventional year of 1901-02 held 24 divine services, assisted at 7 others, preached 28 times, celebrated Holy Communion 6 times and assisted 4 times.

REV. W. G. SUMNER, LL.D.

respectfully reports: That he has been occupied during the last year in his duties as Professor in Yale College, and has performed no ritual services.

REV. JOHN TOWNSEND

respectfully reports: That during the past conventional year he has assisted several of the neighboring Clergy in their services as occasion suggested. Also has officiated at several funerals, the record of which has been made in the Parishes wherein they were held.

REV. J. TRAGITT, B.D.

respectfully reports: That during the convention year he has assisted the Sunday morning service of Trinity Church, Seymour, twice, conducted the service once, preached three times, administered Holy Communion twice, and assisted at the Communion service twice.

REV. MERRITT H. WELLMAN

Respectfully reports: That he has officiated at 5 public services, conducting Morning Prayer, preached 6 sermons, celebrated Holy Communion once, assisted at Holy Communion once, and celebrated Holy Communion in private 4 times.

REV. X. ALANSON WELTON

Respectfully reports: That since last report he has preached twice, celebrated Holy Communion 7 times, attended 1 funeral, and been kindly permitted to take part in the clerical services in Church on about 50 different occasions, all in Trinity Parish, Redlands, California.

REV. H. R. WHITLOCK

Respectfully reports: That he has performed no clerical services during the past year, owing to permanent ill health.

NOTE.—"Sittings" and "Free Sittings" are given as last reported, usually in 1899, but sometimes earlier. These items, being permanent and not changing annually, were omitted from the form for Parochial Report by the Convention of 1899, on the understanding that the Secretary would publish them in a separate list. Omissions in the list have been supplied so far as possible.

APPENDIX S.

Educational and Charitable Institutions

MAINTAINED OR CONDUCTED BY CHURCHMEN, AND LOCATED IN CONNECTICUT, BUT NOT UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE DIOCESE

Extract from Title I., Canon 20, § vi. of the Digest; (Canons of the General Convention, Edition of 1901.)

"All incorporated schools, all parochial schools, all academies and colleges, and all hospitals, asylums for orphans or other children of either sex, maintained at the expense, or conducted under the management of members of this Church, are expected to report annually to the Bishop of the Diocese at the annual Convention, such reports to be disposed of as the parochial reports; and at every General Convention the tabular view of the state of the Church in each Diocese, and the report of the Committee on the State of the Church shall include the results of such reports."

In order to give effect to this Canon, the Secretary of the Diocese last year procured information from various institutions of the classes referred to, and submitted a brief conspectus, venturing also to suggest that the annual reports called for by the Canon be made hereafter regularly to the Bishop.

It does not seem necessary to reprint this information every year; and the inquirer is referred to the Journal for 1901, pages 282-287, for a statement of the history, object, endowment, management and terms of admission of each of the following institutions:

TRINITY COLLEGE, HARTFORD;

THE POMFRET SCHOOL FOR BOYS;

THE WIDOWS' HOME, HARTFORD;

THE CHURCH HOME, HARTFORD;

THE OPEN HEARTH, HARTFORD;

THE CURTIS HOME, MERIDEN; (for women and children);

ST. LUKE'S HOME FOR DESTITUTE AND AGED WOMEN, MIDDLETOWN;

THE TRINITY CHURCH HOME, NEW HAVEN; and

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH HOUSE, STAMFORD.

During the past year a new institution has been founded.

NEW HAVEN
ST. PAUL'S CHURCH HOME FOR AGED WOMEN

No. 162 Olive Street

Mrs. Betsey Bradley, of New Haven, who died in 1888, bequeathed to St. Paul's Church about one-third of her estate to found and sustain a Mission upon her homestead on Forbes Avenue, to be known as the Forbes Chapel. When the estate was settled in 1902, the amount received for this purpose was $227,536. An equal sum was also received by the Parish from her estate, to "provide a Home for ladies of advanced age or infirm, who are or may hereafter become connected with the said St. Paul's Church Society, or with the Mission of the Church that is to be established on my homestead." General Samuel E. Merwin is Trustee of the Fund; and the Parish has appointed as Committee to have charge of the Home, the Rev. Edwin S. Lines, D.D., Rector, General Edward E. Bradley, and Messrs. George S. Barnum, Robert Foote and Samuel A. York, the Rector being Chairman, and Mr. York Secretary. For the present a house at No. 162 Olive Street has been rented, and the Rev. Robert Bell, Curate in the Parish, and his wife have resided there since May 1st, 1902, and have charge of the inmates and of other beneficiaries cared for in various private families.

Matters of especial interest

The proposal to change the name of this Church, on which an expression of opinion was desired by a Committee of the General Convention, is discussed by the Bishop in his Address (pages 56 to 64), and the action of the Convention is given on pages 64 to 67.

A request from the Diocese of Milwaukee to join in petitioning the General Convention to establish a Provincial System with Courts of Appeal, was referred to a Special Committee to report next year. (Pages 74, 75.)

Three new Parishes were admitted to union with the Convention. (Page 65.)

A slight change was made in Canon I., Section 9, concerning the time of the annual Parish Meeting. (Pages 71, 72.)

The Assessment for the Convention Fund was reduced to one-half of one per cent. (Page 71.)

Apportionments and Assessments upon feeble Parishes were reduced by Resolution. (Pages 44 and 71.)

The working of the "Apportionment Plan" for General Missions was placed in the hands of the Committee to coöperate with the General Board of Missions. (Page 73.)

The Directors of the Missionary Society were requested to investigate the spiritual destitution of certain parts of the State, with a view to determining the duty of the Church in the matter (page 69); and they were authorized to employ a special agent to arouse interest in Diocesan Missions. (Pages 69, 70.)

A Committee was appointed to take measures for extending Church work among the Colored People of Connecticut. (Page 77.)

The Constitution of the Episcopal Academy was amended, and a Committee was appointed to conduct negotiations with certain of its Alumni who desire to aid it financially (page 70); the result being that the property has now been leased to a new corporation. (Page 107.)

The Charter of the Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes has been amended by the General Assembly so that they can hold property having a net revenue not to exceed twenty thousand dollars. (Page 73.)

A new fund for the benefit of feeble Parishes has been endowed by the late Mrs. J. M. Downes, of Waterbury. (Page 173.)

SAINT ANDREW'S CHURCH, MERIDEN ;
TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1903. }

This being the day appointed by the Constitution and the place designated by the Bishop, the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut assembled at 9 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Right Reverend Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Reverend Doctors Storrs O. Seymour, Samuel Hart, William G. Andrews and Edwin S. Lines, of the Standing Committee, the Reverend Samuel Fermor Jarvis, and the Reverend Arthur T. Randall, Rector of the Parish.

The Sermon was delivered by the Rev. Stewart Means, B.D., Rector of St. John's Church, New Haven, from Acts xxvi., 1-9; "Whereupon, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision."

The Offertory was for the Missionary Society of the Diocese.

The service ended, the Bishop took the chair about 10.45 A. M.

On motion, the roll-call was dispensed with; and, by means of cards deposited at the door, it was ascertained that 135 Clergymen were present, whose names are indicated by an asterisk in the list on pages 14-22. Lay Delegates to the number of 134, representing 90 Parishes, were also present, whose names are marked with an asterisk on pages 29-36.

A quorum of both orders being present, the Convention was declared duly organized.

The Rev. Frederick W. Harriman, D.D., was by ballot unanimously elected Secretary; and he appointed as his Assistants the Rev. John F. Plumb and the Rev. Samuel R. Colladay.

On motion, the Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted without change.

Mr. Ward C. Powell, for the Committee to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates, presented the following

REPORT

To the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden June 9th, 1903:

The Committee appointed at the last Convention to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates in accordance with Canon VIII., beg leave to report:

That they have carefully examined all the certificates of election, and find them duly attested, though sometimes incomplete.

In some cases where there had been no election this year, the Committee were compelled to omit the names of former Delegates supposed to hold over. They also ruled, as in former years, that no Delegates or substitutes could be elected except at the annual parish meeting; and that Delegates could not appoint their own substitutes.

Whenever there has been any such defect in the credentials, the Parish Clerk has been notified of the fact in good season.

The roll of Lay Delegates, as prepared, is presented herewith.

Respectfully submitted,

F. W. HARRIMAN,
CHAS. F. CHASE,
WARD C. POWELL,

Committee.

HARTFORD, June 5, 1903.

The Report was accepted and the Roll approved.

On motion of Archdeacon Booth, it was

Resolved, That Clergymen of other Dioceses, Clergymen of Churches in communion with this Church, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, all persons holding any office or trust under the Diocese of Connecticut, if not members of this Convention, and the Wardens and Vestry of this Parish, be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

Under this Resolution there were present

Rev. MANNING B. BENNETT, of Central New York;

EDWARD T. MATHISON, of Vermont;

CHARLES N. MORRIS, of Massachusetts;

HARRY K. B. OGLE, of Pennsylvania;

DWIGHT W. TUTTLE, of Oklahoma;

Mr. ELIJAH C. JOHNSON, Treasurer of the Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes; and others.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Secretary begs leave to report that

I. A Form for the Organization of Missions in the Diocese was reported to the Convention of 1902 by a Special Committee, printed in the Journal, and action deferred until this year.

II. A Special Committee was appointed to apply to the General Assembly for an Amendment to the Charter of the Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes.

III. A proposal to print the financial reports of the various Boards of Trustees for distribution before the meetings of the Convention was referred to a Special Committee.

IV. The Directors of the Missionary Society were granted further time to consider the subject of "Associated Missions," which had been referred to them by the Convention of 1900; and also to consider the mode of raising money for Diocesan Missions, which had been referred in 1901.

Respectfully submitted,

F. W. HARRIMAN, Secretary.

WINDSOR, June 6, 1903.

The applications of St. James's Church, Farmington, St. George's Church, Bridgeport, and Calvary Church, Bridgeport, recently constituted Parishes, for admission to union with the Convention, were received and referred to the Committee on Admission of New Parishes.

Reports from the following Officers and Trustees were presented, read aloud in whole or in part, accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal:

Mr. John H. Sage, Treasurer of the Diocese; (Appendix A.)

Rev. Dr. Hart, Registrar of the Diocese; (Appendix B.)

The Trustees for receiving Donations for the Support of the Bishop; presented by Col. Jacob L. Greene, Treasurer; (Appendix D.)

The Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen; (Appendix H.) and

The Trustees of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund; (Appendix I.) presented by Mr. Benjamin R. English, Treasurer of both Funds; and

The Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes; presented by Mr. Charles A. Pease for Mr. Elijah C. Johnson, Treasurer; (Appendix J.)

Reports were also received from the various Parishes and Missions; (Appendix Q.) and from

Clergymen not in charge of Parishes. (Appendix R.)

In connection with the Report of the Bishop's Fund, Col. Greene moved the following Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Finance:

Resolved, That for the purpose of providing for the salary and expenses of the Bishop, an assessment of three-fourths of one per cent. be levied upon each Parish and Mission on an amount equal to that paid for "Current Expenses (including Salaries)" during the year ending at this Convention, as printed in the Journal of the Convention for 1903; and that this assessment be paid by the Treasurer of each Parish to the Treasurer of the Bishop's Fund on or before January 1st, 1904.

The Rev. Dr. Lines presented the resignation of the Rev. L. W. Saltonstall as Trustee of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy, and of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund, on account of removal from the Diocese; and the resignation of Gurdon W. Russell, M.D., as Trustee of the Episcopal Academy; both of which were accepted.

The Rev. Dr. Hart presented the following

of the Journal of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Connecticut from the Convention of 1902 to the Convention of 1903

The members of the Committee elected on the 10th day of June, 1902, were the Rev. Drs. Storrs O. Seymour, Samuel Hart, and William G. Andrews, the Rev. George T. Linsley, and the Rev. Dr. Edwin S. Lines. The Committee held nine meetings.

I. The first meeting was held at Hartford, June 10th, 1902. All the members were present. The Rev. Dr. Seymour was elected President, and the Rev. Dr. Hart Secretary. Thomas Henry Marchant Ockford was recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidate for Holy Orders.

II. The second meeting was held at New Haven, June 25th, 1902. The Rev. Drs. Seymour, Hart, and Lines were present. The Committee gave to the Bishop advice and consent to the placing of an incumbrance by mortgage upon the real estate owned by the Parish of St. Andrew's Church, Thompsonville.

III. The third meeting was held at Bridgeport, September 16th, 1902. All the members were present. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Charles Tyler Olmsted, D.D., as Bishop Coadjutor of Central New York. Frederick James Kerr Alexander, B.A., Edmund Janes Cleveland, B.A., and Alan McLean Taylor, B.A., were recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidates for Holy Orders. The Committee sat with the Bishop to consider the application of members of St. George's Mission in the City of Bridgeport for permission to organize as a Parish; and after hearing divers parties interested, the Committee voted to give to the Bishop advice and consent to the constitution of the proposed Parish.

IV. The fourth meeting was held at New Haven, December 16th, 1902. All the members were present. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Charles Minnegerode Beckwith, D.D., as Bishop of Alabama.

to the consecration of the Rev. Sheldon Munson Griswold, D.D., Bishop of Salina. The Rev. Joseph Russell Peckham was recommended to the Bishop to be ordered Priest, and advice and consent was given to his ordination at the expiration of one year from his admission as a candidate for Priest's Orders. Joseph Attwood Stansfield was recommended to the Bishop to be made Deacon. William Barrows, B.A., and John White Walker, B.A., were recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidates for Holy Orders.

The fifth meeting was held at Hartford, March 1st, 1903. The Rev. Drs. Seymour and Hart, the Rev. Mr. Linsley, and the Rev. Dr. Lines were present. Thomas Sparks Cline, B.A., late a Methodist minister, James Joseph Cogan, B.A., Henry Davies, Ph.D., late a Congregational minister, and Walter Franklin Prince, Ph.D., late a Methodist minister, were recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidates for Holy Orders; and consent was given to dating the candidacy of Davies and Dr. Prince from the first day of December last.

The sixth meeting was held at Bridgeport, April 27th, 1903. All members were present. Sidney Harry Dixon, M.A., and Edward Harner Reynolds (the latter applying for Deacon's Order only) were recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidates for Holy Orders. The Committee sat with the Bishop to consider the application of members of Calvary Mission in the City of Bridgeport for permission to organize as a Parish; and after hearing divers parties interested, the Committee voted to give to the Bishop advice and consent to the organization of the proposed Parish.

I. The seventh meeting was held at New Haven, May 23d, 1903. Rev. Drs. Hart, the Rev. Mr. Linsley, and the Rev. Dr. Lines were present. The Rev. Morton Apollos Barnes, the Rev. Henry Buckland Stead, and the Rev. Gilbert Edward Pember were recommended to the Bishop to be ordered Priests. Abram James Holland, Reginald Heber Ellsworth Morton Tracy, and Walter Franklin Prince were recommended to the Bishop to be made Deacons; and in the case of Dr. Prince consent was given to a special dispensation of time under the proviso of Article I., Canon 7, § iii, of the Digest, all the members of the Committee having signified their approval at the last meeting. Timon Evans Owens, was recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidate for Holy Orders.

II. The eighth meeting was held at Middletown, June 3d, 1903. Rev. Drs. Seymour, Hart, and Lines were present. Edward Harold Herald was recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidate for Holy Orders.

The ninth meeting was held at Hartford, June 8th, 1903. The Rev. Drs. Seymour, Hart, and Andrews were present. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Theodore DuBose Bratton, D.D., Bishop of Mississippi. The Rev. John Herbert Jackson was recommended to the Bishop to be ordered Priest; and Richard Arthur Harbards, John Samuel Simmons, and Wilbur Quincy Rogers, the last three applying for Deacon's Orders only, were recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidates for Holy Orders. The Committee acted with the Bishop in preparing the roll of Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention; and having adopted this abstract of its Journal to be presented to the Convention, adjourned without day.

Attest,

SAMUEL HART, Secretary.

On motion of Archdeacon Buck, it was

Resolved, That the Report of the Committee to prepare a Form for the Organization of Missions be made the special Order of the Day immediately after the Bishop's Address.

The Rev. Haynes L. Everest presented the following preamble and Resolution, which were referred to the Committee on Finance:

Whereas, The present system of assessment or apportionment for Diocesan purposes and General Missions based on a pro rata percentage of "Current Expenses (including Salaries)" has been found in this Diocese more satisfactory and equitable than other systems; and

Whereas, This system of assessment would seem inequitable as applied to feeble Parishes whose Current Expenses are largely met through old-time endowments; therefore

Resolved, That the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese and the Directors of the Missionary Society approving, in case of a Parish reporting seventy-five or less Communicants, whose Rector's salary does not exceed a total of $800, assessments and apportionments shall be made upon the basis of "Current Expenses" less one-half of the sum reported as "Income from Property."

On motion of Mr. William W. Skiddy, the question of changing the name of the Church was made the Order of the Day to follow the Report of the Committee on the Form of Organization for Missions.

On motion of the Rev. Harry I. Bodley, the following Resolutions were referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons:

Resolved, That Canon VII. be amended by substituting for "The Church Scholarship Society," the words "Theological Education in the Diocese."

Resolved, That Section 5 of Canon I. be amended by the addition the following paragraph:

"(6) By habitual absence from all regular and special meetings of the Parish for a space of three years; the fact to be determined in each case by the Vestry as provided below in Section 7."

on of the Rev. Romilly F. Humphries, the following was also referred to the same Committee:

That the form of Parochial Reports be enlarged to allow for sort of present parochial organizations.

7. Dr. Harriman, for the Committee on the Proposal nancial Reports before Convention, reported that the had been unable to meet; and asked that the Com- continued until next year; which was voted accord-sident read his Annual Address, as follows:

the course of these visitations and at other times I have preached on two hundred and ten occasions, preached or delivered addresses two hundred and twenty-one times, celebrated Holy Communion thirty-nine times, solemnized two marriages, officiated at one funeral, baptized four persons, and confirmed one thousand six hundred and eleven persons.

Besides attending the meetings of the several Diocesan Conventions and of the Trustees of the Berkeley Divinity School, I attended the meeting of the House of Bishops and the meeting of the Missionary Council last October; and, except when detained by Diocesan duties, the meetings of the Board of Managers of Missions.

Two of our last Clergy have been taken from us. Rev. Warren Hastings Roberts six years ago was compelled by ill health to resign St. Andrew's Church, Northampton, and after his long and faithful service retired to a deserved well-earned rest. His heart was in Connecticut. He was honored with frequent gifts from our Aged and Infirm Clergy and loved to pray for the Diocese. On the tenth Sunday of Trinity he fell asleep.

Rev. Merritt Hubbell Wellman, who had also had a long honorable record of service, was with us at the Convention last year, eager, at the age of fourscore, to be at work again in the Ministry. He was called to be with Christ, which is far better.

A large number of Parishes have during the year lost their former Wardens. In the death of General William Franklin, who had held that office in the Parish of the Good Shepherd, Hartford, the community, state and nation lost a man of heroic mould, a soldier distinguished by bravery in two wars, an earnest patriot, and a Christian man. Among those who have died are included Mr. Ephraim Glens, Vestryman and Warden of St. John's Church, Salisbury, for fifty-seven years; Mr. Oliver Bulkley, for thirty years, like his father before him, Warden and Vestryman of Trinity Church, Southport; Dr. Nathaniel O. Cornwell of Trinity Church, Portland; Mr. Henry Couch, of St. Paul's Church, Washington; Mr. Timothy Guilford, Junior, of St. Peter's Church, Cheshire; Mr. John H. Hall, Warden of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Hartford;

Mr. George E. Hatch, Junior Warden of Trinity Church, Hartford; Mr. Arza C. Morris, Junior Warden of St. Mark's Church, Bridgewater; Mr. George W. Woodward, Senior Warden of Christ Church, Bethany; Mr. Anson A. Root, Senior Warden of St. Paul's Church, Woodbury; Mr. Charles B. Sniffen, of Christ Church, Stratford; Mr. George W. Woolley, Senior Warden of St. John's Church, Hartford; Judge Hunter, of St. Paul's Church, Willimantic; Mr. Charles L. Phelps, of St. Peter's Church, Hebron; Mr. Ephraim Williams, Senior Warden of Calvary Church, Stonington; and Mr. Joseph White, of St. John's Church, Warehouse Point.

The Church at large has lost in Dean Hoffman one who not only re-created a great institution but also set an example in the consecration of wealth. Five of our Bishops have been removed by death: the venerable Bishop of Virginia, the Bishop of Alabama, the Bishop of Mississippi, the Bishop of Quincy and the Bishop of Newark.

Bishop Whittle was one of the old-fashioned Evangelicals, conscientiously firm in his convictions, in his austerity seeming harsh and hard, but with a heart of love toward all for Christ's sake, whose servant he rejoiced to be. The Diocese of Alabama, recently bereaved of its great Bishop, has this year lost his successor in all the promise of his opening episcopate. Likewise the Diocese of Quincy, which last year lost its first Bishop, a few weeks since was called to mourn its second Bishop, a man of theological learning and of zeal, wholly devoted to the Church. Bishop Hugh Miller Thompson with his pen had done the Church much service as editor and author. He left in what he wrote the evidence of his brilliant and trenchant intellect and of his robust manhood. Bishop Starkey has just died at a ripe old age. Like the Apostle whom we this week commemorate, "he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith."

The Church of England has this past year lost not only the Bishop of St. Albans and the Bishop of Southampton, but also Frederick Temple, Archbishop of Canterbury, one of the greatest of the line, great as a school-master, a writer, a preacher, a Bishop; above all, great in sturdy strength as a Christian man.

To recur to the Diocese; five persons have been ordained to the Diaconate, viz.:

St. Andrew's Church, Meriden, December 21, 1902,
Joseph Attwood Stansfield.
the Church of the Holy Trinity, Middletown, June 3, 1903,
Ellsworth Morton Tracy, B.A.,
Reginald Heber Scott, B.D.,
Abram James Holland, B.A., and Walter Franklin Prince, B.D., Ph.D.

Four Deacons have been advanced to the Priesthood, viz.:

St. Andrew's Church, Meriden, December 21, 1902,
ev. Joseph Russell Peckham, presented by the Rev. Samuel Hart, D.D., D.C.L.
the Church of the Holy Trinity, Middletown, June 3, 1903,
ev. Gilbert Edward Pember, B.D., presented by the Rev. E. C.
Acheson; and
ev. Morton Apollos Barnes, presented by the Rev. J. D. Gilliland.
At Christ Church, New Haven, on Saturday, March 21, 1903, acting on behalf of the Right Reverend Joseph Marshall Francis, D.D., Bishop of Indianapolis, I advanced to the Priesthood the Rev. John Mitchell
Loper, presented by the Rev. H. M. Denslow.

Ten Clergymen have presented Letters Dimissory and have been received into the Diocese, viz.:

Henry Steele Habersham, from the Diocese of Massachusetts;
Morton Apollos Barnes, Curate in St. John's Church, Waterbury, from the Diocese of Virginia;
George W. Davenport, Rector of St. James's Church, Danbury, from the Diocese of Long Island;
Neilson Poe Carey, Rector of Christ Church, Norwich,
Hugh P. Hobson, Rector of Calvary Church, Bridgeport, and Frederick Phillips Swezey, Rector of Trinity Church, Collinsville, from the Diocese of New York;
James Edward Hand, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Norwich, from the Diocese of Nova Scotia; Forest Haden Blunt, Rector of Calvary Church, Stonington, from the Diocese of Rhode Island;
Arthur F. Lewis, Rector of Christ Church, Unionville, from the Diocese of Newark; and Clarence Dexter Weeden, Curate of St. Andrew's Church, Stamford, from the Diocese of Delaware.

Sixteen Clergymen have received Letters Dimissory, viz.:

Theodore Dwight Martin, Jr., to the Diocese of Rhode Island;
Edward Schofield Travers,
George Herbert Toop,

Rev. George Kilpatrick MacNaught, and William Hanson Bean, to the Diocese of New York;
 Irving Spencer, B.D., to the Philippine Islands;
 March Chase Mayo, B.D., to the Diocese of Maryland;
 Giles Herbert Sharpley, to the Diocese of New Hampshire;
 George Lawrence Parker, B.D., to the Diocese of California;
 Thomas Frederick Davies, Jr., B.D., to the Diocese of Western Massachusetts;
 William Joselin Ehrhard,
 Herbert Bickford Pulsifer, and Charles Harris Hayes, B.D., to the Diocese of Newark;
 Johnson McClure Bellows, to the Diocese of Washington;
 Malcolm Taylor, B.D., and John William Gill, D.D., to the Diocese of Long Island.

Changes of place among the Clergy of the Diocese other than those indicated above are as follows:

Rev. J. A. Biddle has resigned St. Mary's, South Manchester;
 Walter T. Cavell has resigned Trinity Church, Collinsville, and has accepted work in Florida;
 Charles T. Coerr has become Rector of Emmanuel Church, Weston, and has resigned Christ Church, Redding;
 Herbert D. Cone has resigned Christ Church, Bridgeport;
 George W. Griffith has resigned St. Stephen's, East Haddam, and become Rector of St. Thomas's, Bethel;
 Richard D. Hatch has resigned Calvary Church, Stonington;
 Henry S. Habersham has resigned the charge of St. John's, Salisbury;
 Frederick J. Kinsman has resigned his professorship in the Berkeley Divinity School to accept the chair of Church History in the General Theological Seminary;
 Hermann Lilienthal has entered upon the rectorship of St. George's, Astoria, L. I.;
 William Morrall has resigned St. Thomas's, Bethel, and become Rector of Grace Church, Stafford Springs;
 Reginald R. Parker has resigned Christ Church, Unionville, and become Rector of St. Stephen's, East Haddam;
 Theodore M. Peck has resigned the charge of Black Hall, South Lyme and Niantic, and become Rector of St. Peter's, Oxford, and of Christ Church, Quaker Farms;
 Gideon D. Pond has taken charge of St. Mark's, Bridgewater;
 Thomas R. Pynchon, D.D., LL.D., has resigned his professorship in Trinity College, and become Professor Emeritus;
 William S. Rafter has resigned the charge of St. Peter's, Oxford, and Christ Church, Quaker Farms;
 Karl Reiland, in addition to the rectorship of Wethersfield, has become Minister in charge of St. Andrew's, Bloomfield;

A. Robson has resigned Calvary Chapel, Bridgeport, and is now Rector of St. George's Church, Bridgeport;
 M. Selleck has taken charge of St. Paul's, Norwalk;
 I. Sherman has resigned St. Paul's, Bridgeport;
 C. Wainwright has resigned St. Paul's, Windsor Locks, and will become Rector of Calvary Church, Suffield;
 E. Warner has resigned St. Thomas's, Hartford; and
 J. Werner has ceased to be Vicar of St. Luke's Chapel, Norwalk, and will become Rector of Grace Church, Norwalk.

During the past year there have been twenty-eight new Holy Orders. Of these, five have been ordained, and five; one, Alan McLean Taylor, has been transferred from Massachusetts. There are at present twenty-six candidates for Holy Orders, as follows:

Deacons recently ordained:

1. Stansfield is Minister in charge of St. Paul's, Waterville;
 2. M. Tracy becomes Curate in St. John's Church, Ogdensburg, N. Y.;

Rev. Reginald H. Scott, B.D., becomes Curate in St. James's Church, Hartford;

Abram J. Holland becomes Minister in charge of Grace Chapel, Hartford; and Walter F. Prince, B.D., Ph.D., enters upon institutional work in Brooklyn, New York.

There are fourteen Postulants for Holy Orders.

I have this year given Licenses to thirty-one Lay Readers, and renewed twelve Licenses which had expired.

On the eighth of July, 1902, on the nomination of the Archdeaconry, I appointed the Rev. O. H. Raftery Archdeacon of Middlesex.

On the eleventh of July, 1902, on the nomination of the Archdeaconry, I appointed the Rev. Louis N. Booth Archdeacon of Fairfield.

On the fourteenth of June, 1902, I laid the corner-stone of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Shelton.

On the twenty-eighth of June, 1902, I consecrated Grace Church, Yantic.

On the eighteenth of April, 1903, I consecrated Grace Church, Noank, which had been built of field stone by the offerings of the children of the Diocese.

On the twentieth of September, 1902, in accordance with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, I constituted the Mission of St. George, Bridgeport, a Parish.

On the twenty-eighth of April, 1903, in accordance with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, I constituted Calvary Mission, Bridgeport, a Parish.

On the seventeenth of October, 1902, I dedicated the Parish House of Grace Church, Hamden.

On All Saints' Day, November 1st, 1902, I dedicated the Hay Memorial Chapel at Westminster School, Simsbury.

On the Feast of the Epiphany, January 6th, 1903, I dedicated the Parish House of Christ Church, New Haven.

On the twenty-eighth of April, 1903, I blessed the new Rectory of St. James's Parish, Glastonbury.

On Advent Sunday, November 30th, 1902, the Rev. L. M. Hardy, Archdeacon of New London, acting on my behalf, instituted the Rev. James Edward Hand Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Norwich.

On the thirtieth of August, 1902, I gave my consent to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Charles Tyler Olmsted, D.D., Bishop Coadjutor-elect of the Diocese of Central New York, to the office and work of a Bishop in the Church of God.

On the twenty-fourth of November, 1902, I gave my consent to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Charles Mingerode Beckwith, D.D., Bishop-elect of the Diocese of Alabama, to the office and work of a Bishop in the Church of God.

On the eighth of December, 1902, I gave my consent to the Ordination and Consecration of the Rev. Sheldon Munson Griswold, D.D., Bishop-elect of the Missionary District of Indiana, to the office and work of a Bishop in the Church of God.

On the twenty-fourth of June, 1902, in St. Stephen's Church, Wrentham, Massachusetts, I officiated as Presenter at the Consecration of the Rev. James Heartt Van Buren, D.D., as Bishop of Porto Rico.

On the twenty-third of May, 1903, acting under the provisions of Title II., Canon 5, of the Digest, and in the presence of the Rev. James Goodwin and the Rev. Ernest deF. Biel, Presbyters, in Christ Church, Hartford, I deposed from the Holy Ministry John Thompson Hargrave, Presbyter, having declared in writing his renunciation of the Ministry of this Church.

There have been received the following Notices of Discipline:

From the Bishop of Alabama, of the deposition of Edgar Gardner Murphy, Presbyter; and of Francis L. Coyle, Presbyter, for causes not affecting his moral character;

From the Bishop of California, of the deposition of Cassius Miller Estlake, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of Central New York, of the deposition of Samuel McPherson, Presbyter, and J. N. Goodrich, Presbyter, both for causes not affecting their moral character;

From the Bishop of Duluth, of the deposition of Robert R. McVettie, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of Iowa, of the deposition of R. Perry Eubanks, Presbyter, for causes not affecting his moral character;

From the Bishop of Massachusetts, of the deposition of David Jacobs Peters, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of Michigan, of the deposition of F. W. Bailey-Jones, Deacon, for reasons not affecting his moral character;

From the Bishop of Mississippi, of the deposition of Charles Morris, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of Newark, of the deposition of Walter Mayhew Sherwood, Presbyter, for causes not affecting his moral character;

From the Bishop of New Jersey, of the deposition of Thomas F. Milby, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of New York, of the deposition of George Sherman Richards, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of Ohio, of the deposition of Stephen Warren Wilson, Presbyter, for causes not affecting his moral character, and of the deposition of Daniel D. Hefter, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of Pennsylvania, of the deposition of Pedro Duar, Presbyter;

From the Bishop-Coadjutor of Rhode Island, of the deposition of Anthony Colby Hardy, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of South Carolina, of the deposition of Benjamin Anderson, Presbyter, for causes not affecting his moral character;

From the Bishop of Spokane, of the deposition of Andrew Smith, Presbyter;

From the Bishop of Tennessee, of the deposition of George W. Honesty, M.D., Presbyter;

From the Missionary Bishop of Cape Palmas and Parts Adjacent, Alexander H. Foda Vinton, Presbyter; and

From the Bishop of Western Michigan, of the deposition of Henry Hughes, Presbyter.

The year has been marked by certain physical conditions which in many Parishes have proved unpropitious, notably the unusual number of stormy Sundays and the coal famine. Nevertheless, the work has gone on in a way which is by no means without encouragement. The number of Confirmations is the largest reported in five years. In the classes presented, speaking generally, I have not observed the lack of men which in certain other Dioceses has been commented upon. On the contrary, the classes have been composed, sometimes entirely, and frequently in the larger part, of middle-aged and young men.

The number of Candidates for Holy Orders is very much larger than the number reported two years ago. The number of Postulants is increasing. What is more important, there is ground for encouragement in the quality of the men applying for admission as Postulants and Candidates.

Our Diocesan missionary work has progressed. In the Archdeaconry of New London particularly there have been marked advance and encouraging results. During the year there have been brought prominently before the public the moral and spiritual needs of some of the rural communities in the State. In the things alleged regarding their condition there was enough of truth strongly to emphasize the opportunity and demand involved in Diocesan Missions, and especially on the side which has elicited least enthusiasm and most criticism. Our Church work in rural communities cannot be safely neglected. It must be maintained and ought to be pushed.

Let me also say that it is still my hope that there may be a measurable concentration of effort at certain strategic points, like Willimantic, for example, with its mills and Normal School and its railroads leading out in six directions, so that influences and good might go forth to all the region round about. All this would require increased offerings. Certainly one might even now expect that no congregation would refuse to help on the work. There is in this regard a steady improvement, for which we may well be thankful. Genuine churchmanship has its threatening foe in parochialism. The history of the Church would, I think, teach the lesson that, for worthy results, there must be recognized practically a larger unit of Church life and Church action than that which is merely parochial.

There will be presented to you the report of the fund for the aged and infirm among the Clergy and for the widows and orphans of deceased Clergymen. Canon VII. calls for an annual contribution to the fund. This canonical obligation a number of congregations have ignored. How any of the Clergy can neglect this duty I fail to understand. I am sure that true-hearted laymen would everywhere respond to an appeal for such an object. It has been my desire that our Diocesan fund should relieve the general fund of the care of many beneficiaries we might under our Canon provide for. This has just been accomplished by action of our trustees, which will, I am confident, commend itself to you. Thus are increased our appropriations and our needs. At the same time let me commend to you the claims of the general fund, which aims to provide for those who have labored in mission fields and poorer Dioceses.

St. Margaret's School has just graduated the largest class in its history. The Episcopal Academy at Cheshire loses this year its Principal, Professor Woodbury, who insists upon retiring after nearly forty years of service at the school, where he has won the love and honor of all who have been his pupils. The Trustees have secured as Principal Mr. Roland J. Mulford, son of a clergyman eminent for his theological and political writings. Under Mr. Mulford's headship it is expected that this venerable institution founded by Bishop Seabury will go on in increasing prosperity and usefulness.

The Holy Bible with the marginal readings adopted by the General Convention and authorized to be read in Churches has been printed. The lectern edition will be ready about the first of July. It is the only American Bible which contains the Apocrypha. In this work this Diocese may take a particular interest, inasmuch as on the Commission of Bishops and Presbyters appointed for this purpose, and among the most prominent in the performance of the laborious and gravely important task, is our own Dean of the Berkeley Divinity School.

The Secretary will lay before you a communication from a joint committee of the General Convention desiring the Convention to inform that committee whether it does or does not desire that the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America shall be changed at this time; and, if it does so desire, what name it wishes substituted therefor. It will be understood that no vote now taken on this question would be action; that is to say, it would settle nothing. It could be nothing more than expression of opinion. It is desirable that the question should not become an issue of ecclesiastical partisanship. If it is considered in this Convention, it will be. I trust, in a large spirit, into which shall enter nothing like partisan prejudice or animosity.

Certainly in this Diocese we may approach the question on the side of its merits and from a standpoint somewhat detached from present controversy. In Connecticut discussion of the Church's style and title is no new thing. It was anticipated here considerably more than a century ago. The Rev. Jeremiah Leaming, who would seem to have been selected before Seabury for the office of Bishop, and who in 1787 was chosen to be a coadjutor to Bishop Seabury, and again declined, wrote a letter which is to be found in Dr. Beardsley's Life of Seabury.* In this letter, dated at Stratford, September 12th, 1786, and addressed to the Rev. Abraham Beach, Leaming writes:

* Pages 370, 371.

"There is another thing your Convention ought to take into consideration, that is, the style they have given to the Church, which is this: the Protestant Episcopal Church. The Church of England is not called a Protestant Church, but a reformed church; they never entered any protest against the civil powers: they reformed as a nation: it never had the title of Protestant given to it by any sensible writer, unless he was a Scotchman.

It will be a great pity that we should commit any blunder of this sort, at first setting out, for posterity to laugh at, after we are forgotten for everything but the mistakes which we committed and left behind us as monuments that we wanted proper gravity."

In 1808 Bishop Jarvis wrote to Bishop Claggett expressing his preference regarding the title of the Constitution and Canons thus: "The whole headed by Constitution and Canons of the reformed instead of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States. I am confident such a head would be more consistent with correct notions of the Church."*

It is to my own mind clear that no change in the title ought to be determined upon until it is evident that the change is to be effected with something like unanimity. Moreover, such a change as is proposed cannot be forced. It comes, if it comes at all, not by violent effort but quietly, in the thought and speech of men; and votes of Conventions would only register a change already accomplished.

It is now evident that anything like unanimity regarding the question proposed is at this time impossible. None the less, courtesy to the committee would demand some response. Calm and reasonable discussion has always seemed to me something not to be feared or discouraged, but rather likely to be fruitful if good somehow. At this juncture sincerity would seem to demand a frank expression of opinion. Therefore I make no apology for entering upon the subject, trusting that it will be understood that I am only saying how I personally look at the matter.

Such a question it is possible to approach with superficial thought on one side or the other: either to dismiss the proposition as unworthy even to be considered, or rashly to suppose it a thing to be carried through off-hand and at once. Deeper thought will inquire whether this dissatisfaction on the part of many does not mean something which it is worth while to consider; and at the same time will recognize that it is not a light matter to propose to change a name closely associated with the most tender, solemn and sacred experiences of many souls.

Twenty years ago in the General Convention of 1883, I stood up in the House of Deputies with a very small minority, (if my memory serves me, we numbered eighteen,) to cast my vote in favor of striking from the title of the Prayer Book the words "Protestant Episcopal." I have seen no reason to change my mind.

Let it be observed that dissatisfaction with the term Protestant in its title does not necessarily imply a desire that this Church should change its historic position in regard to the inventions and assumptions of the Roman Church, any more than objection to the term Episcopal in the title would necessarily imply conversion to Presbyterianism. I, for one, am far from thinking scorn of the movement known as the Reformation, or of its re-assertions as to personal faith and responsibility. It is unnecessary here to express gratitude for that unique reform of the Church of England which carefully maintained her continuity and sacrificed nothing essential to Catholic faith and order. I am not to be counted in favor of any attempt to set back the clock or reverse the march of history. God forbid that this Church should be entangled again in bondage to any man or any fables of man's devising whether in the ninth or the nineteenth century after Christ. God forbid that she should not always stand fast in and for the liberty for which Christ set us free.

Surely there should be no weakening of this position now, when in the past half-century we have had object-lessons in the processes and methods of additions to the faith once for all delivered, and in the development of Papalism. The elimination of the word Protestant from the title would not necessarily mean a weakening, rather it might indicate a strengthening of the Anglican as opposed to the Roman position; as was the case certainly when from the Litany was omitted in Queen Elizabeth's time the deprecation, "From the tyranny of the Bishop of Rome, and all his detestable enormities."

There is a distinction between Papalism and Catholicity. So as this distinction is confused in the ordinary use of the word Protestant, so far as that word stands in the popular mind as the opposite of Catholic, so far unfortunate is its employment in the title of a Church that cherishes the Catholic tradition.

The term Episcopal might denote all Churches that have bishops; but its connotation or implication is limited, implying only one element of the Church's constitution, the sacred Ministry and referring only to one order of the Ministry. Likewise the term Protestant, while it is wide as to what it denotes, owing to very many varieties of believers and non-believers, also on the other hand certain inevitable limitations. It is a term in its origin too modern well to comport with this Church's ancient lineage. It has come to be a negative term. Presbyterians and Congregationalists, have even seen fit to employ it in their corporate names. Not only is designation questionable which thus negatively expresses opposition to another part of the one Body of Christ, but also protest is more important for a Church than protest is positive affirmation. Moreover, in its origin and associations the word Protestant is a polemic fitly to designate a Church whose providential mission would seem to be to mediate between widely separated communions and be the Church of the reconciliation. It stresses the note of theological and ecclesiastical controversy rather than of Christian charity. The word was born in an age of controversy and strife. It is possible to be not unmindful of the light then won, and yet have vision, although it be from afar, some better thing than could be discerned amidst the battle of the German Reformation.

The world moves. The outlook of our age is bright with a new light that did not illumine the sixteenth, seventeenth, or eighteenth century. The spirit of this age is synthetic. Beneath differences are sought and found more fundamental unities. Churches of Christendom separated by distance and division have been thrilled by common currents of Catholic thought. To this Church, at once Catholic and free, would seem to belong a peculiar mission to fulfill, and also singular advantage and opportunity. The present title, while it does not invalidate, is inadequate to express, this Church's historic and rightful claim in the Catholic inheritance; nor does it express her Catholic yearning for the visible unity of Christendom. There is reason for asserting that it is found to be not adapted for use in the foreign mission field, where we confront heathenism and are in close contiguity with other Christian bodies. Among our own people, aside from formal documents, it has practically fallen into disuse.

The great difficulty in my mind regarding the change of the present title lies in the second question, What is to be substituted therefor? There has been much advocacy of the name American Catholic. This name might seem to be large enough. It is a question, however, whether its adoption would serve the purposes for which it is desired. A body of Christians, small in numbers, but as regards tenets and ritual exceedingly interesting, has for some time called itself The Catholic Apostolic Church. I doubt whether that name has attracted any appreciable degree of attention to its claims and hopes. To me it seems likely that the proposed title, if it were to be now adopted, would be by most people either ignored or else misunderstood to be an imitation of the name Roman Catholic.

I am inclined to think there lies a graver objection against this suggestion of combining a universal and a restrictive adjective. There is clearly a distinction between the Church Catholic and any particular branch. There is to be observed, if I mistake not, in the matter of formal title, a degree of reticence as to the application to a national branch of the great word which the creed applies to the whole Church. To me this seems a just and proper instinct. The national Church, if truly a branch, has its right in all the notes of the One, Holy, Catholic, Apostolic Church. That is not, however, a reason for the assumption of all or any of those notes in its legal title.

What I myself should desire would be as little name as possible. The ideal title would be merely a territorial designation like the name of the Church of England. In 1783 the Clergy of Connecticut addressed formal communications to the Archbishops of Canterbury and York. In each of these letters, signed by Abraham Jarvis as Secretary to the Convention, occurs the language, "The Church in America"; and also in the communication to the Archbishop of Canterbury, three times, "I merican Church."* In 1784 the Clergy of Connecticut, in a communication to their brethren of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, three times refer to "The American Church."†

There was certainly some fitness in thus designating then its daughter of the Church of England. Had the name been that early day adopted, I myself should now be profoundly grateful. As a matter of fact it is to-day the designation most commonly in use among ourselves. There are considerations in favor of its peculiar appropriateness now. This Church is the only religious body, not owning a foreign allegiance, which has once covered with its organization every part of the national territory, and also not perpetuated the sectional divisions of the civil war; while those divisions have been perpetuated in the case of others, for example, the Presbyterians, the Lutherans, the Methodists.

For the formal adoption, however, of this or a similar title, I believe the time has not come. Nomenclature is not everything. American though we be in our character and ideals, yet we should at present, as things are in this land where our mission lies, find scant recognition as "The American Church"; and the recognition is not likely to be furthered by our calling ourselves so. It needs no sharp eyes to see how this would be misunderstood and resented as savoring of arrogance.

Let me acknowledge my own hesitation to advocate any action, in respect of our title, which might have the effect of widening the separation between us and the great mass of our native-born fellow Christians. We hold in trust something which I venture to believe these brethren of other names will appreciate more and more. While we have much to learn from their zeal and fervish devotion of themselves and their means, I believe they are more and more regarding, not merely with respect but with hope and confidence, this Church as a trustee of Catholic truth and order. We shall fulfill the ideal of the American Church by holding loyally and yet generously that trust, by earnest endeavor to meet moral and spiritual needs of the nation and its social needs to-day, and by quickened devotion to the Lord's work in America, sooner than by the formal assumption of a name that to very many would suggest at best a far-off ideal, rather than practical and present reality.

* Beardsley, Life of Seabury, pages 82, 87, 88.

In view of objections which seem at present to lie against any substitute which has yet been proposed, in view also of the fact that it would evidently cause offence and grief to many faithful members of the Church, I find myself unable to vote for a change in the Church's legal title at this time. My desire is to go no farther than we find ourselves able to go with substantial unanimity.

My own judgment would be, on the title page of the Prayer Book, to omit the particularising and restricting words, so that the title would read, "The Book of Common Prayer and Administration of the Sacraments and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church." Thus we might set it forth as precious heritage for all people of English tongue in this land. The Book of Common Prayer has approved itself to many of our fellow Christians. More and more it wins its way with our minds and hearts. Although it is not in itself an essential part of our position, none the less—it may be all the more—is the Prayer Book an effective missionary of Catholic truth and for Catholic unity. This missionary adaptability and effectiveness of the Prayer Book might gain in freedom and power by the suggested removal of restrictive words from its title. Farther than this I do not see how we can at present go.

Yet, and although there be no further issue in definite action at this time, I venture to express the confidence that much of the recent discussion of this subject may prove to have been without significance or fruit. It shall be found, I trust, to me that under a divine leading we are moving up and on, to positions whence are gained higher and larger views. More and more we look over and beyond the lines of division where men have narrowly parcelled out God's heritage, have run up their partition-walls and called the lands after their own names; lift our eyes to God's horizon, to behold the city of God which is the mother of us all. More and more the Catholic ideal commands men's contemplation.

The Spirit of God is, I trust, inspiring larger purposes and hopes than may find expression in the legal title that became ours a century ago. If, in love to Christ and in sympathy with His prayer for the oneness of His disciples, our purposes and ideals be thus larger than our legal title, and if concerning the appellation more and more among us are touched with a d content which, as I think, is not without some reason and not ignoble, none of us need be alarmed on the one hand, nor on the other need any be impatient. In God's own time and in His own way He may, using, as I trust and believe He is using, this Church as a factor toward that result, bring about such a unity of His people in this land as may without gainsaying be called "The Church in the United States of America."

There are questions whereof we may trust the sure years to bring the right outcome. Meanwhile it were well for us to remember the true proportion of things, and to see where plainly confront us our chief duty and responsibilities. There are things more important than names, and things which we in our day and generation must see to. The genuine power of the Church lies not in her name or her claims, nor again in her numbers, nor by any means in the wealth of her members. The power of a Church lies, under God, in her ideals and purposes, in her faith and devotion; lies, that is to say, in the character of her members, and in the degree to which they are intelligently and loyally devoted to those purposes and ideals.

The Church's genuine strength will be found not in agitation and controversy, not in any noise and demonstration; rather in the quietness and confidence of deepening convictions of truth as it is in Jesus; convictions of men's need of that truth and of the righteousness which is of God; convictions of the presence and power of His Spirit in His Church.

Discussion of the title might seem almost trivial when we think of the Divine commission and of vast empires that know not the Lord. It is the business of the Church to extend His Kingdom among men. An adequate conception of that Kingdom involves large views of the Church's mission and of the obligations of her members. Imperative are certain particular duties here and now. In a democratic society it is especially needed that the Church bear a certain witness to the civil authority, that she shall witness to the State as having a more than merely secular significance, and standing for more than material things; that she shall witness to the moral foundations whereon the State rests, and the moral grandeur investing its authority; that her influence shall uphold the majesty of law, and make men recognize the necessity of order, and also appreciate the dignity and responsibilities of citizenship.

It is for us in this commonwealth and nation to see that the Church uphold the institution of the family, and the inviolable sacredness of marriage which makes the home. It is ours to see to it, so far as in us lies, that the Church is a mother to all children in need, be it of care and training or of rescue or championship; that she is making manhood stronger and more generous, and womanhood more pure and noble; to see to it that her influence is steadily against evils that beset our American life; against what is sordid and mean and base; against heartless luxury and idleness and self-indulgence and pride; against selfish greed and exaction, on the one hand, and against envious hatred and strife on the other; that her influence makes for personal, civic and social righteousness; for justice and genuine liberty; for the simplicity and dignity of life, and the recognition of large meaning and high purpose therein; for true brotherhood and brotherly kindness among men, for Christ's sake.

Great are the opportunities before the Church in this land. May we, in Connecticut, carry on our work, in our personal lives and as a Diocese, in the sobering and steadying and yet uplifting power of genuine convictions of truth to be believed and lived, and of duty to be done in the name of Jesus Christ, and of the privilege and joy of service to that Lord and Master under the guidance and by the help of His Holy Spirit.

CHAUNCEY B. BREWSTER.

The Order of the Day being taken up, on motion of Archdeacon Buck it was Resolved, That the Report of the Committee appointed to prepare Form for the Organization of Missions, now before the Convention, referred back to the said Committee to report next year, that certain changes and alterations may be made before the matter is brought before the Convention for action; and that the Secretary of the Diocese be authorized to have the Report of the Committee printed and distributed on the morning of the first day of the Convention next year.

On motion of the Rev. William A. Beardsley, it was Resolved, That that part of the Bishop's Address concerning the change of name of the Church be referred to a Committee consisting of seven Clergymen and seven Laymen, to report to this Convention.

The President accordingly appointed as

About one o'clock a recess was taken until 2.15 P. M.

TUESDAY, 2.15 P. M.

The Convention having reassembled, on motion of General E. E. Bradley, the Order of the Day was deferred, and the Rev. John Binney, D.D., presented the following

REPORT

The Committee on the Admission of New Parishes respectfully report that they have received the applications of Calvary Church, Bridgeport, St. George's Church, Bridgeport, and St. James's Church, Farmington; and that, on examination of the papers presented, they find them to be all in due form, in accordance with Section 2 of Canon I.

The Committee therefore recommend the passage of the following Resolutions:

Resolved, That the Parish of Calvary Church, Bridgeport, be admitted into union with this Convention; and that its Delegate be received.

Resolved, That the Parish of St. George's Church, Bridgeport, be admitted into union with this Convention; and that its Delegate be received.

Resolved, That the Parish of St. James's Church, Farmington, be admitted into union with this Convention; and that its Delegate be received.

JOHN BINNEY,
J. ELDRED BROWN,
M. GEORGE THOMPSON,
JOHN F. TRACY,

Committee.

The Report was accepted, and the three Resolutions adopted separately; after which the Secretary called the names of the Lay Delegates from the new Parishes, and Mr. Zalmon Goodsell, of Calvary Church, Bridgeport, and Mr. Charles Stanley Mason, of St. James's Church, Farmington, appeared and took their seats.

The second Order of the Day was then taken up, and the Secretary read the following communication, which he had received, on

CHANGE OF NAME OF THE CHURCH

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Mar. 23, 1903.

My Dear Sir:—

The Joint Committee of the two Houses of General Convention upon the change of name of the Church, at a recent meeting instructed me, as its Secretary, to communicate to you certain resolutions then adopted by it, together with the resolution, under which that committee is acting, and to request that you will lay these before the next session of your Diocesan Convention for such action as they may deem proper.

I hand you herewith copies of said several resolutions, and beg that you will inform me, in accordance with the terms set forth in them, what action, if any, is taken by your Convention.

Very truly yours,

S. SCOLLAY MOORE, Secretary of Committee.

Address in reply—

Rev. S. Scollay Moore, D.D.,
Parkersburg, W. Va.

Copy of Resolutions of Joint Committee upon Change of Name of the Church

Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to communicate to the Secretary of each Diocese and Missionary District a copy of the resolution under which this Committee is acting, coupled with the statement, that in pursuance of the direction contained in said resolution—"to endeavor to ascertain as far as possible the mind of Church people in general" concerning the subject of a proposed change of name—this Committee, before making any recommendation to the General Convention, asks that, at the next meeting of the Convention or Convocation of each Diocese or Missionary District, said Convention or Convocation be requested to inform this Committee, whether it does or does not desire that the name of The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America shall be changed at this time, and if it does so desire, what name it wishes substituted therefor.

Resolved, That each Diocesan or Convocation Secretary be requested to communicate to the Secretary of this Committee prior to October 1st, 1903, any action of his Convention or Convocation upon the subject; together with a statement of the clerical and lay vote, separately, upon any definite resolution, that may have come before said Convention or Convocation.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent by the Secretary of this Committee to every Bishop of this Church.

Copy of Resolution, under which Committee is Acting

Resolved, That a Joint Committee be appointed, consisting of five shops, five Presbyters and five Laymen, to take the whole subject of a change of name of this Church into consideration, to ascertain as far possible the mind of Church people in general concerning it, and to make report at the next General Convention with such suggestions as may commend themselves to their judgment.

The Rev. Dr. Hart presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHANGE OF NAME

The Committee to which was referred that part of the Bishop's address in which he spoke of the proposal for a change in the title of this Church, unanimously recommends the adoption of the following solutions:

Resolved, That in reply to the request of the Committee of the General Convention to which was referred the matter of a "change of name of this Church," this Convention hereby expresses its opinion that it is inexpedient that a change in the formal title of this Church should be made at this time.

Resolved, That this Convention thanks the Bishop for the words in which he has brought this question before it, and asks his consent that that portion of his Address may be separately printed for distribution in this Diocese.

MERIDEN, June 9, 1903.

The Report was accepted; the first Resolution was adopted without debate, the Clergy and Lay Delegates voting together as usual, and only one or two voices being heard in the negative; and the second Resolution was adopted unanimously.

The Convention proceeded to the election of the Standing Committee.

The President appointed as

TELLERS

Rev. ROBERT C. TONGUE
ROMILLY F. HUMPHRIES

Mr. HENRY E. REES
GARDNER W. REYNOLDS

The first ballot resulted as follows:

FOR STANDING COMMITTEE

Whole number of votes cast, 206. Necessary for a choice, 104.

| GEORGE T. LINSLEY, | 169 |

No one else had more than thirteen votes; so these five Presbyters were accordingly declared elected.

The business of the Missionary Society of the Diocese having been taken up, Mr. Burton Mansfield, Secretary and Treasurer presented the Reports of the Board of Directors, the Treasurer of the several Archdeacons, and the Treasurers of the six Archdeaconries; all of which were accepted and ordered to be printed with the Journal (Appendix E. and Appendix F.).

Mr. Mansfield also presented the following

RECOMMENDATIONS

To the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Board of Directors of the said Society respectfully recommends the passage of the following Resolutions:

Resolved, That a sum not exceeding $12,000, in addition to the income from the funds of the Society and other sources available for the purpose, be appropriated for carrying on the Missionary work of the Diocese during the ensuing year.

Resolved, That the sum so appropriated be apportioned among several Archdeaconries on the basis of "Current Expenses, including Salaries," as reported in the last published Journal; and that said sum be appropriated among the several Archdeaconries, as the Directors of the Society deem best.

The two Resolutions were adopted.

He also presented the following

REPORT

To the Convention:

The Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut, to whom was referred

1. That portion of the Bishop's Address relating to the method of raising money for Diocesan Missions (see Journal, 1901, page 5) together with the preamble and proposed resolutions regarding the same ect, introduced by the Archdeacon of New London (see Journal , page 67), both of which were continued by the Convention of 1902 Journal 1902, page 68), beg leave to report, that at the request of Bishop, they recommend that further consideration of these matters leferred for the present, and that they be discharged from further on thereon.

The matter of Associated Missions (see Journal 1900, page 67), sh by the Conventions of 1901 and 1902 was continued, beg leave to rt, that after carefully investigating the actual working of Associated ions at several points where they have been tried, they are of the ion that it is not wise to try them in Connecticut.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Board,

BURTON MANSFIELD, Secretary.

he Report was accepted, and the Board was discharged from her consideration of these matters.

: was also solved, That a Special Committee of three persons be appointed by President to nominate Lay Directors of the Missionary Society.

he President appointed as such

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Rev. HARRY I. BODLEY

WILLIAM M. STARK

n motion of the Rev. Ernest deF. Miel, it was solved, That the Directors of the Missionary Society be requested quire into the spiritual conditions obtaining in those portions of this which are without the ministrations of religion, to determine the of this Church in regard to them, and to recommend to the next ial Convention such action as the conditions found may warrant.

n motion of the Rev. Harry I. Bodley, it was solved, That the Directors of the Missionary Society be empowered eir discretion to employ a special agent during the ensuing year, at xpense not to exceed $1,000 and traveling charges.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Lines, it was

Resolved, That the Directors of the Missionary Society be authorized to expend such amount of money as may seem to them necessary for the work of the special agent in missionary work in the Diocese, obtaining the money by apportionment to the Parishes, if it is not provided in another way.

The business of the Episcopal Academy being now in order, on motion of Mr. Morris W. Seymour, the following preamble and Resolution were adopted:

Whereas, Negotiations have been going on between the Trustees of the Episcopal Academy of Connecticut and certain of the alumni of said school who are interested in the welfare of that institution and are desirous and willing under certain conditions to assist it pecuniarily; now therefore

Resolved, That a Committee of seven, one of whom shall be the Bishop, and one or more of whom shall be members of this Convention and not Trustees of said Academy, be appointed to carry on such negotiations, with full power to act; the Convention hereby ratifying and confirming all they may legally do in the premises.

The President appointed as

COMMITTEE ON LEASING THE EPISCOPAL ACADEMY

Rt. Rev. CHAUNCEY B. BREWSTER, D.D.

Rev. EDWIN S. LINES, D.D.

Mr. CHARLES H. NETTLE

JOHN TOWNSEND

MORRIS W. SEYMOUR

Prof. ANDREW W. PHILLIPS, PH.D.

GEORGE M. CURTIS

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Lines, it was

Resolved, That Articles II. and III. of the Constitution of the Chesapeake Academy adopted in October, 1836, be and the same are hereby repealed and that in lieu thereof Articles II. and III. of the Constitution adopted in May, 1796, be substituted; so that said Articles shall read as follows:

"Article II. The government of the Academy shall be vested in the hands of twenty-one Trustees, of which number shall be the Bishop of Connecticut and the President of the Academy ex-officio; the other Trustees shall be chosen by the Convention, some of whom shall be Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and the remainder shall be laymen and may be elected from any denomination of professing Christians."

"Article III. The Trustees shall continue in office during good behavior, and upon complaint may be displaced by vote of the Convention."

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Lines, it was also

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Academy be authorized to print in an Appendix to the Journal such record concerning the resignation of Professor E. D. Woodbury, Principal, and the election of Mr. Roland J. Mulford as Principal with the title of Head Master, and other matters, as they may think desirable for the information of the Diocese and of the friends of the Diocesan School.

On motion of Archdeacon Raftery, the Convention took a recess to sit as the Church Scholarship Society. (Appendix G.)

The Convention having resumed its session, Mr. Henry H. Gallup presented the Report of the Committee on Finance, recommending the adoption of the following Resolutions:

Resolved, That for the purpose of providing for the salary and expenses of the Bishop, an assessment of three-fourths of one per cent. be levied upon each Parish and Mission on an amount equal to that paid for "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," during the year ending at this Convention, as printed in the Journal of the Convention for 1903; and that this assessment be paid by the Treasurer of each Parish to the Treasurer of the Bishop's Fund on or before January 1st, 1904.

Resolved, That for the Convention Fund an assessment of three fourths of one per cent. be levied upon each Parish and Mission on an amount equal to that paid for "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," during the year ending at this Convention, as printed in the Journal of the Convention for 1903; and that this assessment be paid by the Treasurer of each Parish to the Treasurer of the Diocese on or before May 1st, 1904.

Resolved, That the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese and the Directors of the Missionary Society approving, in case of a Parish reporting seventy-five (75) or less Communicants, whose Rector's salary does not exceed a total of $800, assessments or apportionments shall be made upon the basis of "Current Expenses" less one-half of the sum reported as "Income from property."

On motion of the Rev. William A. Beardsley, the second Resolution was amended so as to make the assessment for the Convention Fund one-half of one per cent.; and the three Resolutions were then adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Hart presented the following

REPORT

The Committee on Constitution and Canons, before which was brought a proposal to amend Canon I., Section 9, in such manner as to define the phrase "legally appointed," begs leave to report:

That it has had the matter under consideration, and recommends the adoption of the following Resolution;

Resolved, That Canon I., Section 9, be amended by substituting for the words "legally appointed," the words "appointed by vote of the Parish"; so that the first paragraph shall read:

"There shall be an annual meeting of the members of every Parish on Easter Monday, or some other day appointed by vote of the Parish, for the purpose of electing the Wardens and Vestrymen, Clerk and Treasurer, and of transacting such other business as may legally come before such meeting."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

SYLVESTER CLARKE,
SAMUEL HART,
EDWIN S. LINES,
MORRIS W. SEYMOUR,
Committee.

The Report was accepted and the Resolution adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Hart also reported verbally that the Resolution proposed by the Rev. R. F. Humphries, calling for additional space in the form of Parochial Report, required no action, if the Secretary would provide more blank lines in printing the form. The Secretary agreed to do so.

He also reported that more time was desired for considering the two Resolutions proposed by the Rev. H. I. Bodley; so these matters were referred back to the Committee, to consider and report next year.

The Rev. James H. George presented the following

REPORT

The Committee on Nominations respectfully reports that there is one vacancy in the Board of Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen, and one in the Board of Trustees of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund, both occasioned by the resignation of the Rev. L. W. Saltonstall. The Committee nominate as Trustee on both these Boards the Rev. Arthur T. Randall.

To fill the vacancy on the Board of Trustees of the Episcopal Academy of Connecticut caused by the resignation of Gurdon W. Russell, M.D. they nominate Mr. Joseph W. Harriman, of New York.

They nominate as Members of the Missionary Council the Rev. William H. Lewis, D.D., and Mr. Harry H. Heminway.

Respectfully submitted, for the Committee,

JAMES H. GEORGE.

The Report was accepted, and all the nominees were elected accordingly.

(Mr. Joseph W. Harriman subsequently declined his election as Trustee of the Episcopal Academy.)

Mr. Burton Mansfield presented the following

REPORT

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Committee appointed by Resolution of the Convention of 1902 to apply for an amendment to the Charter of "The Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes," respectfully begs leave to report:

That a Resolution was passed by the Connecticut General Assembly at its January session, A.D. 1903, amending the second section of the Charter of "The Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes," by substituting the word "twenty" in place of the word "ten" in the proviso thereof, so that the same now reads, "and provided also, that said corporation shall in no case hold property of a greater annual net revenue than twenty thousand dollars."

ELIJAH C. JOHNSON,
L. P. WALDO MARVIN,
BURTON MANSFIELD, Committee.

The Report was accepted and the Committee discharged.

On motion of the Rev. E. Campion Acheson, it was

Resolved, That the Report of the Sunday School Auxiliary to the Board of Missions for Connecticut, when ready, be printed with the Journal.

On motion of Mr. Harry H. Heminway, it was Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint a Committee to cooperate with the General Board of Missions, as heretofore; and

Resolved, That the working of the "Apportionment Plan" for General Missions in this Diocese be left to the aforesaid Committee, with power.

The President reappointed the members of this Committee, so that it stands as follows:

Committee to cooperate with the General Board of Missions

The Secretary presented the following communication on

COURTS OF APPEAL

DIOCESAN OFFICE,
MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN, October 1st, 1902.

To the Secretary of the Diocese of Connecticut:

Dear Sir:—I hereby beg to inform you officially that at the recent Annual Council of the Diocese of Milwaukee, held at the Cathedral, Milwaukee, September 16th-17th, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz.:

"Whereas, Recent events that have been widely published and discussed in the public press, have illustrated anew the grave evils resulting from the neglect in this Church to make canonical provision for extra-diocesan Courts of Appeals in cases of the trial of a clergyman; a neglect that renders both the minister who may be defendant, and the Bishop who may act as trial judge or may pronounce sentence after trial, liable to the gravest injustice or suspicion of injustice, by reason of the impossibility of granting or receiving a new trial upon appeal to a higher court; therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Diocese of Milwaukee, which has happily been free from any instances of the trial of any of her clergy for a long term of years, earnestly petitions General Convention to grant some form of relief, by provision for extra-diocesan Courts of Appeals, for the protection alike of the Bishops and the other clergy of this Church; and

"Resolved, further, that such relief can, in the opinion of this Diocese, be most satisfactorily effected by means of a wise provision for the grouping of Dioceses and Missionary Districts together in a Provincial System designed to embrace the whole country, by due provision of Canon, according to the terms of Article VII. of the Constitution; and

"Resolved, That the Secretary of the Council be and is hereby instructed to communicate this action to the Secretaries of the several Diocesan Councils, Conventions, and Synods of the Church in this country, with the request that it be brought to the attention of each of the said Diocesan bodies; and that this Diocese earnestly requests the coöperation of each of such bodies, if it shall seem good to any of them, in presenting to the General Convention of 1904 a body of petitions from every Diocese embodying the preamble and the first or the first and second of these resolutions, or others of like import, at their own discretion, the end that the mind of the Church at large on this important and pressing matter may be distinctly shown; and this Diocese would appreciate the courtesy of any other Diocese that would inform their Secretary what action, if any, might be taken therein under this invitation."

In obedience to this resolution, I respectfully request you to bring this communication to the attention of your Diocese (or Missionary District) at its next conciliar meeting, and will greatly appreciate the courtesy you will inform me what action, if any, is taken in respect thereto, under this invitation.

Very faithfully,

C. B. BERGIN WRIGHT,

Secretary of the Diocese of Milwaukee —

On motion, it was

Resolved, That this communication be referred to a special Committee, to consider and report at the next Convention.

The President accordingly appointed as such

COMMITTEE ON COURTS OF APPEAL

REV. STORRS O. SEYMOUR, D.D.
WILLIAM H. LEWIS, D.D.

MR. GARDINER GREENE

The Rev. William G. Andrews, D.D., presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON PAROCHIAL ARCHIVES

The Commission on Parochial Archives respectfully presents its annual report.

The Secretary, as copyist of Archives, has made copies at East Hadam and Bloomfield of records relating to other Parishes, and the search for similar material is not quite completed.

The Records of Convocation, the publication of which, with annotations, was authorized by the last Convention (Journal, p. 45), have been copied at our request under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Hart; while the Rev. Mr. Hooper, a member of the Commission, associated with Dr. Hart in this matter, has in hand the work of annotation. It is expected that the whole will be published in the autumn, and that five hundred copies can be printed with the money appropriated ($250). The Commission has been left to its own discretion with regard to the distribution of these early records, but would willingly receive instructions from the Convention on that point.

It is hoped to secure catalogues or abstracts of manuscripts of great historical interest among the Johnson, Seabury and Schroeder papers, and steps have been taken in that direction.

The records of two extinct Parishes, St. Thomas's Church, Canterbury, and St. Paul's Church, Central Village (as also a pewter baptismal bowl from the former Parish), have been obtained by a member of the Commission for delivery to the Registrar, who will also, no doubt, report them.

Photographs of pictures of the Rev. Samuel Peters, and of him with his daughter, were not long ago procured. Some of his manuscript sermons are in the possession of one of our number.

Some correspondence with descendants of Connecticut loyalists in the British provinces, while not throwing light on ecclesiastical documents, has elicited fresh evidence of warm interest in this commonwealth, and of the utmost readiness to give information. It does not yet appear that manuscripts of an historical character from the hands of the emigrant Clergy are numerous; but future inquiries may increase our knowledge in this direction.

A member of the Commission has had the great pleasure of restoring to St. Helena's Parish, Beaufort, S. C., the records of its Vestry, dating from 1726, and missing since the civil war.

Prepared by the undersigned under the authority of the Commission,
W. G. ANDREWS, Chairman,
F. W. BAILEY, Secretary.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Andrews, it was Resolved, That in the distribution of the printed Records of Convocation, five (5) copies shall be given respectively to the Berkeley Divinity School and to Trinity College, and two (2) copies respectively to the Episcopal Academy at Cheshire, and to St. Margaret's School at Waterbury, and, at the discretion of the Registrar, to institutions and individuals not connected with the Diocese; that officers of the Diocese and members of this Convention and of the various diocesan Boards and Committees shall on application to the Chairman of the Commission be supplied at the nominal price of ten (10) cents per copy; that remaining copies, if any, be left for the present in the hands of the Registrar; and that the net proceeds of sales shall be paid to the Treasurer of this Convention.

The Rev. Arthur T. Randall presented the Report of the Connecticut Commissioners of the American Church Building Fund; which was accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal. (Appendix L.)

The Rev. William A. Beardsley presented the Report of the Committee on the Distribution of the Prayer Book; which was accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal. (Appendix M.)

On motion, it was

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed, with power to act in respect to the distribution of the Book of Common Prayer in this Diocese. The Committee shall report to the next Convention the amounts of money received and expended.

The President reappointed the same persons, so that the Committee stands as follows:

COMMITTEE ON DISTRIBUTION OF THE PRAYER BOOK

Rev. WILLIAM G. ANDREWS, D.D.

Rev. WILLIAM A. BEARDSLEY
FREDERICK D. BUCKLEY

Mr. CHARLES A. PEASE
GEORGE E. BEERS

On motion of the Rev. Eugene L. Henderson, it was Resolved, That a Committee consisting of three Presbyters and three men be appointed to act in conjunction with the Bishop and Archdeacons of this Diocese in extending the work of the Church among the colored People of Connecticut.

The President appointed as

Committee on Extending the Work among the Colored People of Connecticut

ERNEST DE F. MIEL
EDWIN S. LINES, D.D.
EUGENE L. HENDERSON

MR. WILLIS E. MILLER
EDWARD E. BRADLEY
WILLIAM H. COMLEY

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Seymour, it was

Resolved, That the Secretary be authorized to print 1600 copies of the Manual; one copy to be sent to each Clergyman, Candidate for Holy Orders, and Officer of the Diocese, including the Directors of the various Diocesan Societies and the Boards of Trustees; one copy to each Lay member of this Convention; one copy to each Warden, Clerk and Treasurer of the several Parishes; fifty copies to the Registrar of the Diocese; one copy to any Public Library which may desire the same; and the remainder to be distributed at the Secretary's discretion.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Seymour, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the Rev. Martine Means for the Sermon delivered at the opening service.

On motion, it was also

Resolved, That thanks are hereby tendered to the Churchmen of Meriden, and especially to the ladies of the two Parishes, for the generous hospitality extended to the Clergy and Lay Delegates during the session of this Convention.

Resolved, That thanks are also due and are hereby tendered to the Pastor and Vestry of St. Andrew's Church, Meriden, for the use of the Church during the session of this Convention.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention be tendered to the officers of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, for their courtesy in the provision of return tickets at reduced rates; and that the Secretary be instructed to communicate this vote to the proper officers.

On motion, it was then

Resolved, That after the reading of the Minutes, and the customary motions, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The President having called the Rev. Dr. Seymour to the chair, the Minutes were read and approved.

Hymn 417 was sung: the Bishop offered Prayer and gave the Benediction; and the Convention adjourned sine die.

CHAUNCEY B. BREWSTER, D.D.

President of the Convention.

Attest:

FREDERICK W. HARRIMAN,
Secretary.

CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

OF THE

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I. The Diocese of Connecticut, as a constituent part of the known as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, accedes to, recognizes, and adopts the General Constitution of Church, and acknowledges its authority accordingly.

ARTICLE II. There shall be a Convention of the Diocese on the second day of June in each year at such place as shall be appointed by the Bishop or, in case of a vacancy in the episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE III. The Bishop shall call a special Convention whensoever he shall be requested by the Standing Committee.

In case of a vacancy in the episcopate, unless it occur within two months of the time appointed for the annual Convention, the Standing Committee shall call a special Convention for the election of a Bishop.

The Bishop or the Standing Committee shall direct the Secretary to give public notice of the meeting of any Convention, and to send notice of any special Convention by mail to all the Clergy and Lay Delegates.

ARTICLE IV. The members of any Convention shall be the Bishop and Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese not under discipline, Lay Delegates from the several Parishes of the Diocese; provided, however, that no Clergyman shall be entitled to vote for a Bishop unless he have been canonically resident in the Diocese for at least one year.

Each Parish in the Diocese shall at its annual meeting elect, from the Communicants of the same, one Lay Delegate to the Convention; if it consist of more than fifty families, it shall elect two Delegates; each shall represent the Parish at all Conventions held within the year ending their election. Any Parish may elect substitutes to take the place of such Delegates as are unable to attend any Convention.

If any Parish be composed of two or more congregations and have a corresponding number of Church edifices, such Parish shall be entitled to one Delegate or Delegates from each of such congregations, as from any distinct Parishes.

ARTICLE V. The Bishop is the President of any Convention; but in case of his absence or of a vacancy in the episcopate, the Convention shall be called to order by the President of the Standing Committee, and shall thereupon elect its own President.

A majority of all the clerical members of the Convention and Lay Delegates representing thirty Parishes shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but a smaller number may adjourn.

ARTICLE VI. The clerical and the lay members of a Convention shall sit and deliberate in one body; and every question, unless it be otherwise provided in this Constitution, shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present; provided, however, that in any case when it is requested by five members, the two orders shall vote separately, and a concurrence of the two orders shall determine the vote of the Convention.

ARTICLE VII. A Secretary of the Diocese shall be chosen by ballot at the opening of each annual Convention, who shall continue in office until his successor has been elected.

A Treasurer of the Diocese shall be chosen by the Convention, to hold office until his successor has been elected at an annual Convention. The Treasurer shall present a report to each annual Convention.

In case of a vacancy in the office of Secretary or of Treasurer, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall have power to fill such vacancy until the meeting of the next annual Convention.

ARTICLE VIII. The Standing Committee of the Diocese shall be chosen at each annual Convention, to consist of five clerical members of the Convention, and the Committee shall continue in office until another election has been made.

The Standing Committee shall meet within ten days after its election and choose from its own number a President and a Secretary. Any three members of the Committee, the whole having been summoned by the President, shall be a quorum, unless in any case it be otherwise required by the Canons of the General Convention.

In case of a vacancy in the Standing Committee, the remaining members shall have power to fill such vacancy until the next annual Convention.

ARTICLE IX. The election of a Bishop shall be in the following manner: after nominations made in open Convention, the two orders shall separate, and each order shall elect its own Chairman and Secretary. The Clergy shall then choose by ballot some fit and qualified person for the office of Bishop, and shall communicate their choice to the President of the Convention and to the Lay Delegates. The Lay Delegates shall thereupon vote by ballot upon the approval of the choice thus made by the Clergy, and shall communicate the result of this vote to the President of the Convention. The President shall then reassemble the Convention and declare the result of the votes; and if the person chosen by the Clergy has been approved by the Lay Delegates, he shall be declared to be duly elected.

The election of a Bishop shall be determined by a majority in each order; provided, that if less than two-thirds of all the Clergy entitled to vote are present, two-thirds of the votes in each order shall be necessary to determine the election.

ARTICLE X. Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention shall be elected by ballot, and by the concurrent vote of the two orders voting separately, at the annual Convention next preceding any stated General Convention; and the Deputies thus elected shall continue in office for three years. An equal number of supplemental Deputies shall also be appointed in the same manner; from whom, in the order of priority of election, the Bishop, or in case of a vacancy in the episcopate, the President of the Standing Committee, shall fill vacancies which may occur among the Deputies before or during the sitting of the General Convention.

In case any Deputy or supplemental Deputy decline his appointment, he shall give reasonable notice thereof to the Ecclesiastical Authority.

ARTICLE XI. No Clergyman shall receive any public censure from the Bishop or the Standing Committee, unless he have been adjudged thereto in the manner provided for by Canon.

ARTICLE XII. This Constitution shall not be amended in any article unless the amendment shall have been proposed and approved at an annual Convention, published at large in its Journal, and adopted at the next annual Convention by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

Worship of Almighty God according to the Doctrine, Discipline and Liturgy of said Church in these United States, said Society to be known in law as Parish in the Town of _____, in the County of _____, and State of Connecticut.

In Witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this _____ day of _____, A.D. 19 ____.

(2.) At a legal meeting of _____ Parish, in the Town of _____, held on the _____ day of _____, 19 ____, A. B. was duly elected and sworn in as the Parish Clerk; and C. D. and E. F. were elected Church Wardens; and G. H., I. J., etc., Vestrymen of said Parish for the ensuing year.

At the same time it was resolved that this Parish apply to be admitted into union with the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Connecticut, and that K. L. be chosen Agent of this Parish to ask for such admission; and, if the application be granted, then and there to represent this Parish in the said Convention as its Delegate.

(3.) To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Connecticut.—The subscriber respectfully sheweth that he has been appointed Agent and Delegate for the purposes specified in the following extracts from the minutes of the Parish of _____, in the Town of _____, to wit:

"At the lawful meeting of the Parish of _____, in the Town of _____, State of Connecticut, held on the _____ day of _____, 19 ____, it was resolved that this Parish apply to be admitted into union with the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Connecticut, and that K. Extract from the minutes. Attest, _____ A. B., Parish Clerk.

And now, in pursuance of said agency, the subscriber submits to the Convention an attested copy of the act of organization of said Parish, taken from the record of their proceedings; and applies in the name and behalf of said Parish of _____, in the Town of _____, that it be admitted into union with this Convention.

Dated at _____, on the _____ day of _____, 19 ____.

Signed, _____ K. L., Agent and Delegate.

SEC. 3. All persons who under the existing laws are members of any of the Ecclesiastical Societies or Parishes belonging to the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, are hereby recognized as such, and entitled so to be and remain, with all the privileges and subject to all the duties of such membership. Rectors of Parishes for the time being shall be considered as members of their respective Parishes.

SEC. 4. Any baptized person of the age of twenty-one years not a member of any other ecclesiastical society in this State, desiring to become a member of any Parish in this Diocese, shall sign and lodge with the Clerk or any other officer of said Parish a written declaration of his desire to become a member thereof, in which declaration he shall express his attachment to the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States; and this declaration shall be made and lodged with the Clerk or other officer before the annual meeting of the Parish, and shall be read at said meeting; and the name of each applicant shall be voted upon separately by ballot at said meeting; upon the final adjournment of which, all such applicants as have received a majority of the votes cast shall become members of the Parish.

SEC. 5. When any person has become and is a member of any Parish, he shall remain such until and unless the relationship be terminated by one of the modes following:

- (1.) By death.
- (2.) By removal from the Parish; the fact to be determined in each case by the Vestry, as provided below in Section 7.
- (3.) By written notice of withdrawal lodged with the Parish Clerk.
- (4.) By repulsion from the Holy Communion.
- (5.) By a vote of two-thirds of the members present at an annual meeting, upon proof that a member has been convicted of crime under any Statute Law of this State or of the United States; provided that notice of the proposed action shall have been given to such member, either personally or by letter addressed to him at his residence or last known address of residence, by the Vestry of the Parish, at least fifteen days before the time of said annual meeting.

SEC. 6. The officers of a Parish shall be a Rector, a Vestry composed of two Wardens and such number of Vestrymen as the Parish shall determine, a Clerk and a Treasurer, who may be members of the Vestry; and the Rector shall be Chairman ex-officio of the Vestry.

The members of the Vestry, the Clerk and the Treasurer, shall be elected by ballot at the annual Parish meeting from the members of the Parish, and shall hold office for one year, and until others are chosen and qualified; and vacancies occurring by death or otherwise in any of the said offices during the course of the year, may be filled at a special Parish meeting, duly called.

SEC. 7. The Parish Clerk shall be Clerk of the Vestry ex-officio; shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties; shall make and preserve a full record of the proceedings of all Parish meetings and of the meetings of the Vestry; shall, under the supervision of the Vestry, keep an accurate roll of the legal members of the Parish, and have such roll present at every Parish meeting; and shall be custodian of the files, records and archives of the Parish.

The Vestry of each Parish shall from time to time, and always within one month preceding the annual Parish meeting, revise the roll of the members of the Parish in accordance with the provisions of this Canon.

SEC. 8. The property and all affairs of the Parish shall be subject to the direction, management and control of the Vestry, except that the election and resignation of a Rector, the amount of his salary, the disposition of the real estate of the Parish, and the borrowing and loaning of money shall not be within the control of the Vestry, unless by special vote of the Parish.

SEC. 9. There shall be an annual meeting of the members of every Parish on Easter Monday, or some other day appointed by vote of the Parish, for the purpose of electing the Wardens and Vestrymen, Clerk and Treasurer, and of transacting such other business as may legally come before such meeting.

Special Parish meetings shall be called by a vote of the Vestry, or upon the written request of five members of the Parish.

The warnings of all Parish meetings shall be signed by the Clerk, or, in his absence, by one of the Wardens, and shall be posted at the door of the Parish Church, or sent by the Clerk to every member of the Parish, at least one week before the time of meeting.

The warnings of all Parish meetings, except the annual meeting, shall contain a statement of the objects for which the meeting is called; and at all meetings the Rector of the Parish, if he be present, shall preside.

SEC. 10. Any Parish desiring to terminate or to suspend its parochial organization, may do so by vote of two-thirds of the members present at a Parish meeting legally warned for that purpose, with the approval of and under such conditions as shall be required by the Bishop and Standing Committee.

CANON II.—Of Parochial Registers and Reports

SEC. 1. In order to give effect to Title I., Canon 20, § v. of the Digest, it is hereby required that every Minister of this Church shall keep a Register of all the baptisms, marriages and funerals solemnized by him, specifying the names of the parties married, of those baptized, and of their sponsors, and of the persons buried, and the time when each rite was performed. If the Minister be in charge of a Parish, he shall make these entries in the Parish Register; and he shall also enter therein the names of persons confirmed, and shall keep in the said Register a list of the Communicants and a list of the families belonging to the Parish. This Register, in case of the Minister's removal from the Parish, shall be deposited with one of the Wardens; and in such case, the Wardens shall cause all needful entries to be made in the Register until the Parish shall be again in charge of a Clergyman.

SEC. 2. Names of persons removing from one Parish or Congregation to another within the Diocese shall not be entered on the list of Communicants in the Parish or Congregation to which the persons remove until they shall have presented to the Rector or Minister, or to the Wardens, if there be no Rector or Minister, the certificate required by Title II., Canon XII., Section 1, of the Digest. Nor shall such names be stricken from the list of Communicants in the Parish or Congregation from which the persons remove until the Rector or Minister or Wardens of that Parish shall receive from the Rector or Minister or Wardens of the Parish or Congregation to which such persons have removed, a duly authenticated certificate that the names have been entered in the Register of that Parish or Congregation; and it shall be the duty of said Rector or Minister or Wardens to transmit such certificate within one month of such entry.

Any Rector or Minister in charge of a Parish may transfer to another Parish a Communicant who has attended the services of said Parish for two years, said Communicant having first consented to such transfer, or having made no objection after due notice of such intended transfer.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church having a Parish, or if a Parish be vacant, the Wardens, shall present or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement in the form following:

In the foregoing form, by "Communicants admitted" are meant all persons who having been confirmed, or being "ready and desirous to be confirmed," shall have received the Holy Communion.

No name shall be dropped from the Parish Register for the reason that the person is not reckoned a present Communicant for the purpose of the annual report.

The items under the head of "Financial Report" shall be, as far as possible, for the last financial year of the Parish.

SEC. 4. The Minister or Wardens shall further report all other matters that may throw light on the state of the Parish.

Every other Clergyman, not regularly settled in any Parish or Church, shall report the occasional services he may have performed; and if he have performed no such services, the causes or reasons which have prevented the same. These reports, or such parts of them as the Bishop shall think fit, may be read in Convention, and shall be entered on the Journals thereof.

It shall be the duty of the Church Wardens of each Parish, immediately after the annual meeting of the Parish, to report to the Bishop the value of the Church property, the salary paid the Rector or officiating Minister, and the indebtedness of the Parish.

SEC. 5. At every visitation, the Minister of the Parish, or the Wardens, if the Parish be vacant, shall submit the Parish Register to the Bishop for his inspection.

SEC. 6. The basis of financial assessments laid by the Convention upon the several Parishes, unless otherwise specially ordered, shall be the amount reported for the preceding year for "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," being the first item in the Parochial Reports under "Parochial Expenditures."

CANON III.—Of Offences for which Ministers can be tried

Every Minister shall be liable to presentment and trial for crime or immorality; for holding and teaching publicly or privately, and advisedly, any doctrine contrary to that held by the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; for violation of the Constitution or Canons of the General Convention, or of this Diocese; for a persistent disregard of the order of this Church in the use of the Book of Common Prayer; or for conduct unbecoming a Clergyman of this Church. On being found guilty he shall be admonished, suspended, or degraded, according to Canon IV. of this Diocese, entitled "Of the Trial of a Clergyman."

CANON IV.—Of the Trial of a Clergyman

SEC. 1. In order to bring a Clergyman to trial, a charge shall be made in the first place to the Standing Committee, in writing, under the proper signature of at least two Communicants of this Diocese, one of whom shall be a Presbyter. If the Standing Committee shall deem the offence charged as coming within the offences enumerated in the Canons of the Diocese of Connecticut, or of the General Convention, they shall present the charge to the Bishop in the following form:

To A. B., Bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Standing Committee of this Diocese respectfully represent that C. D. has been accused under the hands of E. F. and G. H. of [he recite the charge or charges], and the Committee are of opinion that there is sufficient ground for presenting the said C. D. for trial, agreeably to the Canons in such cases made and provided.

[Signed by the Standing Committee.]

SEC. 2. Upon the receipt of the foregoing presentment, the Bishop shall summon nine Presbyters to meet, not within ninety days, at some within the County where the accused shall reside or officiate, for the time being; not less than five of whom shall constitute a Court for trial of the charge or charges; and the accused may object to any of such members, at his discretion, and to any for cause or favor, the sufficiency of which objection for cause or favor shall be determined by other persons so summoned; or if by reason of such objections the number shall be reduced below five, the Bishop shall designate Presbyters to supply such vacancies. The Standing Committee shall have the right to object, provided they exercise the right alternately with the accused, he being allowed the first privilege. All of such Presbyters not objected to or found disqualified shall sit as a Court.

2. 3. The Bishop shall forthwith furnish to the Standing Committee to the accused a list of the Presbyters summoned to constitute the Court, accompanied with a notice of the time and place of the meeting of Court. The Standing Committee shall act as prosecutors in the case, at least sixty days before the trial shall furnish the accused with a copy of the presentment, notice of the time and place of trial, and a specification of the facts on which they expect to maintain the charges. The accused, at least thirty days before the trial, shall furnish the Standing Committee with a statement of the ground of his defence on specification.

2. 4. At the time fixed for the trial, the members of the Court shall assemble and choose a President from their own number, and a Secretary either from their own number or otherwise, as they shall see fit; they shall, before they proceed, adopt and declare the rules by which the trial shall be conducted. A member of the legal profession, who is a communicant of this Church and a resident in this Diocese, shall be elected by the Court as assessor, who shall sit with and advise the Court on all legal questions that may arise, whether in regard to the admission of evidence or other points, but shall not be entitled to vote on charges contained in the presentment.

2. 5. If the accused shall appear, the Court shall proceed to the trial on the presentment, and shall adjudge him guilty, or not guilty, according to the evidence; and if he be found guilty, the Court shall refer to the Bishop to what ecclesiastical censure he ought, in their opinion, to be subjected. But if he shall neglect or refuse to appear, or answer in person, according to the notice served on him as aforesaid, or if for some reasonable cause to be allowed by the Court, they shall adjudge him to be pronounced in contumacy, and thereupon the Bishop shall suspend him from the functions of the Ministry. And if he shall not return within six months, the Bishop shall proceed to depose him from the Ministry of this Church.

2. 6. The Secretary shall keep a record of all the proceedings, which shall contain a copy of the presentment, of the specifications, of the defence of the accused, and of his answer, with a statement of all the evidence, both oral and written, and the final judgment of the Court; an attested copy of this record shall be forthwith delivered to the accused. If the judgment be not guilty, the Bishop shall give a certificate of acquittal to the accused, embracing a copy of the presentment and specifications; and the accused shall not be subjected to a second trial on the same charges. If the Court judge him guilty, on one or more points at issue, the Bishop may disapprove the judgment and order a new trial, stating his grounds for such a decision; or he may approve the judgment; and in that case he shall, within thirty days, proceed to such ecclesiastical censure as the case may, in his judgment, require, whether it be admonition, suspension, or degradation from the Ministry; provided the penalty be not greater than that expressed in the judgment of the Court.

SEC. 7. Every summons, notice, or citation mentioned in these proceedings shall be deemed to be duly served, by the delivery of a written notice or paper to the person to be summoned, notified, cited, or by leaving it, or a certified copy of it, at his residence, or last known residence, by a person duly appointed in writing by the Bishop, Standing Committee, or Court, as the case may require.

CANON V.—Of Clerical Settlement and Removal

SEC. 1. On the election of a Minister into any Church or Parish, the Vestry shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Bishop, or where there is no Bishop to the Standing Committee, notice of the same, in the following form or to this effect:

"We, the Church Wardens [or, in case of an Assistant Minister, We, the Rector and Church Wardens] do certify to the Right Rev. [naming the Bishop, or to the Rev., naming the President of the Standing Committee] that [naming the person] has been duly chosen Rector [or Assistant Minister, as the case may be] of [naming the Parish or Church or Churches]"; which certificate shall be signed by those who certify.

c. 1. The Trustees of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund shall appoint man of this Diocese to be Treasurer of the Fund, who shall con- in office during their pleasure.

SEC. 2. Any Clergyman of this Diocese who shall have attained the age of sixty-five years, and shall not be in receipt of a stated salary, shall be entitled to the benefits of this Fund; provided, that he shall have been canonically resident in this Diocese and in the actual discharge of the duties of the Ministry for the ten years immediately preceding his application for the benefits of the Fund.

SEC. 3. All applications for the benefit of this Fund shall be made in writing to the Treasurer thereof before the first day of June in each year.

SEC. 4. Each Parish in this Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of this Fund, before the first day of June in each year, fifty cents for every one hundred dollars of its current expenses, as defined in Canon II., Section 6.

SEC. 5. Of the amounts paid by Parishes in each year, under Section 4 of this Canon, one-half shall be reserved and securely invested as part of the principal of the Fund; to which shall also be added, when not otherwise designated, all special offerings from Parishes, and gifts, donations, or legacies from individuals.

SEC. 6. The other half of the amounts paid by Parishes in each year, under Section 4 of this Canon, shall be added to the income of the principal of the Fund, as received up to the first day of June in each year, and the sum shall be divided, before the first day of July in each year, in equal shares among the Clergymen entitled to the benefits of this Fund, under Sections 2 and 3 of this Canon; provided, that the share of each Clergyman shall not exceed five hundred dollars in any one year; provided, also, that no Clergyman shall be a beneficiary of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund who is also a beneficiary of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen.

SEC. 7. All income not expended shall be added each year to the principal of the Fund until the said principal shall have reached the amount of one hundred thousand dollars; and when this limit shall have been reached, all surplus income of this Fund not required for the purposes of Section 6 of this Canon, or for other necessary expenses, shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen, to be applied for the purposes of said Fund.

CANON XI.—Of Diocesan Missions

SEC. 1. For its missionary work the Diocese shall be divided into six Districts, to be called Archdeaconries, as follows, viz.:

1. Fairfield, comprising Fairfield County;
2. Litchfield, comprising Litchfield County;
3. New Haven, comprising New Haven County;
4. Hartford, comprising Hartford County, and the towns of Somers, Ellington, Vernon and Bolton, in Tolland County;
5. Middlesex, comprising Middlesex County;
6. New London, comprising New London and Windham Counties, and also the towns of Mansfield, Willington, Union, Stafford, Columbia, Tolland, Coventry, Andover and Hebron, in Tolland County.

SEC. 2. Each District shall be represented by the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, together with the Lay Delegates to the last annual Diocesan Convention from each Parish.

The presiding officer shall be an Archdeacon appointed by the Bishop, from the Clergy of the District, on nomination made by a vote of the district at its annual meeting; and his term of office shall be four years. In case of a vacancy in the office by removal from the Archdeaconry or other cause, a nomination to fill the vacancy until the next annual meeting shall be made at a regular meeting, after due notice given, or at a special meeting called by the Bishop at the request of two Presbyters.

A Secretary and a Treasurer shall be annually elected by ballot, at the next stated meeting after the Diocesan Convention, from among the residents of the District, who shall hold office until their successors are appointed, and shall be entitled to vote at all meetings of the Archdeaconry. If the Archdeaconry so order, the office of Secretary and that of Treasurer may be held by the same person. Any vacancy in the office of Secretary or Treasurer shall be filled by appointment of the Archdeacon until the next regular meeting.

SEC. 3. The Archdeacon shall, subject to the Bishop, have the charge and oversight of all the Missions in the Archdeaconry; and, in the absence of the Bishop, shall preside at all the meetings of the Archdeaconry. It shall be his duty, with the advice and approval of the Bishop, to appoint the Missionaries, and such lay helpers at each Mission as may be necessary to assist in temporal matters. It shall be his duty, either personally or by deputy, to visit each Mission, aided Parish, and occupied town; and the necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of this duty shall be defrayed by the Archdeaconry. The Archdeacon shall present a report of the condition and progress of missionary work in the District each year to the Board of Directors at its annual meeting immediately before the Diocesan Convention.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep the records of the Archdeaconry; and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive contributions from the Parishes, and to forward to the Treasurer of the Missionary Society the amount required of the Archdeaconry less the amount appropriated by the Board to the Archdeaconry; to keep and account for the money of the Archdeaconry, paying out only such sums as he shall be authorized to pay by a regular meeting; and to present each year to the Board of Directors, at its annual meeting, above mentioned, a report of the receipts and disbursements during the year past.

SEC. 4. Each Archdeaconry shall have control and distribution of the money received from the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society in aid of Mission Stations and feeble Parishes; shall apportion among its several Parishes and Missions the sums from time to time desired of it by the Board of Directors; and may at its own discretion, with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special missionary work, and raise funds for such purposes, provided it shall first have complied with the requirements of the Directors of the Missionary Society.

SEC. 5. Each District shall hold stated meetings for the transaction of its business, and no Apportionments or Appropriations shall be made except at these meetings; and the annual meeting of each District shall be the first stated meeting after the annual Diocesan Convention.

It shall be the duty of each Clergyman, unless prevented by grave and reasonable cause, to attend the regular meetings, and to report all missionary work done in his cure.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of every Missionary and every Rector of a Parish aided by the Archdeaconry, to report to the Archdeacon on or before the first of May in each year, the number of services held in his cure, the number of pastoral visits paid, the number of baptisms, confirmations, and admissions to the Holy Communion, and the amount contributed by each congregation, all since the date of his last annual report, with such other matters as may throw light on the condition and progress of his work; and also to send to the Archdeacon, in the months of January and September of each year, a brief general statement of similar purport.

SEC. 7. No Missionary Station shall be established without the approval of the Bishop, who shall also have power to remove Missionaries; and no Appropriation shall be made by the District in aid of any organized Parish, except on the application of the Wardens and Vestrymen of said Parish, with the written consent and approval of the Minister, if there be one; and no Appropriation shall be made by any Archdeaconry in aid of any organized Parish, except on the condition that such Parish shall concede a portion of the time and services of its Rector to other work under the direction of the Archdeaconry, and comply with any other condition that by the Archdeaconry may be required of it.

CANON XII.—Repealing former Canons

All former Canons of this Diocese, not included in these Canons, are hereby repealed.

The Secretary shall make such changes in the numbering of Canons or Sections, or in references to Canons or Sections, as may be required at any time by resolutions of amendment to the Canons adopted by the Convention.

ATTESTATION

I certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Connecticut as amended at sundry times to June 10, 1903.

FREDERICK W. HARRIMAN,

Secretary of the Diocese.

CONSTITUTION OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE

ARTICLE 1. This Society shall be called the "Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut."

ART. 2. The members of the Church in this Diocese shall constitute this Society; and it shall be represented by the Convention.

ART. 3. The Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex-officio President of the Society; and the Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, the Treasurer of the Society, and six Clergymen, who shall be the Archdeacons of the several Districts, and six laymen, to be appointed by the Convention, shall constitute the Board of Directors.

Six members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

This Board shall receive and disburse the funds of the Society.

ART. 4. There shall be a meeting of the Board, for organization, on the last day of the session of the Convention, at which time a Secretary and Treasurer shall be appointed.

Regular meetings of the Board shall be held on such days and at such places as the Board may appoint; and special meetings, for the transaction of any business, may be held at such times and places as the Bishop, upon the written application of two (2) members of the Board, may designate.

ART. 5. The Board shall make an annual report of its appropriations and other proceedings, to the Convention; and the Treasurer shall also make a report of the state of the funds, including the names of the several Parishes which annually contribute, with the amount of their contributions; and also a statement of any donations received from individuals; which reports, or so much of them as the Convention may direct, shall be entered on the Journals.

ART. 6. No alteration shall be made in this Constitution, without having been proposed to the Convention at least one day before it is acted upon; and the Convention alone shall have power to make alterations.

RULES OF ORDER

OF THE ANNUAL CONVENTION

RULE I. After Divine Service the President shall take the chair, and the Convention having been organized for business in accordance with Canon VIII., the order of procedure shall be as follows:

(1.) The election of a Secretary, and, in case of a vacancy, of Treasurer.

(2.) Resolutions of amendment of the Rules of Order.

(3.) Report of Committee to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates.

(4.) The appointment, by the President, of three Committees of the Convention, viz.: a Committee on the Admission of New Parishes; Committee on the Constitution and Canons, to consist each of five members, three Clergymen and two laymen; and a Committee on Finance, consist of three members, one Clergyman and two laymen.

(5.) The appointment by the President of a Committee to report vacancies in any of the Boards of Trustees elected by the Convention, to nominate persons to fill the same, and also persons to be elected Diocesan Members of the Missionary Council.

(6.) The presentation by the Secretary of a report of the business remaining unfinished at the last Convention.

(7.) The reception and reference of papers concerning the Admission of New Parishes.

(8.) Presentation of Parochial and Clerical Reports; Report of Treasurer; Report of the Trustees of the Bishop's Fund; Report of Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes; Report of Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows; Report of the Trustees of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund; Report of the Registrar of the Diocese; abstracts of which only shall be read, unless otherwise ordered by the Convention.

(9.) Presentation of the Abstract of the Proceedings of the Standing Committee.

(10.) Notices of motions or resolutions which are to be introduced as New Business; motions of reference to Committees of the Convention named in clause (4); presentation of Reports of Committees appointed at last Convention; motions for Special Orders of the day.

(11.) RECESS.

(12.) The Report of the Committee on the Admission of New Parishes, the Admission of the Parishes, and the Reception of their Lay Delegates.

(13.) The Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he shall prefer to present it at some other time.

(14.) The election of the Standing Committee. And in this election each member of the Convention may vote for five persons at one ballot and the five persons who receive the highest number of votes shall clared elected; provided, that no person shall be declared so elected less he receive a majority of the whole vote cast. If less than the whole number be thus elected, the Convention shall proceed to ballot for the remainder.

(15.) The election of Deputies and Supplemental Deputies to the next General Convention (once in three years).

(16.) The Business of the Missionary Society of the Diocese, including the nomination and appointment of the Board of Directors.

(17.) The Business of the Episcopal Academy.

(18.) The Business of the Church Scholarship Society.

(19.) The Report of the Committee on Finance; Report of the Committee on the Constitution and Canons; Report of Committee appointed to nominate persons to fill vacancies in the Diocesan Boards of Trustees, to be followed by their election; Reports of other Special Committees.

(20.) Miscellaneous Business.

RULE II. On the second and any subsequent day, after Divine Service, the order of business shall be as follows:

(1.) Reading and approving of the Minutes.

(2.) The disposal of the unfinished business of the Convention, in the order above prescribed for the first day; the business, however, which was under consideration at the time of the adjournment of the Convention to be first disposed of.

RULE III. When the President takes the chair, no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand, unless to address the chair.

RULE IV. When any member is about to speak in debate, or present any matter to the Convention, he shall rise from his seat, and, with due respect, address himself to the President.

RULE V. No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate, or on a question of appeal more than once, without leave of the Convention.

RULE VI. A question being once determined, shall stand as the judgment of the Convention, and shall not again be drawn into debate during the session, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the members present, upon a motion to reconsider, made by one of the majority on the first decision.

RULE VII. Every member present shall vote when a question is put, unless excused by the Convention.

RULE VIII. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless it be seconded and reduced to writing when required, and announced by the Chair.

RULE IX. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received except to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to certain time, to commit or to amend; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named.

RULE X. Motions to lay upon the table and to commit shall be decided without debate.

RULE XI. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and, if unqualified, shall be decided without debate.

RULE XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made; no after amendment to such second amendment shall be in order; but a substitute for such second amendment or a substitute for the whole matter, may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

RULE XIII. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, with the consent of the Convention; in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

RULE XIV. If the question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately; except that a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

RULE XV. In elections by ballot, all votes cast for eligible candidates are to be counted, whether such candidates have been nominated or not; but blank ballots shall not be counted, unless it be necessary to determine a quorum.

RULE XVI. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.

RULE XVII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion. They shall be entered upon the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution for its consideration.

RULE XVIII. No printed matter of any kind shall be distributed in the Convention or placed in the seats, except by the authority of the President or the Secretary.

RULE XIX. No rule of order shall be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without notice at the first morning session of a motion to that effect, and by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

RULE XX. Before the final adjournment of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected, and approved.

RULE XXI. The presiding officer of each Annual Convention shall appoint four Auditors, whose duty it shall be to examine the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, and the reports and accounts of all Boards of Trustees which hold permanent funds and are required to report to each Annual Convention; and said Auditors shall also identify the various securities in which such funds are invested. The certificate of at least two of the Auditors that they have performed their duties under this rule shall be presented to the Convention with each report and account which they are required to audit. The expenses of the Auditors shall be paid from the treasury of the Diocese.

STANDING RESOLUTIONS

In the Convention of 1886 (see Journal, page 40) it was

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese shall pay the expenses of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of this Diocese to the General Convention (see Journal of 1885, page 73) upon the order or certification of the Bishop or of the Chairman of the Standing Committee.

In the Convention of 1892 (see Journal, page 62) it was

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint the opening services of the Convention at an hour which will permit the Convention to be called to order for business at eleven o'clock A. M.

In the Convention of 1894 (see Journal, page 75) it was

Resolved, That the Treasurer be and hereby is directed to pay all orders drawn on him by the Secretary, or the Registrar, or the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of Donations and Bequests, and approved by the President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

In the Convention of 1895 (see Journal, page 65) it was

Resolved, That the Treasurer, the Secretary and the Assistant Secretary of the Convention be appointed a Committee to act in consultation with the Clergy or Committee on Hospitality in the place where the next Annual Convention is to be held.

Resolved, That this Committee be authorized to expend in their discretion a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, from the Convention Fund, for purposes of hospitality in connection with the attendance of Delegates at the Convention.

In the Convention of 1896 (see Journal, page 87) it was

Resolved, That the Rules of Order of any Convention shall be in force at the next Convention until otherwise ordered.

In the Convention of 1897 (see Journal, page 45) it was

Resolved, That the balloting in the election of a Bishop shall be conducted in the following manner: the Secretary of each order shall call the roll of the members of that order, and each member present, as his name is called, shall deposit his ballot in a box provided for the purpose.

In the Convention of 1897 (see Journal, page 70) it was

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Diocese be instructed to prepare from such information, sufficiently attested, as may from time to time be furnished him, and to publish in the Journal every fifth year, beginning with the year 1900, a list of Parishes the names of which have been changed, wholly or in part, since the date of their organization, setting forth the said changes, with the dates thereof, as far as they can be ascertained.

In the Convention of 1897 (see Journal, page 71) it was

Resolved, That a Committee consisting of one Clergyman and two laymen from each Archdeaconry be annually appointed by the President of the Convention, to coöperate with the Commissioners for Connecticut of the American Church Building Fund, until the fund shall have been completed.

In the Convention of 1899 (see Journal, page 68) it was

Resolved, That the salary of the Secretary of the Diocese be fixed at Three Hundred Dollars.

In the Convention of 1900 (see Journal, page 72) it was

Resolved, That this Convention disapproves of applause in ~~a~~ consecrated building.

APPENDIX B.

Report of the Registrar

at the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden on the second Tuesday in June, 1903.

The Registrar of the Diocese begs leave to present his report.

There have been sent me in the course of the past year, in part upon my request, the Journals of two Dioceses for 1901, those of thirty parishes and Districts for 1902, and the Journal of one Diocese for 1903. The Bishop has sent for the Archives one hundred and four Journals of recent date, with five other pamphlets; the Rev. William S. Adamson, Secretary of the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe, has sent the Journals of the Convocations of 1899, 1901, and 1902.

We have received from the Secretary the Journals of fifty-eight Dioceses and Districts for 1902; and also official copies of the Journal of the Convention of the Diocese printed on record paper, which have been suitably bound and lettered.

The Official Copyist of ancient records has deposited with me the extracts made by him from the Records and Registers in Simsbury and Haddam of an earlier date than 1800 and relating to other Parishes and Dioceses.

The Rev. Samuel F. Jarvis has sent me for the Archives the Record-Book of St. Thomas's Church, Canterbury, organized by Ammi Rogers in 1718, containing the articles of association and the minutes of ten meetings held in the years 1819-1828; also, a pewter Baptismal basin of Canterbury; also, the Register of St. Paul's Church, Central Islip, containing entries from 1857 to 1874, both inclusive, and the record of one burial in 1893.

Mr. F. Clarence Bissell has sent me a photographic copy of a portrait of Samuel Peters painted in 1824, in the ninetieth year of his age.

John H. Sage has presented to the Archives a copy of a very rare valuable double broadside, containing on one leaf "The Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of Connecticut, agreed upon by the Clerical and Lay Deputies in Convention," 6 June 1792, and on the other leaf the address of "a Convention of Lay Delegates from all of the Episcopal Societies in the State of Connecticut," held the same day, with reference to the support of the Bishop.

The Rev. W. Lloyd Himes, of Concord, N. H., has presented the minutes of the Special and Adjourned Conventions of New York in 1842, 1844, 1846, and 1852.

The Rev. Dr. Charles W. Hayes, of Geneva, N. Y., has presented his collection, with other papers, at the dedication of the Rankine Memorial Church in Geneva, and the General Catalogue of the DeLancey Divinity School.

The Rev. Dr. Foster Ely has presented ten Almanacs of varying imprints for years between 1814 and 1829 inclusive; the Church Journal newspaper, 1874, 1875, and 1877, bound; two bound volumes of Miscellaneous Pamphlets; four Journals of Connecticut and fourteen of other Dioceses; thirteen Connecticut Church pamphlets; and forty-one other Church pamphlets.

A large collection of Church papers and periodicals has been sent to the Archives from the library of the late Rev. B. M. Yarrington. They include numbers of The Churchman, completing our sets for five years (so that we now have forty-eight half-yearly volumes of this newspaper complete in numbers), together with a large number of duplicates; The Evergreen (New Haven) in part, 1844-1849; The Church Record (Southport) in part, 1885-90; The Church of To-Day (New Milford) in part, 1888-90; and about three hundred pamphlets, including nineteen Pastoral Letters of the House of Bishops; five Sermons at the Consecration of Bishops; five Church Almanacs before 1850; twenty-five General Theological Seminary publications; ten reports of the Connecticut Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary; forty-three Connecticut Journals; forty-three other Connecticut Church publications; and seven Journals of other Dioceses.

The Rev. M. G. Thompson has also sent from the same source twenty-one Journals of General Convention, with Reports of the Debates in 1871, and thirty-six Connecticut Journals.

I have received the Year-book of the Church Club of the Diocese for 1903; also, the successive numbers of the Record of St. John's Church, Hartford; the Litchfield Archdeaconry Record; the Address of the Rector and Service of Dedication at Christ Church, New Haven, 1902; and the minutes of the General Association and General Conference of Connecticut for 1902.

Mr. Isaac R. Cornwall of New Haven, in continuance of former gifts, has sent me Volume XII. of Christ Church Chronicle in numbers; the Secretary of the Diocese of Missouri has presented its Journals for 1873, 1875, and 1876; the Rev. William J. Brewster has given in exchange for those of other years twenty-one Connecticut Journals of later date than 1852; and I have placed in the Archives the Spirit of Missions for 1901 and 1902.

I have presented to the Connecticut State Library the reprint of our Journals to 1820 and a complete set from 1840 to date.

Twenty-five volumes of Journals of other Dioceses have been bound, all of late date, except a volume containing the Journals of Missouri 1850-65.

All which is respectfully submitted.

SAMUEL HART, Registrar.

APPENDIX C.

The Episcopal Academy of Connecticut

at the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Trustees of the Episcopal Academy respectfully report the resignation of Professor Woodbury as Principal of the Diocesan School.

The letter of resignation and the Minute adopted by the Trustees are as follows:

LETTER OF RESIGNATION

CHESHIRE, CONN., March 19, 1903.

My Reverend Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., President Board of Trustees, Episcopal Academy of Connecticut, Hartford, Conn.

My dear Bishop:—I need hardly say that after my many years connected with the Academy, dating from September, 1865, I am exceedingly tired and ought to retire from school work. The school has had varied fortunes, but is now in good condition, and its prospects for the immediate future are encouraging. It should, however, be in the hands of a younger man in sympathy with whatever is best in the various educational methods, full of enthusiasm for his work, and especially one who is in the prime and vigor of life.

I therefore beg leave herewith to tender you my resignation as Principal of the Cheshire Academy, to take effect at the end of the current school year, June 30th, 1903.

Yours respectfully,

E. D. WOODBURY.

MINUTE

On accepting the resignation of Professor Woodbury as the Principal of the Episcopal Academy, the Trustees desire to enter upon their record, to send to Professor Woodbury, a minute expressing their deep sense of obligation for all that he has done for the School, their regret at the severing of his connection with it, and the assurance of their regard.

For nearly forty years he has been almost continuously connected with the School; and a great company of men, taught and trained by him, hold him in affectionate remembrance. They have gone from him with profound sense of his justice and kindness, and of his love which is honorable and true. They have carried from his teaching life an inspiration to serve their generation well. Few teachers are remembered with so much affection by so many men. The School has been greatly blessed in this long term of service by Professor Woodbury; and we are sure that we speak for a great company in expressing the highest appreciation of what he has been and has done in our Diocesan School, and in wishing him every blessing in the desired and well earned rest from the work of teaching.

He will carry with him, wherever he may go, the respect and good will of the Trustees and of all the great number of men who have come under his teaching and the influence of his life.

Into the place of Professor Woodbury the Trustees have chosen Mr. Roland J. Mulford, Harvard LL.B., Johns Hopkins Ph.D., as Principal with the title of Head Master. Mr. Mulford has had experience as a teacher in St. Mark's, Southborough, and the Pomfret School; and also as Head Master of the Country School, Baltimore. The Trustees believe that he will bring to the old Diocesan School of Connecticut the best experience and the highest ideals, and that the School will go on under him holding a place among the first Preparatory Schools of the country, and commending itself to all who desire the education of boys under the gracious influence of good religion.

For the Executive Committee,

EDWIN S. LINES, Secretary.

June 9, 1903.

LEASE OF THE PROPERTY

Certain alumni of the Academy have formed a new corporation under the laws of the State of Connecticut, by the name of "The Cheshire School, Inc." Mr. Joseph W. Harriman, of New York, is President, and with them are associated Bishop Brewster, the Rev. Dr. Lines, the Rev. Dr. Luther, Prof. Phillips and Dr. Mulford.

To this corporation the Trustees of the Episcopal Academy have leased all the real estate, buildings, etc., for ninety-nine years, with the privilege of renewal for an equal period, at a varying rental sufficient to defray the interest on all moneys owed by the Trustees. The new corporation also has the option of purchasing the property for a sum sufficient to liquidate all indebtedness of the school; or it may cancel the lease after three years, upon restoring the property to the Trustees in as good condition as it now is, in the mean time keeping it abundantly insured so as to prevent any possibility of loss by fire. The new corporation is expending a liberal sum in repairs, improvements and new equipment, for the purpose of putting it in perfect condition and bringing it to the highest standard of the present day. There is good reason to anticipate for the school a new era of great prosperity and usefulness.

CONSTITUTION OF THE ACADEMY adopted in May, 1796: amended in October, 1836; and again in June, 1841. (See page 70.)

ARTICLE I. The Academy established at Cheshire by the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church shall be known by the name of the Episcopal Academy of Connecticut.

ART. II. The government of the Academy shall be vested in the hands of twenty-one Trustees, of which number shall be the Bishop of Connecticut and the President of the Academy ex-officio; the other Trustees shall be chosen by the Convention, some of whom shall be members of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and the remainder shall be laymen and may be elected from any denomination of professing Christians.

ART. III. The Trustees shall continue in office during good behavior, but upon complaint may be displaced by vote of the Convention.

ART. IV. Five of the Trustees shall form a Board, who shall meet annually at the Academy. The President or Vice President may call a meeting of the Trustees at any other time when they shall deem it necessary or when a majority of the Trustees shall require it, public notice thereof being given in one or more newspapers in this State at least two weeks previous to said meeting, by an advertisement signed by the President, who shall be President, or by the Principal of the Academy, who shall be Vice President of the Board.

ART. V. Every vacancy among the Trustees shall be filled by the Convention.

ART. VI. The Principal of the Academy, who shall be a Communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, shall be elected by the Board of Trustees, a majority of the Trustees for the time being concurring shall continue in office during their pleasure. But in all cases where dissolution of the Convention is contemplated, three months' notice of such design shall be given by the party desiring it.

ART. VII. The branches taught in the Academy shall be the Classics and the higher branches of English education; and the Academy shall be designed exclusively for boys.

ART. VIII. The government of the Academy and the appointment of students shall be solely in the hands of the Principal; provided no student shall be continued in office after the expression of a request on the part of the Trustees for his removal.

ART. IX. No by-law of the Academy shall compel the students to attend public worship but at such place or places as their respective parents or guardians shall direct.

ART. X. Whenever the foregoing articles shall be adopted by a vote of the Convention, they shall become the Constitution of the Episcopal Academy of Connecticut, and be subject to no revision or alteration but a vote of the Convention.

APPENDIX D.

Missionary Society

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

To the Convention:

Pursuant to Article V. of the Constitution, the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society makes its annual report of Appropriations and other proceedings for the year 1902-1903, as follows:

APPROPRIATIONS AND APPORTIONMENTS

The last Convention (see Journal 1902, page 68) appropriated a sum not exceeding $12,000 for carrying on the missionary work of the Diocese during the then ensuing year, in addition to the proceeds from the funds of the Society and other sources available for the purpose; and it was ordered that said sum be apportioned among the several Archdeacons on the basis of "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," as reported in the last Journal; and that said sum be appropriated among the several Archdeacons, as the Directors of the Society might deem best.

The net proceeds from the funds held by the Society and from other sources were estimated at about $850, thus making, with the $12,000 to be raised, the sum of $12,850 for missionary work.

For this work Appropriations were made as follows, viz.:

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|-------------|
| To Fairfield Archdeaconry, | . | . | . | . | . | $1,700.00 |
| Litchfield | " | . | . | . | . | 1,375.00 |
| New Haven | " | . | . | . | . | 1,700.00 |
| Hartford | " | . | . | . | . | 2,700.00 |
| Middlesex | " | . | . | . | . | 1,875.00 |
| New London | " | (including the income of the Tracy-Eaton Fund), | | | | 3,500.00 |
| Total Appropriations, | . | . | . | . | . | $12,850.00 |

To meet these Appropriations said sum of $12,000 was apportioned among the several Archdeacons, as follows, viz.:

|------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|-------------|
| Fairfield Archdeaconry | . | . | . | . | . | $3,403.00 |
| Litchfield | " | . | . | . | . | 1,092.00 |
| New Haven | " | . | . | . | . | 3,677.00 |
| Hartford | " | . | . | . | . | 2,075.00 |
| Middlesex | " | . | . | . | . | 761.00 |
| New London | " | . | . | . | . | 992.00 |
| Total Apportionments, | . | . | . | . | . | $12,000.00 |

Pursuant to the rule of the Board, made some years ago, only the difference between the Appropriation and Apportionment in each Archdeaconry is in fact paid to, or paid by, the Treasurer, as the case may be. The sums actually paid to and received from the several Archdeaconries were as follows:

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|-------------------|
| Paid to Litchfield Archdeaconry, | . | . | . | . | . | $ 198.83 |
| Hartford | " | . | . | . | . | 363.69 |
| Middlesex | " | . | . | . | . | 1,114.00 |
| New London | " | . | . | . | . | 2,508.00 |
| | | | | | | $4,184.52 |

Received from New Haven Archdeaconry:

| | | | | | |
|-----------------------|---|---|---|---|-------------------|
| Balance 1900-1901, | . | . | . | . | $ 161.00 |
| On account 1901-1902, | . | . | . | . | 1,530.00 |
| | | | | | $1,691.00 |

Received from Fairfield Archdeaconry:

| | | | | | |
|-------------------------------------|---|---|---|---|-------------------------------|
| Balance in full prior to 1900-1901, | . | . | . | . | $234.00 |
| On account 1900-1901, | . | . | . | . | 566.00 |
| | | | | | 800.00 |
| | | | | | $2,491.00 |
| | | | | | Difference, $1,693.52 |

This difference has not been met entirely from the Society's income and Apportionments, and it has been necessary to borrow for that purpose.

There is due from the Fairfield Archdeaconry at this time, as follows:

| | | | | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|---|---|---|-------------------|
| On account of the year 1900-1901, | . | . | . | . | $ 521.70 |
| For the year 1901-1902, | . | . | . | . | 1,969.00 |
| For the year 1902-1903, | . | . | . | . | 1,703.00 |
| | | | | | $4,193.70 |

There is due from the New Haven Archdeaconry at this time, as follows:

| | | | | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|---|---|---|-------------------|
| On account of the year 1901-1902, | . | . | . | . | $ 409.00 |
| For the year 1902-1903, | . | . | . | . | 1,977.00 |
| | | | | | $2,386.00 |

There is, therefore, due from the two Archdeaconries at this time $6,579.70.

The amount paid Litchfield Archdeaconry was in fact $283, but $84.17 was returned, the same not being required for the uses of the Archdeaconry.

DONATIONS

The Board gratefully acknowledges the receipt of special offerings from Pequot Chapel, New London, Trinity Church, Hartford, and Holy Trinity Church, Middletown; contributions have also been received from The Women's Church Missionary Association of New Haven, and Mr. James J. Goodwin.

LEGACIES

The balance of the legacy under the will of Caroline L. Sanford, late of Stamford, deceased, amounting to $107.87, has been paid. Notice has also been received of a devise of valuable real estate in Bridgeport, under the same will, subject to two life estates.

NOANK MISSION

The Advent offerings of the Sunday School Auxiliary for this purpose amounted to $577.51. This sum, together with $1,171.11, previously contributed by the Sunday Schools of the Diocese, has been expended during the year in the erection of Grace Church at Noank. This Church was consecrated on the 18th of April last.

LIABILITIES

The liabilities of the Society are now $8,500. Four thousand dollars of this has arisen because of the failure of Fairfield and New Haven Archdeaconries to meet their Apportionments in full, and has been incurred for the running expenses of the Society only. Owing to the illness of the Treasurer a year ago and his inability to attend to the matter, the Sanford legacy was by mistake used to reduce the Society's indebtedness, on the supposition that the legacy was not restricted in its use; but as this legacy in fact was restricted so that only the income can be used, the legacy has been restored, and the indebtedness stands as before ($8,000), with $500 additional incurred during the year.

CONCLUSION

For the names of the several Parishes and Missions contributing to the Society, with the amount of their contributions, and for the names of the Parishes and Mission Stations receiving aid, with the amounts paid to them, as well as for a description of the condition and progress of missionary work in the Diocese, we refer you to the reports from the several Archdeaconries which are herewith presented.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board,

BURTON MANSFIELD, Secretary.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., June 9th, 1903.

APPENDIX F.

REPORTS OF THE ARCHDEACONRIES

I.

Fairfield Archdeaconry

the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Fairfield respectfully reports that the Archdeaconry has given aid to the same Parishes and Mission Stations, eight in number, as last year.

Christ Church, Easton, being strictly speaking a rural Parish, there is very little chance for growth. We cannot desert the few faithful souls we have, yet neither is there prospect of betterment in the conditions. The only solution of the problem seems to be the present one, of granting to Easton an Appropriation to be given to the Rector of Christ Church, Easton, for regular ministrations.

St. Paul's, Huntington, is still under the efficient care of the Rev. James L. Everest, who has been faithful and diligent in all the parish work. The services have been well attended, and there is very much to be looked for in the Church's work here to encourage us.

The Rev. Mr. Goldsborough continues in charge of St. Peter's Church, Monroe. There is nothing new to note. It is only by the assistance of the Archdeaconry that the Parish is able to pay its Rector a living salary. There has been little change in matters pertaining to Trinity Church, Middletown. Services have been maintained as usual, though the series of rainy Sundays during the past year rendered traveling very difficult and kept down in some degree the attendance of the people. Steps have been taken for the repainting of the Church. Expenses have been met, and it has been by the utmost loyalty of the few who remain in this little Parish. The movement is away from the town. Several of the younger members of the congregation are in business in the city, but still return to their home Church and contribute to its support. This has kept the Parish out of debt.

At Redding the Church property has been fully repaired, and the Parish has been strengthened by receiving one family, and one Communicant, and having eight confirmed.

Immanuel Church, Weston, goes along as usual. The Parish surely is not losing ground, even if it does not gain much. It has discharged its obligations, and the people are united and hopeful.

The Missions at Byram and Round Hill in the town of Greenwich continue to prosper under the care of the Rev. W. I. Magill. Your Missionary has held in the past year 156 Sunday and week-day services, celebrated the Holy Eucharist 32 times in public, and on several occasions in private. He has made 475 pastoral calls and traveled about 1700 miles. "Financially this has been by far a much better year than any of my incumbency," he writes. "While my official acts are much less in number than in some former years, this is in a large measure due to the fact that an unusually large number of the same were reported last year."

At St. Luke's Mission, Bridgeport, hard and faithful work has been done by the Rev. Eaton W. Maxcy, D.D., in spite of considerable disability owing to illness. Services have been maintained without interruption, the people seem deeply interested, and the future prospects are encouraging.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

LOUIS N. BOOTH, Archdeacon of Fairfield.

Litchfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Litchfield begs leave to report:

That the conditions of the missionary work in the field are very satisfactory. Every Parish to which aid is granted is at present filled, and good work is being done in all.

Bridgewater was left without a Rector July 1st of last year, by the resignation of the Rev. Wilfrid H. Dean. It remained vacant for about four months, when the Rev. Gideon D. Pond, of Winsted, was called to take charge. Mr. Pond has taken up the work with all the enthusiasm of a young man in his first Parish and the wisdom which maturity brings. The Parish has met all its canonical obligations and its Apportionment for General Missions. It is now on a solid and substantial basis, and the outlook is bright for many years of quiet growth.

In the Parish of Christ Church, Canaan, few changes are to be noted. A little advance has been made, which is all that can be looked for. The Rector, the Rev. Milton H. Mill, also holds service once a month just over the line in Clayton, Mass.

St. Andrew's, Kent, a venerable Parish, is having a hard struggle against adverse circumstances. Good work is done by the Rector, the Rev. G. H. Smith; and in spite of continuous removals, the Parish about holds its own.

Plymouth, East Plymouth and Terryville are still under the care of the Rev. J. D. Gilliland. The report of work there speaks eloquently of the untiring zeal of the faithful Rector. The services in East Plymouth are held monthly, and at Terryville every Sunday afternoon. The Terryville Mission is of considerable promise.

In Riverton the congregation seems to be growing smaller instead of larger. However, the Missionary who serves that station, the Rev. Henry Tarrant, of Pine Meadow, has done remarkably efficient work in a large section of well-nigh abandoned country. The Archdeacon feels that the Appropriation granted nominally to Riverton is warranted by the fact that it enables the one receiving it to minister to many scattered settlements in which there would otherwise be no possibility of maintaining services.

Christ Church, Bethlehem, decided at Easter to discontinue the arrangement under which it has been served by the Rector of Woodbury. The desire for a resident Rector and for morning service prompted the step. While we should rejoice if they are able to maintain a Rector, the Archdeacon does not feel justified in asking for a separate Appropriation from the Missionary Society for the Parish.

St. Paul's, Woodbury, continues to prosper under the Rector, the Rev. L. Robert Sheffield. The withdrawal of Bethlehem affects to some stipend of the Rector of Woodbury, but no additional help has ity Parish, Northfield, the experiment of a resident Rector, encouraged with some misgiving last year, has proved successful year's work has been done by the Rev. A. P. Chapman, and k is hopeful.

olk the services were maintained during the summer months, greatly appreciated by the people. This work, of course, asks from the Missionary Society, but it is none the less a useful work, in affording a Church home for those who are away from influences. The year has been a successful one, and the year the coming season is good.

ssion at Oakville has prospered under the care of a lay reader, y A. Dixon. This work is part of the work of Christ Church, n, and is therefore a Parochial Mission. There is, however, f considerable growth, and the time may come when the Mission will again be asked to help maintain a Priest.

the work above reported, a great deal has been done in the schoolhouse services. There are many districts far from our some indeed far from any Church. It will be the policy of the Archdeaconry during this coming year to push the matter of school services in the most remote districts. If the results are satisfactory it is probable that next year a larger Appropriation for General Work of the Archdeaconry will be asked for, to pay for horse hire, etc. In 1903 the Archdeaconry asks for the same Appropriation as Parish and Mission has paid its Apportionment for Diocesan in full.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. PLUMB, Archdeacon.

III.

New Haven Archdeaconry

the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of New Haven respectfully reports:

Eleven Parishes and one Mission have been aided during the past year. The assisted Parishes are Christ Church, Bethany; Grace Church, Hamden; Christ Church, East Haven; St. Luke's Church, New Haven; Zion Church, North Branford; St. Andrew's Church, Northford; St. John's Church, North Guilford; St. Peter's Church, Oxford; Christ Church, Baker Farms; St. James's Church, New Haven (Westville); and the Church of the Ascension, New Haven. The assisted Mission is in South Meriden, under the care of the Rev. Robert C. Tongue, Rector of All Saints' Church, Meriden.

St. James's Church, New Haven (Westville), is in a most encouraging condition, under the efficient care of the Rev. J. Frederick Sexton. Large improvements in the Church building have been made. A neat Sunday School and Guild Room in the basement of the Church has been finished, and the Chancel of the Church enlarged. Owing to the kindness of a friend of the Rector, choir stalls have been presented to the Parish and a sum of money given to defray the cost of preparing the Chancel for the improvements.

Christ Church, East Haven, continues under the care of the Rev. John Jackson. In his report he says, "We are moving onward slowly but rely. The Guilds of the Parish have done splendid work during the year, and the members' love for and devotion to the Church is the one bright spot in an otherwise cloudy sky." The Guilds of the Parish have met all the incidental expenses of the Church.

St. Luke's Parish, New Haven, our only work in the Diocese among colored people, deserves special mention. Under the rectorship of the Rev. Eugene L. Henderson, the Parish is showing strong life. The present Church building has become too small to accommodate the congregation, and the people are now looking forward to the day, which they hope is not far distant, when they shall have a new edifice in which to worship. A desirable lot has already been purchased. Two classes of Confirmation have been presented the past year.

St. John's Church, North Guilford, and Zion Church, North Branford, are under the spiritual care of the Rev. A. MacDougall, Ph.D. The Rector writes, "The great difficulty in both these Parishes is the scarcity of material." There seems to be no growth, but rather a decadence in both these Parishes.

Grace Church, Hamden, is still served by the Rev. James E. Coley, as Rector in charge. He reports the Parish to be in a flourishing condition as far as working interest goes, and fairly so financially. The people have been able to meet all the current expenses of the Church, and give something to outside objects. Grace Church is now the happy possessor of a handsome Parish House, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. William Brewster of Mt. Carmel. The building was dedicated by the Bishop of the Diocese on October 17, 1902.

The Rev. Lewis F. Morris, Rector of Christ Church, Bethany, writes that the Parish is simply holding its own. It is strictly what might be called a rural Parish, and consequently it has suffered much from removals and is weaker numerically and financially to-day than it was one year ago. Our Church is the only Christian body that has a resident Minister in Bethany and the only House of Worship in which the Sacraments are regularly administered. Many of the young people have gone from Bethany who were trained in the Church, and are now the active members of our town and city Parishes.

Christ Church, Quaker Farms, and St. Peter's Church, Oxford, are in a most happy and encouraging condition. The present Rector, the Rev. Theo. M. Peck, is the right man in the right place. Parish affairs at Oxford and Quaker Farms one year ago looked rather dark and discouraging; but the clouds have lifted, and through the tactfulness of the Rector, both Parishes are putting on new life. Most of the disaffection have been brought back, and the services are now well attended in both places. Harmony prevails. The endowment fund of Christ Church, Quaker Farms, has been increased the past year by two gifts, one of $4,000 and one of $2,000. St. Peter's Church, Oxford, has received an increase in the endowment fund of $3,000. No return in interest has been received as yet from these gifts, as the funds have but recently been invested. The people of St. Peter's Parish, Oxford, have purchased property, consisting of a house and farm, for the use of the Rector. This was done largely through gifts of money from friends of the parishioners.

The Rev. J. D. S. Pardee, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, North Haven, writes that "the attendance at the services of this rural Parish is encouraging. The people are loyal, but not overburdened with world's goods."

The Archdeacon has received no report from the Rector of the Church of the Ascension, New Haven.

A movement is on foot to have the services of the Church revived in the town of Madison. Several years ago the Archdeaconry appropriated $75.00 a year for the expenses connected with this Mission. The Rev. Peter L. Shepard, the Rector of the Church of the Holy Advent, Clinton, had charge of the work, and held services during the summer months until the Mission was abandoned. Lately the Archdeacon has received requests from Church families residing in the town, that services be again held during the months of July, August and September. It seems to be worth a trial this summer, as the resident Churchmen of the town and the summer cottagers have promised their loyal support.

It will be seen from the above report that practically all the Appropriations made by the Archdeaconry have been to established Parishes. In many cases there seems to be little if any encouragement as to growth and enthusiasm in the work of the Church; and yet we have no right to deprive the faithful few Church people in our rural districts from having the benefits of the Church, her services and her Sacraments.

The Parishes and Missions receiving assistance have been paid their Appropriations. It is gratifying to note that the Parishes have paid their Apportionments exceedingly well. Thirty-one have paid in full, and six have paid in part. Only two Parishes have failed to meet in whole or in part their Archdeaconry obligation. The total amount received by the Treasurer is about the same as last year; but the sum of the Apportionments remaining unpaid is smaller.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEORGE HICKMAN BUCK,
Archdeacon of New Haven.

DERBY, CONN., June 8, 1903.

IV.

Hartford Archdeaconry

the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut;

The Treasurer's report of the Hartford Archdeaconry will show that has been given to 13 Churches. No new work has been attempted, two Sunday Schools have been started in Hartford by students in Trinity College, which promise good to the Church in the future. No Church has come to self-support; but two have been dropped from the list of aided Churches for the present.

Mr. Rogers, a student at Berkeley, took charge of St. Gabriel's Mission, East Berlin, last autumn, under the most discouraging conditions. He has been very successful. He rallied the people about him, united discordant elements, and organized a choir and young people's club. The results are most gratifying. The Sunday School has grown, the membership increased, attendance at Church doubled, and a class of 15 has been presented for Confirmation. The people are greatly encouraged, and I hope to have the valuable services of Mr. Rogers another year.

The Rev. H. B. Pulsifer left the people of the Church of Our Saviour, Unionville, in an almost hopeless state of mind. Since his departure they have been faithfully served by the Rev. Robert H. Burton, a Deacon from Hartford. They are slowly recovering themselves. They have not asked aid this year.

A good degree of interest in Missions is shown by the Churches of the Archdeaconry. There is a determination to pay all canonical assessments, and a hearty disposition to pay the sum asked for by the General Church Missionary Society.

The Churches in Collinsville, Unionville, Windsor Locks and Suffield, have suffered from the loss of their Rectors. Two of them are now admirably supplied. The Rev. A. F. Lewis came to Unionville May 1st. He has persuaded the people to purchase a rectory, an absolute necessity for Unionville. This, I think, marks the beginning of a new and hopeful chapter in the history of the Parish.

Trinity Church, Collinsville, has secured the services of the Rev. F. P. Pezzy, formerly in charge of Grace Chapel, Hartford. We gladly welcome him back to the Archdeaconry. Collinsville is to be congratulated.

The Parishes in Windsor Locks and Suffield are about to extend a call to the Rev. A. MacDougall, Ph.D., of North Guilford. He is a strong and successful Minister. We expect good to come to these discouraged Parishes with his advent.

St. John's, Forestville, prospers under the care of the Rev. William Morrison, of Bristol. Their Chapel has been improved by the completion of the basement.

A new and commodious Rectory has been secured to St. James's Church, Glastonbury, by the united efforts of the people and the Rector, the Rev. Wilfrid H. Dean.

The Rev. J. F. George reports excellent progress in St. John's Church, Rockville, in the reduction of their ancient burdensome debt. He thinks he sees the beginning of the end of their struggle.

There is nothing of special moment to report from Newington, Southington, South Glastonbury and Tariffville. They hold their own. Their Ministers are fine examples of faithfulness and self-sacrifice.

The outlook for the whole Archdeaconry is hopeful. We must pay larger stipends if we are to get men fitted for the work to be done. The stipends we have been paying will not answer. To this end we ask for $2,800.

Respectfully submitted,

JACOB ALBERT BIDDLE, Archdeacon.

Middlesex Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Middlesex begs leave to report:

The record of our work for the past year has been particularly uneventful, with little change and almost nothing new. This means that the work has been carried forward quietly and faithfully, with as fair a degree of success as could have been expected, considering the hard conditions of slender means and thinly scattered populations, which generally prevail in eastern Connecticut.

Assistance has been extended to the same old Parishes and Mission Stations, which have been helped for many years, as shown by the Treasurer's Report in the accompanying tables, and we regret to say that we can see no immediate prospect of any of these Parishes or Missions becoming entirely self-supporting; from no want of being faithfully developed, but from the want of industrial conditions which would bring new people in, or at least keep the young from drifting away from them to the cities. This is notably the case at places like Clinton, Durham, Middlefield, Middle Haddam, Killingworth and Hadlyme; places, however, where the light having been kindled and nobly sustained in better days, the Church cannot afford to let it go out, both for the sake of the faithful remnant who are left, and for the important work of forming the characters of the young, before they are launched upon the life of larger and more trying communities. The Ministers in charge of nearly all these stations report Baptisms, Confirmations, some increase in attendance on the services, and a commendable zeal on the part of the people in giving and doing so far as they are able.

A fine building site has been procured at Ivoryton, with the hope that ere long a Chapel may be raised upon it, to minister to the growing number of young people, who are employed in the factories of the place. The Mission is still in charge of the Rector of St. John's Church, Essex, who reports a good attendance at the services; and who deserves grateful acknowledgment for having given a service and lecture weekly during Lent to each of the Missions within his reach. The lectures were on subjects bearing upon Church principles and customs, and were largely attended by outsiders as well as our own people.

The Westbrook and Chester Missions have been very efficiently served during the year by Lay Readers from the Berkeley Divinity School, Mr. R. D. Baldwin at the former, and Mr. J. W. Lord at the latter. Conditions are as promising as could be expected at both. At Westbrook they are endeavoring to raise money to put their building in thorough repair and at Chester they have begun a sinking-fund for a Chapel, which greatly needed.

ground has been occupied within the year, services having at Shailerville, and conducted by Mr. Eugene Peck, of the vinity School; who, as there was no Appropriation to meet has made the work largely a labor of love. The attendance been most encouraging.

G. W. Griffith, to whose efforts the erection of the Chapel at is largely due, and whose energy in this regard was duly our last report, has removed to another Archdeaconry; and R. Parker, having succeeded him as Rector of St. Stephen's at Haddam, is now in charge of the Mission in Hadlyme. y, although in his eighty-fifth year, still conducts service on of every Lord's Day, giving a commendable object-lesson-like zeal of a high order.

VI.

New London Archdeaconry

the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

Another year of Missionary work in eastern Connecticut is closed, and the Archdeacon is happy to report it as an unusually prosperous one. All three of the stations have been personally visited; some of them have several visits, and the Archdeacon has been in constant touch with few changes have been made in the personnel of the Priests. The Theodore D. Martin, Jr., resigned Grace Church, Stafford Springs, was at once succeeded by the Rev. William Morrall. With the aid of Mr. Morrall new life seemed to come to the Parish, and the people have taken hold of their work with a willing mind. Extensive and needed repairs and improvement in the real estate have been made and paid for by the members of the Parish.

The Rev. Richard D. Hatch resigned Calvary Parish, Stonington, but his rare devotion continued to act as Rector till his successor, the Rev. H. Blunt, could take up the affairs of the Parish. Having had a close acquaintance with Mr. Blunt from his student days, I am sure his noble aims of his predecessor will be carefully followed in building up good, churchly Parish.

The Rev. Theodore M. Peck resigned the Missions in the Lymes last summer, and so far it has been a difficult task to find a suitable person to undertake that field of great promise, demanding hard work. I hope we have now found the right man for the place.

Mr. Roberts has continued a year of hard work at Niantic, South Flanders and Millstone. Those who have most thoroughly known his work speak of it in terms of highest praise. Dr. McCook gave his summer vacation freely to the needs of the Niantic group of Missions, caring about thirty adults and children.

Philip's, Putnam, has more than held its own this last year. The majority very wisely refuses to join in any sensational methods of raising himself or his work.

Alban's, Danielson, is fulfilling the pledges it made when raising money for a Rectory. Such advance has been made here that we may safely expect it soon to surrender the aid received from your Board and become an independent Parish. St. Peter's, Moosup, a Mission of St. Philip's, is enjoying its share of prosperity so largely due to the energetic cooperation of the Rev. Geo. A. Alcott. A beautiful lot of land for a church has been given by Mr. Milner, and we are preparing to raise money for a suitable building.

St. Mark's, Mystic, under the Rev. Albert Corey Jones, has shown renewed vitality. It is gradually recovering from the severe blow dealt it a few years ago. Judging by the marked increase of its congregations we may hope St. Mark's will soon ask to have its parochial standing restored to it.

Grace Church, Noank, a Mission of St. Mark's, is rejoicing in its comely stone Church built by the Sunday Schools of the Diocese, and recently consecrated. The Baby's Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary gave the handsome granite font, and various people who are interested in this unique Church have given the altar furnishings and chancel carpet. Other memorials are promised.

Seabury Memorial, Groton, continues in the spirit of work with which it began its new life a few years ago. The Rev. Millidge Walker is again laying strong the foundations of a Mission where he first laid them in 1875. The Galilee Chapel, Eastern Point, has been most generous in its help this year, providing funds for repainting and repairing the Church property in Groton.

St. James's, Poquetanuck, is in a region where the population remains nearly stationary, and the Parish itself, one of the oldest in the country, cannot, under the circumstances, be expected to make much progress. The generous supporters of a century and a half ago have but few representatives left to bear its cost of support. This makes it the more necessary that all the energies of the Parish should be directed to its support. I am sure that some system of pledges, like the envelope system, would materially increase the offerings in all the Missions.

St. Peter's, Hebron, is another Parish from which we can expect no growth till the beautiful old homes in this charming spot are again occupied.

Calvary, Colchester, has done nobly, entering most heartily into all the work pertaining to a live, healthy Parish. The Rev. John H. Fitzgerald continues his vigorous missionary zeal, visiting Andover, Turnerville and school districts, a faithful Priest to all the region round about.

St. Paul's, Willimantic, continues to develop the vigorous life reported upon a year ago. Some generous person or persons sent with the heartiest approval of the authorities, Deaconess Ella M. Taylor to inaugurate work amongst women, for which she is so worthily celebrated. Begun as an experiment, it proved successful beyond our most sanguine expectations.

LUCIUS MARTIN HARDY, Archdeacon.

Church Scholarship SocietyANNUAL MEETING AND REPORT

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH, MERIDEN, June 9, 1903.

The annual meeting was held at this time and place, the Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., President, in the chair.

In the absence of the Rev. George T. Linsley, Secretary, the Rev. Oliver H. Raftery presented the following

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The business of the Church Scholarship Society during the past Convention year may be summed up as follows:

Fifty-nine Parishes have complied with the canonical requirement take up an offering for this work. The amount thus received is $679.65, being a little more than last year. Twelve notes have been paid in full and four in part, aggregating $395; also a slight gain. This income which that from invested funds has been sufficient to pay all grants for the year. No applicant has been refused by the Board for lack of funds in the treasury.

But this does not mean that the apparent present prosperity of the Society is the result either of awakened interest in its work on the part of the Church people of the Diocese, or of any renewed enthusiasm in regard to it on the part of the several Parishes. When nearly 100 Parishes persistently ignore the Canon requiring an annual offering there is not much cause for congratulations, but rather for searchings of heart.

Twelve students are now being helped by the Society, eight in Berkeley Divinity School and four in Trinity College. While this number is larger than that of last year, it is only about one half the number assisted in some years. It is fortunate for the Society that no more applications were made; it is not, however, an evidence of increased Diocesan interest that the financial showing is so good for the time being.

The historical pamphlet about to be published and sent to all the members of the Convention, reviewing the seventy-five years of the history and work of this Society, makes further report at this time unnecessary.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE T. LINSLEY, Secretary.

On motion, the report was accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal of the Diocesan Convention.

Mr. Ward C. Powell, Treasurer, then presented his Report, which was disposed of in like manner.

On motion, the following persons were then elected members of the

Downes Fund

Mrs. Jennette Morehouse Downes, of Waterbury, bequeathed six thousand dollars ($6,000) to form a permanent fund, the income to be available January 1902, the income to be used for the Minister's salary, and for no other purpose, in the poor Protestant Episcopal Churches in the State of Connecticut. The Bishop on who shall be the Bishop shall designate what Churches and in manner aforesaid; also designate the amount each from the income of said fund.

Mrs. Downes also gave fourteen hundred dollars ($1,400) in trust, for the benefit of St. John's Church, Washington, Conn., the income of the same to be applied on the Minister's salary and for no other purpose; and if said Church should become extinct, the said fund shall be added to the first fund, and shall be under the same management.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEE

WASHINGTON, CONN., Aug. 10, 1903.

To the Rt. Rev. C. B. Brewster, D.D.:

Dear Sir: Below you will find a statement of the expenditure of the Downes Fund, for the current year to the Annual Convention, June, 1903, with an inventory of the assets.

Sincerely,

S. S. MOREHOUSE,

Trustee by the Will.

APPENDIX P.

Report of the Connecticut Sunday School Auxiliary to the Board of Missions

Grace Church, Noank, was consecrated on Saturday, April 18, 1903, by the Bishop of the Diocese. Mr. Kellogg and Mr. Wheeler, of Mystic, received the Bishop at the Church door. The instrument of donation was read by the Rev. W. H. Jepson, Rector of St. James's, Poquetanuck; and the sermon was preached by the Rev. E. C. Acheson, Rector of Holy Trinity, Middletown.

The inception of the work of the Church in Noank was as follows. The Rev. Joseph Hooper, Rector of Mystic during the six years preceding 1894, held occasional services in the home of Mrs. Brooks, and looked after the few Church people whose love for the old mother Church prevented their affiliation with either of the Christian bodies represented there. In 1894 members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew at Mystic assisted the Rector, the Rev. H. L. Mitchell, in holding the first public service in the Temple of Honor Hall. These services were maintained until Mr. Mitchell left in 1895. During the next two years no work was done. On the resumption of the work in Mystic by Mr. Mitchell, the Mission at Noank was revived. In 1899 the matter was brought before the notice of the recently formed S. S. Auxiliary, and it was decided to aid Noank to erect a small Church. Local interest was aroused and a lot purchased. The Rev. L. M. Hardy, the Archdeacon of New London, took charge of the erection of the Chapel, and by his deep interest he created interest. Gifts were received and everything made ready for the consecration. The Chapel is the first one built by the Sunday Schools of Connecticut. It received the Advent Gifts for 1899, 1900 and 1902, amounting to $1,700.03.

The Auxiliary took up last fall the work of equipping libraries in Alaska. The following stations were chosen and supplied with books, from nine to twelve books having been sent to each place: St. Mary's, Nome, by St. John's, Waterbury; Christ Church, Anvik, by Christ Church, Pomfret; Church of Our Saviour, Tanana, by Holy Trinity, Middletown; St. Andrew's, Rampart City, by Trinity, Hartford; St. Stephen's, Yukon; Heavenly Rest, Circle City, by Christ Church, Greenwich; St. Thomas's, Point Hope.

The Treasurer's report is appended.

E. C. ACHESON.

The Rector respectfully reports that during the past year the Church debt of $1,700 has been removed.

The Confirmation class was the largest one for any year of the Parish's history.

The Church has received from the estate of the late Mrs. Susan A. Smith a valuable piece of property. This gift is known as the Susan A. Smith Memorial, and is a strong foundation upon which to build a future endowment for the Church.

The financial report as given this year ends with Easter Monday instead of running over the financial year of the Parish as heretofore. This makes some of the last year's items appear in this report.

The Parish has received during the year $477 for the sale of rights in stock owned by the Parish. This has been deposited in bank with other money received in the past, to be used in making repairs which are urgently needed. The amount now on hand is $1,227.

St. George's became a Parish September 20th, 1902. The property used for the same was in an unsuitable location and of unsuitable character for Church purposes, has been sold. A nucleus of a building fund, amounting to about $100, is in a bank and to this $800 from sale of equity will be added, making $900. The succession of over forty wet Sundays out of fifty-two has affected the finances unfavorably, there being no pew-rents to depend on, only voluntary offerings and the loose collections. These latter were greatly reduced, so compelling the Church very unwillingly to make a poor showing for diocesan and general objects, especially the Missions funds.

I have also discharged the duties of Professor of Modern Languages in Trinity College, and during the summer vacation have held services at Niantic, East Lyme, and at Millstone Point in the town of Waterford, baptizing two adults and twenty-two infants and presenting thirteen persons for Confirmation. In this summer work I was most ably assisted by Miss Roberts of the Deaconess School of Grace Church, New York City: to speak more exactly, I was allowed to supplement her faithful and tactful work.

Since the last report an elegant and commodious Parish House has been erected, at the cost of $2,000, the very generous gift of Mr. and Mrs. William Brewster, as a memorial to their uncle, the Rev. Joseph Brewster, father of the Bishop of Connecticut, and sometime Minister of this Parish. It was dedicated October 17th, 1902. This noble gift is highly appreciated, and is proving of great advantage to the Parish.

A pair of handsome brass altar-vases have also been presented by the family of the late William Henry Austen, once a Vestryman of Grace Church.

In addition to the financial report given above, the "Ladies Parish Aid Society" has raised $120.87, has furnished the Parish House, and has sent a box of clothing to a Southern Mission.

Handsome altar hangings have also been provided by the ladies of the Parish.

During the year a new pipe organ has been installed in the Church at an expense of $2,504.65, all paid, but the money not all raised during this year. The former Rector, the Rev. George Russell Warner, was obliged, on account continued ill health, to give up Parish work the middle of February, 1903, resigned at the end of his fourteenth year, May 19th, much to the regret not only his parishioners among whom he had done such faithful work, his hosts of friends all over the city.

For years the Communicant list has not been revised. After three years careful search only 105 Communicants can now be found who actually received their Communion at the Church of the Ascension. There are many names which cannot be traced; some of these names represent Communicants who have lapsed or removed, but have never requested a transfer.

For the first year in the history of the Parish (during 1902-1903) there has been no deficiency. The receipts have paid all current expenses, which, however, have been considerably reduced.

St. Andrew's is not a Parochial Mission of Christ Church. The property is owned and liabilities assumed by the Church Missions Association of New Haven, and the work is dependent financially upon the contributions of Church people generally. The work of conducting the Mission has been entrusted to the Clergy of Christ Church, but that Parish assumes no financial responsibility beyond any other Parish. Since October first the services rendered by the Priest in charge have been given gratuitously, and the small stipend turned over to the Assistant. The work has been carried on with the most rigid economy, and every obligation met.

The present Rector took charge of the Parish on the first Sunday September. Since that time the Parish has received a legacy from the estate of Mrs. Nancy E. T. Wirth of $2,000, the fund held in trust by the Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes, the income to be devoted to the care of the cemeteries, insurance on Church buildings, and repairs. Also from the Merrill Estate a legacy of $4,000 held by the same Trustees, the income to be used at the discretion of the Vestry.

During Advent the Woman's Auxiliary sent a box to Corning, Kentucky valued at $3.50. During Lent a box was prepared and sent to the hospital at Orlando, Florida, valued at $6. Altogether the prospect for the future seems promising.

The new Rectory finished and occupied last summer makes St. Paul's one of the most completely appointed rural Parishes in the Diocese. The building, which was erected at a cost of $6,036.81, is commodious and attractive, equipped with all modern conveniences and lighted with gas. It stands upon a valuable plot of land containing an acre and a half, extending from the Church site to the shore, with 180 feet of water front. The Rectory was fully paid for when completed, and a little over $500 was set aside as the beginning of an endowment fund for its maintenance. Among the recent memorials placed in St. Paul's Church, a notable one is the unusually beautiful brass eagle lectern in memory of the late Edward Huntington Brinley, M.D., which was unveiled with appropriate benediction, October 19th, 1902.

The Senior Warden, Mr. Walton Ferguson, has endowed the Edward Ferguson Memorial Building, given by him and his wife some years ago, by presenting to the Parish a fund of $20,000, for the maintenance of the fabric and of the work carried on in it.

Two other persons, who wish their names withheld, have given the Parish, one the sum of $15,000, and the other the sum of $3,000, both to be used for building a Club House for men and boys connected with St. John's Parish House and for the maintenance of the work done in it.

Two windows by the Tiffany Glass Co. have been placed in the Church: the one in the chancel by Josephine Leeds to the memory of Jno. W. and Eliza Leeds, and the other in the south aisle in memory of Capt. Edmund D. Smith, U. S. A. Beside the latter is placed a tablet to the memory of Capt. Smith, given by the officers of his regiment, the 19th Infantry.

On the Feast of All Saints, A. D. 1902, the following memorial gifts were placed in the Church, after an office of benediction: A brass eagle lectern in memory of Mrs. Anna Pamela Copeland, by her husband, M. B. Copeland of Middletown; a window, also a memorial of Mrs. Copeland, by her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. L. Carter of Stamford; and a carved litany desk, as a memorial of Clarence Marsh Reed, by some of his friends and classmates of Yale University. And on Easter Day, A. D. 1903, a very beautiful jeweled processional cross, as a memorial of William Magear Tweed, by his daughter, Miss Mary Tweed.

REV. HENRY FERGUSON, LL.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in the performance of his duties as Professor of History and Political Science in Trinity College, Hartford. He has officiated in the Church Chapel, and has performed occasional services in the city of Hartford and the neighborhood; and also during the Summer has assisted in services in the Diocese of Long Island, and the Missionary District of Western Colorado. He has baptized one infant, reported in the Fall where the Baptism took place.

REV. FRANCIS GOODWIN, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has, as he had opportunity, celebrated the Holy Communion, baptized, preached and officiated in the other offices of the Church.

REV. G. C. GRISWOLD, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That, during the conventional year, he has preached thirty-three times, and administered the Holy Communion nine times together with the usual services of the Church on all except two of the occasions. He has also held services on several other occasions as opportunity has presented or occasion required, under direction of the Bishop or Archdeacon. His address is at Guilford, and he is always happy to respond promptly to calls made for his services.

REV. ALEXANDER HAMILTON

reports: That he has continued as locum tenens, supply, or acting the past conventional year, officiating in this Diocese and New York. Baptisms, marriages and funerals are recorded in the Parish registers where the rites were performed. Acknowledgment made of the courtesy of the Norwalk Parishes.

REV. SAMUEL HART, D.D., D.C.L.

reports: That during the past year he has been engaged as assigned him at the Berkeley Divinity School. He has frequently in the Chapel of St. Luke; also, once a month in Newington, on the afternoons of twenty-eight Sundays at Ford Hospital, and elsewhere as he has been able. He has baptized adults and nine infants, solemnized one marriage, and officiated at burials; these acts should be elsewhere reported.

REV. FRANCIS D. HOSKINS

reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in Corresponding Secretary of the Society for the Increase of Faith. He has also celebrated the Holy Communion twelve times, and performed other clerical services.

He has assisted the Priest in charge of St. Paul's, several times; and the Rector of St. Luke's, Darien, also. He has celebrated the Holy Communion twelve times; officiated at five deaths and one burial. Since April 25th, and at the present time, he is acting as Rector of a Parish in the Diocese of New York, under the appointment of Bishop Potter.

REV. EDW. H. JEWETT, D.D., LL.D.

reports: That continuous ill health during the past year prevented him from performing any official duty.

REV. WILLIAM ALLEN JOHNSON

reports: That during the past year he has done such occasional work as he could in Connecticut, and in Colorado, where he passed the winter. He has baptized ten infants, attended one funeral, and celebrated the Holy Communion twelve times.

REV. CHARLES JUDD

reports: That he has been engaged in the duties of Mayordom at the General Theological Seminary, and has officiated nearly every Sunday in St. Andrew's Church, Stamford.

REV. FREDERICK JOSEPH KINSMAN

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has discharged his duties as Professor of Ecclesiastical History in Berkeley Divinity School. He has also acted as Chaplain in Westminster School, Simsbury, and has taken occasional duty elsewhere in the Diocese as opportunity has offered.

REV. HERMANN LILIENTHAL

Respectfully reports: That since the last Convention he has supplied in various Parishes as opportunity offered; and since February 1st, 1903, he has been in charge of St. George's Parish, Astoria, Long Island, the rectorship of which he has accepted.

REV. WILLIAM LUSK

Respectfully reports: That he officiated as supply on several Sundays between June and November; but, on account of inability, officiated only a few times between November and May. He has also done some work for the State Board of Education as Special Agent.

REV. FLAVEL S. LUTHER, PH.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been occupied in the discharge of his duties as Professor of Mathematics in Trinity College. He has preached in the College Chapel and elsewhere as opportunity has offered. He has baptized one adult, which act should be included in the proper Parochial Report.

REV. ELMER TRUESDELL MERRILL

Respectfully reports: That from the beginning of the conventional year up to Feb. 1st he was occupied with his duties as Rich Professor of Latin in Wesleyan University. He also assisted regularly in the public services and in the Sunday School of the Church of the Holy Trinity in Middletown. Since Feb. 1st he has been on leave of absence from the University, and has spent most of the time in special archæological studies in Italy. He has, however, officiated frequently both at sea and in St. Paul's Church, Rome. Since June 1st he has been serving as Chaplain of Christ Church, Lucerne, Switzerland, by appointment of the Bishop in charge and Standing Committee of the American Churches in Europe. He expects so to continue until the autumn.

REV. A. DOUGLAS MILLER

Respectfully reports: That he is abroad at present, but that he has officiated the past year in the Dioceses of Connecticut and Newark, as occasion offered.

REV. CLAUDE N. A. POOLEY

Respectfully reports: That he has been engaged in regular Parish duties as Curate of St. Ann's Church, Bronx Borough, Morrisania, N. Y., for the past year.

REV. NATHAN T. PRATT

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has held 49 services, assisted at 3 others, and preached 35 times.

REV. THOMAS R. PYNCHON, D.D., LL.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has officiated during the past year as occasion offered.

REV. WILLIAM STURTEVANT RAFTER

Respectfully reports: That after leaving the Parishes of Quaker Farms and Oxford, Conn., last June, he has been employed in several of the Parishes in New York and Long Island, and for a few weeks in Pennsylvania.

Since March he has been Assistant to the Rev. O. S. Newell of Mechanicville, N. Y., having with him the care of five Parishes. He usually holds four services and takes classes in three Sunday Schools each Sunday, and preaches four evenings each week.

REV. EDMUND ROWLAND, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That after a year's rest and travel in Europe he has returned to Waterbury, and in restored health has officiated several times in St. John's and Trinity Churches in that city. He has also officiated in Grace Church, Norwalk, and in St. John's, Hartford. He has solemnized two marriages, and taken part in the service at four funerals.

REV. GEORGE RUMNEY

Respectfully reports: That on account of continued infirmity he has not been able to perform any clerical duty with the exception of solemnizing one marriage.

REV. FRANCIS T. RUSSELL, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That for the past year he has been engaged with his duties at the General Theological Seminary and St. Margaret's School for Girls, besides having regular occupation for Sundays as Rector's Assistant at St. Stephen's Church, New York City. He has resigned his positions in New York, but will continue to hold the rectorship of St. Margaret's School, although his residence will be elsewhere.

REV. L. W. SALTONSTALL, B.D.

Respectfully reports: That his term of service as Minister in charge of All Saints' Church, Worcester, Mass., ended with Thanksgiving Day, 1902. He then went to Florida and officiated there, and later, in Virginia as opportunity offered. He returned to New England about May 1st, and since that date has, on one occasion, assisted the Rector of a Massachusetts Parish.

REV. CHARLES N. SHEPARD, B.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been chiefly engaged in the discharge of his duties as Adjunct Professor of Biblical Learning in the General Theological Seminary. He has frequently assisted in the services at the Church of the Incarnation in New York, and elsewhere. He has preached eleven times, celebrated the Holy Communion twenty times, baptized three infants, and officiated at three funerals.

REV. P. L. SHEPARD

Respectfully reports: That for the first part of the past conventional year his residence was at Calumet, Michigan; where he assisted the Rector of Christ Church on Sundays, and also helped in carrying on the work of the Parish.

Since last October he has resided in Clinton, Conn. He has officiated on three Sundays, and at three funerals, and has baptized one infant.

REV. EDWARD M. SKAGEN

Respectfully reports: That since August 24th, 1902, he has had parochial charge of Trinity Church, Ashland, in the Diocese of Albany. In addition to this he has since opened a new Mission at West Jewett, N. Y., where services are regularly held. During July and part of August, 1902, he had charge, for the second time, of St. Mary's Church, West New Brighton, Staten Island, during the annual vacation of the Rector. Outside of the routine work of these charges, he has preached ten sermons, celebrated the Holy Communion four times, solemnized two marriages, officiated at one burial, given several lectures and other public instructions, and has dedicated one burial ground.

REV. GEO. WILLIAMSON SMITH, D.D., LL.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has been on duty at Trinity College during the year, but has preached a few times in the Dioceses of New York, Long Island and Connecticut.

REV. EVERETT B. SNIFFEN

REV. W. G. SUMNER, LL.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has been occupied during the year with his duties as Professor in Yale College, and has done no clerical duty.

REV. JOHN TOWNSEND

Respectfully reports: That he has officiated on a few occasions in assisting Rectors of Parishes. Being in feeble health for a portion of the year, he has been unequal to much service.

REV. JOSEPHUS TRAGITT, B.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the Convention year he has conducted the Sunday Morning Service in Trinity Church, Seymour, five times, preached seven times, assisted at Divine Service twice, and assisted at the Holy Communion twice.

REV. D. H. VERDER

Respectfully reports: That from June 15th, 1902, until the first of December, 1902, he served as Deacon in St. Paul's Church, Wallingford, Conn. At that time on account of illness he was obliged to return to his home in Vermont, and has officiated at but one service, that being in Trinity Church, Rutland, Vermont.

REV. FRANCIS C. WAINWRIGHT

Respectfully reports: That he resigned the rectorship of St. Paul's Church, Windsor Locks, and Calvary Church, Suffield, Sept. 20th, 1902. That through the winter he has been attending lectures at the Cambridge Episcopal Theological School, under Dean Hodges and Prof. Drowne. That his clerical work has been in the Parish of Emmanuel Church, Boston, where such official acts as he has performed are recorded.

REV. GEORGE RUSSELL WARNER

Respectfully reports: That he is spending six months or one year at Grand Junction, Colorado, in the hope that he may recover his health. During the two months of his residence here he has assisted the Deacon in charge of the Mission by celebrating the Holy Communion three times, viz.: at Easter, the Sunday after Ascension Day, and on Whitsunday.

REV. X. ALANSON WELTON

Respectfully reports: That since last report he has read the Morning Prayer thirty-one times, and the Evening Prayer once, preached twenty-nine times, and celebrated the Holy Communion nine times, in the Chapel of St. Andrew's Mission at Morèno, California; all as Assistant to the Priest in charge, the Rector of Trinity Church, Redlands.

REV. HARLOW R. WHITLOCK

Respectfully reports: That bodily infirmities have prevented him from performing any official work in the Church during the past year.

Educational and Charitable Institutions

MAINTAINED OR CONDUCTED BY CHURCHMEN, AND LOCATED IN CONNECTICUT, BUT NOT UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE DIOCESE

In 1901 the Journal contained information from various institutions of this class, and a new one was described in 1902. It seems unnecessary to reprint this every year; so the inquirer is referred to the Journal of 1901, pages 282-287, and the Journal of 1902, page 290, for a brief statement of the history, object, endowment, management and terms of admission of each of the following institutions:

TRINITY COLLEGE, HARTFORD; Vernon and Summit Streets.

THE POMFRET SCHOOL FOR BOYS.

THE WIDOWS' HOME, HARTFORD; 133 Market Street and 13 South Hudson Street.

THE CHURCH HOME, HARTFORD; 123 Retreat Avenue.

THE OPEN HEARTH, HARTFORD; 73 Grove Street.

THE CURTIS HOME, MERIDEN, (for women and children); South Crown Street.

ST. LUKE'S HOME FOR DESTITUTE AND AGED WOMEN, MIDDLETOWN; 157 Pearl Street.

THE TRINITY CHURCH HOME, NEW HAVEN; 301 George Street.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH HOME FOR AGED WOMEN, NEW HAVEN; 600 Chapel Street.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH HOUSE, STAMFORD; Pacific Street and Woodland Place.

JOURNAL
ANNUAL CONVENTION
OF THE
★ Protestant Episcopal Church
HELD IN SAINT PAUL'S CHURCH, NEW HAVEN
TUESDAY, JUNE 14
1904

PRINTED FOR THE DIOCESE

Matters of especial interest

The Bishop's Address discusses Marriage and Divorce, Courts of Appeal, the Revised Version, and Missions. (Pages 58 to 77.)

It was resolved to petition the General Convention to establish Courts of Appeal (pages 49 and 50), and to grant the permissive use of the Revised Version or the American Revision of the Scriptures. (Page 83.)

The Rev. Dr. Samuel Hart having completed thirty years as Registrar of the Diocese, a Minute was adopted expressing appreciation of his valuable and unremunerated services. (Pages 41 to 44.)

The Records of Convocation from 1790 to 1848 having been published, with annotations, the Rev. Dr. Hart and the Rev. Joseph Hooper were thanked for their labors. (Page 86.)

Deputies were elected to the General Convention. (Pages 78 and 79.)

A revised Form for the Organization of Missions in the Diocese was submitted and referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons to consider and report next year. (Pages 83 to 85.)

The Special Committee on Church Work among the Colored People of Connecticut made a careful Report, which was referred to the Archdeacons for further action. (Pages 50 to 54.)

The Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese presented a report of unusual interest. (Appendix E.)

No new Parishes were admitted; and no change was made in the Constitution, Canons or Rules of Order.

The Assessment for the Convention Fund was restored to its former rate of three-fourths of one per cent. (Page 81.)

The application of the Apportionment Plan for General Missions was again referred to the Committee to Coöperate with the Board, with power to make Apportionments. (Page 87.)

A Resolution was adopted requesting the Bishop to substitute portions of his Annual Address for the Sermon customary at the opening of the Convention, in order to save time for business. (Page 82.)

Special Committees were appointed to consider the advisability of providing a House or Room for the business of the Diocese, and an Episcopal Residence (pages 85 and 86); to consider a proposal to merge the Diocesan Funds for Infirm Clergy with the Fund known as "General Clergy Relief" (page 86); and to devise additional means for safeguarding Diocesan and Parochial trust funds. (Page 87.)

A list of all the Clerical and Lay Deputies from Connecticut to the General Convention from the beginning in 1785 is given in Appendix U.

Confirmations in the Diocese since 1820 are tabulated in Appendix V.

SAINT PAUL'S CHURCH, NEW HAVEN; }
TUESDAY, JUNE 14, 1904. }

This being the day appointed by the Constitution and the place designated by the Bishop, the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut assembled at 9.30 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Right Reverend Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Doctors Storrs O. Seymour, Samuel Hart and William G. Andrews, and the Rev. George T. Linsley, of the Standing Committee; the Rev. Doctor Thomas R. Pynchon; and the Rev. James De Wolf Perry, Jr., Rector of the Parish.

The Sermon was delivered by the Rev. Henry Ferguson, LL.D., Professor in Trinity College, from 1 John iii., 1; "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God."

The music was rendered by a male choir, vested, and reinforced with Clergymen.

The Offertory was for the Missionary Society of the Diocese.

The service ended, the Bishop took the chair about 11.30 A. M.

On motion, the roll-call was dispensed with; and, by means of cards deposited at the door, it was ascertained that 148 Clergymen were present, whose names are indicated by an asterisk in the list on pages 13-21. Lay Delegates to the number of 159, representing 105 Parishes, were also present, whose names are marked with an asterisk on pages 28-34.

A quorum of both orders being present, the Convention was declared duly organized.

The Rev. Frederick W. Harriman, D.D., was by ballot unanimously elected Secretary; and he appointed as his Assistants the Rev. John F. Plumb and the Rev. Samuel R. Colladay.

On motion of Archdeacon Booth, the Rules of Order of the last Convention were adopted without change.

Mr. Charles F. Chase, for the Committee to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates, presented the following

REPORT

To the Annual Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden June 14th, 1904:

The Committee appointed at the last Convention to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates in accordance with Canon VIII., beg leave to report:

That they have carefully examined all the certificates of election, and find them duly attested.

The Roll of Lay Delegates, as prepared, is presented herewith.

F. W. HARRIMAN,
CHAS. F. CHASE,
WARD C. POWELL,
Committee.

HARTFORD, CONN., June 11, 1904.

The Report was accepted and the Roll approved.

On motion of Archdeacon Booth, it was

Resolved, That Clergymen of other Dioceses, Clergymen of Churches in communion with this Church, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, all persons holding any office or trust under the Diocese of Connecticut, if not members of this Convention, and the Wardens and Vestry of this Parish, be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

Under this Resolution there were present

Rev. BENJAMIN BREWSTER, of Colorado;
FREDERICK F. JOHNSON, of Western Massachusetts;
CHARLES N. MORRIS, of Massachusetts;
GOUVERNEUR F. MOSHER, of Shanghai;
JAMES DEWOLF PERRY, JR., of Western Massachusetts;
ANSON PHELPS STOKES, JR., of New York;
Mr. ELIJAH C. JOHNSON, Treasurer of the Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes;
THOMAS WHITTAKER, of New York; and others.

The President appointed the following

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

The Secretary begs leave to report that

I. The Committee on Constitution and Canons has under consideration Archdeacon Bodley's proposal to amend Canon VII. and Canon I., Sec. 5.

II. The Directors of the Missionary Society were requested to inquire into the spiritual destitution of some portions of the State, and to recommend action to relieve it.

III. Reports are expected from Special Committees to which were referred the following subjects:

1. The Form for the Organization of Missions in the Diocese.
2. The proposal to print financial reports from all the Boards of Trustees in time to distribute before Convention.
3. The leasing of the Episcopal Academy at Cheshire to a new corporation.
4. The proposal to petition the General Convention to establish Courts of Appeal.
5. The extension of Church work among the Colored People of Connecticut.
6. The distribution of the Book of Common Prayer.

Respectfully submitted,

F. W. HARRIMAN, Secretary.

WINDSOR, June 13, 1904.

No new Parishes applied for admission to union with the Convention.

Reports from the following Officers and Trustees were presented, read aloud in whole or in part, accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal:

Mr. John H. Sage, Treasurer of the Diocese; (Appendix A.)

The Trustees for receiving Donations for the Support of the Bishop; presented by the Rev. Francis Goodwin, D.D., President, for Colonel Jacob L. Greene, Treasurer; (Appendix D.)

The Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen; (Appendix H.) and

The Trustees of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund; (Appendix I.) presented by Mr. Benjamin R. English, Treasurer of both Funds; and

The Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes; presented by Mr. Elijah C. Johnson, Treasurer. (Appendix J.)

Reports were also received from the various Parishes and Missions; (Appendix Q.) and from

Clergymen not in charge of Parishes. (Appendix R.)

In connection with his Report, Mr. Sage moved that the assessment for the Convention Fund be made three-fourths of one per cent. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

On motion of Archdeacon Buck, the following preamble and Resolution were adopted unanimously by a rising vote:

As this Convention completes thirty years of service for the Rev. Dr. Samuel Hart, as Registrar of the Diocese, and as it is most appropriate for the members of this Convention to show their esteem for the labor so faithfully performed by our honored Registrar, be it Resolved, That a Committee of five persons (three Clergymen and two laymen) be appointed by the President, to draft a Resolution in which shall be expressed the appreciation felt by this Diocese for the manner in which Dr. Hart has performed the duties of his office.

The President appointed as

Committee on Dr. Hart's Thirtieth Anniversary as Registrar

Rev. WILLIAM G. ANDREWS, D.D.

Rev. GEORGE HICKMAN BUCK

Gen. EDWARD E. BRADLEY

JOSEPH HOOVER

Mr. FREDERICK J. KINGSBURY, LL.D.

In due time they reported the following

MINUTE

The Rev. Samuel Hart, D.D., D.C.L., having completed thirty years' service as Registrar of the Diocese of Connecticut, this Convention hereby records its appreciation of his work.

The office of Registrar was created in 1866, with the function, as defined, of taking "charge of all documents, papers and records belonging to this Diocese." Its importance, and to some extent its purpose, were indicated by the unanimous choice of the Rev. Dr. Beardsley of New Haven, the historian of the Diocese, as the first incumbent. On Dr. Beardsley's resignation in 1873, the appointment of Professor Vibbert of the Berkeley Divinity School emphasized the fact that the position belongs to a scholar. But before he could enter on the duties of his office Professor Vibbert removed to Philadelphia, and Professor Hart, then of Trinity College, was made Registrar in 1874. He received the Archives directly from Dr. Beardsley, and may therefore be regarded as the second incumbent of the office. He soon began the effort, which he has continued ever since, to secure a more rapid enlargement of the materials for diocesan history entrusted to him, by requests for books, pamphlets and manuscripts in any way bearing on the subject, by exchanges, and sometimes by purchase. His appeals for gifts were responded to from within and often from without the Diocese; and while increasing, in the end immensely, the amount and value of our historical collections, he undoubtedly saved many important documents which would otherwise have been utterly lost. In one case he rescued from an unfortunate Registrar, whose Diocese had instructed him to sell most of its archives for waste paper, eighteen copies of Connecticut Con-tion Journals. The wide range of his acquisitions is doubly illustrated by the fact that he once received from the Registrar of South Carolina a manuscript history of Guilford in this State. In 1881 his predecessor, Dr. Beardsley, contributed a large collection of manuscripts gathered in the course of his historical labors, and of special value as respects parochial history. The widows and children of deceased Clergymen who had been students and collectors sent now and then the accumulations of a lifetime, including in more than one instance hundreds of pamphlets. Thus year by year the Archives grew under the Registrar's diligent and patient care. Dr. Hart's efforts were not directed to the building up of a great library, or even of a fairly full historical library, but to the making it possible for students to read the story of Anglican Christianity in Connecticut in the crabbed original. Five years ago he needed two large rooms in which to store his material for diocesan history and make it accessible. He had now, for example, one hundred and thirty-eight bound volumes of Convention Journals, those of other Dioceses being generally complete, at least from 1874, and often helpful to a knowledge of the oldest of all, and of the fortunes of "Connecticut Churchmanship."

To the labor of gathering was added that of arranging, classifying, and cataloguing, a severer task. Thus the perplexity experienced in preparing for the binder twelve volumes of pamphlets, in 1895, can only be appreciated by those who have spent days in sorting pamphlets, many of which seem to defy classification because they are each sui generis.

The Archives are our own, but Dr. Hart, as becomes a scholar, has wished to make them useful far beyond our borders. He has not only received very many duplicates, but, especially in the case of Connecticut Journals, he has constantly sought for them. And, besides their obvious utility for exchange, they have gone, as historical material, to individual collectors all over the continent, and to institutions perhaps as widely. Various Clergymen and others in Connecticut have thus been enabled to complete sets of our Journals. But other Registrars now want them for their Archives (in pleasing contrast with the one who was directed to send them to the paper-mills); and in 1897 Dr. Hart reported a constant call for them from important public libraries in the United States. And a set, with other volumes of like character, has been sent to the Church House in London, which would apparently receive with pleasure a duplicate of our whole collection, and be prepared to equip some future English historian of the Diocese of Connecticut.

Our Registrar has repeatedly been called on, or has consented unasked to use most laboriously for our benefit what he has gathered so laboriously. And so we possess an invaluable index of the Journals (from 1792 to 1897), and lists of Ordinations and Convocations and Conventions, and of extinct Parishes and of Parishes which have changed their names. To one task of this general character Professor Dexter of Yale University said that he owed valuable information which he could find nowhere else. But few know how much the result of such work is worth, or what it cost the unpaid workman.

But our appreciation of Dr. Hart's work as Registrar will be utterly inadequate unless we make some account, inadequate as that, too, must be, of his value in other kinds of service. The cost of any labor increases with the costliness of the tools; and what we possess in our Archives is not merely their visible contents, but the rare intellectual and moral force, acting steadily through half a lifetime, of an accomplished scholar and self-sacrificing man. Having been Optimus and Valedictorian at Trinity, he returned to a Greek tutorship, soon to be exchanged for the chair of Mathematics; from which he retired after thirteen years, to hold that of Latin for sixteen years; until at last, as the only possible successor of Bishop Williams, he took the two related, yet quite distinct, departments of Theology and the Prayer Book at the Berkeley Divinity School. Meanwhile he had become a member of half a dozen learned societies of national character, and been president of one of them; not to speak of the presidency of the Connecticut Historical Society, which he has held since 1900.

To record here all the testimony that the Diocese itself, through its Bishop or its Convention, has given to Dr. Hart's ability to serve her in other ways, is impossible. But we would not forget that just twenty years ago he was one of the four Presbyters, with Dr. Beardsley at their head, who went with the successor of Seabury to commemorate Seabury's Consecration in the city where it occurred a century before, and to deliver to the successors of his Scottish consecrators a message from Connecticut which he had aided in preparing. Far less would we forget that in 1886 he took his seat, as one of our representatives, in the General Convention, and what came of that. The House of Deputies at once employed him, a new member, on the great task of that period, Liturgical Revision; and he was also appointed Custodian of the Standard Prayer Book, a position which makes his name honorably known throughout the Church. His share in the task of revision grew larger, until, in 1892, it was his duty to bring it to completion in the House of Deputies by taking charge of the amendments then to be finally passed on. By his lucid explanations, we are told, he aided the dispatch of business to a degree which it would be hard to overestimate and "impossible to praise too highly." During the same session there was presented a report from the Committee on the Standard Prayer Book which Dr. Dix, the President of the House, called "very wonderful," a report which "the whole American Church had reason to be proud of." Dr. Huntington, the brilliant leader of the Revision movement, said that this high praise was due the Secretary of the Committee, Dr. Samuel Hart, and that the report ought henceforth to bear his name. Finally, when, at the same session, near its close, it was announced that he had been chosen to the important position, which he still holds, of Secretary of the House of Bishops, the Deputies unanimously voted the expression of their earnest hope that the election would be declined. The whole General Convention gave sufficiently emphatic testimony to the value of his services when its two branches were in a manner con-tending for them. It need only be mentioned that in 1898 Dr. Hart was made Historiographer of the Church; while in 1893 he declined the Episcopate of Vermont; and later a chair in the General Theological Seminary. He has virtually given his life to Connecticut; and the gift has included a wealth not only of intellectual and moral but of spiritual power, put forth in priestly ministries such as the best of Parish Priests might have been thankful to be equal to. And the modest office of Registrar, in which he has for almost a generation wrought so untiringly and unselfishly, would seem furnished in him with an instrument far too costly for such uses, were it not that he has wrought so fruitfully as to make those uses seem worth the cost.

This is saying much, for though the cost to us is nothing, it may easily have been to him the sacrifice of laurels, to be green for generations, which he could have won in Christian literature. But he has the consciousness of having served his own generation by the will of God. And we, seeking to offer an appreciation not only of his great service but of his great sacrifice, can take pleasure in the thought that he is still in his intellectual prime, and while continuing, as we desire, the services so valuable to us, may yet accomplish some other work, sure to be invaluable to us because worthy of him; possibly erecting his monument out of the very stones that he has quarried.

Respectfully submitted,

The Report was accepted; the Minute was adopted unanimously by a rising vote; and the Committee was discharged.

The Rev. Dr. Goodwin moved the following Resolution, which was referred to the Committee on Finance:

Resolved, That for the purpose of providing for the salary and expenses of the Bishop, an assessment of three-fourths of one per cent. be levied upon each Parish and Mission on an amount equal to that paid for "Current Expenses (including Salaries)" during the year ending at this Convention, as printed in the Journal of the Convention for 1904; and that this assessment be paid by the Treasurer of each Parish to the Treasurer of the Bishop's Fund on or before January 1st, 1905.

Mr. English reported two vacancies in the Board of Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, and also in that of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund, caused by the elevation of the Rev. Edwin S. Lines, D.D., to the Episcopate of Newark, and the death of the Hon. John C. Hollister.

On motion of Mr. English, it was Resolved, That the list of Parishes delinquent in contributing to those two Funds be printed with their Reports in the Journal.

Mr. Johnson reported one vacancy in the Board of Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes, caused by the removal and resignation of Mr. Frank H. Sperry.

The Rev. Dr. Hart presented the following

ABSTRACT

of the Journal of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Connecticut from the Convention of 1903 to the Convention of 1904

The members of the Standing Committee elected on the 9th day of June, 1903, were the Rev. Drs. Storrs O. Seymour, Samuel Hart, and William G. Andrews, the Rev. George T. Linsley, and the Rev. Dr. Edwin S. Lines. The Committee held seven meetings.

I. The first meeting was held at Meriden, June 9th, 1903. The Rev. Drs. Seymour, Hart, Andrews, and Lines were present. The Rev. Dr. Seymour was elected President, and the Rev. Dr. Hart Secretary.

II. The second meeting was held at Litchfield, September 14th, 1903. The Rev. Drs. Seymour, Hart, and Andrews and the Rev. Mr. Linsley were present. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Edwin Stevens Lines, D.D., as Bishop of Newark. A request for consent to the consecration of the Rev. M. Edward Fawcett as Bishop of Quincy was laid upon the table.

III. The third meeting was held at New Haven, September 28th, 1903. The Rev. Drs. Seymour and Hart, the Rev. Mr. Linsley, and the Rev. Dr. Lines were present. Henry Davies, Ph.D., was recommended to the Bishop to be made Deacon, consent being given to a special dispensation of time under the provision in Title I, Canon 7, § iii. of the Digest; and Alonzo Johnson was recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidate for Holy Orders.

IV. The fourth meeting was held at New Haven, December 14th, 1903. The Rev. Dr. Lines, having been consecrated Bishop of Newark, had ceased to be a member of the Committee; all the remaining members were present. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. David Hummell Greer, D.D., LL.D., as Bishop Coadjutor of New York. The Rev. Daniel Hugh Verder was recommended to the Bishop to be ordered Priest; and Theophilus John Minton Syphax, B.A., was recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidate for Holy Orders.

V. The fifth meeting was held at Hartford, February 29th, 1904. The Rev. Drs. Seymour and Hart and the Rev. Mr. Linsley were present. The Committee gave to the Bishop at his request its judgment in a matter of canonical interpretation.

VI. The sixth meeting was held at New Haven, May 24th, 1904. All the members were present. The Rev. Robert Bell, the Rev. Henry Davies, Ph.D., the Rev. Abram James Holland, the Rev. Reginald Heber Scott, B.D., and the Rev. Ellsworth Morton Tracy were recommended to the Bishop to be ordered Priests; Frederick James Kerr Alexander, Edwin Tuttle Lewis, Arthur Searing Peck, and Edward Gardner Reynolds, the last named applying for Deacon's Orders only, were recommended to the Bishop to be made Deacons; and William Milton Hess, Ph.D., late a Congregational minister, was recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidate for Holy Orders.

VII. The seventh meeting was held at New Haven, June 13th, 1904. All the members were present. Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. Robert Strange, D.D., as Bishop Coadjutor of East Carolina. Charles Taber Hall, B.A., Frederick Bethune Bartlett, and Philip Llewellyn Lightbourn were recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidates for Holy Orders. The Committee acted with the Bishop in preparing the roll of Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention; and having adopted this Abstract of its Journal to be presented to the Convention, adjourned without day.

Attest,

SAMUEL HART, Secretary.

Notices of New Business to be introduced at the proper time were given by Archdeacon Bodley, the Rev. Elmer T. Merrill, the Rev. George W. Griffith, Messrs. Burton Mansfield, John H. Sage and Richard L. deZeng.

On motion of the Rev. W. H. Hutchinson, it was Resolved, That the Report of the Committee to prepare a Form for the Organization of Missions in the Diocese be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, to consider and report to-day.

The Rev. Dr. Hart, for the Committee appointed last year on Constitution and Canons, presented the following Report, which had been printed and distributed to all the members of the Convention about two weeks beforehand.

REPORT OF THE

COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden on the second Tuesday in June, 1904.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons begs leave respectfully to report in regard to the matters which have been referred to it.

(1) The last Convention (Journal, pages 44, 72) referred to this Committee the following resolution offered by the Rev. Harry I. Bodley:

Resolved, That Section 5 of Canon I. be amended by the addition of the following paragraph:

"(6) By habitual absence from all regular and special meetings of the Parish for a space of three years; the fact to be determined in each case by the Vestry, as provided below in Section 7."

The Committee is of the opinion that the proposed amendment should be adopted by insertion into paragraph (2), with a change in its phraseology which would make the Vestry the judge as to whether there had been satisfactory excuse for habitual absence from meetings; and it recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That paragraph (2) of Section 5 of Canon I. be amended so that it shall read as follows:

"(2) By removal from the Parish, or by absence without excuse from all regular and special meetings of the Parish for a space of three years; the fact to be determined in each case by the Vestry, as provided below in Section 7."

(2) The Committee has been asked by Mr. St. John Merrill of Norwalk to consider whether in case the foregoing resolution is adopted an amendment should not be made to Section 7 of Canon I., requiring that the Clerk shall at each Parish-meeting call the roll of members and enter upon the minutes the names of those who are present.

In regard to this matter the members of the Committee have not been able to come to an agreement, two of them being of the opinion that the proposed amendment of the Canon should be made, and two being of the opinion that the matter should be left to be regulated by the by-laws of the several Parishes.

(3) The last Convention (Journal, pages 44, 72) referred to this Committee another resolution offered by the Rev. Harry I. Bodley, as follows:

Resolved, That Canon VII. be amended by substituting for "The Church Scholarship Society" the words "Theological Education in this Diocese."

The Committee has had the matter under consideration, and is of the opinion that the phraseology of the proposed amendment is too indefinite, and that if it were adopted it would be impossible to enforce the requirement of the latter part of the Canon; and the Committee asks that it may be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

SYLVESTER CLARKE, MORRIS W. SEYMOUR,
SAMUEL HART, GARDINER GREENE,

Committee.

On motion of Archdeacon Raftery, the first Resolution proposed in the Report was recommitted for further consideration.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Hart, the Committee was discharged from further consideration of the second and third subjects mentioned in the Report.

Mr. Morris W. Seymour, for the Committee appointed last year to negotiate with certain alumni of the Episcopal Academy with reference to leasing the property to them, reported verbally that the lease was effected in the summer, and that a new corporation entitled "The Cheshire School, Incorporated," has conducted the institution during the past year. The terms of the lease were stated on page 106 of the Journal for 1903. The improvements made and the present policy of the School are described in a statement which he submitted, and which was ordered to be printed with the Journal. (Appendix C.)

The Report was accepted and the Committee discharged.

About one o'clock a recess was taken until 2.15 P. M.

TUESDAY, 2.15 P. M.

The Convention having reassembled, the Rev. William A. Beardsley presented the Report of the Committee on the Distribution of the Prayer Book; which was accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal. (Appendix N.)

On motion, it was

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed with power to act in respect to the distribution of the Book of Common Prayer in this Diocese. The Committee shall report to the next Convention the amounts of money received and expended.

The President reappointed the same persons, so that the Committee stands as follows:

COMMITTEE ON DISTRIBUTION OF THE PRAYER BOOK

Rev. WILLIAM G. ANDREWS, D.D.

Rev. WILLIAM A. BEARDSLEY
FREDERICK D. BUCKLEY

Mr. CHARLES A. PEASE
GEORGE E. BEERS

The Rev. Frank W. Baker, D.D., for the Committee on the Proposal to print Financial Reports before Convention, presented the following

REPORT

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut to be holden June 14, 1904:

The Committee appointed in 1902 (see Journal, page 72) to consider a proposal to print and circulate before Convention the financial reports of all Boards of Trustees and Committees, respectfully report, that they have given the matter careful thought, and are of the opinion that the inconveniences involved in so doing, including changes in two of the Charters, would outweigh any advantages to be derived. They therefore ask to be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

Respectfully submitted,

F. W. BAKER,
F. W. HARRIMAN,
ELIJAH C. JOHNSON.

Mr. Walton Ferguson and Mr. Schuyler Merritt dissent from the opinion of the majority of the Committee.

NEW HAVEN, June 14, 1904.

The Report was accepted and the Committee discharged.

The Rev. Dr. Seymour presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON COURTS OF APPEAL

The undersigned, being a Committee appointed by the last Diocesan Convention to consider a communication received from the Diocese of Milwaukee asking that this Diocese unite with that in a memorial addressed to the next General Convention, petitioning the same to establish a Court of Appeals to which the decision of Diocesan Courts may, if desired by either party, be referred for review, respectfully report, that in view of the fact that, since Diocesan Courts are necessarily made up of those who are inexperienced in judicial proceedings, there exists a liability that the defendant in any cause may have injustice done to him, in which case he now has no relief, it would be well that the General Convention should exercise the liberty which is granted to it by Article IX. of the Constitution, and establish Courts of Review for the determination of Diocesan and other trial courts. Therefore,

Resolved, That the Diocese of Connecticut assembled in Annual Convention unites with the Diocese of Milwaukee in its request that the General Convention will, if deemed advisable, take such action as the Ninth Article of the Constitution authorizes it to do.

Resolved, That our Deputies to the General Convention be requested to present the foregoing Resolution to the House of Deputies as a Memorial from this Diocese; and that a copy of the same be sent to the Secretary of the Diocesan Council of Milwaukee.

Respectfully submitted,

STORRS O. SEYMOUR,
WM. H. LEWIS,
GARDINER GREENE,
A. HEATON ROBERTSON,

Committee.

Both Resolutions were adopted, and the Committee was discharged.

The Rev. Ernest deF. Miel presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EXTENDING THE WORK
AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE OF CONNECTICUT

The census of 1900 reported for Connecticut a colored population of 15,226. A conservative estimate of the increase during the last four years places the figures at 20,000. New Haven has seen the greatest growth in colored population, due in large measure to accessions from the Southern States, and numbers to-day approximately 5,600 colored residents, as against 3,000 in 1900.

As a preliminary measure your Committee has made a canvass of the colored population in the cities of New Haven, Hartford, Bridgeport, Waterbury, New Britain, Meriden, Norwich, Norwalk, Ansonia, Derby, Stamford, New London, Danbury and Middletown. This canvass was undertaken in the belief that these were the most populous centers, though it is quite possible that in some of the rural districts a large percentage of colored people may be found. Investigation and inquiry revealed the fact that no statistics are kept by the State or municipal officers with respect to the number of colored residents as distinguished from the white; and, therefore, it was found necessary to procure our figures from those who are in immediate touch with the colored population, and familiar with the facts concerning its composition. For this reason the results of our canvass are hardly more than an approximation, and are based almost entirely upon figures furnished by those who are engaged in religious work among these people. We believe, however, that the accompanying table will be found substantially correct, and will furnish sufficient data for any action this Convention may see fit to take.

It appears from an examination of these figures that sixty-six per cent. of the colored population of the State reside in the thirteen cities included in this canvass. In New Haven, Bridgeport, Hartford and Waterbury a condition of religious need is found to exist, which naturally points to these centers as places where missionary activity on the part of our Church is demanded. The population would seem to be steadily increasing in these quarters, without a corresponding increase in the number and size of the religious agencies already at work there.

Out of a colored population of 5,600 in New Haven, we find not more than 2,194 souls accounted for as being reached by the seven colored Churches, together with the other religious organizations in that city. As we are already on the field with a parish organization which promises steady and healthy growth, it would seem inexpedient at this time to undertake new work in this locality.

In Bridgeport, with a colored population of 2,000, three religious societies are at work, together with two small Missions. Notwithstanding, fifty per cent. of the people seem to be without any church connection. There may be here a fruitful field which would justify an expenditure of money and labor on the part of this Church.

In Hartford the colored population is reckoned at 2,000. There are four congregations already in existence, which minister to some 1,100 souls. It is estimated that about 180 attend other Churches. This would leave some 720 who are not accounted for. How many of these would be drawn to a colored Church of our communion, missionary effort alone would reveal.

In Waterbury, with a colored population of 900, 340 individuals would seem to be without church affiliations. The present rate of increase would suggest the advisability of missionary effort there in the near future.

Before recommending that work be undertaken in these places by our Church, we feel that the local situation should be carefully studied by the Clergy and laity who are immediately interested and responsible for the religious status of these communities. We understand, in the appointment of this Committee, that the Convention did not intend to create a Commission on colored work, but simply to appoint a body which should inquire into and make known the facts and needs, and point the direction of such missionary activity as may be required. Our missionary system, following the lines of administration through Archdeaconries, leads us to suggest that the first step to be undertaken is for each Archdeaconry to make the possible extension of our Church among the colored people a special object of consideration, and to appoint, if need be, a local Committee which should secure the facts we were unable to obtain, namely, how many colored families within their limits belong to our own Church, and how many are inclined that way; to ascertain, in fact, the number of those who might be available as a nucleus for the beginning of a Mission.

There is no money set aside by our Missionary Society for the expense of such work; nevertheless we believe that should any work of this kind be undertaken upon the recommendation of an Archdeaconry, part of the support should come from the Missionary Society. This may necessitate the setting aside of a certain percentage of our contributions to Diocesan Missions for work among the colored people, and should be kept separate from the appropriation that is now made for the established Missions of each Archdeaconry. We therefore beg to recommend to the Convention the following action:

Resolved, That the report of the Committee on Extending the Work among Colored People be referred to the several Archdeacons of the Diocese for special consideration at their next regular meetings; and, in cases where the local conditions would seem to warrant such action, we recommend that a special Committee be appointed by each Archdeaconry to investigate the religious condition of the colored people within its boundaries, with a view to inaugurating missionary work among these people, such as their needs may require.

Resolved, That this Convention authorize the Missionary Society of the Diocese to set apart five per cent. of the offerings annually made toward Diocesan Missions, to be expended in promoting new work among colored people in those Archdeacons where such work is undertaken and such aid asked for.

Respectfully submitted,

ERNEST DE F. MIEL,
EUGENE L. HENDERSON,
EDWARD E. BRADLEY,

For the Committee.

The first Resolution was adopted; the second was lost; and the Committee was discharged.

The Rev. Dr. Andrews presented the following

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON PAROCHIAL ARCHIVES

The Commission on Parochial Archives respectfully presents its annual report.

Our first Secretary, the Rev. Frederic W. Bailey, having completed his work as copyist of archives (the results of which are reported by the Registrar), and removed from Connecticut, has resigned his secretaryship after more than five years of useful service, and has been succeeded by Mr. F. Clarence Bissell, a member of the Commission.

The Records of Convocation, copied for publication at our request under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Hart, and annotated by one of our number, the Rev. Joseph Hooper, appointed to act with Dr. Hart, have been carried through the press by Mr. Hooper. His work as annotator occupied the greater part of the summer and autumn of 1903. He has since revised the proof-sheets of the text, and by great exertion has the printed Records and Notes ready for examination, only the index being unfinished. This task called for much time and patience, and some parts of it for prolonged research. Owing to the absence of the custodian of the Johnson papers, the careful examination needed for the completion of the abstract hoped for from Mr. Hooper could not be made. He trusts that he will be able to complete it during the coming year. Mr. Hooper is to have from Professor Seabury, of the General Theological Seminary, every facility desired for the examination of the valuable papers of the Rev. Samuel Seabury and his son, the first bishop of Connecticut. The Schroeder papers at New Milford have been partially examined, and results are to be embodied in due form early in the autumn. The few papers of the Rev. Ashbel Baldwin in the possession of the Rev. William A. Beardsley have been examined, but an abstract has not yet been made. Through the kindness of Mr. Edward C. Beecher of New Haven, Mr. Hooper has under examination the voluminous and entertaining diary of the Rev. Dr. Harry Crosswell, and he is making an abstract embracing matters of special interest. He has found in the "Christian Journal," edited by Bishop Hobart between 1817 and 1830, details of that Bishop's visitations in Connecticut from 1816 to 1819, which seem to have been overlooked. An abstract would add to our knowledge not only of those years, but of a longer period of diocesan history. Mr. Hooper has been authorized to transcribe from the "Christian Journal" and contemporary periodicals statements relating to Bishop Hobart's administration of this Diocese.

The special importance of the task entrusted to Dr. Hart and Mr. Hooper as regards the Convocation Records, and the value of the results now attained, as well as the admirable diligence of Mr. Hooper in this and kindred labors, entitle both to the formal thanks of the Convention.

Renewed efforts to secure information about papers of interest to the Diocese left by our loyalist Clergy who removed to the Eastern Provinces of Canada, have added little to our previous knowledge. The utmost readiness to furnish information, and to seek for it, has been shown by the present successors of those Clergymen, and by others, and it seems probable that not much material of the kind sought is now known by anybody to exist. A diary was left by the Rev. Frederick Dibblee (son of the Rev. Dr. Dibblee of Stamford), who was ordained by Bishop Inglis in Halifax; and it has been learned incidentally that his father's letters of orders, declaration of conformity, license from the Bishop of London, and commission from the Venerable Society, are carefully preserved by descendants in California.

In the prosecution of these inquiries various facts of a personal nature, illustrating the relations between Connecticut and the provinces, have been gathered, many of them, it is probable, not generally known here. It seems right that they should be preserved somewhere in our Diocesan records; and having been for the most part reported to the Commission and having awakened some interest, we venture to include them in our own report. The account does not pretend to be even approximately complete.

Our clerical emigrants, as became them, were useful otherwise than as Clergymen. For example, John Beardsley, born and educated here, though he had served in New York, was thought to be as good a farmer as preacher, wielded a broadaxe in his shirt sleeves on the frame of the first Church in St. John, New Brunswick, and was of inestimable service in rousing the disheartened refugees to manly effort. Roger Viets and his son and successor at Digby, Nova Scotia, Roger Moore Viets, received no stipends because they could support themselves in abundance on the proceeds of their lands. James Scovill built his own house at Kingston, N. B. Another, Isaac Browne, who, though born at West Haven, and a graduate of Yale, had served in New Jersey, and whom old age and many hardships had rendered unable to work after his arrival in Nova Scotia, interests us particularly as the brother of Daniel Browne the Yale tutor, who declared for Episcopacy with Cutler and Johnson, was Johnson's intimate friend, and died in England just after taking orders. A laconic tribute to the wives of two natives of Connecticut whose earlier work had been done here, deserves to be quoted: "I cannot tell you of the good that Rachel Clarke and Hannah Andrews did."

The children and descendants of such men and women have shown the power of heredity. It has already been mentioned that the son of Roger Viets took his father's place; and it is perhaps sufficiently known that Richard Samuel Clarke was also succeeded by his son, and James Scovill by his son and grandson, the last surviving until 1876. The three served the Parish of Kingston for ninety years, and the Church, together and severally, for one hundred and thirty years. The name of Oliver Arnold, one of those who were ordained after leaving Connecticut, is less familiar. One of his sons was his successor, and he had another son in Holy Orders. Our record of later clerical descendants must be very far from complete. It can be stated, however, that ten Clergymen (one of them now Rector of an important Parish in Central New York), and two young men preparing for Orders (one of them now a student at Harvard), have descended from three of those who had served in Connecticut, Clarke, Scovill and Viets, and from three others who were natives of Connecticut, Arnold, Beardsley and Dibblee. It may not be unfair to add to the number one dead and two living descendants of Mather Byles (one of them formerly of this Diocese). For Mather Byles, though a native of Massachusetts, acquired his churchmanship in Connecticut while a Congregational Pastor at New London, and can reasonably be said to have begun there his journey to England for Episcopal ordination. Some of these men have attained prominence or even distinction, like the late Canon Ketchum of St. Andrews, N. B., and the Rev. W. O. Raymond of St. John, who is the chief authority on the ecclesiastical history of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, and who has been of great assistance in these researches. Mr. Raymond descends from three Connecticut Clergymen, Beardsley, the elder Dibblee, and Punderson, as also, in the male line, from a loyalist family of Norwalk. Another New Brunswick Clergyman, and the wife of a Rector in Ontario, came of Connecticut loyalists; and the wife of an Archdeacon in British Columbia, himself of loyalist ancestry, is a descendant of John Sayre of Fairfield, who, after he was forbidden to pray for the King, used to read the Homilies and omit the Liturgy.

Other children of the emigrant Clergy have been prominent in secular life. A son of Samuel Andrews was long high sheriff of Charlotte County, N. B.; and a grandson, whose father returned to the United States, became mayor of Rochester, N. Y., and a Member of Congress. A grandson of Roger Viets was high sheriff of Digby County, N. S.; a son of John Beardsley was a lawyer of distinction in New Brunswick and Ontario. The late Judge Mather Byles DesBrisay, apparently a great-grandson of Mather Byles, was, apart from his prominence in his profession, the historian of Lunenburg County. A name which does not fall in precisely the same category, but is of special interest to us all, is that of David Seabury, youngest son of the first missionary sent to New London, and half brother of the first Bishop of Connecticut. He lived for more than twenty years in Nova Scotia, where the Bishop evidently visited him on his return voyage from England, and where he was long a magistrate, and was lieutenant-colonel of the Annapolis County militia, besides being twice declared elected to the provincial parliament. Outside of all our categories except that of Connecticut descent, combined with personal adhesion in early life to the Church of England, and therefore perhaps unwarrantably introduced, is the name of Sir Charles Tupper, a member of the Canadian Privy Council. His Connecticut ancestor went from Lebanon about 1760, and is therefore not reckoned even among the loyalist emigrants.

On the whole, not only the clerical exiles, but their wives and their little ones did honor to the mother who once felt bound to be ashamed of them. As a commonwealth she seems to be learning with the other original States to be a little ashamed of herself; as a Diocese she has had no reason to be ashamed in either respect.

Three volumes destined for the library of the Berkeley Divinity School, from which information about the matters just noticed has been gleaned, have been placed at the service of the Commission by the kindness of Dr. Hart. They are the Histories of Annapolis and Lunenburg Counties, Nova Scotia, and the Genealogy of the Viets family.

It is obvious that work of the kind described in the earlier portion of this report cannot be done thoroughly without expense. It is for the Convention to decide whether anything can be appropriated for such a purpose.

Prepared by the undersigned under the authority of the Commission.

W. G. ANDREWS, Chairman.

F. CLARENCE BISSELL, Secretary.

The Report was accepted; and, on motion of the Rev. Dr. Andrews, it was Resolved, That the Standing Resolution of 1894 (see Journal 1903, page 97) be amended by inserting after the words "Donations and Bequests," the words, "Or the Secretary of the Commission on Parochial Archives."

On motion of Mr. Edward B. L. Carter, it was Resolved, That the election of Deputies to the General Convention be made the Order of the Day immediately after the Bishop's Address.

The President read his Annual Address, as follows:

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

In the course of these visitations and at other times I have officiated on two hundred occasions, preached or delivered addresses two hundred and fifteen times, celebrated the Holy Communion thirty-nine times, solemnized two marriages, officiated at three funerals, baptized two persons, and confirmed one thousand six hundred and ninety-four persons.

There have also been confirmed on my behalf, by the Bishop of Nebraska, in Christ Church, Norwich, twenty-one; in St. Andrew's, Norwich, twenty-nine; in Trinity Church, Norwich, eight; also by the Bishop of New York, in the Chapel of Salisbury School, five; making the total number of Confirmations one thousand seven hundred and fifty-seven.

Besides attending the meetings of the several Diocesan Boards, and of the Trustees of the Berkeley Divinity School, I have, except when detained by Diocesan duties, attended the meetings of the Board of Managers of the General Missionary Society. In October last I attended the Missionary Council, and also the very interesting Conference, at Washington, of the Bishops of our communion in North and South America and the dependent islands.

Within the year have died the Rt. Rev. Dr. Thomas March Clark, Presiding Bishop; the Rt. Rev. Dr. Dudley, Chairman of the House of Bishops; and, within a week of each other, two noble Missionary Bishops, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Abiel Leonard, Bishop of Salt Lake, and the Rt. Rev. Dr. James Addison Ingle, Bishop of Hankow.

Bishop Clark was Rector of Christ Church, Hartford, when he was elected Bishop of Rhode Island, an office which he held for forty-nine years. In 1899 he succeeded Bishop Williams as Presiding Bishop. His genial and sparkling humor and the generous breadth of his sympathies endeared him to many; while his commanding abilities, particularly his eloquence in the pulpit and on the platform, won him distinction and power. He lived to be the oldest Bishop of the Anglican Communion, and throughout this land was venerated and beloved.

Bishop Leonard had labored abundantly in his Missionary District, immense in territory and made more difficult by the strange problems presented in Mormonism. In a noteworthy courtesy of bearing and spirit, in wisdom of administration, in energy and enthusiasm of service, he left an example to his brethren.

The foreign field suffered irreparable loss in the death of Bishop Ingle, who had quickened both the evangelistic and the educational work in his jurisdiction, and remarkably impressed himself upon all who knew him. A man of Apostolic spirit, although hardly two years a Bishop, "he being made perfect in a short time, fulfilled a long time." The memory of him is an inspiration.

Thomas Underwood Dudley, Bishop of Kentucky, was laid to rest on the twenty-ninth anniversary of his Consecration to the Episcopate. A man of distinguished abilities, gifted in speech and wise in administration, of generous sympathies, and throwing himself earnestly into various forms of service to Church and State, he was much more than a Diocesan Bishop. As member of the Board of Managers of Missions, as head of the Commission for Work among the Colored People, and as Chairman of the House of Bishops, he filled a large place in the life of the Church, and largely illustrated the possibilities in the office of a Bishop.

The Canadian Church has lost her Primate, the Most Rev. Robert Machray, Archbishop of Rupertsland, a great missionary.

The American Church has lost an honored Presbyter, the Rev. Dr. John S. Lindsay, President of the House of Clerical and Lay Deputies, who was for a time connected with this Diocese as Rector of St. John's Church, Bridgeport.

: During the year death has removed five of the Clergy of the Diocese.

The Rev. Eaton Whiting Maxcy, S.T.D., was for many years Rector of St. John's Church, Bridgeport; and, after an interval spent in the Diocese of Albany, came back in 1899 to labor in the same city at St. Luke's. At once childlike in heart, and in robust physique and sturdy mind and spirit very much of a man, he exercised a ministry of remarkable power. I doubt if in that large city any other Minister of any name ever came in close touch with so many souls. Very many men and women loved him as pastor and friend, and thank God for his faithful ministrations.

The Rev. Oliver Sherman Prescott fell asleep peacefully at Priory Farm, Verbank, N. Y., on the evening of November 17, 1903. He was at the time of his death next to the eldest of our Clergy in date of ordination, having been ordained Deacon by Bishop Brownell in September, 1847. He served in North Carolina; at the Church of the Advent, Boston; Trinity Church, Newport; Christ Church, West Haven; with the St. John the Evangelist Fathers at Cowley; in the slums of London, with Mrs. Gladstone as his helper; at St. Clement's, Philadelphia; in the Diocese of Fond du Lac; at the Church of the Transfiguration, New York; and, at the last, for seven years as Rector of St.

Luke's, New Haven. Personally acquainted with the leaders, and himself prominent among the early adherents, of the "Oxford Movement," Father Prescott was unswervingly faithful to his convictions of Catholic truth. In the face of misunderstanding and opposition he never faltered in what he believed to be his duty. In the more than fifty years of his devoted priesthood he ministered with unusual effect to a great multitude, and many will remember him before God.

The Rev. Henry Tarrant, having served in the Parishes of Grace Church, Hamden, St. Paul's, Huntington, and Trinity Church, Lime Rock, and also in Parishes outside this Diocese, was at the time of his death Rector of St. John's Church, Pine Meadow. He was scholarly in his tastes and attainments, painstaking and earnest in the pulpit, diligent in shepherding his flock and in seeking the scattered sheep of Christ.

The Rev. Edward Rutledge Brown, after a faithful ministry in Christ Church, Unionville, (whence he began the services in Collinsville and Farmington); in St. Michael's Church, Naugatuck, St. John's Church, New Milford, and Grace Church, Stafford Springs, was obliged some years ago to retire from active work on account of ill health. We can but rejoice that he has been released from infirmity and pain, and is at rest in Christ.

The Rev. Lindall Winthrop Saltonstall, coming of families honored in the history of Connecticut and Massachusetts, spent his ministry in these two Dioceses as Rector of St. Mary's Church, Dorchester, and, for ten years, of Christ Church, Hartford. He was a studious and thoughtful man, a strong preacher, earnest in convictions, and of the highest character, a Christian gentleman.

Among the Laity, not only this Parish but the whole Diocese has met with a loss in the death, at a ripe old age, of Mr. John C. Hollister. Judge Hollister was for fifty years a Warden of St. Paul's Church, New Haven; and for more than half a century was Superintendent of its Sunday School. He also served the Diocese in manifold ways, especially in building up the Fund for the Infirm Clergy; and has left an example of high character, earnest devotion and faithful service.

Other laymen who are missed here and in their Parishes are Mr. James W. White, benefactor of Trinity Church, Thomas-

; Mr. Louis Gates and Mr. Edward Bacon, the first Wardens of St. Paul's Church, Waterville; Dr. Alonzo Shaffer, Senior Warden of St. John's, Essex; Judge Levi E. Coe, of Andrew's, Meriden; Mr. Uri T. Church, of Trinity Church, Warrington; Mr. G. A. Shepard, of St. Thomas's, Bethel, who not only was generous while he lived, but took thought for the spiritual welfare of the Church long after his decease; Mr. Francis Taylor, for forty-five years Senior Warden of St. Luke's Church, South Glastonbury; Mr. David A. Baldwin, Senior Warden of St. John's Church, New Milford; Mr. Joseph C. Wheeler, for many years an officer in St. Michael's Church, Litchfield; Mr. Henry Cornwall, Senior Warden of St. Peter's Church, Milford; Mr. George B. Spencer, for thirty years Warden, and for fifty years a member of the choir of Christ Church, Guilford; Mr. Bennett Jeralds, Senior Warden of the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Yalesville; and Mr. Eben W. Linsley, of St. Paul's, Huntington, a member of the first Convention after the death of Bishop Brownell; a man of sterling integrity and devotion to the Church, and who leaves her two of her best Parish Priests.

Six persons have been ordained to the Diaconate, viz.:

St. John's Church, Salisbury, November 8, 1903,
Henry Davies, Ph.D.

The Church of the Holy Trinity, Middletown, June 8, 1904,
Edwin Tuttle Lewis, B.A., B.D.,
Frederick James Kerr Alexander, M.A., B.D., Arthur Searing Peck, and Edward Gardner Reynolds;

also, at the request and on behalf of the Bishop of Los Angeles, at the same time and place,
Robert Burton Gooden, B.A., B.D.

Eight Deacons have been advanced to the Priesthood, viz.:

Trinity Church, Branford, June 11, 1903,

Rev. John Herbert Jackson, presented by Rev. H. W. Winkley; and Rev. Henry Buckland Olmstead, presented by the Rev. Dr. W. G. Andrews.

the Chapel of St. Luke the Beloved Physician, Middletown, St. Thomas's Day, December 21, 1903, Rev. Daniel Hugh Verder, presented by the Rev. John Binney, D.D.

the Church of the Holy Trinity, Middletown, June 8, 1904,

Rev. Abram James Holland, B.A., presented by the Rev. E. deF. Miel;

- Rev. Reginald Heber Scott, B.D., presented by the Rev. J. T. Huntington;
Rev. Ellsworth Morton Tracy, B.A., presented by the Rev. F. D. Buckley; Rev. Henry Davies, Ph.D., presented by the Rev. G. E. Quail; and
Rev. Robert Bell, presented by the Rev. F. W. Baker, D.D.

Eight Clergymen have presented Letters Dimissory and have been received into the Diocese, viz.:

- Rev. James Bishop Thomas, Ph.D., Curate in Trinity Church, New Haven, from the Diocese of New York;
Manning Blackstone Bennett, Rector of St. Mary's, South Manchester, from the Diocese of Central New York;
Philip Mercer Rhineland, Professor of Church History in the Berkeley Divinity School, from the Diocese of Washington;
William Inglis Morse, B.D., Curate in St. John's, Stamford, and Frank Hoffnagel Bigelow, B.D., Vicar of Emmanuel and St. Luke's Chapels in St. John's Parish, Stamford, from the Diocese of Massachusetts;
Edward Livingston Wells, Missionary in charge of St. Luke's, Bridgeport, from the Diocese of Pittsburgh;
John Brown, Minister in charge of Christ Church, Bridgeport, from the Diocese of Vermont; and Charles Silas Champlin, Rector of Grace Church, Yantic, from the Diocese of Newark.

Eleven Clergymen have received Letters Dimissory, viz.:

- Rev. Frederic William Bailey to the Diocese of Western Massachusetts;
James Innes Hayes Cameron and Charles Edwin Bentham, to the Diocese of Los Angeles;
Walter Theodore Cavell, to the Diocese of Florida;
Charles Thompson Coerr, to the Diocese of West Missouri;
Herbert Dunbar Cone, to the Diocese of Newark;
Frederick Joseph Kinsman, to the Diocese of New York;
Hermann Lilienthal and Walter Franklin Prince, Ph.D., to the Diocese of Long Island; Henry B. Olmstead, to the Diocese of Delaware; and Louis A. Parsons, to the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

Changes of place among the Clergy of the Diocese other than those indicated above, are as follows:

- Rev. J. A. Biddle entered upon the rectorship of Grace Church, New Haven, and has since resigned;
Sylvester Clarke, D.D., has resigned his professorship in the Berkeley Divinity School, and become Professor Emeritus;

Rev. Charles H. Doupé has resigned Trinity Church, Nichols, and Grace Church, Long Hill;

Haynes L. Everest has resigned St. Paul's, Huntington;

Richard D. Hatch has become Rector of St. Paul's, Windham, and Missionary in charge of St. Paul's, Willimantic;

John Herbert Jackson has resigned Christ Church, East Haven, and become Rector of St. Paul's, Bantam, and of Trinity Church, Milton;

William H. Jepson has resigned St. James's, Poquetanuck, and become Rector of Christ Church, Redding, and of Emmanuel Church, Weston;

Earl H. Kenyon has resigned Grace Church, Yantic, and become Rector of St. Paul's, Bridgeport;

Henry Macbeth has resigned St. Paul's, Willimantic, and St. Paul's, Windham, and become Rector of St. Thomas's, Hartford;

Archibald MacDougall, Ph.D., has resigned St. John's, North Guilford, and Zion Church, North Branford, and become Rector of St. Paul's, Windsor Locks, and of Calvary Church, Suffield;

Joseph R. Peckham has resigned the curacy of St. Andrew's, Meriden, and become Curate in St. John's, Bridgeport;

Frederick R. Sanford has resigned Grace Church, New Haven, and become Missionary in charge of Black Hall, South Lyme and Niantic;

Alfred Taylor has resigned St. Paul's, Southington;

George M. Stanley has resigned the Church of the Holy Advent, Clinton, and become Rector of St. John's, Pine Meadow, with the charge of St. Paul's, Riverton;

Hiram Stone has resigned Trinity Church, Milton, and St. Paul's, Bantam, and has become Rector Emeritus of both;

Daniel H. Verder entered upon the rectorship of St. James's, Poquetanuck, which he has resigned to become Curate in Trinity Church, Waterbury; and George R. Warner has become Missionary in charge of St. Paul's, Southington.

In the course of the past year there have been twenty-six Candidates for Holy Orders. Of these, five have been ordained as stated above, two have been transferred to other Dioceses, and the name of one has been at his own request removed from the list. There are at present eighteen Candidates for Holy Orders,* as follows:

Candidate for Deacon's Orders only:

Wilbur Quincy Rogers, Admitted June 8, 1903

* Frederick Bethune Bartlett, B.A., and Philip Llewellyn Lightbourn, B.A., were admitted June 22, 1904.

From the Bishop of West Missouri, of the deposition of Percy B. Eversden, Presbyter.

We are meeting with a Parish which has during the year lost not only its Senior Warden but also its Rector. The fact that one of our Clergy has become the Bishop of Newark has made us poorer throughout the Diocese, and particularly in this city, where Dr. Lines had won his place in the history of the Church beside the names of Bela Hubbard and Harry Croswell. These three men by their faithful pastoral work have been the largest factors in winning for this Church the position it has in this community. In this city Dr. Lines was probably looked to for pastoral offices by more people than any other Minister of any name, and at the time of his departure was generally recognized to be in many respects the leading citizen of no mean city. The Diocese had given him many evidences of its confidence. It had repeatedly elected him at the head of its delegation to the General Convention and a member of the Standing Committee. He had been the Secretary of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, and of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund, and had served the Diocese in many ways. I doubt if any man had the ear of this Convention as he had. I know I voice the feeling of all when I say that our good wishes and prayers go with him. His successor is with us to-day. As Bishop of the Diocese I give him a hearty welcome, and congratulate him that he is to be Rector of a Parish than which there is none nobler or more loyal in this Diocese.

While I am speaking of personal matters let me remind you that the Rev. Dr. Hart completes at this Convention thirty years of service as Registrar. In this office, as well as in other relations to the Diocese, he has done a vast amount of unremunerated and unrecognized work, which I venture to say not another man could have been found to do at once so willingly and so well. In things pertaining to the Church, as also in regard to a great many other things, his is the mastery "of them that know."

The Berkeley Divinity School, chartered and located at Middletown in 1854, this year completes a half-century of existence. The institution would seem successfully to have passed through the inevitable crisis which followed the death of its great founder. The number of students, from widely separated Dioceses, has recently increased from year to year. For next year some thirty are already entered.

In the preparation of Candidates for the sacred Ministry this Diocese has held an honorable record. It is my earnest desire that this record be in nowise lowered. The general Canon explicitly says: "No examination at any theological or other literary institution shall be held to be equivalent to any one or more canonical examinations, or allowed to supersede the same." I hereby give notice that this requirement of the Canon it is my intention hereafter strictly to adhere to. As one of the Examining Chaplains of the Diocese I have appointed the Rev. Arthur J. Gammack.

Early on Sunday morning, February 14th, the beautiful stone Church of St. James's Parish, Glastonbury, was destroyed by fire with all its contents, including interesting memorials which cannot be replaced. The Church was insured for a part of its value. To carry even this amount of insurance has involved effort and sacrifice; yet I am prompted to impress the lesson to be learned and heeded by those entrusted with the responsibility of trusteeship of Church property. An important part of such responsibility is the securing of the property against visitations like that which has befallen this Parish. I earnestly hope this duty may nowhere be neglected or slighted.

Aside from the personal and other losses which have been referred to, the year has been for the Diocese not particularly eventful, but, I trust, a year of quiet progress. There have been no Confirmation classes so large as those which have distinguished other years, yet the general average has evidently improved; for the number of persons confirmed exceeds by nearly one hundred and fifty the number reported last year, and exceeds by one hundred and thirty-nine the largest number previously reported.

In order not too long to detain you from important business, I pass over this year matters upon which I had desired to dwell. Before the approaching General Convention are coming certain questions of importance. They may call for no specific action here. You may not think it well that your Deputies should be here "instructed" to a degree which would bind them as to their action there. By no means is it my desire unduly to influence the action of this Convention. These questions, however, do call for intelligent interest on the part of all our people, and demand the recognition of great principles to be applied to their settlement.

First and foremost is the subject of Marriage and Divorce. The unit of society is not the isolated individual but the family. Considered ideally, the family is an institution as divine as the State or the Church. Considered historically, the modern family is the goal of an age-long social evolution. Considered practically, this institution holds together the structure of our civilization, as the keystone of the arch. In this elementary and typical form the social organism is to-day seriously threatened. The continued existence of the family is menaced by the facility and the frequency of divorce from the marriage bonds which create the family, and, binding it together, maintain its integrity. In this land the number of divorces has for some time exceeded the number in almost all other civilized countries taken together, and has been recently rapidly increasing. Thus in large parts of our country prevails what is really an epidemic of social disease to a degree which justifies, not an unreasoning panic, but certainly serious thought on behalf of our national life, and vigorous measures to safeguard society from further infection.

The problem has for some time engaged the attention and earnest effort of wise men, and not without good result. Civil legislation regarding divorce is notably advancing in the right direction. The thing greatly to be desired is uniformity of divorce laws. This it was long hoped to secure by a Federal law of marriage. Some are still looking for help from that quarter. Thoughtful men, however, recognize the prejudice against interference by the Federal Government and the difficulty of securing an amendment of the Constitution of the United States.

As long ago as 1881 ex-President Woolsey suggested that the object desired might best be secured through concurrent action by the several States. This method of State-coöperation would seem to be now that which promises most results. Some thirty-five States and Territories have appointed commissions for conference upon uniform legislation regarding several matters. A uniform bill for a law of divorce procedure has been prepared and is to be considered at the next conference. There are reasons for hoping that we may see before long enacted by a large number of State legislatures a uniform law regarding divorce. Meanwhile may be noted approaches to uniformity in better legislation on this subject by several States. Already there is an increasing comity in the recognition by one State of the stricter marriage laws of other States. All the signs are full of promise.

If the State should concern itself for the preservation of the family, how much more the Church? No subject of more momentous and practical importance, socially and ethically, could engage the attention of our Church people. This Church already stands for a high ideal of marriage, and discountenances divorce. Her Canon forbids her Ministers to solemnize the marriage of any person who has a divorced husband or wife still living, if such husband or wife has been put away for any cause arising after marriage. To this prohibition there is one exception, based upon the report in a single Gospel of words of our Lord differing in this particular from the report given in two other Gospels. Not only has the interpretation of this passage been disputed, but also its genuineness has been doubted; and the doubt finds support in our Bible with Marginal Readings.

Into these questions I shall not at this time enter. I content myself with referring to the familiar fact that our canonical exception based upon this passage has proved to be an open door inviting many appeals of cases claiming to come within the spirit if not the letter of the Canon. These appeals the Bishop, who is usually without training in the weighing of evidence, is asked to decide, having before him only so-called evidence which is presented by interested persons and is altogether ex parte; so that an affirmative decision involves the blackening of the character of a person whose side is unheard. Nor is this all. Within my knowledge, because within my own experience, have been attempts by gross misrepresentation to deceive the Bishop, attempts fortunately detected in time to prevent decisions which, in view of the actual facts, would have involved inevitable scandal to the Church and disgrace to the Bishop's office.

Thus I have been led to conclude that, even without pronouncing positively upon the genuineness or the meaning of the Scriptural passage in question, and considering the subject only with regard to the present condition of things, it is time that this open door for such a train of evils should be closed. The refusal of the Church to solemnize the marriage of any divorced persons would in some cases bear hard upon individuals. But here the interest of the individual must give way to the interest of society. In the words of Dr. Peabody of Harvard, "social wreckage must not obstruct social navigation."

There is another matter on which I feel constrained in this connection to speak. Reference has been made to a comity between States regarding divorce. Still more important would prove a certain ecclesiastical comity regarding the solemnization of matrimony; and such comity would seem to be at least as attainable between Christian Churches as a like comity between civil States. In view of the practical importance of the attitude and practice of Christian Ministers regarding marriage, and the influence upon the community of their attitude and practice; in view, moreover, of the momentous gravity of the subject, and the seriousness of the evil which threatens society, I now venture to call, so far as properly I may, the attention of our brethren, Ministers of other communions in our Commonwealth, to this matter of ecclesiastical comity, regarding the performance of the marriage ceremony. In all fraternal courtesy, I would, so far as in me lies, earnestly appeal to these brethren, and ask them, even before and apart from action by their own recognized authorities, to go as far themselves as each one conscientiously can, in refusing to perform the marriage ceremony for any person whose marriage there is reason to believe is forbidden by the laws of the Church wherein such person has membership. Such an attitude, if taken generally by the Ministers throughout the State, would accomplish much toward reducing to a minimum an evil now widely acknowledged.

Upon you, brethren, the Clergy of this Diocese, I earnestly enjoin that you diligently, and if need be, persistently, instruct the people committed to your charge in appreciation of the spiritual and sacred side of all these matters as that has been revealed through the Gospel of the Incarnate Son of God. I enjoin that our young people be taught, so far as they properly can be, a Christian reverence for the mystery of life and the issues of life; that our young women be taught to appreciate the seriousness of marriage, its solemn import and its sacred responsibilities; that our young men be taught to revere womanhood and motherhood for the sake of their own mothers and the Mother of our Lord, that so their purity may be no mere prudential restraint, but a generous and chivalrous Christian knightliness. Let there be inculcated devotion to high ideals for Christ's sake. Let there be preached, not the mere duty to keep one's self pure, but a very passion for purity "as He is pure." Let our youth be taught to value the blessedness of human love made constant by the consecration of that divine love that may hold all our lesser loves within its compass. Let all be taught that marriage and family life are not dependent upon selfish desire or mere caprice, but are institutions ordained of God, and designed, like other ordinances of God, with a view to the education, the formation and discipline, of character. Thus let there be earnest endeavor that the estate of matrimony may be entered into not, as so often now, "unadvisedly or lightly; but reverently, discreetly, advisedly, soberly, and in the fear of God."

Surely it is high time to remind men that Holy Matrimony has a sacramental character. It is not an outward ceremony without inward and spiritual meaning and grace. It is more than a secular partnership, more than a civil contract blessed by the Church. It is, as the Prayer Book describes it, "Holy Matrimony." The twain becoming one flesh St. Paul declares to be a great mystery. It symbolizes the mystical union between Christ and His Church. Divine grace alone can hallow love of man and woman, and enable them surely to perform and keep the vow and covenant betwixt them made. From the divine Fatherhood comes the consecration of marriage and its beginning of a human fatherhood on earth.. St. Paul prays to the Father from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named. Hence may be learned the lesson of the binding sanctity of the marriage bond and the sacredness of the family, that institution divinely designed, that through the love of fathers and mothers the children of men should rise to apprehend the love of the God and Father of all. Hence men may learn to hallow their home, to honor its hearthstone and step with reverence over its threshold: hence learn to rear their family altar to Him who is the God of Isaac and Rebecca, the God of the household.

There will be an earnest effort on the part of certain Dioceses, for example, Milwaukee and Pennsylvania, to induce the General Convention to exercise the power, with which it is now under the provisions of the Constitution clothed, to provide for the establishment of Courts of Review or a Court of Appeals. Some such provision is imperatively demanded for the protection of the other Clergy from possible injustice, for the protection of Bishops from the consequences of error or the suspicion of injustice, and to supply a lack which may any day bring upon the Church grave scandal. This question is sure to press itself upon the conscience of the Church until it is somehow settled. The question may have been suggested by cases of passing notoriety. It may be associated with ephemeral contentions. Nevertheless it involves the profound principle of justice, and that eternal right whereunto Churches as well as States must conform if they are to stand. The provision called for may necessitate the adoption of some kind of provincial system. But I know not if that be a reasonable or valid objection.

A petition to the General Convention from the Diocese of California, sent to our Secretary, brings up the question of the Revised Version of Holy Scripture. For some time I have been in favor of permission to read in Church the Lessons from the Revised Version. It was as a step in that direction that I welcomed the Bible with Marginal Readings. I would not be lacking in a due regard for the feelings of those who take a different view. As between the Revised Version and the King James Version there will during our time be conflicting preferences. The latter has the advantage of age. The processes of time have made the walls of the Doge's Palace at Venice fairer for their very stains. Even the faults of the old version have become endeared through the hallowing power of long association. To me the important matter is that there have been such real gains in accuracy that the Revised Version does bring us nearer to the Holy Scripture itself as it was written for our learning. Those who oppose its use in public services plead the spell of the familiar language of the King James Version and the music of its rhythm. Those who advocate the reading of the Lessons from the Revised Version do so with the desire to bring to the people a more faithful and exact rendering in English of the sacred Scriptures. Largely the issue would seem to be: on the one side the pleading of a not unnatural sentiment and the claims of that which is an acknowledged literary standard; on the other, contention for a profound principle. As between the two I could not hesitate, especially when all that is proposed is simply permission to read the Revised Version. When the Authorized Version was "appointed to be read in Churches," the authoritative sanction was, I am inclined to think, not exclusive, but only permissive. In that age different versions were, to quote Bishop Westcott, "used concurrently, and at last the 'fittest' prevailed. We may, I believe, still trust to the action of the same law."

There are other questions which present yet more difficulty, for example, the grave problems touching our brethren of the black race. These are not problems to be solved offhand by mere theories, or in passion and prejudice. They demand dispassionate and patient attention. Out of the confusion and perplexity two things are clear to my mind, and I hope to yours. First, it may be necessary to devise some new machinery, or adjustments in the present machinery, of ecclesiastical organization. But a note of the Catholic Church is unity. There must be no breach of the Church's unity, not even an entering wedge that may threaten or make possible any actual division on lines of race or color. An African Episcopal Church there may be, let us hope, in Africa, but never on this continent. In the American Catholic Church all are, and are to be, one in Christ Jesus. Second, there ought to be a very much more vigorous prosecution of our work among those people, for the sake of our country wherein they make one in ten of the population, and for Christ's sake whose sheep they are.

So this question is only a part of the great problem that presses upon us everywhere, the problem of Missions. Some of you are weary of the "Apportionment Plan." But those of you who have loyally given it an honest trial, as many have, in large Parishes and in small Missions, know that, while it is in some details open to improvement, yet it has aroused in the people a deeper interest, which is enough to overbalance all adverse criticism. Its success depends chiefly upon the clergy. Everywhere is to be found interest on the part of the laity when they have been informed.

Some affect not to believe in Foreign Missions. But either they do not really believe in Jesus Christ, or else, if they do, God is opening their eyes to-day by the dramatic events He brings to pass. Just half a century after the United States opened the door into Japan, the island empire throws itself wholly into an intelligent and heroic struggle, while at the same time the stars in their courses seem to fight, for an outcome which shall surely hasten the dawn of a day such as the world has not seen, and the coming of that Kingdom of God which is to embrace East and West in a unity grander and spiritually richer far than either half of the world alone could be.

The Missionary Society of the Diocese is able this year to make the most gratifying and encouraging financial report which has been presented in many years, and the reports of the work are all along the line satisfactory and significant of progress. By many our Diocesan Missionary work is not appreciated, nor the fact that in parts of this Diocese there is going on, and there is urgent call to push forward, the same kind of aggressive work that is done in the newer western fields.

Aside from the obligation and privilege of furthering missionary work, General and Diocesan, a signal blessing therein is that it lifts us out of parochialism. Altogether out of place in this Church is anything like parochialism. The Parish is not an integral unit of Church life and power. To some degree there is in Connecticut still wanting an adequate sense of unity and solidarity as a Diocese, one household of faith.

Let us welcome conceptions of our work and its relations larger than may be circumscribed within parish bounds or measured by any number, or any mere aggregation, of parochial and therefore partial units. Let us endeavor more and more to rise to the true level of a Diocesan consciousness and of Diocesan responsibilities. That genuine Diocesan consciousness will be something other than a natural pride in the honorable history, the traditions, or the churchmanship of Connecticut. It will behold and recognize, practically, the Diocese as a true paroikia, a community which is an integral component part of the great commonwealth of the Church.

The Council of this Diocese here assembled has this day prayed God "so to direct, sanctify, and govern us in our work, by the mighty power of the Holy Ghost, that the comfortable Gospel of Christ may be truly preached, truly received, and truly followed, in all places." This is the purpose of the Church of Christ, which is His body, receiving His life and filled with His Spirit, in order to bring to the apprehension and to the needs of the present age the everlasting Gospel of Him who is the same yesterday and to-day and forever.

Of that unique Personality men's views will inevitably somewhat vary, as they approach Him from different sides; for He is the manifestation of the infinite God, and in Him dwells all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. The vitally important thing is that what the Church regards and presents to the world shall be not only systems of doctrine about Him, not schemes which are to be worked apart from Him and in a spirit perhaps alien to His, nor machineries out of which any spirit at all has vanished; but that the Church shall steadfastly contemplate, and so be able to show forth to the world, Jesus Christ Himself, the personal living Lord, mighty to help and to save. May we to-day here assembled so truly have sought His presence and His Spirit, that, as from a mountain-top of vision, affording a wide and luminous view and a sense of the true proportion of things, we may return to labor at our appointed work with hearts enlarged and enkindled, with quickened motives and braver faith, and to labor not in vain, because more and more in His Spirit of love and power!

CHAUNCEY B. BREWSTER.

On motion of the Rev. Cranston Brenton, it was Resolved, That the portion of the Bishop's Address relating to Marriage and Divorce be printed separately for distribution.

The Order of the Day being now the Election of Deputies to the General Convention, Article X. of the Constitution was read by the Secretary, on whose motion it was also Resolved, That the Lay Delegates return to the Convention so soon as they have chosen the Lay Deputies, in order that business may be resumed without waiting for the Clergy to finish balloting for Clerical Deputies.

The two orders then separated, the Lay Delegates withdrawing to the Parish House, where they organized by choosing the Hon. Frederick J. Kingsbury, LL.D., as their Chairman, and Mr. Frederic C. Earle as Secretary. The Chairman appointed as

CHARLES A. PEASE

Mr. E. B. L. CARTER
HARRY H. HEMINWAY

Lay Deputies and Supplemental Deputies were elected by ballot; and, after an interval spent with the Convention transacting other business, the choice of the Clergy for Clerical Deputies and Supplemental Deputies was ratified by ballot.

Meanwhile the Clergy remained in the Church; and the President appointed as

TELLERS

Rev. JOHN N. LEWIS, JR.
GEORGE B. GILBERT

Rev. THEODORE M. PECK
HORACE H. BUCK

Nominations were made, and Clerical Deputies were elected, four ballots being taken. Supplemental Deputies were also chosen in like manner; and the choice of the Lay Delegates for their representatives was ratified by ballot.

The result of the election, by the concurrent vote of the two orders thus voting separately, was then announced as follows:

The business of the Missionary Society of the Diocese having been taken up, Mr. Burton Mansfield, Secretary and Treasurer, presented the Reports of the Board of Directors, of the Treasurer, of the several Archdeacons, and of the Treasurers of the six Archdeaconries; all of which were accepted and ordered to be printed with the Journal. (Appendix E. and Appendix F.)

Mr. Mansfield also presented the following

RECOMMENDATIONS

To the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Board of Directors of the said Society respectfully recommends the passage of the following Resolutions:

Resolved, That a sum not exceeding $12,000, in addition to the income from the funds of the Society and other sources available for the purpose, be appropriated for carrying on the Missionary work of the Diocese during the ensuing year.

Resolved, That the sum so appropriated be apportioned among the several Archdeaonries on the basis of "Current Expenses, including Salaries," as reported in the last published Journal; and that said sum be appropriated among the several Archdeaonries, as the Directors of the Society deem best.

The two Resolutions were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Mansfield, it was also

Resolved, That the Report of the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese in regard to the spiritual condition obtaining in those portions of the State without the ministrations of religion and the duty of the Church in regard to them, and also the Report in regard to the matter of employing a Special Agent, both of which matters were referred to the Board at the last Convention (see Journal 1903, page 69), having been accepted, the Board be discharged from any further consideration thereof.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut be and they are hereby extended to Mr. Edwin Milner, of Plainfield, Connecticut, for his generous gift of a lot at Moosup, for the Mission.

Resolved, That the Archdeacon of New London be requested to communicate the thanks of this Society to Mr. Milner, as expressed in the foregoing Resolution.

On motion of the Rev. George W. Davenport, it was Resolved, That the suggestions of the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society with reference to the deficit be made the sense of this Convention; and that the Archdeaonries be hereby requested to make every effort to pay the debt of $6,100 during the ensuing year.

It was also

Resolved, That a Special Committee of three persons be appointed by the President to nominate Lay Directors of the Missionary Society.

The President appointed as such

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Rev. HARRY I. BODLEY

Rev. JAMES H. GEORGE

Mr. ERASTUS H. CROSBY

The Committee subsequently reported, nominating the following persons, who were then unanimously elected

LAY DIRECTORS OF THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Mr. WALTON FERGUSON

Mr. CHARLES H. LAWRENCE

HARRY H. HEMINWAY

CHARLES E. JACKSON

EDWARD E. BRADLEY

WILLIAM M. STARK

On motion of the Rev. George T. Linsley, the Convention took a recess to sit as the Church Scholarship Society. (Appendix G.)

The Convention having resumed its session, the Rev. Arthur T. Randall presented the Report of the Committee on Finance, recommending the following Resolutions, which were adopted accordingly:

Resolved, That for the purpose of providing for the salary and expenses of the Bishop, an assessment of three-fourths of one per cent. be levied upon each Parish and Mission on an amount equal to that paid for "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," during the year ending at this Convention, as printed in the Journal of the Convention for 1904; and that this assessment be paid by the Treasurer of each Parish to the Treasurer of the Bishop's Fund on or before January 1st, 1905.

Resolved, That for the Convention Fund an assessment of three fourths of one per cent. be levied upon each Parish and Mission on an amount equal to that paid for "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," during the year ending at this Convention, as printed in the Journal of the Convention for 1904; and that this assessment be paid by the Treasurer of each Parish to the Treasurer of the Diocese on or before May 1st, 1905.

The Committee on Nominations to fill vacancies in Diocesan Boards of Trustees presented the following

REPORT

The Committee on Nominations respectfully reports that there is one vacancy on the Board of Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes, occasioned by the removal from the Diocese of Mr. Frank H. Sperry, late of New Haven; there are two vacancies on the Board of Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen; and also two on the Clergyman's Retiring Fund, caused in each instance by the removal of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Lines to the Diocese of Newark, and by the death of Mr. John C. Hollister of New Haven. There is also one vacancy on the Board of Trustees of the Episcopal Academy of Connecticut.

To fill the vacancy on the Board of Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes, your Committee nominates Mr. John Brewster Fitch of New Haven.

To fill the two vacancies on the Board of Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen, and also on the Clergyman's Retiring Fund, the Rev. James Goodwin of Hartford, and Mr. Robert W. Huntington of Hartford are nominated.

To fill the vacancy on the Board of Trustees of the Episcopal Academy of Connecticut, Mr. Eri D. Woodbury is nominated.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,

ERNEST DEF. MIEL,
J. E. WILDMAN,
A. T. PARSONS.

The Report was accepted, and all the nominees were elected accordingly by ballot.

On motion of the Rev. Elmer T. Merrill, it was Resolved, That with a view to all proper expedition of the business of the Annual Convention, the Bishop of the Diocese be respectfully requested to make hereafter no provision for a Sermon at the opening service, but to deliver in place thereof, if it shall seem to him convenient, his Annual Address, or such parts of it as he may see fit to present at that time.

The Rev. Arthur T. Randall presented the Report of the Connecticut Commissioners of the American Church Building Fund; which was accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal. (Appendix L.)

On motion of Archdeacon Bodley, it was

Resolved, That the Standing Resolution adopted in 1897 requiring the annual appointment of a Committee to coöperate with the Commissioners of the American Church Building Fund, be and is hereby rescinded.

The Secretary presented the following communication on

THE REVISED VERSION OF THE BIBLE

DIOCESE OF CALIFORNIA
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

DIOCESAN HOUSE
731 CALIFORNIA STREET, SAN FRANCISCO.

The Secretary of the Diocese of Connecticut:

I desire to inform you officially that at the recent Convention of the Diocese of California holden in Grace Church, San Francisco, January 28, 1904, the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted:

PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTION

Whereas, There is a growing sentiment throughout the Church in favor of the use of the Revised Version of the Bible in public worship; and

Whereas, the Marginal Readings Bible authorized by the General Convention in 1901 has emphasized but not fully satisfied this sentiment; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of California hereby petitions the General Convention to take such action as may be necessary to permit the use of the Revised Version in the Lessons in Morning and Evening Prayer.

I respectfully request you to bring this communication to the attention of your Diocese (or Missionary District), at its next conciliar meeting, and will greatly appreciate the courtesy if you will inform me what action, if any, is taken in respect thereto, and under this invitation.

Very sincerely,

MARDON D. WILSON,
Secretary Convention, Diocese of California.

Archdeacon Buck, for the Rev. George W. Griffith, presented the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the Diocese of Connecticut, through its Annual Convention held June 14, 1904, petition the General Convention to be held in Boston, October, 1904, to grant the permissive use of the Revised Version of the Holy Scriptures in reading the Lessons at Morning and Evening Prayer.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Seymour, this Resolution was amended by inserting the words "or the American Revision," after the words "Revised Version"; and was then adopted.

The Committee on Form for the Organization of Missions had prepared the following Report, which was printed and distributed to all the members of the Convention beforehand.

REPORT

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be held this 14th day of June, 1904:

The Committee appointed at the Convention of 1901 to prepare a Form for the Organization of Missions, respectfully reports:

That they have carefully considered the subject, and herewith present for adoption a draft of a Canon to be known as the "Form for the Organization of Missions."

PROPOSED CANON TO BE NUMBERED XII.

Of the Organization of a Mission and its Admission into Union with the Church in this Diocese

SECTION I. A Mission designated by the Directors of the Missionary Society may be organized by the Bishop, on the application of any residents in its neighborhood. But such shall not be established within the parochial cure of any Minister or Ministers, without the consent of such Minister or Ministers, except on the advice and by the consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. The form of application shall be substantially as follows, to wit:

To the Rt. Rev., the Bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut;

We, the undersigned, residents of _____ in the County of _____ in said Diocese, do respectfully represent that we have agreed together to form a Mission for the securing and enjoying of the services of the Church; and that we promise obedience to the authority of the Diocese, and conformity to the Constitution, Canons, doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States and in the Diocese of Connecticut.

Wherefore we request that we may be duly recognized as an Organized Mission, under the authority and direction of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be known as _____ Mission.

SEC. 2. If such application be approved, the Bishop shall appoint a Warden, a Clerk and a Treasurer, who, with the person officiating as Missionary, shall act as the agents of the Diocese in taking efficient care of the property.

SEC. 3. The qualified electors of each Organized Mission (not in a Parish), which has been organized under the above sections for twelve months, shall meet annually on Easter Monday or some other day appointed by vote of the Electors, and shall then choose, by ballot, not less than three nor more than seven persons. The persons chosen at such election, when approved by the Archdeacon and organized, shall together with the Missionary if there be one, constitute a Mission Committee and continue in office until their successors shall have been elected and have been approved by the Archdeacon.

SEC. 4. Any baptized person of the age of twenty-one years not a member of any other ecclesiastical society of this State, desiring to become a member of any Organized Mission in this Diocese with the right to vote may do so, by signing and lodging with the Clerk or any other officer of said Mission before the annual meeting, a written declaration which shall be read at said meeting, announcing his desire to become a member thereof, in which declaration he shall express his attachment to the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States; and the name of each applicant shall be voted upon separately by ballot at said meeting; upon the final adjournment of which, all such applicants as have received a majority of the votes cast shall become members of the Mission.

SEC. 5. As soon as may be after the persons elected as a Mission Committee are approved by the Archdeacon, they shall organize and elect a Warden, a Clerk and a Treasurer, to hold office until their successors are elected.

SEC. 6. A majority of the qualified members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. Their duties and those of the officers shall be the same as those of Warden, Vestrymen and officers, as near as may be, in organized Parishes.

SEC. 7. Any Mission organized under this Canon may send one Lay Delegate to the Diocesan Convention, and this Delegate shall have the same rights and powers as has one Delegate from an organized Parish. His credentials shall be a certificate from the Clerk.

SEC. 8. At any time that a Mission shall have satisfied the Bishop, or, in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee, that it is in a condition to support a Rector without aid from the Missionary Society, it may apply to the Bishop and Convention of the Diocese for admission as a Parish according to the provisions of Canon I., Sections 1 and 2, of this Diocese.

SEC. 9. No Archdeaconry shall make any appropriation in aid of a Parish thus formed from a Mission, organized under this Canon, except on the condition that such Parish shall be reduced to an Organized Mission.

SEC. 10. The title of all property, real or personal, given or purchased for the use of any Organized Mission, shall be vested in "The Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut," or "The Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes" in the Diocese of Connecticut.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEO. HICKMAN BUCK,
J. CHAUNCEY LINSLEY,
NELSON J. WELTON,
Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Hart, for the Committee on Constitution and Canons appointed this year, to which this Report was referred, reported it back to the Convention without any recommendation; and, on motion, it was recommitted to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, to consider and report next year.

On motion of Mr. Burton Mansfield, it was Resolved, That a Committee of five Clergymen and five laymen be appointed to consider the advisability of providing

First, A Diocesan House or Room for the better transacting of the business of the Diocese; and Second, An Episcopal Residence.

Mr. Mansfield having nominated the Clergymen and laymen to constitute this Committee, the Rev. Foster Ely, D.D., moved to make the number of laymen six, and to add the name of Mr. Mansfield himself.

Accordingly the following persons were by vote appointed as Committee on Proposed Diocesan Office and Episcopal Residence

|------------------------------|----------------------|
| Rev. STORRS O. SEYMOUR, D.D. | Mr. JAMES J. GOODWIN |
| SAMUEL HART, D.D. | GARDINER GREENE |

| CHARLES M. ADDISON | CHARLES H. NETTLETON |
| FRANK W. BAKER, D.D. | HARRY H. HEMINWAY |
| Mr. BURTON MANSFIELD | |

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Seymour, it was Resolved, That the hearty thanks of this Convention are hereby offered to the Rev. Dr. Hart and the Rev. Joseph Hooper for the great service which they have done the Diocese in the task, now practically finished, of preparing for publication the Records of Convocation from 1790 to 1848.

On motion of the Rev. William H. Lewis, D.D., it was Resolved, That a Committee of three be appointed to consider the question of merging the Funds for Aged and Infirm Clergy of this Diocese in the Fund known as "General Clergy Relief," and report to the next Diocesan Convention.

The President accordingly appointed as

Committee on Proposal to Merge Funds for Infirm Clergy with the General Clergy Relief

| Rev. WILLIAM H. LEWIS, D.D. | |
| Rev. JAMES GOODWIN | Mr. BENJAMIN R. ENGLISH |

On motion of the Rev. Samuel R. Colladay, it was Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be and hereby is authorized to borrow a sum not exceeding One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) for the use of the Diocese.

On motion of the Rev. E. Campion Acheson, it was

Resolved, That the Report of the Sunday School Auxiliary to the Board of Missions for Connecticut, and the statement of its Treasurer, when ready, be accepted and printed with the Journal.

The Rev. Dr. Seymour reported verbally for the Committee appointed to coöperate with the General Board of Missions.

stating that they had notified each Archdeaconry of the sum required of it in order to meet the total Apportionment to the Diocese.

On motion of the Rev. William A. Beardsley, it was Resolved, That the President again appoint this Committee, with power to make Apportionments.

The President subsequently appointed as

On motion of Mr. Richard L. deZeng, it was Resolved, That the matter of the care and holding of the endowments and trust funds of the several Parishes and Societies of the Diocese be referred to the Finance Committee together with the Committee on Canons, in joint Committee, to formulate and present to the next Annual Convention a new law for the Diocese, whereby the security of said funds against any possible misuse may be made positive.

On motion of the Rev. R. H. Gesner, it was

Resolved, That the Secretary be authorized to print 1600 copies of the Journal; one copy to be sent to each Clergyman, Candidate for Holy Orders, and Officer of the Diocese, including the Directors of the various Diocesan Societies and the Boards of Trustees; one copy to each Lay Member of this Convention; one copy to each Warden, Clerk and Treasurer of the several Parishes; fifty copies to the Registrar of the Diocese; one copy to any Public Library which may desire the same; and the remainder to be distributed at the Secretary's discretion.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Gesner, it was Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the Rev. Henry Ferguson, LL.D., for the Sermon delivered at the opening service.

On motion of the Rev. Joseph Hooper, it was Resolved, That Mr. Frederick S. Weld, the Choir Master of St. Paul's Church, and those who assisted him in rendering the music at the opening service of this Convention, be and are hereby tendered hearty thanks; and that the wish is hereby expressed that music of a like character may be provided for the services at future Conventions.

On motion, it was also

Resolved, That thanks are hereby tendered to the Churchmen of New Haven, and especially to the ladies of the various Parishes, for the generous hospitality extended to the Clergy and Lay Delegates during the session of this Convention.

Resolved, That thanks are also due and are hereby tendered to the Rector and Vestry of St. Paul's Church, New Haven, for the use of the Church during the session of this Convention.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention be tendered to the officers of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, for their courtesy in the provision of return tickets at reduced rates; and that the Secretary be instructed to communicate this vote to the proper officers.

On motion, it was then

Resolved, That after the reading of the Minutes, and the customary devotions, the Convention adjourn sine die.

The President having called the Rev. Dr. Seymour to the chair, the Minutes were read and approved.

Hymn 417 was sung: the Bishop offered Prayer and gave the Benediction; and the Convention adjourned sine die.

CHAUNCEY B. BREWSTER, D.D.,

President of the Convention.

Attest:

FREDERICK W. HARRIMAN,

Secretary.

CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I. The Diocese of Connecticut, as a constituent part of the body known as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, accedes to, recognizes, and adopts the General Constitution of that Church, and acknowledges its authority accordingly.

ARTICLE II. There shall be a Convention of the Diocese on the second Tuesday of June in each year at such place as shall be appointed by the Bishop or, in case of a vacancy in the episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE III. The Bishop shall call a Special Convention whensoever he shall be requested by the Standing Committee.

In case of a vacancy in the episcopate, unless it occur within two months of the time appointed for the Annual Convention, the Standing Committee shall call a Special Convention for the election of a Bishop.

The Bishop or the Standing Committee shall direct the Secretary to give public notice of the meeting of any Convention, and to send notice of any Special Convention by mail to all the Clergy and Lay Delegates.

ARTICLE IV. The members of any Convention shall be the Bishop and all Clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese not under discipline, and Lay Delegates from the several Parishes of the Diocese; provided, however, that no Clergyman shall be entitled to vote for a Bishop unless he have been canonically resident in the Diocese for at least one year.

Each Parish in the Diocese shall at its annual meeting elect, from the male Communicants of the same, one Lay Delegate to the Convention; and, if it consist of more than fifty families, it shall elect two Delegates; who shall represent the Parish at all Conventions held within the year succeeding their election. Any Parish may elect substitutes to take the place of such Delegates as are unable to attend any Convention.

If any Parish be composed of two or more congregations and have a corresponding number of Church edifices, such Parish shall be entitled to elect a Delegate or Delegates from each of such congregations, as from so many distinct Parishes.

ARTICLE V. The Bishop is the President of any Convention; but in case of his absence or of a vacancy in the episcopate, the Convention shall be called to order by the President of the Standing Committee, and shall thereupon elect its own President.

One-third of all the clerical members of the Convention and Lay Delegates representing thirty Parishes shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; but a smaller number may adjourn.

ARTICLE VI. The clerical and the lay members of a Convention shall sit and deliberate in one body; and every question, unless it be otherwise provided in this Constitution, shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present; provided, however, that in any case when it is requested by five members, the two orders shall vote separately, and a concurrence of the two orders shall determine the vote of the Convention.

ARTICLE VII. A Secretary of the Diocese shall be chosen by ballot at the opening of each annual Convention, who shall continue in office until his successor has been elected.

A Treasurer of the Diocese shall be chosen by the Convention, to hold office until his successor has been elected at an Annual Convention. The Treasurer shall present a report to each Annual Convention.

In case of a vacancy in the office of Secretary or of Treasurer, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall have power to fill such vacancy until the meeting of the next Annual Convention.

ARTICLE VIII. The Standing Committee of the Diocese shall be chosen at each Annual Convention, to consist of five clerical members of the Convention, and the Committee shall continue in office until another election has been made.

The Standing Committee shall meet within ten days after its election and choose from its own number a President and a Secretary. Any three members of the Committee, the whole having been summoned by the President, shall be a quorum, unless in any case it be otherwise required by the Canons of the General Convention.

In case of a vacancy in the Standing Committee, the remaining members shall have power to fill such vacancy until the next Annual Convention.

ARTICLE IX. The election of a Bishop shall be in the following manner: after nominations made in open Convention, the two orders shall separate, and each order shall elect its own Chairman and Secretary. The Clergy shall then choose by ballot some fit and qualified person for the office of Bishop, and shall communicate their choice to the President of the Convention and to the Lay Delegates. The Lay Delegates shall thereupon vote by ballot upon the approval of the choice thus made by the Clergy, and shall communicate the result of this vote to the President of the Convention. The President shall then reassemble the Convention and declare the result of the votes; and if the person chosen by the Clergy has been approved by the Lay Delegates, he shall be declared to be duly elected.

The election of a Bishop shall be determined by a majority in each order; provided, that if less than two-thirds of all the Clergy entitled to vote are present, two-thirds of the votes in each order shall be necessary to determine the election.

ARTICLE X. Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention shall be elected by ballot, and by the concurrent vote of the two orders voting separately, at the Annual Convention next preceding any stated General Convention; and the Deputies thus elected shall continue in office for three years. An equal number of Supplemental Deputies shall also be appointed in the same manner; from whom, in the order of priority of election, the Bishop, or in case of a vacancy in the episcopate, the President of the Standing Committee, shall fill vacancies which may occur among the Deputies before or during the sitting of the General Convention.

In case any Deputy or Supplemental Deputy decline his appointment, he shall give reasonable notice thereof to the Ecclesiastical Authority.

ARTICLE XI. No Clergyman shall receive any public censure from the Bishop or the Standing Committee unless he have been adjudged thereto in the manner provided for by Canon.

ARTICLE XII. This Constitution shall not be amended in any article unless the amendment shall have been proposed and approved at an Annual Convention, published at large in its Journal, and adopted at the next Annual Convention by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

CANONS

CANON I.—Of the Organization and Conduct of Parishes, and of their Members and Officers

SECTION 1. Parishes may be constituted, on the application of parties interested, by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee. But if application be made for the formation of a new Parish within the limits of an existing Parish or Parishes, the Rector and Vestry of said Parish or Parishes shall be notified of such application, by the Standing Committee.

The site of any existing Church or Chapel shall not be changed by any Parish without the approval of the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee; and notification of application for such change of site shall be given by the Standing Committee to the Rector and Vestry of any other Parish or Parishes within the same town or city.

SEC. 2. When permission to form a new Parish has been granted, the Standing Committee shall transmit to the applicants with the certificate of permission (1) a form of organizing the Parish, (2) a form of recording the action of the first meeting of such Parish, and (3) a form of application for admission into union with the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut. The act of organization, executed in accordance with form (1), shall be entered in full upon the records of the Parish, and attested by the Clerk as the original act, or a true copy thereof, as the case may be. The three forms above named shall be in substance as follows:

(1.) We, the subscribers, residents of the town of _____, in the County of _____, in the State of Connecticut, do hereby unite to form and do hereby form ourselves and our successors into an Ecclesiastical Society under the Constitution and Laws of said State and under the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Connecticut, for the purpose of supporting the

Worship of Almighty God according to the Doctrine, Discipline and Liturgy of said Church in these United States, said Society to be known in law as

Parish in the Town of _____, in the County of _____, and State of Connecticut.

In Witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this _____ day of _____, A.D. 19 ____.

(2.) At a legal meeting of _____ Parish, in the Town of _____, held on the _____ day of _____, 19 ____, A. B. was duly elected and sworn in as the Parish Clerk; and C. D. and E. F. were elected Church Wardens; and G. H., I. J., etc., Vestrymen of said Parish for the ensuing year.

At the same time it was resolved that this Parish apply to be admitted into union with the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Connecticut, and that K. L. be chosen Agent of this Parish to ask for such admission; and, if the application be granted, then and there to represent this Parish in the said Convention as its Delegate.

(3.) To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Connecticut.—The subscriber respectfully sheweth that he has been appointed Agent and Delegate for the purposes specified in the following extracts from the minutes of the Parish of _____, in the Town of _____, to wit:

"At the lawful meeting of the Parish of _____, in the Town of _____, State of Connecticut, held on the _____ day of _____, 19 ____, it was resolved that this Parish apply to be admitted into union with the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Connecticut, and that K. L. be chosen Agent of this Parish to ask for such admission; and, if the application be granted, then and there to represent this Parish in the said Convention as its Delegate."

Extract from the minutes. Attest, _____ A. B., Parish Clerk.

And now, in pursuance of said agency, the subscriber submits to the Convention an attested copy of the act of organization of said Parish, taken from the record of their proceedings; and applies in the name and behalf of said Parish of _____, in the Town of _____, that it be admitted into union with this Convention.

Dated at _____, on the _____ day of _____, 19 ____.

Signed, _____ K. L., Agent and Delegate.

SEC. 3. All persons who under the existing laws are members of any of the Ecclesiastical Societies or Parishes belonging to the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese, are hereby recognized as such, and entitled so to be and remain, with all the privileges and subject to all the duties of such membership. Rectors of Parishes for the time being shall be considered as members of their respective Parishes.

SEC. 4. Any baptized person of the age of twenty-one years not a member of any other ecclesiastical society in this State, desiring to become a member of any Parish in this Diocese, shall sign and lodge with the Clerk or any other officer of said Parish a written declaration of his desire to become a member thereof, in which declaration he shall express his attachment to the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States; and this declaration shall be made and lodged with the Clerk or other officer before the annual meeting of the Parish, and shall be read at said meeting; and the name of each applicant shall be voted upon separately by ballot at said meeting; upon the final adjournment of which, all such applicants as have received a majority of the votes cast shall become members of the Parish.

SEC. 5. When any person has become and is a member of any Parish, he shall remain such until and unless the relationship be terminated by one of the modes following:

- (1.) By death.
- (2.) By removal from the Parish; the fact to be determined in each case by the Vestry, as provided below in Section 7.
- (3.) By written notice of withdrawal lodged with the Parish Clerk.
- (4.) By repulsion from the Holy Communion.
- (5.) By a vote of two-thirds of the members present at an annual meeting, upon proof that a member has been convicted of crime under any Statute Law of this State or of the United States; provided that notice of the proposed action shall have been given to such member, either personally or by letter addressed to him at his residence or last known place of residence, by the Vestry of the Parish, at least fifteen days before the time of said annual meeting.

SEC. 6. The officers of a Parish shall be a Rector, a Vestry composed of two Wardens and such number of Vestrymen as the Parish shall determine, a Clerk and a Treasurer, who may be members of the Vestry; and the Rector shall be Chairman ex-officio of the Vestry.

The members of the Vestry, the Clerk and the Treasurer, shall be elected by ballot at the annual Parish meeting from the members of the Parish, and shall hold office for one year, and until others are chosen and qualified; and vacancies occurring by death or otherwise in any of the said offices during the course of the year, may be filled at a special Parish meeting, duly called.

SEC. 7. The Parish Clerk shall be Clerk of the Vestry ex-officio; shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties; shall make and preserve a full record of the proceedings of all Parish meetings and of the meetings of the Vestry; shall, under the supervision of the Vestry, keep an accurate roll of the legal members of the Parish, and have such roll present at every Parish meeting; and shall be custodian of the files, records and archives of the Parish.

The Vestry of each Parish shall from time to time, and always within one month preceding the annual Parish meeting, revise the roll of the members of the Parish in accordance with the provisions of this Canon.

SEC. 8. The property and all affairs of the Parish shall be subject to the direction, management and control of the Vestry, except that the election and resignation of a Rector, the amount of his salary, the disposition of the real estate of the Parish, and the borrowing and loaning of money shall not be within the control of the Vestry, unless by special vote of the Parish.

SEC. 9. There shall be an annual meeting of the members of every Parish on Easter Monday, or some other day appointed by vote of the Parish, for the purpose of electing the Wardens and Vestrymen, Clerk and Treasurer, and of transacting such other business as may legally come before such meeting.

Special Parish meetings shall be called by a vote of the Vestry, or upon the written request of five members of the Parish.

The warnings of all Parish meetings shall be signed by the Clerk, or, in his absence, by one of the Wardens, and shall be posted at the door of the Parish Church, or sent by the Clerk to every member of the Parish, at least one week before the time of meeting.

The warnings of all Parish meetings, except the annual meeting, shall contain a statement of the objects for which the meeting is called; and at all meetings the Rector of the Parish, if he be present, shall preside.

SEC. 10. Any Parish desiring to terminate or to suspend its parochial organization, may do so by vote of two-thirds of the members present at a Parish meeting legally warned for that purpose, with the approval of and under such conditions as shall be required by the Bishop and Standing Committee.

CANON II.—Of Parochial Registers and Reports

SEC. 1. In order to give effect to Title I., Canon 20, § v. of the Digest, it is hereby required that every Minister of this Church shall keep a Register of all the baptisms, marriages and funerals solemnized by him, specifying the names of the parties married, of those baptized, and of their sponsors, and of the persons buried, and the time when each rite was performed. If the Minister be in charge of a Parish, he shall make these entries in the Parish Register; and he shall also enter therein the names of persons confirmed, and shall keep in the said Register a list of the Communicants and a list of the families belonging to the Parish; which Register, in case of the Minister's removal from the Parish, shall be deposited with one of the Wardens; and in such case, the Wardens shall cause all needful entries to be made in the Register until the Parish shall be again in charge of a Clergyman.

SEC. 2. Names of persons removing from one Parish or Congregation to another within the Diocese shall not be entered on the list of Communicants in the Parish or Congregation to which the persons remove until they shall have presented to the Rector or Minister, or to the Wardens, if there be no Rector or Minister, the certificate required by Title II., Canon XII., Section 1, of the Digest. Nor shall such names be stricken from the list of Communicants in the Parish or Congregation from which the persons remove until the Rector or Minister or Wardens of that Parish shall receive from the Rector or Minister or Wardens of the Parish or Congregation to which such persons have removed, a duly authenticated certificate that the names have been entered in the Register of that Parish or Congregation; and it shall be the duty of said Rector or Minister or Wardens to transmit such certificate within one month of such entry.

Any Rector or Minister in charge of a Parish may transfer to another Parish a Communicant who has attended the services of said Parish for two years, said Communicant having first consented to such transfer, or having made no objection after due notice of such intended transfer.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church having a Parish, or if a Parish be vacant, the Wardens, shall present or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement in the form following:

In the foregoing form, by "Communicants admitted" are meant all persons who having been confirmed, or being "ready and desirous to be confirmed," shall have received the Holy Communion.

No name shall be dropped from the Parish Register for the reason that the person is not reckoned a present Communicant for the purpose of the annual report.

The items under the head of "Financial Report" shall be, as far as possible, for the last financial year of the Parish.

SEC. 4. The Minister or Wardens shall further report all other matters that may throw light on the state of the Parish.

Every other Clergyman, not regularly settled in any Parish or Church, shall report the occasional services he may have performed; and if he have performed no such services, the causes or reasons which have prevented the same. These reports, or such parts of them as the Bishop shall think fit, may be read in Convention, and shall be entered on the Journals thereof.

It shall be the duty of the Church Wardens of each Parish, immediately after the annual meeting of the Parish, to report to the Bishop the value of the Church property, the salary paid the Rector or officiating Minister, and the indebtedness of the Parish.

SEC. 5. At every visitation, the Minister of the Parish, or the Wardens, if the Parish be vacant, shall submit the Parish Register to the Bishop for his inspection.

SEC. 6. The basis of financial assessments laid by the Convention upon the several Parishes, unless otherwise specially ordered, shall be the amount reported for the preceding year for "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," being the first item in the Parochial Reports under "Parochial Expenditures."

CANON III.—Of Offences for which Ministers can be tried

Every Minister shall be liable to presentment and trial for crime or immorality; for holding and teaching publicly or privately, and advisedly, any doctrine contrary to that held by the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; for violation of the Constitution or Canons of the General Convention, or of this Diocese; for a persistent disregard of the order of this Church in the use of the Book of Common Prayer; or for conduct unbecoming a Clergyman of this Church. On being found guilty he shall be admonished, suspended, or degraded, according to Canon IV. of this Diocese, entitled "Of the Trial of a Clergyman."

CANON IV.—Of the Trial of a Clergyman

SEC. 1. In order to bring a Clergyman to trial, a charge shall be made in the first place to the Standing Committee, in writing, under the proper signature of at least two Communicants of this Diocese, one of whom shall be a Presbyterian. If the Standing Committee shall deem the offence charged as coming within the offences enumerated in the Canons of the Diocese of Connecticut, or of the General Convention, they shall present the charge to the Bishop in the following form:

To A. B., Bishop of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Standing Committee of this Diocese respectfully represent that C. D. has been accused under the hands of E. F. and G. H. of [here recite the charge or charges], and the Committee are of opinion that there is sufficient ground for presenting the said C. D. for trial, agreeably to the Canons in such cases made and provided.

[Signed by the Standing Committee.]

SEC. 2. Upon the receipt of the foregoing presentment, the Bishop shall summon nine Presbyters to meet, not within ninety days, at some place within the County where the accused shall reside or officiate for the time being; not less than five of whom shall constitute a Court for the trial of the charge or charges; and the accused may object to any two of such members, at his discretion, and to any for cause or favor, the sufficiency of which objection for cause or favor shall be determined by the other persons so summoned; or if by reason of such objections the number shall be reduced below five, the Bishop shall designate Presbyters to supply such vacancies. The Standing Committee shall have the same right to object, provided they exercise the right alternately with the accused, he being allowed the first privilege. All of such Presbyters not objected to or found disqualified shall sit as a Court.

SEC. 3. The Bishop shall forthwith furnish to the Standing Committee and to the accused a list of the Presbyters summoned to constitute the Court, accompanied with a notice of the time and place of the meeting of the Court. The Standing Committee shall act as prosecutors in the case, and at least sixty days before the trial shall furnish the accused with a copy of the presentment, notice of the time and place of trial, and a specification of the facts on which they expect to maintain the charges. And the accused, at least thirty days before the trial, shall furnish the Standing Committee with a statement of the ground of his defence on each specification.

SEC. 4. At the time fixed for the trial, the members of the Court shall assemble and choose a President from their own number, and a Secretary, either from their own number or otherwise, as they shall see fit; and they shall, before they proceed, adopt and declare the rules by which the trial shall be conducted. A member of the legal profession, who is a Communicant of this Church and a resident in this Diocese, shall be selected by the Court as assessor, who shall sit with and advise the Court upon all legal questions that may arise, whether in regard to the admission of evidence or other points, but shall not be entitled to vote upon charges contained in the presentment.

SEC. 5. If the accused shall appear, the Court shall proceed to the trial on the presentment, and shall adjudge him guilty, or not guilty, according to the evidence; and if he be found guilty, the Court shall declare to the Bishop to what ecclesiastical censure he ought, in their judgment, to be subjected. But if he shall neglect or refuse to appear, or to answer in person, according to the notice served on him as aforesaid, except for some reasonable cause to be allowed by the Court, they shall proceed to pronounce him in contumacy, and thereupon the Bishop shall suspend him from the functions of the Ministry. And if he shall not appear within six months, the Bishop shall proceed to depose him from the Ministry of this Church.

SEC. 6. The Secretary shall keep a record of all the proceedings, which shall contain a copy of the presentment, of the specifications, of the notice to the accused, and of his answer, with a statement of all the evidence, both oral and written, and the final judgment of the Court; and an attested copy of this record shall be forthwith delivered to the Bishop. If the judgment be not guilty, the Bishop shall give a certificate of acquittal to the accused, embracing a copy of the presentment and specifications; and the accused shall not be subjected to a second trial on the same charges. If the Court judge him guilty, on one or more points at issue, the Bishop may disapprove the judgment and order a new trial, stating his grounds for such a decision; or he may approve the judgment; and in that case he shall, within thirty days, proceed to such ecclesiastical censure as the case may, in his judgment, require, whether it be admonition, suspension, or degradation from the Ministry; provided the penalty be not greater than that expressed in the judgment of the Court.

SEC. 7. Every summons, notice, or citation mentioned in these proceedings shall be deemed to be duly served, by the delivery of a written notice or paper to the person to be summoned, notified, cited, or by leaving it, or a certified copy of it, at his residence, or last known residence, by a person duly appointed in writing by the Bishop, Standing Committee, or Court, as the case may require.

CANON V.—Of Clerical Settlement and Removal

SEC. 1. On the election of a Minister into any Church or Parish, the Vestry shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Bishop, or where there is no Bishop to the Standing Committee, notice of the same, in the following form or to this effect:

"We, the Church Wardens [or, in case of an Assistant Minister, We, the Rector and Church Wardens] do certify to the Right Rev. [naming the Bishop, or to the Rev., naming the President of the Standing Committee] that [naming the person] has been duly chosen Rector [or Assistant Minister, as the case may be] of [naming the Parish or Church or Churches]" ; which certificate shall be signed by those who certify.

SEC. 2. When the rectorship of any Parish becomes vacant, it shall be the duty of the Church Wardens forthwith to give notice thereof to the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese.

SEC. 3. No Clergyman shall enter upon the rectorship of any Parish within this Diocese, or shall change his parochial cure within the Diocese, until he shall have obtained the written permission of the Bishop, or, if there be no Bishop, of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.—Of the Records of the Standing Committee

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Standing Committee to keep a journal of its proceedings, which shall be subject to the inspection of the Convention, and to prepare an abstract of the journal each year, under the direction of the Committee, and present the same to the annual Convention. The abstract shall specify the time and place of each meeting of the Committee during the year; the number present; the names of persons recommended to the Bishop to be admitted Candidates for Holy Orders, or to be ordained Deacons or Priests; and the substance of all other matters which shall have been brought before them; and such abstract shall be entered on the Journals of the Convention, and published therewith.

CANON VII.—Of Parochial Collections

There shall be made in each Parish in this Diocese at least two collections annually for the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut, one for the Church Scholarship Society, and one for the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen. And the Treasurers of the different funds shall furnish the Secretary of the Convention with a report of the collections, to be published in the Journal.

CANON VIII.—Of the Roll of the Convention

The Bishop and Standing Committee, or in case of a vacancy in the episcopate the Standing Committee, shall, before the meeting of any Convention, prepare a roll of the Clergymen entitled to seats, to be used at the organization of the Convention.

The Clerks of the several Parishes shall, immediately after the election of Lay Delegates, transmit to the Secretary of the Diocese a certificate of such election, adding the names of substitutes for Delegates, if any such have been elected; and the Secretary, with two laymen appointed by the President at the preceding annual Convention, shall thereupon prepare a roll of the Lay Delegates, to be used at the organization of the Convention.

At the opening of any Convention, after Divine Service, the President having taken the chair, the Secretary shall call the rolls of the Clergy and of the Lay Delegates which have been prepared in accordance with the preceding paragraphs of this Canon; and if a constitutional quorum of those appearing to be entitled to seats in both orders is present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business.

CANON IX.—Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen

SEC. 1. The Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, the Treasurer of the Convention, together with five Clergymen and four Laymen appointed by the Convention, shall constitute the Trustees of the Fund, and shall hold, manage and control said Fund, and apply it at their discretion toward the support or relief of the aged and infirm Clergymen who shall have resided in the Diocese and been in the actual discharge of the duties of the Ministry for a period of not less than five years; and of the widows and orphans of Clergymen who shall have resided in the Diocese and been in the actual discharge of the duties of the Ministry for a period of not less than five years.

SEC. 2. The Trustees shall make an annual report to the Convention, stating the amount received and expended each year, and the general condition of the Fund.

CANON X.—Of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund

SEC. 1. The Trustees of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund shall appoint a layman of this Diocese to be Treasurer of the Fund, who shall continue in office during their pleasure.

SEC. 2. Any Clergyman of this Diocese who shall have attained the age of sixty-five years, and shall not be in receipt of a stated salary, shall be entitled to the benefits of this Fund; provided, that he shall have been canonically resident in this Diocese and in the actual discharge of the duties of the Ministry for the ten years immediately preceding his application for the benefits of the Fund.

SEC. 3. All applications for the benefit of this Fund shall be made in writing to the Treasurer thereof before the first day of June in each year.

SEC. 4. Each Parish in this Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of this Fund, before the first day of June in each year, fifty cents for every one hundred dollars of its current expenses, as defined in Canon II., Section 6.

SEC. 5. Of the amounts paid by Parishes in each year, under Section 4 of this Canon, one-half shall be reserved and securely invested as part of the principal of the Fund; to which shall also be added, when not otherwise designated, all special offerings from Parishes, and gifts, donations, or legacies from individuals.

SEC. 6. The other half of the amounts paid by Parishes in each year, under Section 4 of this Canon, shall be added to the income of the principal of the Fund, as received up to the first day of June in each year, and the sum shall be divided, before the first day of July in each year, in equal shares among the Clergymen entitled to the benefits of this Fund, under Sections 2 and 3 of this Canon; provided, that the share of each Clergyman shall not exceed five hundred dollars in any one year; provided, also, that no Clergyman shall be a beneficiary of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund who is also a beneficiary of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen.

SEC. 7. All income not expended shall be added each year to the principal of the Fund until the said principal shall have reached the amount of one hundred thousand dollars; and when this limit shall have been reached, all surplus income of this Fund not required for the purposes of Section 6 of this Canon, or for other necessary expenses, shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows and Orphans of Clergymen, to be applied for the purposes of said Fund.

CANON XI.—Of Diocesan Missions

SEC. 1. For its missionary work the Diocese shall be divided into six Districts, to be called Archdeaconries, as follows, viz.:

1. Fairfield, comprising Fairfield County;
2. Litchfield, comprising Litchfield County;
3. New Haven, comprising New Haven County;
4. Hartford, comprising Hartford County, and the towns of Somers, Ellington, Vernon and Bolton, in Tolland County;
5. Middlesex, comprising Middlesex County;
6. New London, comprising New London and Windham Counties, and also the towns of Mansfield, Willington, Union, Stafford, Columbia, Tolland, Coventry, Andover and Hebron, in Tolland County.

SEC. 2. Each District shall be represented by the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, together with the Lay Delegates to the last annual Diocesan Convention from each Parish.

The presiding officer shall be an Archdeacon appointed by the Bishop, from the Clergy of the District, on nomination made by a vote of the District at its annual meeting; and his term of office shall be four years. In case of a vacancy in the office by removal from the Archdeaconry or other cause, a nomination to fill the vacancy until the next annual meeting shall be made at a regular meeting, after due notice given, or at a special meeting called by the Bishop at the request of two Presbyters.

A Secretary and a Treasurer shall be annually elected by ballot, at the first stated meeting after the Diocesan Convention, from among the residents of the District, who shall hold office until their successors are appointed, and shall be entitled to vote at all meetings of the Archdeaconry. If the Archdeaconry so order, the office of Secretary and that of Treasurer may be held by the same person. Any vacancy in the office of Secretary or Treasurer shall be filled by appointment of the Archdeacon until the next regular meeting.

SEC. 3. The Archdeacon shall, subject to the Bishop, have the charge and oversight of all the Missions in the Archdeaconry; and, in the absence of the Bishop, shall preside at all the meetings of the Archdeaconry. It shall be his duty, with the advice and approval of the Bishop, to appoint the Missionaries, and such lay helpers at each Mission as may be necessary to assist in temporal matters. It shall be his duty, either personally or by deputy, to visit each Mission, aided Parish, and unoccupied town; and the necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of this duty shall be defrayed by the Archdeaconry. The Archdeacon shall present a report of the condition and progress of missionary work in the District each year to the Board of Directors at its annual meeting immediately before the Diocesan Convention.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep the records of the Archdeaconry; and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to receive contributions from the Parishes, and to forward to the Treasurer of the Missionary Society the amount required of the Archdeaconry less the amount appropriated by the Board to the Archdeaconry; to keep and account for the money of the Archdeaconry, paying out only such sums as he shall be authorized to pay by a regular meeting; and to present each year to the Board of Directors, at its annual meeting, above mentioned, a report of his receipts and disbursements during the year past.

SEC. 4. Each Archdeaconry shall have control and distribution of the money received from the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society in aid of Mission Stations and feeble Parishes; shall apportion among its several Parishes and Missions the sums from time to time desired of it by the Board of Directors; and may at its own discretion, with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special missionary work, and raise funds for such purposes, provided it shall first have complied with the requirements of the Directors of the Missionary Society.

SEC. 5. Each District shall hold stated meetings for the transaction of its business, and no Apportionments or Appropriations shall be made except at these meetings; and the annual meeting of each District shall be the first stated meeting after the annual Diocesan Convention.

It shall be the duty of each Clergyman, unless prevented by grave and reasonable cause, to attend the regular meetings, and to report all missionary work done in his cure.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of every Missionary and every Rector of a Parish aided by the Archdeaconry, to report to the Archdeacon on or before the first of May in each year, the number of services held in his cure, the number of pastoral visits paid, the number of baptisms, confirmations, and admissions to the Holy Communion, and the amount contributed by each congregation, all since the date of his last annual report, with such other matters as may throw light on the condition and progress of his work; and also to send to the Archdeacon, in the months of January and September of each year, a brief general statement of similar purport.

SEC. 7. No Missionary Station shall be established without the approval of the Bishop, who shall also have power to remove Missionaries; and no Appropriation shall be made by the District in aid of any organized Parish, except on the application of the Wardens and Vestrymen of said Parish, with the written consent and approval of the Minister, if there be one; and no Appropriation shall be made by any Archdeaconry in aid of any organized Parish, except on the condition that such Parish shall concede a portion of the time and services of its Rector to other work under the direction of the Archdeaconry, and comply with any other condition that by the Archdeaconry may be required of it.

CANON XII.—Repealing former Canons

All former Canons of this Diocese, not included in these Canons, are hereby repealed.

The Secretary shall make such changes in the numbering of Canons or Sections, or in references to Canons or Sections, as may be required at any time by resolutions of amendment to the Canons adopted by the Convention.

ATTESTATION

I certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Connecticut as amended at sundry times to June 15, 1904.

FREDERICK W. HARRIMAN,
Secretary of the Diocese.

ARTICLE 1. This Society shall be called the "Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut."

ART. 2. The members of the Church in this Diocese shall constitute this Society; and it shall be represented by the Convention.

ART. 3. The Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex-officio President of the Society; and the Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, the Treasurer of the Society, and six Clergymen, who shall be the Archdeacons of the several Districts, and six laymen, to be appointed by the Convention, shall constitute the Board of Directors.

Six members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

This Board shall receive and disburse the funds of the Society.

ART. 4. There shall be a meeting of the Board, for organization, on the last day of the session of the Convention, at which time a Secretary and Treasurer shall be appointed.

Regular meetings of the Board shall be held on such days and at such places as the Board may appoint; and special meetings, for the transaction of any business, may be held at such times and places as the Bishop, upon the written application of two (2) members of the Board, may designate.

ART. 5. The Board shall make an annual report of its appropriations and other proceedings, to the Convention; and the Treasurer shall also make a report of the state of the funds, including the names of the several Parishes which annually contribute, with the amount of their contributions; and also a statement of any donations received from individuals; which reports, or so much of them as the Convention may direct, shall be entered on the Journals.

ART. 6. No alteration shall be made in this Constitution, without having been proposed to the Convention at least one day before it is acted upon; and the Convention alone shall have power to make alterations.

RULES OF ORDER OF THE ANNUAL CONVENTION

RULE I. After Divine Service the President shall take the chair, and the Convention having been organized for business in accordance with Canon VIII., the order of procedure shall be as follows:

(1.) The election of a Secretary, and, in case of a vacancy, of a Treasurer.

(2.) Resolutions of amendment of the Rules of Order.

(3.) Report of Committee to prepare the Roll of Lay Delegates.

(4.) The appointment, by the President, of three Committees of the Convention, viz.: a Committee on the Admission of New Parishes; a Committee on the Constitution and Canons, to consist each of five members, three Clergymen and two laymen; and a Committee on Finance, to consist of three members, one Clergyman and two laymen.

(5.) The appointment by the President of a Committee to report vacancies in any of the Boards of Trustees elected by the Convention, and to nominate persons to fill the same, and also persons to be elected Diocesan Members of the Missionary Council.

(6.) The presentation by the Secretary of a report of the business remaining unfinished at the last Convention.

(7.) The reception and reference of papers concerning the Admission of New Parishes.

(8.) Presentation of Parochial and Clerical Reports; Report of the Treasurer; Report of the Trustees of the Bishop's Fund; Report of the Trustees of Donations and Bequests for Church Purposes; Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy and Widows; Report of the Trustees of the Clergyman's Retiring Fund; Report of the Registrar of the Diocese; abstracts of which only shall be read, unless otherwise ordered by the Convention.

(9.) Presentation of the Abstract of the Proceedings of the Standing Committee.

(10.) Notices of motions or resolutions which are to be introduced as New Business; motions of reference to Committees of the Convention named in clause (4); presentation of Reports of Committees appointed at last Convention; motions for Special Orders of the day.

(11.) RECESS.

(12.) The Report of the Committee on the Admission of New Parishes; the Admission of the Parishes, and the Reception of their Lay Delegates.

(13.) The Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he shall prefer to present it at some other time.

(14.) The election of the Standing Committee. And in this election each member of the Convention may vote for five persons at one ballot, and the five persons who receive the highest number of votes shall be declared elected; provided, that no person shall be declared so elected unless he receive a majority of the whole vote cast. If less than the whole number be thus elected, the Convention shall proceed to ballot for the remainder.

(15.) The election of Deputies and Supplemental Deputies to the next General Convention (once in three years).

(16.) The Business of the Missionary Society of the Diocese, including the nomination and appointment of the Board of Directors.

(17.) The Business of the Episcopal Academy.

(18.) The Business of the Church Scholarship Society.

(19.) The Report of the Committee on Finance; Report of the Committee on the Constitution and Canons; Report of Committee appointed to nominate persons to fill vacancies in the Diocesan Boards of Trustees, to be followed by their election; Reports of other Special Committees.

(20.) Miscellaneous Business.

RULE II. On the second and any subsequent day, after Divine Service, the order of business shall be as follows:

(1.) Reading and approving of the Minutes.

(2.) The disposal of the unfinished business of the Convention, in the order above prescribed for the first day; the business, however, which was under consideration at the time of the adjournment of the Convention to be first disposed of.

RULE III. When the President takes the chair, no member shall continue standing, or shall afterwards stand, unless to address the chair.

RULE IV. When any member is about to speak in debate, or present any matter to the Convention, he shall rise from his seat, and, with due respect, address himself to the President.

RULE V. No member shall speak more than twice in the same debate, nor on a question of appeal more than once, without leave of the Convention.

RULE VI. A question being once determined, shall stand as the judgment of the Convention, and shall not again be drawn into debate during the session, unless with the consent of two-thirds of the members present, upon a motion to reconsider, made by one of the majority on the first decision.

RULE VII. Every member present shall vote when a question is put, unless excused by the Convention.

RULE VIII. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless it be seconded and reduced to writing when required, and announced by the Chair.

RULE IX. When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received except to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a certain time, to commit or to amend; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named.

RULE X. Motions to lay upon the table and to commit shall be decided without debate.

RULE XI. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order when no member is speaking, and, if unqualified, shall be decided without debate.

RULE XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made; no after amendment to such second amendment shall be in order; but a substitute for such second amendment or a substitute for the whole matter, may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

RULE XIII. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, with the consent of the Convention; in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

RULE XIV. If the question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately; except that a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

RULE XV. In elections by ballot, all votes cast for eligible candidates are to be counted, whether such candidates have been nominated or not; but blank ballots shall not be counted, unless it be necessary to determine a quorum.

RULE XVI. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President unless otherwise ordered.

RULE XVII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion. They shall be entered upon the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution for its consideration.

RULE XVIII. No printed matter of any kind shall be distributed in the Convention or placed in the seats, except by the authority of the President or the Secretary.

RULE XIX. No rule of order shall be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without notice at the first morning session of a motion to that effect, and by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

RULE XX. Before the final adjournment of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read, corrected, and approved.

RULE XXI. The presiding officer of each Annual Convention shall appoint four Auditors, whose duty it shall be to examine the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, and the reports and accounts of all Boards of Trustees which hold permanent funds and are required to report to each Annual Convention; and said Auditors shall also identify the various securities in which such funds are invested. The certificate of at least two of the Auditors that they have performed their duties under this rule shall be presented to the Convention with each report and account which they are required to audit. The expenses of the Auditors shall be paid from the treasury of the Diocese.

STANDING RESOLUTIONS

In the Convention of 1886 (see Journal, page 40) it was

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese shall pay the expenses of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of this Diocese to the General Convention (see Journal of 1885, page 73) upon the order or certification of the Bishop or of the President of the Standing Committee.

In the Convention of 1892 (see Journal, page 62) it was

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint the opening services of the Convention at an hour which will permit the Convention to be called to order for business at eleven o'clock A. M.

The following Resolution was adopted in the Convention of 1894, (see Journal, page 75;) and amended in 1904, (see Journal, page 57):

Resolved, That the Treasurer be and hereby is directed to pay all orders drawn on him by the Secretary, or the Registrar, or the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of Donations and Bequests, or the Secretary of the Commission on Parochial Archives, and approved by the President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

In the Convention of 1895 (see Journal, page 65) it was

Resolved, That the Treasurer, the Secretary and the Assistant Secretary of the Convention be appointed a Committee to act in consultation with the Clergy or Committee on Hospitality in the place where the next Annual Convention is to be held.

Resolved, That this Committee be authorized to expend in their discretion a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, from the Convention Fund, for purposes of hospitality in connection with the attendance of Delegates at the Convention.

In the Convention of 1896 (see Journal, page 87) it was

Resolved, That the Rules of Order of any Convention shall be in force at the next Convention until otherwise ordered.

In the Convention of 1897 (see Journal, page 45) it was

Resolved, That the balloting in the election of a Bishop shall be conducted in the following manner: the Secretary of each order shall call the roll of the members of that order, and each member present, as his name is called, shall deposit his ballot in a box provided for the purpose.

In the Convention of 1897 (see Journal, page 70) it was

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Diocese be instructed to prepare from such information, sufficiently attested, as may from time to time be furnished him, and to publish in the Journal every fifth year, beginning with the year 1900, a list of Parishes the names of which have been changed, wholly or in part, since the date of their organization, setting forth the said changes, with the dates thereof, as far as they can be ascertained.

In the Convention of 1899 (see Journal, page 68) it was

Resolved, That the salary of the Secretary of the Diocese be fixed at Three Hundred Dollars.

In the Convention of 1900 (see Journal, page 72) it was

Resolved, That this Convention disapproves of applause in a consecrated building.

APPENDIX B.

Report of the Registrar

To the Convention of the Diocese of Connecticut, to be holden on the second Tuesday in June, 1904.

The Registrar of the Diocese begs leave to present his report.

There have been sent me in the course of the past year, in part upon special request, the Journal of one Diocese for 1902 (completing our set for that year), the Journals of twenty-four Dioceses and eleven Districts for 1903, and those of one Diocese and two Districts for 1904. I have also received from the Secretary Journals of many of the Dioceses and Districts for 1903. The Bishop has sent to the Archives forty-nine Journals of various Dioceses and Districts of recent dates. The Church Club of the Diocese has sent a copy of its Manual for 1904.

I am indebted to the Bishop of Vermont for twenty Journals of Connecticut and twenty-four of other Dioceses (the latter all lacking from our sets); to the Registrar of Rhode Island for eleven Journals of Rhode Island (these also lacking from our sets); and to the Rev. Professor Denslow of the General Theological Seminary for Journals of Connecticut, 1818-19, 1819 Oct., 1821-30 inclusive, bound in one volume with the reprint to 1820, and also the Journals for 1820 and 1834-1838 inclusive; also nine Journals of Ohio. I have also purchased a set of Connecticut Journals from 1792 to 1856 inclusive, those before 1820 being in reprint, once the property of the Rev. Dr. William Cooper Mead.

Miss Frances E. Cote of Marbledale has sent me a large number of Church papers of various dates, including twenty-five numbers of The [old] Churchman needed for our sets, numbers of The Calendar in the years 1847-1865 inclusive, The [present] Churchman for 1868 and 1872 complete, for 1867, 1869, 1871, and 1874 nearly complete, with part of 1870 and 1873; The [New York] Guardian for nearly four years 1879-1883; sixteen numbers of The Church of To-Day needed for our set; and many numbers of The Church Journal 1856-1878.

Mr. E. S. Gorham, of New York, has presented, from the library of the late Rev. Dr. Maxcy, The Churchman for the first half of 1876, for 1881, 1882, and 1883 complete, and for more than half of 1885. I have myself presented the numbers of The Churchman for 1903.

Our set of The Churchman being thus complete from 1876 to 1901 inclusive (twenty-six years), together with 1868, 1872, and 1903, I have had these years bound in an inexpensive but fairly substantial form, and with them The Connecticut Churchman for 1866, that they may be available for consultation. At the end of this report I add a list of numbers of The Calendar and The Churchman needed to make our sets complete, hoping that it will meet the eye of some one who can send all or part of the missing numbers. We have ten years (1851-1860) of The Calendar bound, and three others (1846, 1862, 1863) ready for binding.

The Rev. J. A. Crockett has at my request sent me four numbers needed to complete our set of The Church of To-Day, of which he was editor.

Mr. John H. Sage, of Portland, has presented a copy of the Journal of General Convention of 1829 and also volumes I. and V. of The Evergreen, bound; and Mr. Richard A. Edwards, of Portland, has presented volume IV. of The Evergreen, bound.

Mr. James Shepard, of New Britain, has presented a copy of the records of Christ Church, Newington (sometimes called Worthington, Kensington, Berlin, and Wethersfield), from 1797 to 1827, first made by the late Mr. Roger Wells, and compared with the original by the donor, with other documents relating to the Parish.

The Rev. Canon Meredith, of Crieff, Scotland, has presented two bound volumes of "American Episcopal Tracts," once belonging to the Library of St. Andrew's Church, Aberdeen, including inter alia the Journals of General Convention 1832 and 1838 with Pastoral Letters, Missionary Reports, a sermon by the Rev. William Richmond on Bishop Brownell's Mission through the Valley of the Mississippi River (London 1830), and an Appeal in Behalf of the Church Scholarship Society (Hartford 1831).

I have also received—

From Miss Edgerton, of the Curtis Home, Meriden: The New England Primer, 1821; New Manual of Devotions, Parts II. and III., London 1747; the Rev. Samuel Cooper's Massachusetts Election Sermon, 1756; and Bishop Seabury's edition of Bishop Innes's Catechism, 1791.

From the Rev. William Allen Johnson: A manuscript Sermon of the Rev. Dr. Thomas Bradbury Chandler, 1760.

From the Rev. Dr. Francis T. Russell: The Episcopal Watchman, volumes I. and II., bound; The Churchman's Magazine, 1810, bound with Presbyterian Ordination Doubtful; Bishop White's Lectures on the Catechism; the Digest of Canons, 1874; and thirteen Connecticut Journals.

From the Rev. Gouverneur M. Wilkins: Biographical Sketch of the Rev. Thomas Davies; Manual of Family Prayers from Bishop Bloomfield; and Dr. Harry Croswell's Sober Appeal to the Christian Public.

From the Rev. R. Bancroft Whipple: Official copy, 1847, of the Resolution of the General Assembly in 1762 establishing the Ecclesiastical Society of North Fairfield.

From the Rev. Dr. W. G. Andrews: Reminiscences of the Rev. Dr. Edwin Harwood.

From Mr. E. L. Johnson, of Newtown: A copy of the original publication (1821) of the Constitution of the Diocese of Connecticut.

From Mr. Edward C. Beecher, of New Haven: A volume containing autograph signatures of persons attending the Bishop Jarvis Centenary and the Consecration of Bishop Brewster, 1897.

From St. John's Parish, Hartford: The Record of the Parish, in current numbers.

From Mrs. Henry Hart, of Saybrook: Eleven Church Almanacs.

Also, the Minutes of the General Association and General Conference of Connecticut, 1903.

I have presented in the name of the Diocese—

To Mr. Edward C. Beecher, for Trinity Church Parish, New Haven: Connecticut Journals for 1826 and 1837, completing their set.

To the Registrar of the Diocese of Western New York, for its archives: Six Journals of Connecticut and thirteen of other Dioceses. To the Library of the New York Church Club: Five years and two numbers of The Spirit of Missions, two numbers of The Church Review, and two Church Almanacs.

To the Library of Congress: Two numbers of The Churchman.

To the Blackstone Library, of Branford: Fifty-eight Connecticut Journals, with the reprint to 1820.

To the Library of Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J.: Fifty-nine Connecticut Journals.

The remaining copies of the volume containing the report of the Bishop Jarvis Centenary and the Consecration of Bishop Brewster having been put at my disposal by the Committee which had charge of the publication, I offered to fifty-six of the public Libraries in the State copies of the book without charge, thinking that they would be gladly received on account of their historical value. I received replies from twenty-six of the fifty-six libraries, and to each of these I sent a copy in the name of the Diocese; ten of these libraries acknowledged the receipt of the gift. Copies of the volume were also sent to the registrars of seven Dioceses in the Eastern and Middle States.

All which is respectfully submitted.

SAMUEL HART, Registrar.

APPENDIX C.

The Episcopal Academy of Connecticut

The Committee appointed by the Convention a year ago to consider and arrange the terms of a lease of the property of the Episcopal Academy on the Cheshire School fulfilled its duties, and the lease was approved by the Trustees of the Academy, as stated in the Journal of this Convention for 1903. The new corporation began to carry out its plans, and the School opened September 30th under the new Head Master, Dr. Roland J. Mulford.

The new corporation has exceeded its promises. The School buildings have been so completely renewed and equipped that they invite comparison with the best schools in the country. The front of Horton Hall has been improved by the addition of a broad piazza. The front floor now opens into the Main Hall, a large colonial reception room, off of which are the Head Master's study, the office, a small reception room and a class room. The color scheme is red, the walls being covered with red burlaps, while the woodwork of the large open fireplace and the columns is white. All the recitation rooms are now in the main building, and have been rearranged to the best advantage. Behind the Session Room is the Common Room, where the magazines and papers are kept and two pianos; this is the boys' recreation room. Below this is the Science Laboratory.

The corridors with the boys' and masters' rooms are on the two upper floors. At the end of each is a lavatory containing ten shower-baths and marble wash-basins.

The buildings are all lighted by electricity, the same engine being used to pump the water from a new artesian well. An entirely new drainage and sewerage system has been installed, with the most modern sanitary plumbing.

The old Bowden Hall is now a large airy and thoroughly equipped gymnasium, with a locker-room containing shower-baths, wire lockers, etc., joining it with Bronson Hall. The lower floor of the latter is now a beautiful library. The Chapel above has been repainted and decorated, and the organ put in perfect condition. In short, the buildings have been gone over from top to bottom, and renovated and renewed to meet the best demands of modern education. A large four-story wing added to Horton Hall contains a trunk room, a dormitory for the engineer and janitors, the matron's apartments and school linen room, and a dormitory for the maids.

As much has been done to the grounds as to the buildings. The athletic field is now levelled off, with a cinder track around the football field and baseball diamond, and a grandstand at one corner. There is also a smaller field for the younger boys. A terrace has been made for tennis courts, and all the grounds graded and enclosed by a privet hedge. Stone walks lead from one building to another, and a broad cloister joins Bronson and Bowden Halls.

The School is one in which every Churchman may well take pride, and on which the Diocese may be greatly congratulated. It needs as much as ever the support of the Diocese and of the Clergy of Connecticut. It is very glad to welcome any and all of the Clergy and laity, and hopes most sincerely that their interest in it will keep strong, and that it can rely on them still, as it always has in the past.

The 110th Anniversary will occur June 16th, and all are most cordially invited to attend.

APPENDIX E.

Missionary Society

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS

To the Convention:

Pursuant to Article V. of the Constitution, the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society makes its annual report of Appropriations and other proceedings for the year 1903-4, as follows:

APPROPRIATIONS AND APPORTIONMENTS

The last Convention (see Journal 1903, page 68) appropriated a sum not exceeding $12,000 for carrying on the missionary work of the Diocese during the then ensuing year, in addition to the proceeds from the funds of the Society and other sources available for the purpose. It was ordered that said sum be apportioned among the several Archdeaconries on the basis of "Current Expenses (including Salaries)," as reported in the last Journal; and that said sum be appropriated among the several Archdeaconries, as the Directors of the Society might deem best.

The net proceeds from the funds held by the Society were estimated at about $1,100, thus making, with the $12,000 to be raised, the sum of $13,100 for missionary work.

For this work Appropriations were made as follows, viz.:

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|-------------|
| To Fairfield Archdeaconry, | . | . | . | . | . | $1,700.00 |
| Litchfield | " | . | . | . | . | 1,375.00 |
| New Haven | " | . | . | . | . | 1,750.00 |
| Hartford | " | . | . | . | . | 2,750.00 |
| Middlesex | " | . | . | . | . | 1,925.00 |
| New London | " | (including the income of the Tracy-Eaton Fund), | | | | 3,600.00 |
| Total Appropriations, | . | . | . | . | . | $13,100.00 |

To meet these Appropriations said sum of $12,000 was apportioned among the several Archdeaconries, as follows, viz.:

|----------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|-------------|
| To Fairfield Archdeaconry, | . | . | . | . | . | $3,348.00 |
| Litchfield | " | . | . | . | . | 1,150.00 |
| New Haven | " | . | . | . | . | 3,723.00 |
| Hartford | " | . | . | . | . | 2,123.00 |
| Middlesex | " | . | . | . | . | 719.00 |
| New London | " | . | . | . | . | 937.00 |
| Total Apportionments, | . | . | . | . | . | $12,000.00 |

Pursuant to the rule of the Board, made some years ago, only the difference between the Appropriation and Apportionment in each Archdeaconry is in fact paid to, or paid by, the Treasurer, as the case may be. The sums so paid and received were as follows:

| | | | | | |
|----------------------------------|---|---|---|---|-------------------|
| Paid to Litchfield Archdeaconry, | . | . | . | . | $ 141.67 |
| Hartford | " | . | . | . | 192.75 |
| Middlesex | " | . | . | . | 1,206.00 |
| New London | " | . | . | . | 2,663.00 |
| | | | | | $4,203.42 |

Received from Fairfield Archdeaconry:

| | | | | |
|-----------------------|---|---|---|-------------------|
| Balance 1900-1901, | . | . | . | $ 521.70 |
| On account 1901-1902, | . | . | . | 1,378.30 |
| | | | | $1,900.00 |

Received from New Haven Archdeaconry:

| | | | | |
|-----------------------|---|---|---|-----------------------------|
| Balance 1901-1902, | . | . | . | $ 409.00 |
| On account 1902-1903, | . | . | . | 1,501.00 |
| | | | | 1,910.00 |
| | | | | 3,810.00 |
| | | | | Difference, $393.42 |

This difference has been met entirely from the Society's income, outside of its Apportionments; and it has not been necessary to borrow for that purpose.

There is due from the Fairfield Archdeaconry at

| | | |
|--|---|-------------------|
| the present time, on account of 1901-1902, | . | $ 590.70 |
| For the year 1902-1903, | . | 1,703.00 |
| For the year 1903-1904, | . | 1,648.00 |
| | | $3,941.70 |

There is due from the New Haven Archdeaconry at

| | | |
|--|---|-------------------|
| the present time, on account of 1902-1903, | . | $ 476.00 |
| For the year 1903-1904, | . | 1,973.00 |
| | | 2,449.00 |
| Total, | | $6,390.70 |

The Board recommends that an effort be made during the coming year to wipe out the Society's indebtedness. Towards this end it respectfully asks that Fairfield and New Haven Archdeacons each pay to the Treasurer the sum of $1,000 on account of unpaid Apportionments, in addition to the Apportionments for the current year, with the understanding that if said sum of $1,000 is paid, the balance of the unpaid Apportionments be abated, and each Archdeaconry released from further claim thereon. The Board also urges that each of the other Archdeacons contribute towards the outstanding indebtedness the sum of $250. This will give the Society $3,000, which, with the legacies and contributions to be received during the year, will enable the Board to pay its indebtedness in full.

The amount paid Litchfield Archdeaconry was in fact $225.00; but $83.33 was returned, the same not being required for the uses of the Archdeaconry.

DONATIONS

The Board gratefully acknowledges the receipt of special offerings and contributions as follows:

St. Luke's Chapel, Middletown; Pequot Chapel, New London; Christ Church, Hartford; The Women's Church Missionary Association, of New Haven; and Miss Juliette Wheaton, of Marbledale.

LEGACIES

The legacy under the will of Edward N. Shelton, late of Derby, of $1,000, has been paid during the year, with interest thereon from 1895, at four per cent., amounting to $311.66, or a total of $1,311.66. This legacy, being unrestricted as to its use, has been applied towards the reduction of the Society's indebtedness.

Notice has also been received of a legacy of $2,000 under the will of Miss Sarah B. Harrison, deceased, sister of the late Governor Harrison, who was in his lifetime a valuable member of the Church in this Diocese.

Notice has also been received of a legacy of $300 under the will of Ann D. Smith, late of Norwalk, deceased.

Both of these legacies are without condition.

NEW MISSIONS

In August last Mr. Edwin Milner, of Plainfield, deeded to the Society a tract of land at Moosup, in that town, for the uses of the Church there. The thanks of this Society are due to Mr. Milner for his generous gift, and also to the Sunday Schools of the Diocese for their Advent offerings, given for the erection of a Chapel upon this land. These offerings amounted to $506.46, and are now on deposit in the Connecticut Savings Bank of New Haven, awaiting the erection of the Chapel.

A lot has been purchased at Ivoryton, in the town of Essex, at a cost of $400, for the purpose of erecting a Chapel thereon. This action was taken in accordance with the vote of the Directors two years ago. The people at Ivoryton have promised to erect a Chapel. The Mission is known as All Saints' Mission.

SPECIAL MATTERS

The Convention, one year ago, requested the Board of Directors to enquire into the spiritual condition obtaining in those portions of the State which were without the ministrations of religion, in order to determine the duty of this Church in regard to them; and to make such recommendations at this Convention as the conditions found might warrant.

It also empowered the Board to employ a special agent during the year, at an expense not exceeding $1,000 and charges.

Both of these matters having been duly considered by the Board, it was decided not to press the work in either direction; and the Board recommends in consequence thereof that no further action be had.

LIABILITIES

The liabilities of the Society are now $6,100. Of this sum, $4,500 is on account of improvements made many years ago at Rockville for a rectory, and at Willimantic and Bridgeport, for parish houses. The other $1,600 of the Society's liabilities is on account of running expenses. This sum is the accumulation of many years, but it is very gratifying to say that it is $2,400 less than it was one year ago. This is due largely to the payment of the Shelton legacy, above referred to, and to the large contributions and offerings to which we have also referred. But it is also due in part to the fact that both the Fairfield and New Haven Arch-deaconries have paid more fully their Apportionments this year than in any year for a number of years. The Society also by reason of this situation has been able not only not to increase its indebtedness, but to materially reduce it; and also to purchase and add to its assets the lot at Ivoryton.

REVIEW OF OUR WORK

The work of this Society is, as everyone knows, of two kinds, viz.: The sustentation of old and feeble Parishes; and the organizing and maintaining of Missions proper. Until the Diocese shall see fit to separate these two kinds of work, the situation must remain substantially as it is and has been for many years. There must be a difference in the zeal with which we approach the work in these two aspects. It is not to be expected that the work of sustaining old and feeble Parishes can inspire as much enthusiasm as that of making and sustaining new Missions. Yet no one can truthfully say that the former of these is not of very great importance. Old Parishes, where the services of the Church have been held for many years perhaps, deserve our warmest recognition. They deserve it for the duty that now exists on our part to furnish them with Church services so long as there are people to minister unto; they deserve it for the good they have done in rearing up and sending forth their young men and women into the larger centers of this and other Dioceses; they deserve it because of the evidences to be found in many sections of a returning population, to whom the Church should minister. It is not the size of a town or its location which in all cases determines what the Church shall do. There may be some doubt in some minds possibly as to whether the Church, with the urgent demands upon it, is bound to enter depopulated fields where other religious bodies may have planted themselves; but there can be no doubt as to the duty of the Church in such places where she has already been planted.

Along with this work runs that other work of the Society, more interesting perhaps, but not in all its aspects more important, the work of planting and maintaining Missions.

In 1877, when the present system of Archdeaconries was established, there were, according to the report in the Journal for that year, twenty Parishes receiving aid, and fifteen Mission Stations. Many of these so called Mission Stations were Parishes, however, which had not given up their parochial organization, but whose work was done largely by the Missionary Society. These twenty Parishes and fifteen Mission Stations, scattered then as now in all parts of the Diocese, had in charge 1,138 families, 1,351 Communicants and 2,683 baptized persons.

According to the reports of the several Archdeaconries for the year now closing, forty-seven Parishes and twenty-five Mission Stations have received aid during the year. From their reports, taken from the Journal of last year, the forty-seven Parishes contain 2,057 families, 3,276 Communicants, 5,127 baptized persons and 1,475 Sunday School scholars. The twenty-five Mission Stations minister to 803 families, and contain 1,057 Communicants, 1,174 baptized persons and 803 scholars. The size of this work is fairly shown when we say that there is but one Missionary District, foreign or domestic, which has as many Communicants as are found in our aided Parishes and Mission Stations; and there are but two that report as many Sunday School scholars. No comparison as to families and baptized persons can be given, as the data are not at hand.

It has always been true that our aided Parishes are in the main located west of the Connecticut River; and that our Mission Stations are principally located east of the Connecticut River, or else near its western bank. It has been the policy of the Board, during the last twenty years at least, to send the Church into the larger and unoccupied places, and plant her Missions here. A dozen or more such places will readily come to your mind. Bridgeport (St. Luke's), Norfolk, Terryville, Forestville, Southington, East Berlin, Westbrook, Ivoryton, Chester, Danielson, Willimantic, Putnam, Black Hall, Niantic, Noank, South Lyme and Moosup are all evidences of this. Few of these places were on our list a score of years ago. It is substantially true that in no Diocese in the land, with the exception of Washington, is the Church population so dense as it is in Connecticut. One in about every twenty-two of its people west of the Connecticut River is a Communicant; and one in about every forty-three east of the river is a Communicant.

Of course you have noticed the large increase in the number of aided Parishes since the inauguration of the Archdeaconry system. The system is not responsible for this; but the result, outside of our cities, is due to a condition which everyone knows and recognizes, namely, the emigration from the country town, where there is little to attract or hold, to the larger town or city, where there are many attractions and inducements. So long as this condition continues, so long must we maintain our work in these places, and expect an increase rather than a diminution in the number of Parishes aided.

With this situation as it is, we cannot expect to find our aided Parishes again becoming self-supporting; and our Missions as a rule are not becoming so. Yet there are instances, however, in the former case where the good which this Society has done in bridging over temporary needs, if nothing more, is clearly evident. Bristol, Pomfret, Washington, South Manchester and Thompsonville have all been upon the list within a score of years, but are now self-supporting and contributing to the support of others.

The number of families ministered to by this Society in one form or another is two and one-half times greater than it was in 1877. The number of Communicants is considerably more than three times as many; the number of baptized persons more than twice as many, as is also the number of Sunday School scholars; and yet the money which you are asked to appropriate for this work, and which you have appropriated annually for a number of years, is only fifty per cent. greater than in 1876, when the amount was $8,000; an amount which seems to have been appropriated for several successive years, from twenty-five to thirty years ago; although in 1874 the sum of $12,000 was appropriated, the same amount as now. The appeals then made for help, the lack of interest shown, the failure to pay the Missionaries, the neglect of Parishes to respond, were as great and urgent then as now; in fact, a condition less encouraging and less successful by far than what we find at present seems to have prevailed then.

The reports of the Archdeacons at this time will show that the full amount apportioned was paid in Litchfield, Hartford and New London; and that the returns from the others are more complete upon the whole than has been the case for several years.

There are one or two features of this work which have not in years gone by been sufficiently considered. There are places growing, prosperous and populous, where the Church needs just as active, able and energetic men as may be found in almost any Parish in a larger city: places where the tact, judgment, energy and the intellect of the men are taxed quite as much. It has been the policy of the Board in more recent years to recognize this situation, and, as far as possible, to supply the demand with a living salary and a living man. On the other hand, there are places where there should be a combination of effort, where two or more Parishes should be combined, not only to their advantage, but to the advantage of the Missionary in charge. Only those familiar with the difficulties connected with this situation can realize what it means for an independent Parish, feeble though it be, and receiving aid, as it is, no doubt, to give up that independence, and come under the charge of a man who can give it but a portion of his care and ministrations. Yet there are cases where such combination should be made, and where the parties themselves will soon realize that it is for their best interests.

Upon the whole, your Board feels that it may congratulate you and the Diocese upon the work as now conducted, although it is well aware of the pressing needs which now exist and which to some extent must continue to exist; and also aware of its inability to meet these needs, except as God shall give it strength.

CONCLUSION

For the names of the several Parishes and Missions contributing to the Society, with the amount of their contributions; and for the names of the Parishes and Missions receiving aid, with the amounts paid to them; as well as for a description of the condition and progress of missionary work in the Diocese, we refer you to the reports from the several Archdeaconries, herewith presented.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board,

BURTON MANSFIELD, Secretary.

APPENDIX F.

REPORTS OF THE ARCHDEACONRIES

I.

Fairfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Fairfield respectfully reports that the Archdeaconry has given aid to the same Parishes and Mission Stations as last year, with the exception of Monroe.

Christ Church, Easton, continues under the spiritual care of the Rector of Tashua. The great difficulty in this old Parish is the scarcity of material. There seems to be no prospect of growth, but rather a decadence; and yet we have no right to deprive the faithful few Church people in this rural community of the benefits of the Church, her services and her sacraments.

At St. Paul's, Huntington, we record with regret the resignation of the Rev. Haynes L. Everest, who has so faithfully and efficiently continued to minister there during the past year. He leaves the work in good condition, we are glad to say, and there is no more room for discouragement.

Trinity Church, Nichols, is also for the moment without a Rector. This Parish has had a hard struggle against adverse circumstances, for which the people were not responsible. With the advent of a new Rector the Parish will, we feel sure, be much encouraged.

The Rev. W. H. Jackson took charge of Christ Church, Redding, and Emmanuel Church, Weston, last autumn. He has been very successful, and the results are most gratifying. The work is now on a solid and substantial basis, and the outlook is bright for many years of quiet growth.

There is nothing of special moment to report from the Missions at Round Hill and Byram in the town of Greenwich. They hold their own. Their Minister is a fine example of faithfulness and self-sacrifice. He has held in the past year 126 services, celebrated the Holy Eucharist 32 times in public, and on 5 occasions in private. He has made 425 pastoral visits, and traveled 1,664 miles. Both Missions have met their obligations to the Missionary and the Archdeaconry, and have done something for outside objects. An offering for General Missions will be made by each in the month of June.

St. Luke's Mission, Bridgeport, was left without a Minister August 1st of last year, by the death of the faithful and devoted Dr. E. W. Maxcy. It remained vacant for about two months only, when the Rev.

E. L. Wells was appointed to take charge. He is the right man in the right place. For seven months he has worked with untiring zeal; and as a result things are in a most happy and encouraging condition. A long standing debt of $200 has been wiped out, as well as floating obligations amounting to $232. All current expenses have been promptly paid, and the Mission is now free from debt. The Choristers' League, composed of members of the choir, is doing an excellent work; it meets all the expenses of the music and the salary of the choirmaster. The Sunday School is large and flourishing; and there is a children's guild composed of those between the ages of ten and fifteen, which numbers over 50 children. Owing to the industrial and financial conditions which prevail in that part of Bridgeport where this Mission is placed, we do not see any immediate prospect of releasing the Archdeaconry from any portion of the Appropriation hitherto granted.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

LOUIS N. BOOTH, Archdeacon of Fairfield.

Litchfield Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Litchfield respectfully reports that seven Parishes and Missions in the Archdeaconry have been aided by the Board during the year.

In Bridgewater the conditions have greatly improved under the faithful and devoted ministrations of the Rev. Gideon D. Pond. A period of quiet and steady growth seems beginning, in spite of the fact that the town is not gaining in population.

Christ Church, Canaan, holds its own. The Rector's illness during the year has somewhat interfered with the work; but the report is on the whole satisfactory.

In Kent the annual list of removals is smaller than usual, and three families have moved in. The Rector, Rev. G. H. Smith, consequently feels somewhat encouraged in his work.

In Northfield the Rev. A. P. Chapman continues to do good work. The dissensions which have harassed the Parish for many years are now a thing of the past.

Plymouth, East Plymouth and Terryville remain under the care of the Rev. J. D. Gilliland. It is a pleasure to speak of the faithful work done in these places. Terryville, without doubt, has a future. It is growing rapidly, and already measures have been taken to secure a building lot and to erect a Chapel as soon as possible. The Church people are still few in number, but earnest and enthusiastic, and deserving of encouragement and assistance in their undertaking.

St. Paul's, Woodbury, in charge of the Rev. L. Robert Sheffield, remains as usual. There appears to be no opportunity for aggressive work; and all that can reasonably be expected is being done.

Pine Meadow and Riverton were left vacant for a time by the death of the Rev. Henry Tarrant. There is a large and thinly settled region about these places, and Mr. Tarrant was very faithful in his ministrations to the scattered population. The work has now been taken up by the Rev. George M. Stanley, and will, no doubt, be well done.

In Norfolk the services were maintained as usual last summer. The cold, wet season interfered seriously with the attendance, and consequently the expenses were not quite met by the offerings. The outlook this year is more promising.

Besides the regular work in Parish Churches and Missions, an effort has been made during the year to reach some of the outlying districts by schoolhouse services and Sunday Schools. A number of such services are held, and in two places Sunday Schools with promise of permanence are established. To aid in this work the Archdeaconry at its own expense is employing Miss Cora Roberts, Deaconess, during the summer.

Every Parish and Mission has paid its Apportionment for Diocesan Missions in full.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. PLUMB, Archdeacon.

III.

New Haven Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of New Haven respectfully reports:

Eleven Parishes have been aided during the past year.

East Haven. Christ Church was under the care of the Rev. John H. Jackson until the first of the present year, when he resigned to accept a call to St. Paul's Church, Bantam. Mr. Jackson's removal was a serious loss to East Haven. It is hoped that the new Rector of Grace Church, New Haven, will be able to take charge of Christ Church, in connection with the work at Grace Church. Members of the Berkeley Association of Yale University have been holding services from Sunday to Sunday in Christ Church since the vacancy in the rectorship; thereby the Church people of East Haven have not been deprived of a chance to worship in their own town.

North Guilford, St. John's Church, and North Branford, Zion Church, have been without a Rector for nearly a year. The Rev. Dr. MacDougall resigned these Parishes last July. It is a problem hard to solve, to know what is the best thing to do regarding these two rural Parishes. There is apparently no growth, but rather a steady decadence; yet it is hoped that when a Rector is secured some new life will be infused.

Northford. St. Andrew's Church is doing well under the rectorship of the Rev. J. D. S. Pardee. The only drawback is the lack of money for the support of the work. The Rector reports 12 persons confirmed during the year; which certainly shows that the Church is not dead in this strictly rural community.

Bethany. Christ Church is still under the rectorship of the Rev. Lewis F. Morris. The Church building has recently been renovated and improved at a cost of $1,635.00. The Rector reports that as to numbers the Parish is simply holding its own.

Oxford, St. Peter's Church, and Quaker Farms, Christ Church, have steadily improved since the Rev. Theodore M. Peck assumed the rectorship. Entire harmony prevails, and the labors of the Rector for the spiritual welfare of the Parishes is seen and felt in the community. At Quaker Farms the interior of the Church has been completely renovated. At Oxford a house and an acre of ground have been purchased for the use of the Rector, and both are being improved. When completed an ideal home for the Rector will be obtained. The money for the Rectory Fund has been raised through private subscription. The cost of the property when completed will be about $1,400. The Bishop confirmed a class of seven persons in St. Peter's Church on Ascension Day. The outlook for these two Parishes, under the present Rector's care, is most encouraging.

Hamden, Grace Church, the Rev. James E. Coley, Rector. This Parish is holding its own and is doing well under the leadership of its faithful Rector. The parishioners are making an earnest effort to pay off a debt upon the ground on which the Memorial Parish House stands.

New Haven (Westville), St. James's Church. This Parish has had a year of prosperity under the efficient care of the Rector, the Rev. J. Frederick Sexton. The services are well attended, and much interest is shown by the people. The interior of the Church has recently been redecorated; and, with other improvements made a year or more ago, the building to-day presents a most beautiful house of worship.

At a special service on Whit-Tuesday, the Bishop of the Diocese was present and gave his blessing to the building, Rector and parishioners.

New Haven, Church of the Ascension. The Rector of this Parish, the Rev. Ernest H. Mariett, reports that the work is going on as usual, and that harmony prevails. "The only discouraging point is the financial strain due to the constant removals from the Parish. The section of the city is rapidly filling up with foreigners, who are almost all Roman Catholics. The Parish debt has been reduced to less than $400."

Last summer Church services were held under the supervision of the Archdeacon, in Madison, the beginning, it is hoped, of a Mission in that town. The Rev. Peter L. Shepard had charge of the work. Services were held in the Chapel of the Congregational Church during the months of July and August, and a part of September. The average number of persons present on each Sunday was forty. The offerings at these services almost covered the expenses, as the Archdeaconry was called upon to pay but a few dollars. The only drawback to holding the services near the summer cottages is the lack of a suitable room. Mr. Shepard's ministrations were most acceptable, and it is the desire of those in charge of the Mission that he shall take the oversight again this year.

The New York City Mission Society having summer cottages for the "Fresh Air Children" at Walnut Beach, near New Haven, held public Church services last summer in the Union Chapel, at which there was an average attendance of 150 persons in addition to the 100 "Fresh Air Children." These services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Kimber, the Superintendent of the New York City Mission Society, assisted by his clerical and lay helpers. Services were also held in the hotel at Laurel Beach by Mr. Kimber and others.

New Haven, St. Luke's Church. The Rev. Eugene L. Henderson is still in charge of this Parish, the only aggressive work our Church is doing among the colored people of this Diocese. As no report has been received from the Rector, nothing definite can here be given.

The Archdeacon has visited several of the aided Parishes, the Mission at Madison and the work of the New York City Mission Society at Walnut Beach.

The Appropriations of this Archdeaconry for the past year have been used for the support of established Parishes almost entirely. In some cases there is not much encouragement for the future; and yet it is most desirable that the services of the Church should be given to the few who are still loyal to the Church in which they were born and baptized.

The Apportionments have been paid either in full or in part by every Parish with the exception of three.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEORGE HICKMAN BUCK,

Archdeacon of New Haven.

Hartford Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

With rare exceptions our Missions and Parishes have met their Apportionments, and a few have paid somewhat more than was asked of them.

Trinity Church, Hartford, spends five hundred dollars per annum on a local Mission, over and above its gifts to the Diocesan Board.

This Archdeaconry strongly encourages the building of rectories. It is the very best form of endowment. We strenuously discourage the use of its means by any assisted Parish or Mission for extravagances of Church decoration or furnishing. Luxuries in Churches as in families are allowable and lawful only where they can be afforded.

Trinity Church, Collinsville, has in hand nearly enough money to purchase a lot and to build a rectory. The Rector hopes to have the house ready for use before the end of the year.

St. James's, Farmington, has purchased land adjoining the Church property, and is accumulating a rectory fund with which to build.

Christ Church, Unionville, has bought a house, and has refitted and repaired it at a cost of fourteen hundred dollars. Some debt remains, but the Rector is attacking it with energy.

St. Paul's, Southington, has a legacy of about twenty-five hundred dollars available for rectory purposes. We are looking for the right man for that important point. The Rev. George R. Warner, after a few months of service there, was obliged by ill-health to resign, to the great regret of all concerned.

St. John's, Rockville, has reduced its debt by one hundred and ten dollars. It will also shortly receive one thousand dollars left by the late George Sykes, Esq., which legacy will wipe out the remainder of the debt and permit the Church to be consecrated. This Parish should now gradually become self-supporting.

The Church of Our Saviour, Plainville, has maintained itself the past year by renting its rectory and availing itself of the services of the Rev. Robert H. Burton, a perpetual Deacon, who resides in Hartford. Though occupied by his business all the week days, Mr. Burton has done earnest work and rendered excellent service at Plainville on Sundays.

Another perpetual Deacon has long and faithfully labored at Grace Church, Newington. The Rev. Jared Starr lives at Newington, and does full pastoral work there for very small pay.

Bloomfield, Broad Brook and East Berlin have been in charge of efficient student Lay Readers. Each of these has been under the direct supervision and has received the assistance of a Priest.

The Rev. Samuel Hart, D.D., is really an unsalaried General Missionary in this Archdeaconry. He administers the Holy Communion regularly at East Berlin and Newington, and occasionally at Plainville. He also gives generously of his time and service at the Church Home and at the Hartford Hospital.

New promise attaches to St. John's Chapel, Forestville, owing to a considerable increase of business and population in that village.

A great misfortune came upon St. James's, Glastonbury, on Sunday, February 14, 1904, in the burning of its unique and pretty stone Church. Rector and people have bravely faced the effort to rebuild. The insurance, the subscriptions of the parishioners, and the gifts of friends have already provided a considerable part of the necessary funds. They still need all their friends, however.

All of our Parishes and Missions have been open and supplied with regular ministrations during the year past with only temporary interruptions.

The present Archdeacon gratefully acknowledges the cordial coöperation of his fellow laborers and cheerfully recognizes the harmony which has characterized the entire body over which he has the honor to preside.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

HARRY I. BODLEY, Archdeacon of Hartford.

V.

Middlesex Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon of Middlesex begs leave to report:

The same aid has been continued to the same Parishes and Mission Stations which have been helped hitherto, viz., the Parishes at Clinton, Durham, Killingworth, Middlefield and Middle Haddam; and the Missions at Chester, Hadlyme, Ivoryton, Ponsett and Westbrook.

Service both morning and evening, with a Sunday School between, has been regularly held throughout the year at St. Luke's Mission, Chester, by Mr. J. W. Lord, a student at the Berkeley Divinity School. The Mission is in a healthy condition, and, in spite of some losses by removal, it has more than held its own, steadily adding to its fund for the Chapel which it so much needs. A class of seven was confirmed in February.

The Parish at Clinton has been without a Rector since the first of May, the Rev. George M. Stanley having resigned and removed to the Litchfield Archdeaconry. The Parish has a good property in Church and Rectory, entirely free from debt, and with a strong Rector, holds out the hope of becoming self-supporting.

The Rector and people of Epiphany Church, Durham, are to be congratulated on the acquisition of a neat and commodious Parish House, which will soon be completed and will greatly add to the Parish equipment.

Grace Chapel, Hadlyme, continues in charge of the Rector of St. Stephen's Church, East Haddam, who officiates on the afternoon of every Lord's Day; while Judge Willey, who is in his 86th year, regularly reads and exhorts on Sunday mornings, affording an example of zeal which is greatly appreciated by the Archdeaconry.

All Saints' Mission, Ivoryton, which for three years has been in charge of the Rector of St. John's Church, Essex, has come back again to the direct care of the Archdeaconry. A good work was done by Dr. Barnes in holding the congregation together and in interesting the young people of the place, for which the thanks of the Archdeaconry are due. Mr. Kline, a senior of the Berkeley Divinity School, whose experience as Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. especially fits him for this interesting and promising field, has taken up the work. In due time it is hoped that money will be raised to build a suitable Chapel on the fine site which has been purchased.

St. Paul's, Middlefield, has taken on new life through some valuable additions by removal. The Sunday School has grown, and a large class was recently confirmed.

There is nothing new to be noted about the work at the old Parishes in Killingworth and Middle Haddam, and the Mission at Ponsett, which is being carried on in the same quiet and faithful way as heretofore by their respective Rectors.

St. Paul's, Shailerville, which is the most recent of our Missionary ventures, is developing well, and will have to receive an Appropriation this year to secure the regular services of a student from Berkeley.

St. Paul's, Westbrook, presents one of our most difficult problems. It can be served from Middletown during the winter only at a great expense, little of which it can furnish itself; though in the summer it gets on very well with the help of the visitors. It must be united under one Rector with Holy Advent, Clinton.

The experiment of opening services at East Hampton, a busy manufacturing town of six thousand inhabitants, which was tried last year, without expense to the Archdeaconry, through the voluntary labors of the Rector of Christ Church, Middle Haddam, has more than fulfilled expectations and proved the need of a permanent Mission there. The attendance has steadily grown, even with the handicap of having to meet in a hall up two flights of stairs.

Speaking generally, the condition of the field in this Archdeaconry is healthy and hopeful, though no great growth in financial strength and numbers can reasonably be expected. Yet if the main work of Missions must be the patient pursuit of the individual, with the betterment of his conditions, there is no part of the State which calls for the care of the Church more than Eastern Connecticut.

With the most careful calculations, I don't see how we can carry on the work cut out for us this year short of $2,250.

It is gratifying to be able to report that all our Parishes and Mission Stations have paid up their Diocesan Apportionments in full, with one exception.

Respectfully submitted,

O. H. RAFTERY, Archdeacon.

New London Archdeaconry

To the Board of Directors of the Missionary Society of the Diocese of Connecticut:

The Archdeacon reports:

During the past year he has visited every Parish and Mission Station within his jurisdiction, with the exception of Hebron and Colchester; and at every place there has been a distinct gain during the year past. There is a large amount of new work lying before us, and unusual opportunities presenting themselves; but we lack the men and means necessary to do the work. We need money for five Chapels, and to pay salaries to two Priests and another Deaconess. At Turnerville there is no place of worship except the school house, where the Rev. Mr. Fitzgerald gathers the people and holds a service as often as his time permits. At Baltic, Taftville, Occum and Versailles, four villages between Willimantic and Norwich, there are nearly four hundred Church of England people (more than one hundred are Communicants), whose nearest Parish Church is St. Andrew's, Norwich. As these are mill villages, and the population frequently changing, we must recognize the conditions and minister accordingly. Miss Roberts has been working as Deaconess in this region, and deserves great praise for her efficiency. A Chapel at Baltic and another at Taftville are pressing necessities.

The little old Church building which was originally in the town of Canterbury, and for many years now has been the Church in Willimantic, is too small for its present congregation. The Church people and citizens of Willimantic will do their best toward a suitable Church building, but outside help will be needed. Deaconess Taylor has done effective work in this Mission during the past two winters; and the Archdeacon wishes to express his thanks to the Girls' Friendly Society and the faithful women who have made it possible for him to have the most valuable aid of Deaconesses in his missionary field.

The Missionary Society has received from Mr. Edwin Milner the deed of a valuable lot of land in the village of Moosup, on which we hope soon to begin to build St. Peter's Church. This is the Church toward which the Sunday School Advent offerings were donated. Unfortunately for us, last Advent was unusually stormy, and the offerings were not as large as we expected.

All of the Diocesan assessments were met in full, and about 72 per cent. of the Apportionment for Foreign and Domestic Missions was paid.

LUCIUS MARTIN HARDY, Archdeacon.

Church Scholarship Society

ANNUAL MEETING AND REPORT

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH, NEW HAVEN, June 14, 1904.

The annual meeting was held at this time and place, the Rt. Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, D.D., President, in the chair.

The Secretary presented the following

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Since the last meeting of the Church Scholarship Society the historical pamphlet, reviewing the seventy-five years of the history of the Society from 1827 to 1902 has been published and sent to all the members, that is, to all the members, clerical and lay, of the Convention of 1903. It is believed by the Board of Education that this printed history will well repay careful study on the part of all those who by the law of the State are numbered in the membership of this Society. Such increased knowledge of the methods and work of the Society will sooner or later bear more abundant fruit in awakened interest and more generous contributions.

Nine students are being helped by the Society at present, all of them in Berkeley Divinity School. Last year there were twelve. Some years there have been more than twice the present number. Four notes in full and four in part have been repaid by former beneficiaries within the past Convention year.

The income from the Parishes and Missions has been $750.80, the largest since 1897. This has come from seventy-three congregations, as against sixty-three last year. With income from these sources and that from invested funds, the Society has been able to meet its just obligations. In its wisdom the Board has seen fit to refuse some applications on the ground of insufficient standing in scholarship; but it has not been obliged to refuse any applicant on account of lack of funds at hand. But the Board of Education feels most keenly the lack of general coöperation on the part of a large majority of the congregations, especially when some of the largest and most prosperous of our Parishes are conspicuous in not being among the number of those contributing to this important work as required by Canon.

The appeal is again made to the Clergy and the Lay Delegates to see that their respective Parishes make some contribution to the Church Scholarship Society during the coming Convention year. The Board of Education further hopes that the day is not far distant when the invested funds will be so augmented by increased offerings or by generous bequests that they will yield sufficient income to make Canonical requirement of annual offerings from the Parishes no longer necessary. At present, however, the largely increased number of students at Berkeley Divinity School makes it certain that the demands upon the treasury of the Church Scholarship Society next year will be nearly doubled.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE T. LINSLEY, Secretary.

On motion, the Report was accepted, and ordered to be printed with the Journal of the Diocesan Convention.

In the absence of Mr. Ward C. Powell, Treasurer, his Report was presented by the Secretary, and was disposed of in like manner.

On motion, the following persons were then elected members of the

APPENDIX L.

Downes Fund

The late Mrs. Jennette Morehouse Downes, of Waterbury, bequeathed the sum of six thousand dollars ($6,000) to form a permanent fund, which became available January, 1902, the income to be used for the support of the Minister's salary, and for no other purpose, in the poor and feeble Protestant Episcopal Churches in the State of Connecticut. And the person who shall be the Bishop shall designate what Churches shall be aided in manner aforesaid; also designate the amount each shall receive from the income of said fund.

Mrs. Downes also gave fourteen hundred dollars ($1,400) in trust, for the benefit of St. John's Church, Washington, Conn., the income of the same to be applied on the Minister's salary and for no other purpose; and if said Church should become extinct, the said fund shall be added to the first fund, and shall be under the same management.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEE

WASHINGTON, CONN., June, 1904.

To the Rt. Rev. C. B. Brewster, D.D.:

Dear Sir: Below you will find a statement of the expenditure of the Downes Fund, for the current year to the Annual Convention, June, 1904, with an inventory of the assets.

Respectfully yours,

S. S. MOREHOUSE, Trustee.

A beautiful Tiffany window has been given to the Church and is reported as an improvement. The cost we do not know, hence it cannot be entered in the column of improvements.

As the Parishioners living near Grace Chapel are in regular attendance at the Church, the Chapel is used only for occasional services.

During the year the Church building has been thoroughly renovated and decorated at a cost of something over $5,000—all of which has been paid. The mortgage debt has been reduced $1,000. I have held some ten services in Union Chapels and school houses, in the country adjoining Danbury, with an average attendance of fifty, with a result that there have been thirteen baptisms and three confirmations in the outlying districts, while at least eight persons are awaiting confirmation. In one of the school houses we maintain a Mission Sunday School with an average attendance of about thirty children.

We have during the year paid for the rectory, but as soon as we knew this could be done our Church burned, leaving only the tower and walls. An insurance of $5,000 encouraged us to rebuild. From friends far and near, and some who once had here their Church home, we have received promises of $2,800, much of which has been paid. At least $1,200 will be needed in addition to enable us to rebuild without a debt, save that of abundant gratitude to those who have helped and will help us. We hope to reoccupy our Church early in October. I have made 450 calls, very many of them among people who are neglected by the religious bodies to which they belong by birth and education.

Nine Communicants have recently moved into the Parish; and several have become non-resident, but have not yet been formally transferred.

Our Candidate for the Ministry was ordained Deacon by the Bishop of North Dakota, June 4th, 1904.

A handsome and substantial wrought iron fence has been erected around the Church cemetery at an expense of $1,100. This amount was contributed by individuals owning burial plots, and the greater part by non-residents.

This Parish has been without Rector or services since last August. The Church, which was built in 1814, was struck by lightning some two years ago, and owing very largely to the handiwork of the late Rector was repaired, to the saving of $100 or more to the Parish.

In addition to the above report there has been given: Cash for charities outside Diocese, $468; within Diocese, $25.

The Chapel of Our Holy Saviour in this Parish is open every Sunday evening for divine service. The service is choral and is finely attended. The Chapel is nearer the business center of the place than the Church and its locality helps the services unquestionably. It is a lovely building, churchly and ornamented by fine glass, largely memorial work.

We have a Mission in that part of the town called East Norwalk. Service is here held every Sunday night in a hired room. We have bought a lot, and paid for it, for a Chapel, and have five thousand dollars subscribed for the same. There is a small body of earnest workers at the point, all very desirous for a Chapel. We have a nice little Sunday School there gathered, which meets every week. It is a promising point. The place grows, and there is a good lookout.

The Parish has just completed much needed repairs on its sheds. With regard to the rectory, reported as purchased but not entirely paid for, we are happy to report that it is now entirely paid for. The work of restoration has gone on during the year, and will soon be completed. While the whole sum required for this work has not yet been received, the generosity of former residents of the Parish has made it possible to pay for most of the work, and we expect to settle the account soon. The treasurer reports that from May 31st, 1903, to May 31st, 1904, there has been received in cash $526.90, in mortgage deed $200.00, expended on repairs $522.74, amount of deed and cash on hand $204.16. In addition, much has been contributed in the form of work. During Advent, the Woman's Auxiliary sent a box valued at $15.50; during Lent, a box valued at $17.85. On the whole, the Parish seems to be renewing its strength.

Service has been conducted every Lord's Day by Mr. Gooden, a student from the Berkeley Divinity School, at St. John Baptist Chapel, whose name is included above. The Rector preaches and celebrates every month.

The Parish gratefully acknowledges the gift of $600 to be added to its permanent endowment fund,—$400 from Mr. David A. Hall of Portland, and from Mrs. W. B. Kimball, Mrs. Frank Brainerd and Mrs. Chas. E. Taf for the care of burial plots. The Church has been furnished with a Brussels carpet at a cost of $760, which is not reported above, by the Ladies Society of the Parish. The corner-stone of a beautiful and commodious Parish House has been laid, which will be completed and reported next year.

The Parish is doing a small work in a small and widely scattered community; consequently the statistics vary but little from year to year. During the past year the interior of the Church has been cleaned and decorated, and a handsome new carpet laid throughout, thus completing the work of putting the entire Church property in perfect order.

Since the last report a beautiful Club House, of stone, and adjoining the Parish House, has been built for the use of the men and boys, costing with furniture about $13,000. The remainder of the gifts ($5,000) is to be used for an endowment fund. The Edward Ferguson Memorial Building Fund, given by Mr. Walton Ferguson, became available during the past year. Both funds are now reported under the head of Endowments. A window has been placed in the clerestory in memory of Mrs. Anna Griswold Smith.

No Confirmations are reported, for the reason that there has been no visitation. But it is right to say that the Minister has prepared and presented for Confirmation three persons at the Westminster School. By the aid of friends we have been able to make the necessary repairs and improvements reported. Members of the Mitchelson family have placed a handsome stained glass window in the Church in memory of their father and mother, who were long prominent in the Parish. In addition I have to report that the interior of the Church has been renovated and beautified at private expense; the cost of which cannot be stated. No bills have been rendered; and besides, it was a matter with which the Parish had nothing to do, except to give its consent through its Minister and Wardens; and to gratefully accept when finished.

The Rector respectfully reports that during the year he has administered the Holy Communion on the second Sunday in each month at St. Andrew's Church, Bloomfield, and conducts services on the third Sunday in each month at the Church Home, Hartford. He has also administered the Holy Communion at several outlying Missions. The several gifts reported last year as improvements and additions have since been carried to completion.

At Easter the Church was the recipient of several needed gifts, and others are promised and about to be obtained. A splendidly organized kindergarten, under experienced teachers, has at present a membership of 35 little children.

The repairs and improvements during the year included the repairing and painting of the Church building and the renovating and redecorating of the interior.

Besides this the Woman's Guild has recarpeted the Church at a cost of $175.00, which is not included in the report.

An earnest effort is being made to retain the services of the Rev. Mr. Reynolds, who has been Lay Reader in the Church from January 1, 1902, to June 8, 1904, and who is still conducting the services.

The Holy Communion is regularly administered by the Rector, the Rev. Mr. Wildman of Wallingford. During the year the Parish sustained a great loss in the death of Bennett Jeralds, for many faithful years Senior Warden of the Parish. After one year of suffering he passed away on the first day of February, 1904, in his 86th year.

During the past year the Parish has put some hand-carved oak pews in the Church, and they harmonize perfectly with the interior furnishings of the building. At Easter the pews were newly cushioned, a gift from a member of the Parish. The pews and cushions represent an outlay of $2,050.00. An effort is now being made to purchase an organ that will in every way correspond to the general style and tone of furnishings already in the Church. An Altar Guild has been started and the work on new hangings has been begun under the leadership of an expert in ecclesiastical embroidery. The Guild will receive orders for all kinds of vestments and hangings. Address all orders to Mrs. Harriet W. Houghton, Yantic.

APPENDIX R.

Reports of Clergymen not in charge of Parishes

TO THE RIGHT REVEREND CHAUNCEY B. BREWSTER, D.D.:

REV. EDMUND A. ANGELL

Respectfully reports: That from June 1 to December 1 he was in St. John's Parish, Stamford, Conn., ministering in the Parish Church, St. Luke's Chapel and Emmanuel Chapel. From Septuagesima to the Sunday after Ascension he took the services in St. Mary's Church, Jersey City, Diocese of Newark; gave a Sunday each to St. John's Church, Dover, Diocese of Newark, Christ Church, Newton, Diocese of Newark, and the Church of the Testimony of Jesus, St. Johnland, Diocese of Long Island. Also performed a marriage ceremony and assisted at a burial service in St. Mary's Parish, Brooklyn, Diocese of Long Island. The following are his official acts: Services, 228; sermons, 113. The above services include celebrations, 49; Baptisms, 11; marriages, 3; and burials, 13. Pastoral visits in St. John's Parish, Stamford, 200.

REV. ISBON T. BECKWITH, D.D., Ph.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been constantly engaged in his duties as Professor in the General Theological Seminary, and has performed other clerical services as opportunity has been afforded.

REV. JOEL FOOTE BINGHAM, D.D., L.H.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the last canonical year he has conducted no services of the Church. During the first half of the year he was absent from the country; and since his return, at the time invited he did not feel equal to the service required.

REV. GEORGE BUCK

Respectfully reports: That during the conventional year he has celebrated the Holy Communion sixteen times, assisted five times, conducted Morning or Evening Prayer twenty-four times, preached twenty-seven times, baptized three infants and two adults, and attended one funeral.

REV. GEORGE H. CLARK, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been unable to officiate in the Church services.

REV. SYLVESTER CLARKE, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has fulfilled his duties in the Berkeley Divinity School so far as he has been able; but, besides that, has, on account of ill-health, done but very little.

REV. JOHN COLEMAN

Respectfully reports: That, since he reported his temporary duties at St. John's Chapel, Trinity Parish, New York, where he officiated four months, he has repeatedly ministered in various offices of the Church. In addition to other occasions, he has officiated, wholly, or in part, in a number of services at the Church of the Ascension, Pittsburg, Pa., and at Racine College, Racine, Wis.

REV. JOHN ADDISON CROCKETT, B.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has attended to his duties at Ingleside School, New Milford, and has rendered what help he could to his brethren in various parts of the Diocese.

REV. A. T. DELEARSY, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That on July 1st, 1903, he became Senior Curate of St. Stephen's Parish, North Bow, London, E., which he resigned on Dec. 31st in order to accept the curacy of St. James's Parish, Bradford, in the Province and County of York, on the duties of which he entered Jan. 1st, 1904, and where he has been at work since then.

REV. FRANK BARNARD DRAPER

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in his duties as Headmaster of the Weantinaug School, New Milford. He has baptized one infant, and assisted regularly in the services of All Saints' Memorial Church.

REV. SILAS BRAINARD DUFFIELD

Respectfully reports: That he is Priest in charge of St. Thomas's Church, Somerville, Massachusetts.

REV. CLAYTON EDDY

Respectfully reports: That he has discharged the duties of Chaplain Priest for the Sisters of St. Mary at St. Mary's School, and as Assistant to the Rector of All Saints' Church, New York.

REV. HENRY FERGUSON, LL.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in his work as Professor of History and Political Science in Trinity College, Hartford. He has assisted in the services at the College Chapel, preached from time to time, and administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. He has also officiated once in the Diocese of Long Island, where he preached and administered the Lord's Supper; and once in the Diocese of New Hampshire. He has baptized one infant, reported elsewhere.

REV. FRANCIS GOODWIN, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has officiated during the past year as he has had opportunity.

REV. GEORGE CHAPMAN GRISWOLD, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has done such ministerial and priestly work during the conventional year as occasion has required and opportunity presented.

REV. HENRY S. HABERSHAM

Respectfully reports: That he has held one service in the year ending June, 1904, lack of opportunity preventing further work.

REV. ALEXANDER HAMILTON

Respectfully reports: That during the past conventional year he has continued as locum tenens, supply or assistant, in this Diocese and that of New York, officiating, in whole or part, at 253 services. Baptisms, marriages and funerals are recorded in the respective Parish registers where the rites were performed. Acknowledgment is again made of the courtesy of the three Norwalk Parishes.

REV. SAMUEL HART, D.D., D.C.L.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in the duties assigned him at the Berkeley Divinity School. He has officiated constantly in the Chapel of St. Luke; also, once a month in Grace Church, Newington, once a month in St. Gabriel's Church, East Berlin, on the afternoons of twenty-seven Sundays in the Hartford Hospital, and elsewhere as he has been able. He has solemnized two marriages and officiated at ten burials; these acts should be included in parochial reports.

REV. FRANCIS D. HOSKINS

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in his duties as Corresponding Secretary of the Society for the Increase of the Ministry. He has also celebrated the Holy Communion fourteen times, and performed other clerical services.

REV. RALPH T. JEFFERSON

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has officiated in this Diocese and in the Diocese of New York. His charge of a Parish in the latter Diocese was relinquished at the end of July, 1903.

Since that time, and at the present, he continues to act as supply wherever his services are called for. He has administered Baptism to one person, and has celebrated the Holy Communion several times during the year. His address remains Darien, Conn.; and he will be happy to respond to any calls for his services.

REV. EDWARD H. JEWETT, D.D., LL.D.

Respectfully reports: That he is unable to take any regular duties; but he has officiated at one wedding during the past year, and also been the celebrant at the Holy Communion three times at the Cathedral of the Incarnation, Garden City, Long Island.

REV. W. ALLEN JOHNSON

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has done such occasional service, in Colorado, as he could. He has celebrated the Holy Communion three times.

REV. CHARLES JUDD

Respectfully reports: That he has done the duties of Mayo Fellow in the General Theological Seminary, and has officiated in various Churches and Missions until March twelfth, when, owing to ill-health, he received a dispensation from the work of the Ministry for a time.

REV. CHARLES WALLACE KELLEY

Respectfully reports: That he has been unable to hold service on account of his health.

REV. WILLIAM LUSK

Respectfully reports: That during the summer he officiated at All Saints' Memorial Church, Meriden, but only one Sunday in the winter; in the spring a few Sundays; also in the fall and spring doing some school work as special agent of the State Board of Education. Residence, North Haven.

REV. FLAVEL S. LUTHER, Ph.D., LL.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as Professor of Mathematics and as Acting President at Trinity College. He has officiated and preached in the College Chapel.

REV. ELMER TRUESDELL MERRILL

Respectfully reports: That from June 1 to Sept. 30, 1903, he served as Chaplain of Christ Church, Lucerne, Switzerland, the Rector of Holy Trinity Church, Middletown, however, kindly officiating for him during the month of September. Since his return to this country he has been occupied in his duties as Robert Rich Professor of the Latin Language and Literature in Wesleyan University. He has, however, by the courtesy of his brethren, officiated in divine service every Sunday, and on a considerable number of other feast days, mainly in Holy Trinity Church, Middletown, and in Trinity Church, Portland, but occasionally in other Parishes. In the course of these ministrations he has celebrated the Holy Communion about thirty-five times, has assisted in the administration about fifteen times, and has delivered about twenty sermons and addresses. He has also officiated at two burials, which acts are reported elsewhere.

REV. A. DOUGLAS MILLER

Respectfully reports: That he has been engaged in missionary work in the Diocese of Florida for a good part of the past year, and has also officiated in the Dioceses of Connecticut, Newark and New York, as occasion offered.

REV. NATHAN T. PRATT, M.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has held 31 services; assisted at one other; preached 26 times; and officiated at two Baptisms (not elsewhere reported), and three funerals (not elsewhere reported).

REV. THOMAS R. PYNCHON, D.D., LL.D.

Respectfully reports: That being now Professor Emeritus in Trinity College, he has had no opportunity to discharge any clerical duties there; and has not been called upon for the discharge of any such duties elsewhere.

REV. W. STURTEVANT RAFTER

Respectfully reports: That he has resigned from the Missions of Mechanicville, N. Y., and has since February been engaged in supply work. He has officiated nearly every Sunday in New York, Long Island or New Jersey, holding two or three services and assisting at Sunday School each Sunday.

REV. P. M. RHINELANDER

Respectfully reports: That since October, 1903, he has taken part constantly in the daily Chapel services of the Berkeley Divinity School; has celebrated the Holy Communion and preached at the Chapel in Groton, Conn.; and has preached in the Church at East Berlin, Conn.

Medical restrictions have kept him from more ministrations in the Diocese.

REV. EDMUND ROWLAND, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has officiated and preached at the Churches at Norfolk, Naugatuck, and St. John's, Waterbury, several times during the past year.

REV. GEORGE RUMNEY

Respectfully reports: That on account of continued infirmity he has not been able to perform any clerical duty.

REV. FRANCIS T. RUSSELL, D.D.

Respectfully reports: That having resigned his instructorship in the General Theological Seminary and changed his residence (not canonical), to Grand Rapids, Michigan, he still retains the title of Rector of St. Margaret's School for Girls in Waterbury and has appointed duties there. He is engaged in regular and occasional priestly offices, which are duly recorded in Parish registers. It is also worthy of record that the graduating class at St. Margaret's School this year numbered thirty members.

REV. CHARLES N. SHEPARD, B.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been chiefly engaged in the discharge of his duties as Adjunct Professor of Biblical Learning in the General Theological Seminary. He has assisted in the services at the Church of the Incarnation, New York, and elsewhere. He has delivered a number of sermons and addresses and celebrated the Holy Communion about thirty times. He has also solemnized one marriage and officiated at two funerals, which should be recorded elsewhere.

REV. P. L. SHEPARD

Respectfully reports: That he accepted charge of the summer services for 1903 at Madison, and officiated there through the season. He also has officiated, within the conventional year, in several Parishes in this and an adjoining Diocese, where his services were solicited.

REV. HENRY M. SHERMAN

Respectfully reports: That on account of continued ill-health he has been unable to undertake any clerical duty.

REV. GEO. WILLIAMSON SMITH, D.D., LL.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has been absent from the country during the past year, but has preached several times in American Chapels in Europe while there.

REV. HIRAM STONE

Respectfully reports: That last November, after continuous labor in the Ministry for fifty years, he resigned his charge because of increasing age and infirmity. Since resigning he has on several occasions assisted at burials, at Holy Communion and other Church services.

REV. W. G. SUMNER, LL.D.

Respectfully reports: That he has been occupied during the past year by his duties as Professor in Yale University, and has not done any clerical work.

REV. ALFRED TAYLOR

Respectfully reports: That during the past eight months he has taken occasional services in the Diocese of Albany, at Glens Falls, Sandy Hill and Chestertown, and also assisted at other services.

REV. JOHN TOWNSEND

Respectfully reports: That in the early part of the conventional year he assisted some of the Clergy in their services. In the latter part he has been disabled by sickness from doing any clerical work.

REV. JOSEPHUS TRAGITT, B.D.

Respectfully reports: That during the convention year he has conducted morning service in Trinity Church, Seymour, five times, preached five times, and assisted at morning service and Communion once.

REV. XIMENUS ALANSON WELTON

Respectfully reports: That until May 19th he resided at Moreno Heights, two and one-half miles from Moreno P. O., and ten miles from Redlands, holding Sunday morning services in the St. Andrew's Mission Rooms at Moreno as often as two or three worshippers could be gathered, and illness or infirmities of age did not hinder. He held public services about twenty-six mornings and one evening. On several occasions he has been edified and strengthened through the reading of Morning Prayer and Litany alone—with the Lord.

His address has been changed from Moreno to 448 Alta Street, Redlands, Cal.

Educational and Charitable Institutions

MAINTAINED OR CONDUCTED BY CHURCHMEN, AND LOCATED IN CONNECTICUT, BUT NOT UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE DIOCESE

In 1901 the Journal contained information from various institutions of this class, and a new one was described in 1902. It seems unnecessary to reprint this every year; so the inquirer is referred to the Journal of 1901, pages 282-287, and the Journal of 1902, page 290, for a brief statement of the history, object, endowment, management and terms of admission of each of the following institutions:

TRINITY COLLEGE, HARTFORD; Vernon and Summit Streets.
THE POMFRET SCHOOL FOR BOYS; POMFRET.
THE WIDOWS' HOME, HARTFORD; 133 Market Street and 13 South Hudson Street.
THE CHURCH HOME, HARTFORD; 123 Retreat Avenue.
THE OPEN HEARTH, HARTFORD; 73 Grove Street.
THE CURTIS HOME, MERIDEN, (for women and children); South Crown Street.
ST. LUKE'S HOME FOR DESTITUTE AND AGED WOMEN, MIDDLETOWN; 157 Pearl Street.
THE TRINITY CHURCH HOME, NEW HAVEN; 301 George Street.
ST. PAUL'S CHURCH HOME FOR AGED WOMEN, NEW HAVEN; 600 Chapel Street.
ST. JOHN'S CHURCH HOUSE, STAMFORD; Pacific Street and Woodland Place.

To these should be added:

THE SALISBURY SCHOOL, INCORPORATED, (for boys); SALISBURY.

The Bishop of Connecticut is Episcopal Visitor; there are nine Directors, including Bishop Potter, Bishop Worthington and the Rev. Dr. C. C. Tiffany; and the Head Master is the Rev. George Emerson Quaile, M.A.

APPENDIX U

Connecticut's Representatives in the General Convention
1785 to 1904

The Journals of the General Convention from the first show that the Diocese of Connecticut has been represented at the successive sessions by the Bishops, Clergymen and Laymen named in the following list. The Journals of the Diocese sometimes mention others as elected Deputies; but unless they presented their credentials at the meetings of the General Convention, their names are usually omitted here.

1785 Sept. 27 to Oct. 7, inclusive; Christ Church, Philadelphia.

Connecticut was not represented.

1786 June 20 to 26; Christ Church, Philadelphia.

Connecticut was not represented.

Adjourned Convention

Oct. 10 and 11; Academy Hall and Swedes' Church, Wilmington, Delaware.

Connecticut was not represented.

1789 July 28 to August 8; Christ Church, Philadelphia.

Connecticut was not represented.

Adjourned Convention

Sept. 29 to Oct. 16; Christ Church, Philadelphia.

Connecticut was represented for the first time by the RT. REV. SAMUEL SEABURY, D.D., who presided in the House of Bishops; and by the following Deputies:

Rev. ABRAHAM JARVIS, A.M.

Rev. BELA HUBBARD, A.M.

They were elected as "Clerical Proctors" at a Special Convocation of the Clergy held at Stratfield (now Bridgeport), Sept. 15, 1789.

1792 Sept. 11 to 19; Trinity Church, New York.

BISHOP SEABURY was present, but BISHOP PROVOOST, of New York, presided.

At the Diocesan Convention of Connecticut the Clergy elected as Deputies the Rev. Messrs. Ebenezer Dibble, Richard Mansfield, D.D., John Bowden and Abraham Jarvis, D.D. The Laity elected Messrs.

Thomas Belden, Philip Nichols, Ebenezer Baldwin and Samuel Marsh. The Rev. Mr. Bowden and Mr. Marsh having been chosen to represent Rhode Island also, they were counted as Deputies from that Diocese only. The Journal of the General Convention records the presence of the following as Deputies from Connecticut

Rev. ABRAHAM JARVIS, D.D.

Mr. PHILIP NICHOLS
THOMAS BELDEN

1795 Sept. 8 to 18; Christ Church and the City Hall, Philadelphia.

Connecticut was not represented in either House, because of interrupted intercourse between New York and Philadelphia. Bishop Seabury was living, and the Diocesan Convention had elected as Deputies, both Orders voting together, the Rev. Messrs. Baldwin, Perry and Shelton, and Messrs. S. W. Johnson, Wm. Judd and Joseph Bradley.
